

POLES CUT DOWN BY STRIKING MINERS IN TAMAQUA

Effort Made to Prevent Troops From Being Transported to the Scene.

COMMANDER SAYS THAT THE SCENE IS SERIOUS

Shiras, in an interview in Pittsburg, thinks arbitration is the only method to be successfully employed in putting a stop to the strike—Mitchell is mum concerning meeting of operators in Morgan's Offices.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Tamaqua, Pa., August 27.—Several poles of the trolley line which runs from this place to Summit Hill were chopped down today and the wires cut. This probably was done to prevent troops from being taken from Manila park, where they are encamped, to Lansford and Summit Hill. Major Gearhardt outwitted the strikers, however, by taking two companies of soldiers to Summit Hill an hour before they were expected.

In Lansford, Summit Hill and Coal-dale the detachment of soldiers was hoisted by large crowds of strikers. At Coal-dale the soldiers were compelled to get off the cars and force the mob back from the tracks. In Lansford a crowd of women joined in hooting the guardsmen. Major Gearhardt admitted that the situation is serious.

Must Arbitrate.

Pittsburg, Pa., August 27.—Justice Shiras of the United States supreme court, who has just arrived in Pittsburg from a vacation, refuses to discuss his retirement from the bench further than to say that President Roosevelt would be the first person to learn of it and he had not received the announcement yet.

On the subject of the anthracite coal strike, Judge Shiras said: "Arbitration is the logical method of settling labor troubles such as this one, which affects the general prosperity and comfort of a great section of the country. The method and enforcement of this arbitration is a subject for the lawmakers of the nation, but arbitration itself is logical."

"Implementation of all labor unions is the primary steps toward the passage of an arbitration law. The unions must be responsible for the carrying out of an agreement and until they are there is little hope for compulsory arbitration of labor troubles."

Mitchell Won't Discuss It.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., August 27.—President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers said today he had no comment to make on the meeting of coal operators held at the office of J. P. Morgan in New York yesterday.

A large number of men are reported to have gone to work today in the Dorrance colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company.

At the office of the company it was said that an increased number of applications for work were being received daily.

Hazleton, Pa., August 27.—The Klondike washery at Treaschow was destroyed by fire of an unknown origin today, causing a loss of $7,000.

The washery resumed operations two weeks ago. Strikers raided the plant and closed it on Tuesday of last week and two attempts to resume this work were frustrated.

SWEAT STAND OUT IN HIGH GLOBULES

BUT HARRY TUTTLE GOT HIS LICENSE ALL RIGHT AND WILL WED MISS OLSON TONIGHT.

When Harry S. Tuttle, the well-known jeweller of Main street and his bosom friend Charley French, walked into the office of the clerk of the court this afternoon, it didn't take the astuteness of a Sherlock Holmes to tell that there was something doing.

"Come here, Sam," said Mr. French to Clerk Roberts.

"Don't make so many demonstrations," said Mr. Tuttle, "you can never tell where one of those newspaper men is concealed."

The clerk took down a book and began to write. Perspiration stood out in large drops on the forehead of the jeweller. At last it was over. There was a flash of silver and as Mr. Roberts put it away in the money drawer he bit the end of a good cigar and smiled a wise old smile. Then he read the paper Clerk Roberts had worded for him.

It was a simple statement, but it showed that one of Butte's well-known and popular young men had gone over to the ranks of the benedicts. It was the official permission of the state of Montana to Harry S. Tuttle (of specified age and pedigree) and Christine Olsen to wed.

This evening at 9 o'clock in the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wilson of the Butte hotel, the Rev. S. C. Blackiston of the Episcopal church, will finish the job begun so well by Clerk Roberts. His act will deprive the Butte hotel of an amiable and pleasant little cashier, but will give to Mr. Tuttle a wife.

Charley French will stick to his friend to the last. Mrs. Neiderhofen of Columbia Falls, with Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will also witness the ceremony. At midnight the couple will leave for the East on a short trip, after which they will be at home to their Butte friends, of whom there are many.

DELUGE OF RESOLUTION ENGULFS DELEGATES TO CONVENTION OF TRADES' ASSEMBLY.

LITTLE EFFECT EXPECTED FROM SOCIALISTIC MOVE

Resolutions Regarding Denver Platforms Have Practically Fizzled—Stirring Address by Anaconda Man Provokes the Assembly to Vociferous Applause—May Hold Over Until Friday.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]

Livingston, August 27.—It was resolution day today in the meeting of the Montana State Trades and Labor assembly. All told eighteen resolutions were referred to committees and the deluge still continues. This afternoon a fight is being made to expedite business and get down to a basis which will permit the delegates to get away to their homes tomorrow night.

It is not at all likely that the business of the session will be over until Friday, however, as the resolutions that are coming in will call for considerable discussion.

Among those introduced today was a resolution to create employment bureaus in all towns of the state and run them along the lines taken by the Butte employment office. The bureau in Butte was said by the delegates to be a great success.

Sympathy for Striking Miners.

Another resolution asked for sympathy for the striking miners, who are the victims of injunctions. Still another asked that home made goods be protected from the competition of the goods made outside the town or state where the home market was located. It was said that coal is coming into this state from Wyoming and was cutting in seriously on the local trade. Only five resolutions were disposed of during the forenoon.

One of the important addresses made today was that by Delegate Taylor, of Two messages relating to the condition of W. A. Larkin, ticket agent for the Oregon Short Line railroad in this city, who was taken to Salt Lake two days ago to be operated on for appendicitis, were received at the Oregon Short Line office today. The first announced that Mr. Larkin's condition was about the same as it was last night, at which time he was not expected to recover.

The last, received about noon, was to the effect that the operation had not been performed and that the condition of the patient was the same as it was this morning.

PASSMORE OPENS HELENA MEETING

GRAND CHIEF TEMPLAR FACES ABOUT EIGHTY DELEGATES—DOINGS OF LAST EVENING.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Helena, August 27.—Grand Chief Templar C. S. Passmore of Butte let the gavel fall this morning and convened the thirty-fifth session of the Montana Grand Lodge, Order of Good Templars. Over 80 delegates from all parts of the state were present at the opening session. It is expected that 50 more will arrive during the day. The three-day session promises to be the best meeting of the grand lodge held in years.

"I am proud to say that there is a sober-looking crowd of young ladies and gentlemen before me," said Grand Chief Templar Passmore this morning, in prefacing a brief opening address. The morning session was taken up with routine matters incident to the opening session. This afternoon the delegates will visit the state capitol. Tonight there will be a public meeting at the auditorium.

Three candidates were initiated into full membership last evening, the work being done in a manner that commanded the praise of the visiting brethren. After the initiation, Captain W. C. Dutton, national organizer, and other members of the order made informal speeches.

RAILROAD MEN ARE TO REQUEST RAISE

BUT ALL TALK OF MONSTER STRIKE IS BALDERDASH, PROMINENT LEADER ANNOUNCES.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Cleveland, O., August 27.—Assistant Grand Master Lee, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, said today:

"It is true that a concerted movement has been inaugurated by trainmen and conductors employed on the railroads west of the Mississippi river to secure uniform rules and compensation. A vote of the men, which will probably result in the officers of the two organizations being authorized to present requests of the various roads for these concessions, is now being taken. It will, however, be at least 90 days before the vote has been completed. There is absolutely no talk of a strike, and the possibility of such a movement is extremely remote."

FLOATER FOUND IN THE NECHES RIVER

BEAUMONT, TEXAS, EXCITED OVER ANOTHER MYSTERIOUS MURDER—TWO IN ONE WEEK.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Beaumont, Texas, August 27.—It seems that Beaumont is to pass through another series of murder mysteries similar to that which created so much excitement several months ago, when five or six bodies were taken from the river in a short space of time.

Sunday the body of a white man was found floating in the Neches river, about half a mile below the drawbridge of the Kansas City Southern railway and at noon yesterday another body was found in the same vicinity.

The floater was buried without identification, and from appearances, it was the body of a Mexican laborer between 30 and 40 years of age. The body had evidently been in the water about two days, and when found was among some bushes and logs in such a way as to make it necessary to tow it up the river a short distance before it was removed.

There was a slight wound over the left eye. The wound might have been caused by a small calibre bullet. The body of the man found Sunday was exhumed yesterday morning by two men who identified it as that of Jim Broderick an English bricklayer. It is presumed Broderick attempted to walk across and fall from the bridge while intoxicated.

Mystery surrounds the death of the Mexican.

Says True American Spirit Is Fostered and Cherished in the Quiet Country Lanes Long After It Has Died Out in the Cities—Changes and Progress in American Rural Habits and Society Have Not Stamped Out the Old Ideal.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Bangor, Me., August 27.—The special train bearing the president and his party arrived here at 12 o'clock on schedule time. The president was met at the train by President Beal of the Eastern Maine State Fair association, Senator Hale, Congressman Littlefield and Powers and others.

The party immediately started for a drive about the city.

At Waterville, on the way from Augusta to this city, where are located a number of large paper mills, a stand had been erected, close to the depot, and from there the president spoke briefly to a large number of people, many of whom came from a distance in all sorts of conveyances to hear him. The train was slowed down also at Pitt-field and Newport. At each of these places the enthusiasm was genuine and hearty, and the shouts of the people as the president came out could be heard for some time after the train went by.

The Old American Spirit.

In his speech in Bangor, the president said in part: "I am glad to see the farmers of Maine. During the century that has passed the growth of industrialism has necessarily meant that cities and towns have increased in population more rapidly than the country districts. And yet, it remains now, as it has always been, that in the last resort, the country districts are those in which we are sure to find the old American spirit, the old American habits of thought and ways of living."

"Almost all of our forefathers have been brought up in the country, and most of them worked hard on the farms in their youth and got their early mental training in the healthy democracy of farm life. The forces which made these farm boys leaders of men when they had come to their full manhood, are still at work in our country districts. Life on the farm, in a lumbering camp, on a ranch, all have paid their part."

Change and Progress.

"It must not be understood from this that there has been no change in farming and farm life. The contrary is the case. There has been much change, much progress. The granges and similar organizations, the farmers' institutes and alliances, which promote intelligent co-operations and give opportunity for social and mental intellectual intercourse among the farmers have played a large part in raising the level of life and work in the country districts. In the domain of government, the department of agriculture, since its foundation, has accomplished results as striking as those obtained under any other branch of the national administration."

BOZEMAN GIRLS SAY THEY INDUCED THE BOYS TO ELOPE WITH THEM SUNDAY.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Bozeman, August 27.—F. Swann, aged 19, and E. Conroy, aged 21, the two boys who eloped Sunday with Jennie Coale and Lulu Baker of Bozeman, got on a Northern Pacific passenger train at Timberline and the conductor took them in charge and notified the sheriff at Livingston, but before that officer arrived the boys again escaped.

The girls were found in the hills north of Chestnut and were brought home, and it is said that they now acknowledge they induced the boys to elope with them.

Both of them are members of the Presbyterian Sunday school and there was no reason for their mad prank.

Both boys were captured at 2 o'clock today at Elton, near Livingston. They were formerly "bell-hops" at a local hotel.
