ANOTHER BUSY DAY FOR COUNTY BOARD

BIG BUNCH OF GRIEVANCES ARE DISPOSED OF, MORE OR LESS TO SATISFACTION OF PUBLIC.

WHO THEY ARE AND WHAT THEY ARE KICKING FOR

Mary B. Tonkin Secures Reduction of Assessment on Property in Silver Bow Addition—Committee Appointed to Investigate Hurth's Petition is Denied.

This was another busy day with the board of equalization. Chairman Clark of the county commissioners returned from Helena yesterday and the board opened up the old stand in Assessor Brown's office this morning. A number of complaints were heard and disposed of.

Mary B. Tonkin asked that the assessment on the improvements on lot 16, block 10, Silver Bow addition, be reduced from $200 to $100. The request was complied with.

Bert Farrell, by F. M. Murphy, agent, complained that the assessment on the improvements on lot 6, block 8, Leggat & Foster addition, of $1,200 was too great, and it was reduced to $1,000. He wanted the frame house on the ground reduced from $200 to $100, and Cohen and Manchester were appointed a committee to investigate.

Committee Will Investigate.
Mr. Barbara Horst, by Carl Horst, her agent, asked a reduction of the assessment of $1,500 to $700 on the frame house on lot 1, block 45, Butte addition, and Haggerty and Cohen were appointed a committee to investigate. The board reduced the valuation of $200 to $75 on Mrs. Horst's household goods. The piano, valued at $50, was stricken off the roll.

Margaret Hurth, through John Hurth, her agent, asked for a reduction of the assessment of the improvements on lot 6, block 9, Kemper addition, from $600 to $400, but the request was not granted.

A mortgage assessed to A. J. Wicks at $250 was reduced to $100, the sum of $150 having been paid.

J. H. Ferris complained that the east 35 feet of lots 11 and 12, block 36, Butte addition, had been assessed to him at the rate of $110 a front foot, and asked to have the assessment reduced to $90 a front foot. Cohen, Peoples and Gleason were appointed a committee to investigate.

In Great Western Addition.
Mrs. Emma McNulty asked that the assessment of $300 on the five-room house on lot 2, block 4, Great Western addition, be reduced to $250. The request was not acted upon.

The Stephens Investment company complained that it was assessed $100 with a hand organ that it did not own, and the assessment was stricken off the list.

The estate of Marcus Daly, through A. J. Campbell, agent, complained that 160 acres of land belonging to the estate had been assessed at $300 an acre and 80 acres at $125, and asked that the assessments be made $100. They were made $150 on an average.

BYRNE OUGHT TO TAKE LESSONS OF ANDERSON

West Side Policeman Secures Two Shots at Burglar but Fails to Bring Him Down.

Had the aim of Policeman James Byrne been as good as that of Hugh Anderson, there would be another dead burglar on a slab in some undertaking establishment.

Mr. Byrne is doing duty on the West Side. About 2 o'clock yesterday morning he responded to either D. J. Hennessy or Joseph Pyle, near the corner of Copper street and Excelsior avenue, and promptly took two shots at one of them. The burglars saw him about as soon as he saw them and ran west at a swift pace. The policeman was not close enough to them to do good work and they escaped.

In less than a minute after the shooting, heads were popping out of every window in the neighborhood and not a few persons had their hands out with guns in their hands ready to shoot.

Shortly after the shooting the policeman was joined by two other officers and a search for the burglars was made, but no further trace of them was discovered.

PREPARATIONS FOR ELKS' CONVENTION

SALT LAKE LODGE IS DECORATING CITY AND HALLS IN HANDSOME AND COSTLY FASHION.

DELEGATIONS COMING FROM ISLANDS LODGES

Cannibals Will Be on Hand From the Sandwich Isles, While Manila, Honolulu and Other Heathenish Provinces Will Have Representation—Gentleman Who Knows Describes Arrangements.

"They are making elaborate preparations for the big Elk meeting in Salt Lake," said Ben Mahoney, a well-known traveling man of Denver, at the Finlen this afternoon.

"The committee in charge of the decorations was working on the assembly hall the other day when I was there.

"Perhaps the feature of the decorations in the hall will be an oil painting of an elk measuring 18 by 24 feet. It is placed at the end of the hall just back of where the grand exalted ruler will sit. Stretching out on either side and extending around the base room, will be a series of hunting and flag decorations which will add materially to the general effect.

Mass of Potted Plants.
"Around the station to be occupied by the head official of the order will be placed large quantities of potted flowers and palms.

"As most of the visitors will use the main gate leading into Temple Square, at the head of Richards street, the committee has decided to decorate it in a very artistic manner. While the festooning will not be too showy, it will be of sufficient prominence to be seen for several blocks showing the delegates where the grand lodge sessions will be held.

"The local lodge of Elks is having the large oil painting of the elk for the assembly room so made that it can be cut down afterwards and used in their own lodge room.

The Cannibals Are Coming.
"Two delegations from the Sandwich Islands have already announced that they will be present at the meeting. There is also a lodge in Manila, but so far, none of the delegates have announced their arrival. It is not improbable, however, that in one of the transports now homeward bound there is a stray Elk from the Philippines who will represent our new possessions at the meeting.

"One of the Sandwich Island lodges is at Honolulu, in the island of Oahu, and another in Hilo in the island of Hawaii. Fifty delegates are coming from the land of Ilioukalani. In the language of the islands they are going to have a 'wel ka hau' of a time, which being translated into the vernacular means 'pretty hot stuff.'

The grand lodge meeting this year is expected to be an important one and for this reason the contest among the candidates for the representation from the Butte lodges has been a spirited one.

IMPROVING THE STREETS

Needed Work is Being Done on the Crossing and Gutter All Over Town.
[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
Anaconda, August 1.—A great deal of work is being done on the streets of Anaconda, especially at the crossings and gutters. It is a great improvement over the past condition, as the heavy rains of a month ago would flood the streets and in many instances front yards and porches. The gutters are being lined with rocks so that in the future they may be cleaned out without difficulty or loss of time.

LEAVES CHILD

thief to his cabin, where, with his wife and chief aide, Lieutenant G. H. Shields, of the Twelfth infantry, he discussed the outcome of the long ordeal through which he has passed. Six hours later, when the Thomas reached the quarantine station in the harbor, Major Duval, of the transport service, boarded the ship with his secretary, and met both General Smith and Lieutenant Shields at the door of the general's cabin.

A Sealed Document.
A sealed document from the war department was handed to General Smith. It contained the official notification of President Roosevelt's action, and upon reading it, General Smith retired, overcome with emotion. He was not again seen until the United States customhouse tender, the Hartley, was ready to take the general and his party ashore. He then denied himself to all interviewers, who were met by Lieutenant Shields. Together with his wife and aides, General Smith proceeded to the Occidental hotel, repairing thence at once to army headquarters in the Phelan building, where he remained during the morning.

"General Smith has absolutely nothing to say for publication," said Lieutenant Shields to a representative of the Associated Press. "He is not at liberty to talk, and furthermore has nothing to say. He has been hopeful that the president would not take action against him, and of course feels keenly the force of the blow he has received. The general admitted to the court-martial trying him that he had issued orders which, in effect, expressed his desire that the enemy, if obliterated and unrequitable, be not spared—in fact, that the country be laid waste and no prisoners be taken. The literal construction of these orders and their exact interpretation made up the bulk of evidence against the general at the court-martial. There is no doubt but that General Smith did not mean all he said. He certainly did not expect the action which the president has taken."

Appears Nervous and Worried.
General Smith, who is wearing civilian attire, appears exceedingly nervous and worn. His 60 years are plainly read in his every action and his intimate friends fear he is breaking down under the severe strain to which he has been subjected in recent months. It is not known as yet when General Smith will proceed East. His adjutant general is required to report to the adjutant general at Washington, and it is likely that he will lose no time in starting East.

Repeated efforts made during the day to induce General Smith to discuss his campaign in the Philippines and the court-martial which followed as a sequel to his work, failed entirely. He then declined to take up the subject with intimate friends. The transport Thomas brings portions of the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth infantry regiments and the Tenth cavalry.

M'NAMARA WINNER BY A HALF LENGTH

Wolhurst Leads All the Way to the Far Turn, When Burlingame Pushes McNamara Up in Stretch.

With all lovers of square racing, the match race between Will Sink's crack runner, Wolhurst, and L. O. Walz's racer, McNamara, attracted most attention at the race track today. The match was made last night at the Thornton hotel, when the two owners met and after some bantering placed a side bet of $1,000 each on their respective horses.

The $2,000 was put up with W. D. Thornton of the Thornton hotel on a race of a mile and a sixteenth. The weights agreed to were Wolhurst, 111 pounds, and McNamara, 108 pounds. The same conditions were to prevail as covered the race for the Silver Cup stake run yesterday, and in which McNamara won handily and Wolhurst was badly beaten.

McNamara repeated his performance today, winning from Wolhurst by half a length, but the race was hotly contested all the way. Wolhurst led all the way around to the far turn. Going up the hill McNamara gradually drew alongside and they entered the stretch side by side. It was neck and neck to the five-yard line, when McNamara bounded forward, winning by half a length. Time, 1:47. Burlingame rode McNamara and See was on Wolhurst. The betting was 7 to 10 on McNamara and even on Wolhurst. The race was the best ever seen on the local track and attracted a large crowd.

CRITTENTON HOME FOR FALLEN YOUNG WOMEN

National Organizer Arrives in Butte to Talk in Interest of Mission—Is Branch at Helena.

C. S. Mason, national organizer for the Florence Crittenton mission, arrived in Butte today. Mr. Mason will remain in the city for a few days in the interests of the organization.

"Our headquarters are at Washington, D. C.," said he, "as you probably know the mission has for its object the rescue of erring girls. It was established by Charles N. Crittenton of Chicago, as a memorial to his little child, Florence. He donated half a million dollars to the purpose and because of the effective work of the mission, congress has since given it a grant of $2,000 a year.

"There are 300,000 of the unfortunate women and girls of the United States, 5,000 of whom die every 30 days. In our 55 homes we save 3,000 of these every year. Seventy-five per cent remain true to their efforts to leave their lives of sin.

"There is one home in Montana, situated at Helena. During the last year, 74 women were in and getting 27 girls and women to enter it and leaving their wretched lives. They are taught domestic science, plain sewing, cooking, laundry work. Many have a little education to begin with and they learn typewriting, stenography and such work as they feel themselves adapted to."

Mr. Mason will speak at the South Butte Presbyterian church Sunday forenoon, and at the South Butte Baptist church in the evening.

WILSON IS FOUND BESIDE HIS WORK

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
MISSOULA, August 1.—J. E. Wilson, night tender at the Missoula Electric Light plant at Bonner, was found dead this morning by the day watch, on their arrival at 6 o'clock. He lay beside the brush, which he had been cleaning in a pool of blood. A huge wound in his side showed where some portion of the machinery had dealt the man a terrific blow and knocked the life out of him before he realized what had happened.

The accident had evidently occurred early in the morning, as a physician who was called said the man had been dead many hours. An inquest will be held this afternoon by Coroner Hayes. Wilson was 45 years of age and unmarried.

The remarkable part of the accident is that nothing should have gone wrong during the night about the big plant. Wilson was the sole occupant of the building, keeping the engines in order and the boiler well stacked, as well as acting as watchman and brush tender. The machinery was all in perfect working order when the day force came and found the man dead, and everything was apparently in good condition as if he had been up attending to his work all night.

HURRY UP OR YOU WON'T GET A CHANCE TO PLAY

"The Mouth" Will Shortly Be Closed Up by the Police, Who Are Again Raiding Gamblers.

Butte is a fertile field for gambling devices. Under Sheriff McQuigan and Detective Murphy today closed up two or three new establishments that had begun to gather in too many streets on East Park and East Galena streets. The joints were devoted to the carrying on of the gambling game called "The Mouth." If you have not played "The Mouth" you still have an experience with chance coming to you.

The game is played with an apparatus which has a big opening that looks like a giant mouth and a rack and pins standing over numbers. The player puts his money upon the numbers and throws a ball into the mouth. The ball disappears and passes down through the rack out of sight and reappears among the pins and numbers. If it comes out in the right box the player wins; if not, then 'tis otherwise, which is mostly.

Bucking "The Mouth" is something like playing a slot machine, both devices being constructed on a similar principle. The owners of the two establishments referred to will be arrested if they do not stay closed.

FUNERALS OCCUR TOMORROW

Mrs. Margaret Welch, aged 61 years, died at No. 204 West Granite street this morning. The funeral will take place from the family residence at 9 o'clock Monday morning. The body will be taken to St. Patrick's church, where high mass will be said.

The body of W. E. Farrell, who was killed in a railroad wreck in Minnesota a few days ago, arrived in Butte last night, and will be buried from the residence of the dead man's sister, Mrs. William E. Hamilton, No. 822 Placer street, at 2 o'clock tomorrow. The body was badly mangled in the accident. Some very handsome floral designs are being prepared.

WELL KNOWN ATTORNEY IS GUILTY OF EMBEZZLEMENT

William C. Vanderlip of Boston Defaults to Extent of Two Hundred Thousand.
[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Boston, August 1.—By his own admission Willard C. Vanderlip, a prominent Boston lawyer, who has had for years the care of several estates, is guilty of embezzlement of the estate of the late George B. Emerson, of which he had charge for 16 years, has been dissipated in ways of which Mr. Vanderlip is unable to give an account. Mr. Vanderlip says that the amount involved is "somewhere around $100,000."

Col. W. D. Solner and John Lowell, who are acting on behalf of the estate, however, declare that $200,000 has disappeared. Vanderlip was arrested at his home this afternoon.

Was Trusted Employee.
The accused man for 30 years has acted as confidential agent of numerous law firms in the city in the care of estates, the collection of dividends, the purchase and sale of securities and the disposal of real estate. He is also a prominent member of the order of Elks and is a Mason of high degree, and submitted statements, the accuracy of which there was no reason to question.

A few days ago bonds to the value of $5,000 were missed. This led to an investigation and, after a severe cross-examination Vanderlip admitted that he had taken the bonds and that he had squandered the entire Emerson estate.

$50,000 FOR A KISS.
Chicago School Teacher Values Osculation Very High.
(Chicago Record-Herald.)
A suit for $50,000 damages was begun in the superior court by Mrs. Lillie E. Davis, a teacher in the public schools, against Townsend Smith, a real estate dealer, with offices in the Boyce building. Mrs. Davis alleges that while in the real estate man's office he attempted to kiss her. She avers that she screamed for help, but no one was in the building at the time. She says that the shock made her ill and caused her great mental suffering.

Mrs. Davis declares that she has known Smith for a number of years, and that at one time they boarded at the same place. According to her narrative, she met Smith on Dearborn street, and after talking for some time about their old acquaintance he asked her to go to his office with him while he secured his umbrella. She went, and it was then, she says, that he attempted to kiss her.

When seen at his office Smith denied all knowledge of the suit and asserted that he had never heard of the plaintiff.
