DEMAND GREATER THAN THE SUPPLY HAD TO COME OUT OR LOSE HEARING ADAMS ASSAULTS EAST SIDE CHILD

ALL OVER MONTANA, LABORERS ARE NOT TO BE HAD—ESPECIALLY SCARCE IN ANACONDA. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anacoda, August 20.—At the present time in the state of Montana the supply of laborers is much less than the demand.

HOW BOSTON & MONTANA BAND AND TREASURE STATE ELKS SERENADED EXALTED RULER. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anacoda, August 20.—Rod Williams says that when the Montana band of Elks, accompanied by the Boston & Montana band, serenaded Grand Exalted Ruler Pickett and his successor, George B. Cronk, at the Knutsford hotel, they brought those two distinguished Elks out, although they had been serenaded time and again by the delegations from other states and had not appeared.

PICKS UP BABY AND HURLS IT TO GROUND—LET OFF WITH SMALL FINE. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anacoda, August 20.—John Adams was arrested last evening by Officer Hartz for being drunk and assaulting a small child in the east end of town. He picked the child up and threw it to the ground. When Adams appeared in the police court this morning he was let off by Judge Hayes with a $5 fine. Adams is an old man, who has been around the town for years and is well known. He will go for months and never drink a drop and then start in and spend the savings of months in a few days or weeks. He has been known to run saloon bills for several hundred dollars and then stop drinking and work steadily until he had paid his debts and saved a considerable sum besides.

DOG POISONERS AT IT AGAIN THIS TIME CHIEF MENTRUM LOSES A VALUABLE COACH DOG. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anacoda, August 20.—The indiscriminate poisoning of dogs is still going on in this city. Chief Mentrum's coach dog, which has for several years past run with the teams of the city fire department, died this morning from the effects of a dose of strychnine.

UNDER SHELTERING SHADE OF LORDLY CEDARS APICIUS CLUB EXPECTS TO REST AND SMOKE. Anacoda, August 20.—Dr. O. C. Evans headed an expedition into the hills today for the express purpose of bringing back some small cedar trees which are said to grow in profusion in the vicinity of Olson gulch. The doctor was closely followed by George P. Hunter and Frank Clinton, one carrying a spade and the other an axe and a gunny sack.

COLONY OF BLACKBIRDS HERE ENGLISH SPARROWS GIVE WAY TO NEWCOMERS, WHO OCCUPY HIGH SCHOOL. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anacoda, August 20.—Anacoda has been chosen as a place of residence by a colony of blackbirds. This is a pleasant surprise for the residents of the city who have, in years gone by, been used to seeing but one or two English sparrows about town. The new colonists number about 20 and seem to think they have found an excellent place to live.

HANDSOME RECTORY TO GO UP FOR ST. PAUL'S TWO-STORY EDIFICE WILL BE OF FINEST MATERIAL AND COMMODIOUS IN ARRANGEMENT. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anacoda, August 20.—Architect M. D. Kern of this city has drawn plans for a $5,000 residence for Father Cooman of St. Paul's Catholic church. The building will occupy a site in front of the present house. The latter will be used as quarters for the servants.

SPORTING NEWS

GORDON EASY FOR TACOMA Tigers Hit Spokane Twirler Hard and Often—Shut-out for Spokane. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Tacoma, August 20.—Gordon was in the box yesterday for Spokane and proved a decidedly easy proposition for the Tigers. In the third inning Tacoma touched him for three singles and a home run, netting a total of four runs. After that it was easy, and the home team had no difficulty in pounding out 14 hits in the nine innings and could have added a few more had it been necessary.

NATIONAL LEAGUE NOTES. The Bostons have a team fielding average of .963, an extraordinary showing. Willie Keeler was the first league player to cross the century mark in base hits. Cincinnati is reported to having signed two Louisville stars—Jesse Taubehill and Patsy Flaherty—for the next season. They say that Jake Beckley will act as captain of the All-American team that will visit Honolulu. Bid McPhee may go along as manager.

AMERICAN LEAGUE NOTES. Lajoie has the most remarkable fielding record ever known in baseball up to date this season. In 31 games he has made only three errors out of 199 chances. President Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh champions denounces Messrs. Freedman and Brush for the Baltimore deal. He says that he is not in sympathy with the action and calls it a "gun shoe" move. Comiskey says: "I am with Johnson in everything which pertains to the strength of the American league. Little differences cut no figure when the affairs of the league need the backing of every man."

There are but eight southpaw pitchers in the American league. They are Platt of the White Stockings, Siever of Detroit, Plank, Waddell and Witse of the Athletics, and Patten of Washington and Shields of Baltimore.

George Howson Wins Owners' Riding Race. Venerable Jockey and Trainer Rides the Mare February to Victory and is Accorded an Ovation. Interest in yesterday's races at the local track centered in the owners' riding race, which was the last event on the program. In consequence of the added feature to the day's sport an unusually large crowd turned out, and was rewarded with some of the best racing that has been seen on the track during the past week.

The victory of the venerable jockey and veteran horse trainer, George Howson, Sr., who rode the mare February in the last race at a mile, was a popular one. Mr. Howson was given a rousing reception as he rode into the track from the paddock, and when he brought his mount under the wire a length ahead of Whaleback the cheering of the crowd in the stands was unbounded. It was evident from the start that the venerable jockey had forgotten none of the tricks of the trade that helped him to win many a race in former years, and the crowd was sincere in its approval of his clever ride.

Mr. Howson is a jockey of the old school, and it was rather odd to see his stalwart figure sitting erect in the saddle, as they used to do in the "good old days," and to many it no doubt looked as though the rider was entirely unconcerned as to the outcome of the race. In the stretch, however, Mr. Howson urged the mare to do her best, and succeeded in sending her under the wire ahead of Whaleback, who was coming hard and would have won in another 40 yards.

The other races were all closely contested. In the opening event Amzi, 4 to 1, ran an excellent race and won, hard ridden, by a neck from La Calma, the favorite, at 7 to 10. In the second race the start was good and Joe K. won only by a head. Joe K. ran a game race all the way, hugging the fence and saving every inch of ground possible. Hamptonian was a good second, and Kickumlob was third by three lengths. The easy victory of Lady Superba, at 8 to 1, was the surprise of the third event. The finish in the sixth, five and one-half furlongs, was the closest and most exciting of the day. Sad Sam won in a terrific drive by a neck, with Narra G. second and Algaretta third.
