PERUVIAN GOVERNMENT COMBATS ALCOHOL ABUSE

President Romano's Message to Congress Considers Subject—Revenues in 1901 Over Million Sols.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Lima, Peru, July 29.—President Romano's message to congress on the opening of that body said that body would represent a project to combat the existing abuse in the use of alcohol. The revenues for 1901 exceeded by more than 1,000,000 sols (about $670,000) the amount calculated in the budget, leaving a surplus in the treasury of nearly 300,000 sols. The customs revenues for the year 1901 exceeded those of the previous year by nearly 2,500,000 sols. The imports for 1901 exceeded those of 1900 by nearly 2,500,000 sols. The imports for 1901 exceeded those of 1900 by nearly 4,500,000 sols, but owing to the fall of sugar, exports for 1901 diminished nearly 2,000,000 sols. The exports of minerals and cotton for 1901 each exceeded by 500,000 sols the amounts of those products exported during 1900. The new budget for 1903 calculates a revenue of over 15,000,000 sols and an expenditure of 14,500,000 sols, leaving a surplus of 800,000 sols.

UNKNIGHTLY PETER SLAPS FAIR JULIA

AVFUL BATTLE OVER THE BOARDS IS SAID TO HAVE FOLLOWED UNMANLY ASSAULT.

HE SLAPPED JULIA SO HARD HER FACE ACHES

Therefore It Is Her Spouse Doth He Himself to a Court of Law and Get Out a Warrant for Peter's Arrest—Parnell Mine, on Anaconda Hill, Is Scene of the Heated Encounter.

Peter Kane and Julia Connolly had an encounter at the Parnell mine yesterday up on the Anaconda hill, and Peter slapped Julia three times, the lady says, and today she had such a headache from the slaps that her husband, Michael Connolly, swore to a warrant charging Kane with assault in the third degree. Deputy County Attorney Lynch drew the complaint and it was filed in Judge Arnold's court.

Connolly came to the county attorney's office to prefer the complaint and he told a doleful story of Peter's ungentlemanly and violent treatment of Julia, otherwise Mrs. Connolly.

Thrift and Avarice. Thrift was at the bottom of the assault, according to Connolly's story; thrift and avarice. Julia is thrifty and so is Peter. Peter is also avaricious, if Julia's husband's tale of the three rude and boisterous slaps be true. Generosity does not romp up and down his manly bosom, nor does that chivalry that marks the true gentleman and keeps his paws away from the jaws of fair woman find a resting place in the weakened and callous heart of him.

The husband of Julia related to the deputy county attorney that yesterday some teamsters were hauling pipe away from the Parnell L. E. R. claims, and some old boards were left behind by them as flotsam and jetsam. Peter Kane fastened upon these boards like a wrecker of the South seas, said Connolly.

Peter Got in First. He began "snaking" them off to his domicile. Here is where Julia's thrift came into play. She scented the boards from afar, and she reasoned, woman like, that she had as much right to them as Peter. Hence she hurried out and undertook to share them.

But Peter's views here caromed against hers very decidedly. There was a direct conflict of opinion as to the rights in the case. Evidently Peter had staked the boards out, done the assessment work on them and applied for a patent at the land office, and therefore thought that his title was well established.

He Did Beat Julia. So in defense of it, when Julia put her lily-white hands upon a plank that was of goodly character and knotless, he gave her the three slaps here and fore referred to as aforesaid, instead of suing out an injunction in Judge Harney's court and taking the matter to the supreme court in a proceeding for a supervisory writ.

The slaps made Julia's ears ring and today she had a very bad headache, but her husband did not tell Mr. Lynch whether it prevented her from getting any of the boards or not. Mr. Kane will have an opportunity to explain his extraordinary conduct to Judge Arnold and give his version of the fracas over the boards.

RELATIVES THINK HE IS IN PRISON

J. OLIVER VAN SYOC HAS INHERITED FORTUNE IN IOWA, BUT HE IS NOT TO BE FOUND.

LIVED IN BUTTE WITH A SISTER SOME YEARS AGO

Astonishing Work of Epistolary Art Is Received by Authorities Relative to the Whereabouts of the Young Man, Whom Those Making the Inquiry Believe Was Sent to Prison.

J. Oliver Van Syoc is wanted by his relatives at Milo, Warren county, Iowa, to inherit an estate. His aunt has recently died and he was left part of her estate. His relatives think he is in the penitentiary, according to a letter received by Court Clerk Roberts, in which that naive statement is made.

Van Syoc was here a couple of years ago, and at that time he worked in the mines. His brother-in-law and sister were residents of Butte at that time also, according to the letter.

The letter says that the relatives in Iowa draw the inference that Van Syoc is in prison for "some misdemeanor." They evidently think misdemeanors are severely punished here, or they are a little hazy as to what a misdemeanor is.

Work of Epistolary Art.

The letter received by Mr. Roberts expresses the frank opinion that Van Syoc's name will be found on the letter's books, the man being in state prison, as the writer supposes. The letter is a curious composition and the spelling of a kind that might be improved. It was written by a man who signs himself J. C. Van Syoc, but the latter does not whisper what his relation may be to the man whom he so recklessly concludes is in state prison. The letter is as follows:

Work of Epistolary Art.

"Milo, Warren County, Iowa, July 25th, 1902. Clerk of the District Courts, Butte, Mont. Sir:—

"I drop you this line to ask you if you know anything of one Oliver Vansyoc his aniles is J. O. We think perhaps he is in the Pen for some Misdemeanor. If so I think his name will be found on the Clerk books; His aunt died over one year ago and left an estate which he became heir to a part and we would like to find him; He has not written to his folks since one year ago last March; His Brotherlaw & Sister was at Butte 2 years ago this coming August and saw him he was working in the mines then yours J C Vansyoc. Please answer soon you will find enclosed envelop please use."

The letter from Mr. Vansyoc was referred to the warden of the state prison, the name of J. Oliver Van Syoc not being found on the clerk's books.

CANNOT GIVE AWAY CORONATION SEATS

STEADILY INCREASING FEELING OF UNEASINESS IN LONDON REGARDING KING'S HEALTH.

REPORT OF SECOND POSTPONEMENT OF CEREMONY

Medical Bulletins Are Favorable, Rehearsals Are in Progress, and the Proclamations Have Been Posted, but Yet the Impression Remains That His Majesty Will Not Be Able to Attend.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, July 29.—Coronation seats cannot be sold even at reduced prices, and there is a steadily increasing feeling of uneasiness respecting the king's illness, cables the London correspondent of the Tribune. Outwardly there is every indication that the coronation will occur in a fortnight. Medical bulletins are favorable, rehearsals are in progress, proclamations have been posted, the process of redecorating the approaches to the Abbey have been resumed and preparations are making for the naval review; but notwithstanding all these signs of optimism there are persistent reports that the coronation will be deferred a second time.

Royal Family Anxious.

There are, unfortunately, strong reasons for believing that the queen, the Prince of Wales and other members of the royal family are dreading a second postponement; yet they are not prepared to assume responsibility in advising it since they fear that the mental effort upon the patient would be serious. The most hopeful thing is that the general impression is that the coronation will not occur, and consequently the expected is likely to happen.

YAQUIS SWEEP DOWN ON RANCH AND KILL SEVEN

Bloody Battle in Arizona Between Indians and Settlers, in Which Women Fight With the Men.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

San Francisco, Cal., July 29.—A special from Tucson, Ariz., says: Driven to desperation by hunger and thirst a band of 30 Yaquis, nearly half of them women, swooped down upon the Carmen ranch, near Hermosillo, Friday, and a fierce and bloody fight followed. The women fought with the ferocity of wild animals, and when a patrol of Mexican troops galloped down to the rescue two of the women and five men lay dead. The Yaquis were completely overwhelmed.

They were weak from hunger and when attacked by superior numbers were compelled to surrender. Fifteen prisoners were marched to Hermosillo, where they will be sentenced by General Torres. There are two Yaquis chiefs among the captives. These Indians are supposed to be the last remnant of those who took to the warpath some time ago.

HEAVY LOSSES IN PITTSBURG BLAZE

HALF-MILLION DOLLARS WORTH GOES UP IN FLAMES, WHILE FIVE FIREMEN ARE INJURED.

CELLAR FULL OF PAINTS CAUSES THE HOLOCAUST

Explosives Emit Terrific Heat, in Which Firemen Are Unable to Work—Blaze Is Still Raging and Three Business Blocks Will Be Destroyed—Injuries of Firemen Are Pronounced Not Fatal.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Pittsburg, July 29.—Two buildings in flames, a prospect of half a million dollars' damage and five injured firemen was the situation that confronted the fire department at daybreak this morning. The buildings on fire were those of Stewart Bros. & Co., No. 917 Liberty avenue, the Denoon Brothers' Paint and Varnish company, No. 919 Liberty avenue, and Seward S. Ewart & Co., at No. 921 Liberty avenue.

The injured firemen are: Lieut. Dougal Leech, Cornelius Buckley, William Dalzell, William Reese, Daniel Galagher. None was seriously injured.

Quantities of Explosives in Building.

The fire originated on the first floor of the three-story building occupied by the Denoon brothers. When the fire department reached the scene smoke was pouring from every window of the structure. In the cellar and lower floor were stored large quantities of paints, varnish, turpentine, oils, etc.

An explosion in this material, while the firemen were on the fire escapes fighting the flames, sent a blast of fire out upon the men. The flames struck the firemen full in the face. The men dropped the hose and struggled to get out of reach of the withering heat. Some almost fell down the fire escapes, others slid down the side rails and a couple hung by their hands until rescued by their companions.

The injured men were taken to hospitals, where their injuries were pronounced not fatal.

Second Explosion.

At 2:30 o'clock occurred a second explosion even more terrific than the first, although no one was injured by it. The flames ate their way, after consuming the Denoon place into the rubber goods establishment of Stewart Brothers & Co., at No. 917 Liberty avenue, which was also practically destroyed.

S. Ewert & Co., wholesale grocers, at No. 921 Liberty st. suffered heavily from water and smoke. The furniture firm of Spear & Holler, wholesale millinery firm of J. J. Porter & Co. on Penn avenue, in the rear of the buildings, but separated by an alley, will suffer heavily.

The flames will be confined to the buildings mentioned, but the firemen were still at work at 6 o'clock a. m. fighting the stubborn fire. The loss will probably not fall far below the half-million mark.
