Missoula.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Missoula, July 12.—As Missoula was disappointed of her Independence day holiday "doings" some activity has lasted out the week and made of it a round of pleasure, as follows:

The Misses Sloane opened the festivities by inviting a small party of friends to their pleasant home Monday evening to play ping-pong and cards.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cronkrite, Miss Caroline Cronkrite, Miss Edythe Bickford, of Butte; Will Murphy, Roy Owen, George Cronkrite, of Memphis, Tenn. A Dutch lunch was served and greatly enjoyed.

The Outing club met informally with Miss Elsie Reinhard, at her home on West Pine street, Wednesday night and enjoyed the beautiful foliage surroundings to the utmost.

Miss Sloane and Miss Gertrude Sloane gave a pretty luncheon of several courses Wednesday for Miss Sadie Catlin, who will soon be transformed into Mrs. Sumner. The house was profusely decorated in orange blossoms, which so resemble orange blossoms, and white tulle. Over the table was suspended a wedding bell of the fragrant flowers. The place cards were tinted in water colors and had dear little Cupids upon them. The guests were: Misses Knowles, Bonner, Robinson, Woody, members of the Bionda club, of which Miss Catlin has been a member; Mrs. Frank Keith, Miss Ray Rockman and Miss Alice Reeves.

Wednesday, Needlecraft held its final meeting for the summer with Mrs. John L. McBride, on East Front street. It was with outspoken regret that the members succumbed to the inactivity in this direction which summer brings and hope that September will bring about a complete renewal.

Miss Gertrude Kohn entertained Thursday for her cousin, Miss Hazel Solomon, of Spokane. The house was beautifully decorated with green trimmings of vines and foliage. The favors and, as far as possible, the refreshments, carried out the color scheme, while a guessing game, with each answer either commencing or ending with the word green, was a source of much amusement. About twenty-five young ladies were present.

Mrs. O. E. Feppard entertained Friday at her pleasant home in South Missoula for her friend, Mrs. Layton, of Butte. Cards was the amusement, though where twenty-five ladies, all well acquainted, gather, they are sure to find their own entertainment if none be provided. Elaborate refreshments closed a most pleasant afternoon.

The wedding of Mr. Charles Sumner of Butte, and Miss Sarah Catlin of Missoula, will occur at the Episcopal church July 16. The couple will reside in Butte.

DeVern G. Wilkinson of Iron Mountain and Miss Lulu E. Garvin of Missoula, were married Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Holt, East Main street. Rev. H. E. Russell of the Christian church officiated. The kindly sentiments of many friends accompany the young people to their home in Iron Mountain.

Catholic hall held a delighted audience Wednesday, the occasion of a musicale given under the auspices of the school of music of the Sacred Heart academy.

To the excellent program was added a cornet solo of merit by Frank Davis. Following the musical feast came refreshments which also were heartily appreciated.

The state commander, Ladies of the Maccabees, Mrs. Dolson, with headquarters in Butte, visited the city this week and held a special review with the hive of the order here. The members will go to the home of Mrs. Mary M. Hassett in West Missoula after their review Wednesday for a social hour and to meet Mrs. O'Leary, a member of the order from Illinois, who is a guest of Mrs. Hassett. Mrs. Dolson visited the order in Hamilton Thursday and Friday.

Thursday afternoon the Ladies' society of the Presbyterian church were entertained at the church parlors by Mrs. Gus Marotz, Mrs. P. J. Kline and Miss Case. A delightful time was had by a good attendance. The president of this society, Mrs. Frank L. Darbee, has held her office for ten consecutive years.

A fishing party went Wednesday to the Blackfoot valley near Bonner. The party were: Misses Edythe Bickford of Butte, Edna Greenough and Emily Marshall; Messrs. Will Murphy, Thomas Stevenson and Harold Blake.

Roy Blum Owen has moved his studio to the Public Library building, Higgins avenue. Mr. Owen will give a recital near the last of the month.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Riley, Miss Gertrude Kohn and her guest, Miss Hazel Solomon, of Spokane, and George Steinbrenner all spent the Fourth in Helena, returning Monday.

C. E. Taylor, a student of the Garden City Commercial college, and Miss Edna Taylor of the Sacred Heart academy have gone to their home in Saco, Montana.

The Northern Pacific clock room is enriched by the present of a handsome clock given by the employees of the machinery department.

Mrs. W. W. McCrackin, of Hamilton, visited the city recently.

W. C. Morgan of the Missoula Mercantile company's store will go to the Pacific coast to reside.

Captain W. F. Mannix, formerly of the Golden Rule store, has severed his connection with the establishment.

The dreadful fatality which occurred in Missoula Wednesday night, resulting in the death of Mr. George Rowan, well-known in Montana, has cast a gloom over all those who knew him, and they were many.

Miss Alice Kellum, who has been traveling in Arizona and Mexico the past two months, returned Monday night. Accompanying her was her sister, Rose, who has been a pupil at a school in Vancouver.

News from Lieutenant Governor Higgins and County Attorney Hall chronicles their improvement in health. They are staying near Tacoma.

Mrs. Josephine Herrman and family will soon leave for Iowa to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Abbott, of Muskegon, Michigan, left Wednesday for their home, having been the guests of their son six weeks.

It is said that Director George Stezel of the Girls' band will arrange to give open air concerts this summer. The first concert took place last evening in the court house square.

Mrs. Davis and family of Spokane are guests of Mrs. Davis' sister, Mrs. Weitzman.

Mr. Forbis, a member of the Gun club, who attended the shoot in Portland, Oregon, went to the celebration of Dominion day in Vancouver, B. C., and has many souvenirs of several occasions of the celebration on the coast.

Mrs. M. B. McBride and children of this city left Wednesday for a visit to relatives in Ellensburg, Washington.

The news of the violent death of E. L. Bonner, the result of an accident with an automobile, shocked the city, and much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family who also suffered the loss of a son and brother not long ago.

Bozeman.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Bozeman, July 12.—The chief social event of the week was the whist party given by Mr. and Mrs. Burr Fisher at their home on Grand avenue Wednesday evening. The event was attended by about sixty ladies and gentlemen. As the day was near the national holiday the house was decorated in red, white and blue. Bunting was festooned from the corners to the center of the rooms, the banisters were twined with red, white and blue flags were everywhere, together with beautiful carnations, pansies and roses. Partners and tables were found by little flags on which were printed the numbers. After several hours spent at whist Mr. George Dier held the highest score among the gentlemen and was awarded a pretty plaque in burnt wood work. Mrs. Charles Ruffner secured the lady's prize, a handsome china jewel case. An elaborate and delicious luncheon was served at the close of the evening at little tables which were decorated with the national colors, the knives, forks and spoons being tied with red, white and blue ribbon.

Thompson's orchestra gave a dance at the Maxey hall Monday evening which was well attended and much enjoyed by the young people.

A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cooper on the Fourth and had an informal good time. It was too cold to enjoy the beautiful lawn and have their luncheon out of doors so they took their picnic baskets inside and had a social time.

There is talk of a farmers' picnic at Greenwood park on the West Gallatin river sometime during August. The spot would be a fine place for a picnic as it affords plenty of nice shade and good fishing near at hand.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Featherston arrived in the city Monday evening on a visit to Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Featherston. Dr. and Mrs. Featherston are on their way to their home in Valley City, S. D., from California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Bull, and daughter Miss May Bull, returned this week from Potosi Springs.

Mrs. H. B. Rice left Monday for a visit with friends in Silesia.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO. I wandered to the grogshop, Tom; I stood beside the bar And drank a bowl of lemonade and smoked a bad cigar;

The same old legs and jugs were there, the ones we used to know, When we were on the roundup, 'om, some 15 years ago.

The barkeep is a new one, Tom, the one who used to sell Corrosive tanglefoot to us, is roasting now in—well;

The other has a plate-glass front, his hair is combed quite low, And looks just like the one we knew some 15 years ago.

Old Soak came up and called for booze, he had the same old grin, While others burned the lining from their throat with Holland gin,

And women stood beside the door, some faces seamed with woe, And wept just as they used to weep some 15 years ago.

I asked about our old-time friends, those cherished sporty men, And some were in the poorhouse, Tom, and some were in the pen;

And one, the one we liked the best, the hangman laid him low; The world is much the same, dear Tom, as 15 years ago.

I asked about that stately chap, that pride marked for his own, He used to say that he could drink, or let the stuff alone;

He perished of the James H. Jams, out in the cold and snow— Ah, few survive who used to booze some 15 years ago.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH HAS POPULAR PASTOR

Rev. J. E. Noffsinger, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, is a native of Virginia. He was born at Salem March 29, 1857, and reared on a farm just outside of the city. He graduated from the Fincastle high school in 1887 and entered Richmond college at Richmond, Va., in September, graduating June, 1891. He entered Chicago University in October, 1891, and graduated in March, 1894. On January 1, 1894, he accepted the call from the First Baptist church of Milledgeville, Illinois.

The membership was much strengthened here by his efforts and a beautiful house of worship erected. Mr. Noffsinger resigned his parterate in Milledgeville in September, 1896, accepting a unanimous call of the First Baptist church of this city.

"I was impressed with the great opportunity for work," said the popular pastor in an interview yesterday. "The membership of the church was only 112 at our coming. We have received more than 400 members into the church. The attendance of the Sunday school has multiplied five times. The church is now one of the largest Protestant churches in this state.

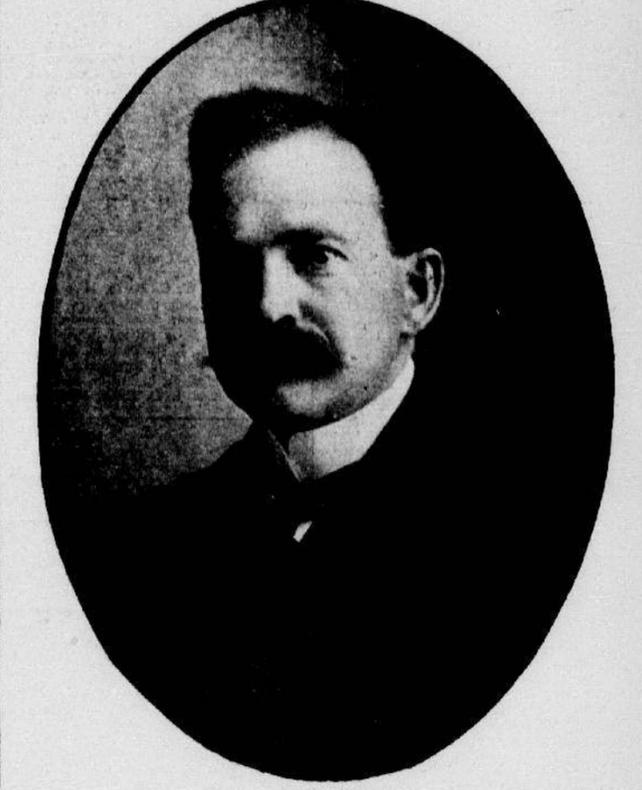

"The idea of the pastor is one of evangelism. He constantly looks for conversion of souls. Hence the great growth of the church.

"It has been our aim to make our church a warm home for everybody.

"With the evangelical life of the church has gone a wide missionary influence. The great problem now confronting the congregation is that of a new church edifice. Twice during the present pastorate has the present building been enlarged. And now the building is very much too small.

"Committees are at work on plans for a new modern church building which will be built next year and will cost about $25,000. It will in every way be an ornament, a thing of beauty and a joy forever to the people of Butte."

Mr. Noffsinger was married September 4, 1894, to Miss Mate E. Teeple of Darien,
