

DID YOU WANT TO SEE THAT FIGHT?

WELL, THE NEXT BEST THING, IF YOU CANNOT GO, IS TO COME UP TO GRANITE STREET.

CAMP OUT OPPOSITE THE INTER MOUNTAIN

A Big Screen Will Give the News of the Big Go Hot From the Wire and the Next Best Thing to Witnessing the Contest Will Be to Hear How It is Round by Round—All is Ready.

If you haven't got a telescope that will permit an unobstructed view of the great battle in progress this evening on Fourteenth street, San Francisco, do the next best thing—come up to Granite street and look at the enormous picture that the Inter Mountain will have to show the fight by rounds.

Not in the West is there another such stereoscopic apparatus for giving graphic accounts of important news as that in the Inter Mountain office. Within one minute of the time of the uppercut landed or dodged by Fitzsimmons or the boiler-maker you will know about it, if you get a comfortable vantage point on the south side of Granite this evening during the progress of the fight.

Lively Interest Generally Taken. There is no use in denying that the public of Butte takes a lively interest in boxing and in the big fights at home and abroad. Men who have been decried gambling and pool selling were seen at the ringside during the recent encounters which were pulled off in the city and the same men are now choosing their favorites in the 'Frisco fight with all the enthusiasm they would evince for warm personal friends.

Nothing but Jeffries and Fitzsimmons could be heard in the hotel lobbies and restaurants around town today. It would be hard to describe the sentiment. Perhaps it would be safe to say that Butte people would like to see Fitz win, but are anxious to put their money up on Jeffries.

"I don't know either of them," said one man, "but somehow I feel disposed to pull for Fitz, because he has 60 pounds handicap in brawn and muscle to go up against."

In general the under dog sympathy seems to go out pretty strongly to the Australian. "He is a much older man than the boiler-maker and has put up many a good game fight," said another, "so I want to see him win. Yet if I had any money on him, I'd call it velvet if I won."

Hot From the Wire. All preparations for giving the public of Butte the news hot from the wires have already been made. Down across the front of the Barnard building opposite the Inter Mountain office an immense sheet will be spread. An operator sitting at an instrument specially placed for the returns from the fight, will dictate to the operator of the stereopticon, who will inscribe on the plates for the machine the words of the message.

Other establishments will get news of the fight, but in no case can the returns be given so quickly and fully as on the Inter Mountain's special bulletin. Don't forget to take a cushion reserved for this evening. The first news of the great mill will come soon after 9 o'clock.

"JEW JESS" AND LIZZIE HALL PLEAD INNOCENCE. Trial is set for July 30—Something of Crime—Decoyed Admirer to Room and Attempted Robbery.

Jessie Lester and Lizzie Hall, the former white and the latter black, pleaded not guilty to a charge of grand larceny in Department No. 111 of the district court yesterday and will be tried July 30. Miss Lester, who is also known as "Jew Jess," will be disposed of first.

Before taking up quarters in the county jail the two lived in the proscribed district. One day a man with more than $900 in his inside pocket paid them a visit and they fobbed him while he was looking at them. By firing a shot in their presence he got the money back and then had them arrested for robbery, but it was thought the robbery charge would not stick and one of grand larceny was substituted.

We Sell Brooms

Not cheap, good-for-nothing ones. But of the first-class variety. The kind that sweep clean when old. The kind that are light to handle but hard on dirt. The kind that stand up to the work. Get the dirt out of the corners. If they don't, report 'em to us. We'll replace by one that will. There's our Little Midget. Made of selected broom corn, a regular "dirt huster!" costs..... 40c

And tomorrow, with every one of them sold we're going to give one of these handy little handy broom-holders. See them at store. The "Leader," No. 1, is a faithful "hard-worker" broom. Costs..... 25c And so on up the list. We handle brushes, too. Montana Cash Grocery Co. Where Particular People Trade. Cor. W. Park & Montana Sts. Phone 47

BURGLARS LIKE UNTO BUSY BEES

TAKE TOWLE'S TROUSERS AND MRS. T'S TIMEPIECE

Pants Will Probably Be Deposited in Some Convenient Ash Barrel, but Ticker Is Gone for Good—Glorious Opportunity to Visit Jewelry Store Overlooked by They of the Light Tread

Burglars and highwaymen got in their work in Butte again at an early hour this morning. Some time after 12 o'clock the house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Towle at No. 109 South Excelsior avenue was entered by a burglar, who got away with Mrs. Towle's gold watch and chain and Mr. Towle's trousers, in one of the pockets of which was $12 in cash and a bunch of keys. The watch had been left on the bureau. Its intrinsic value was about $50, but it was a wedding present to Mrs. Towle and was therefore prized more highly by her. Nothing else in the house was disturbed.

The trousers were taken from the house and it is quite likely they will be found in some out-of-the-way place, for burglars, as a rule, usually dispose of garments the quickest way after transferring the contents of the pockets to their own rapacious maws.

Missed a Glorious Opportunity. One of the keys in the bunch fit the lock of the front door to the jewelry store kept by Towle & Winterhalter at No. 28 West Park street. Had the burglars known it the chances are they would have proceeded to the store and tempted to rob it.

Mr. Towle reported the burglary at police headquarters about 10 o'clock and Chief Reynolds and Special Officer McGillie drove out to the house to make an investigation and endeavor to find the trousers belonging to Mr. Towle. Entrance to the house was effected either by way of the bath-room window, which was found unhooked, or the front door, which was open when Mr. Towle got up later on. Mr. Towle believes they got in at the window and left by way of the door. That the burglary was committed after 12 o'clock is evidenced by the fact that the family did not retire until after that hour.

MONTANA PILL ROLLERS PLAN ANNUAL MEETING

Great High Mekkana, at Missoula, Issues Order for State Pharmaceutical Association Convention.

Montana pill rollers, professionally known as the State Pharmaceutical association, are making preparations for their annual meeting which will be held this year in Butte. August 12 is the date set for the meeting.

J. Moody Doull, secretary of the association, has sent out the following invitation in the tongue of the man of the pill: "The great mogul at Missoula has spoken and this is what he spoke: In a loud and boisterous voice, smelling strong of vaccine virus and aqua fortis, hearken to the makkana of Missoula, great light priest of the Montana State Pharmaceutical association. Be ye busy building hubbles to bust on the dozen of August, 1902, being choose day, and is written thus 8-12-02. I suggest that, should your meeting be but slimly attended, that you read this notice at the succeeding meeting, but not in the same color of voice."

OFFICER OLDS SUSPENDED FOR APPROPRIATING JUNK

Took for His Own Use Two Brass Plungers Which He Had Secured from Twain of Thieves.

Clarence E. Olds, a patrolman on the Butte police force, was suspended yesterday by Chief Reynolds for appropriating to his own use two brass pump plungers captured by him from supposed thieves about three months ago and never claimed by the owners. Olds saw the men with the property in Platinum street, and called upon them to stop. They ran and he fired a shot. They kept going, but left the plungers behind. Olds captured the plungers and took them to the city jail, where they remained until a few days ago, at which time he took them home. He thought that in view of the fact that no one claimed them they belonged to him. The chief quoted the law on the matter, but Olds said he had consulted a lawyer and the latter told him the property was rightfully his, if no one else claimed it. The law says unclaimed goods shall be kept a year, then sold and the proceeds placed in the city treasury. The chief demanded the return of the property to the city hall, but Olds refused to do it and the suspension resulted. The plungers are valued at about $28 as junk.

LUTHERANS ENJOY MUSICAL

Members of German Society Entertained at Eagle's Hall.

Members of the German Lutheran society had a very enjoyable musicale and entertainment at Eagle's hall last evening. The entertainment was arranged for the fund started for the new church to be built near the corner of Silver and Montana streets.

The German Liederkranz Singing society assisted in the program. A violin class, under the direction of Professor Heblays, rendered several pleasing selections, the players being: Misses Louise Nickel, Eva Casey, Nellie O'Leary, Edith Webster and Lillie White. Other selections were as follows: Violin solo, Miss Edith Dillon; bass solo, J. S. Thomas; recitation, Miss Bauman; piano solo, Miss H. Reckisch; piano duo, Misses Hilda and Dora Muntzer; piano solo, Miss Hattie Seigz; piano duo, Misses Sophia and ohanna Naese; violin solo, Miss Caruchach.

HIE 'EM TO SYLVAN SHADE AFORESAID

WHEN THE GAVEL FALLS AND THE MINING CONGRESS ADJOURNS, WATCH THEM DUCK.

SCRIBES FROM THE EAST TO JOIN IN GOOD TIME

The Session, Which is to Be Held at Hamilton, the Rev. Miles Romney, D. D., Presiding, is for Prayer and Praise Purely—Prayer for Another Good Time and Praise for the Beer.

"I don't know of any more congenial crowd for a bunch of mining men to mix up with after the congress, when recreation will look good to them, than the Montana Press association."

This is what Secretary Irwin Mahon of the Mining congress thinks about it. Five days will be consumed, in listening to the many fine papers and speeches by eminent mineralogists and mining experts from all over the world. The last meeting will be on Friday, the 27th of September, and on the following morning—Saturday, about 10 o'clock—the Montana newspapermen with the Eastern pencil pushers attending the session as their guests, will take the train for Hamilton, the home of the defunct colliery moth, the ephemeral spotted fever, and Miles Romney, president of the association.

Along with this conclave of talent and wind will go President Shafner and Secretary Mahon of the Mining congress and many of the visiting delegates who will be anxious to see something of the agricultural and pastoral beauty of the state. To Lounge in Luxury. By the courtesy of the proprietors of the beautiful Ravalli hotel, at Hamilton, the visitors will stretch their weary bones in luxurious quarters during their stay at Hamilton. Fishing in abundance is to be had in and around the city, and there is no doubt but that the newspaper men will take advantage of the occasion to renew their wornout stories of past prowess in the gentle art.

It is said that President Romney is pre-arranged and appropriate design. To all who come from Butte to the meeting will be given a string of green cucumbers; to delegates from other parts of the state a Bitter Root watermelon, with a high-ball for a chaser. The chaser will not be so much in the nature of an anti-dote, for Bitter Root melons are unsurpassed in old Virginia, as to remind the recipients that it is not a meeting for the abolition of breweries and distilleries.

In Order to Waste No Time. In order to facilitate the work of the gathering and to enable the visitors to spend as much of the time as possible in the shady nooks around Hamilton, the meeting will begin on the train. President Romney, who will come to Butte to chaperone the gang, will call the bunch to order. Secretary Walter Aitken of Livingston will read the minutes of the last meeting and the regular business will begin at once. It is hoped that by the time the train reaches the Bitter Root most of the matters of vital importance will have been disposed of and the newsmongers of Montana will be ready to begin active operations on the Rioita.

BLIND MAN MAKES MAD DASH FOR HIS LIBERTY

Succeeds in Groping His Way Block and a Half Before Heartless Myrmidons of the Law Run Him Down.

It is not often that a blind man makes a dash for liberty, but occasionally there is found one with sufficient nerve to do such a thing. Alfred Roach has no vision. Yesterday he was in custody in the courtroom of Judge Libby at Meaderville, and he undertook to escape from captivity in the face of all difficulties. He and Fred Johnson, his attendant, a young man with good eyesight, were under arrest for begging on the Meaderville streets and then wasting the receipts of the business in "booze." Roach asked permission to step out of court, and it was granted. Johnson went with him as his guide, and immediately took to his heels. The town took after Johnson, and then the blind man, though eyesless, saw a good chance to escape also as he evidently thought. He hurried as fast as he could, and had got a block or a block and a half away before he was overhauled. Johnson was captured after a hard chase and both were brought into the county jail to await trial Monday.

SOCIALISTS TO HOLD CONVENTION TONIGHT

Delegates Are to Be Selected for the Big State Meeting at Bozeman—List to Be Voted Upon.

Socialists are to meet to night at the Business college hall in the Owsley building to select delegates to the state convention at Bozeman next month. At the primaries held last night the delegates nominated at the caucus were elected. Each voter filed his name and address, but ward distinctions were ignored. According to the apportionment made by the central committee, Silver Bow county will be entitled to 36 seats in the coming convention. The socialist party in this state is the same that had a presidential ticket with E. V. Dels as nominee in the last campaign, the name having been changed from social democrat to socialist by the national convention about a year ago. The caucus in the absence of precinct divisions, embraced the whole of the county and was very well attended. County Chairman P. J. Cooney called the meeting to order and William Bowden was elected secretary. The following list was elected the caucus nominees to be voted on at the primaries tomorrow night, to compose the 36 delegates to the county convention: J. F. Smith, Adolf Holst, J. F. Fox, Maurice Arons, W. H. Holden, George Gierston, L. A. Van Horne, P. J. Cooney, William Bowden, O. M. Hogsett, J. Soegel, William Braemer, W. H. Pierce, James
