The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink and white roses and a sumptuous supper was served before the departure of the bride and groom for the East, where they will spend their honeymoon.

The bride wore a traveling gown of navy blue cloth, with a large white picture hat trimmed with blue wings and was charmingly attractive.

Upon their return they will be at home at No. 110 North Wyoming street, Butte. The happy couple have the warmest congratulations and best wishes of a large circle of friends.

SOUND OF REVELRY

By Night and Butte's Elite Gather in Home of Mrs. C. W. Clark.

Miss Hammond of California was the honored guest at a dancing party given Friday evening by Mrs. Charles W. Clark at her home on West Broadway. The spacious house and its happy possessor never appeared to better advantage. The many guests, handsomely gowned in the richest of costumes and bedecked with scintillating jewels, produced a brilliant effect in the ballroom, over the floor of which the dancers glided to the sweet strains of the advanced before the last of the guests left Hand and Miss Goodale.

WIGGLE THEIR PINK TOES.

Babies Hold High Carnival at Function for Their Especial Benefit.

Mrs. E. B. Weirick's little daughter, Miss Josephine, was 8 months old yesterday. To celebrate the event, eight babies were brought to her home on West Park street and had as jolly a time as was possible, considering their inexperience. To make it interesting to the mothers of the little tots, prizes were given to those who could make the most out of the letters in Josephine.

Owing to the dense indifference of the infants, their parents entered the contest, which resulted in Baby Rowe getting the first prize, a picture book, and Baby Dygert, the second, a pair of kid shoes.

At the refreshment table, the place souvenirs were pretty sachets to perfume the wardrobes of the little ones. Present were: Babies Dierkes, Hodgens, Herbert Ryan, Dygert, Hennigsen, Rowe and Weirick. The Babies Ballard, Davis, Humeke and Leggat sent regrets. Others in attendance were: Mrs. J. E. UP IN THE MOUNTAINS THEY STAY THESE DAYS

There Is Little Doing in Anaconda Society Circles, Because Everybody Has Gone Away.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]

Anaconda, August 30.—This is the season of the year when most of the residents of Anaconda who can spare the time usually absent themselves from town for a few days or weeks, for a vacation in the hills. The camping parties from here this summer number a great many. They are continually coming and going. Those who are unable to get away for any length of time, take a run into the hills Sundays and content themselves with listening to what good time others more fortunate in the matter of time had on the annual trip. For this reason society events are not at all numerous during the month of August in any year and they are especially few this August.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Smith are visiting at Riverside place, the Bitter Root home of Mrs. Marcus Daly.

Mr. L. F. Funk gave a dinner and dancing party at the Montana hotel last night in honor of the younger society people.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Adams have rented the Conley property on East Fourth street, and will soon take up their residence there.

Mrs. M. S. Dean entertained 30 couple of Anaconda society folk at Mountain View Park last Thursday night.

Miss Dorothy Walsh of Butte visited several days this week with Mrs. J. M. Kennedy in this city.

Miss Dora Suprenant returned home last Wednesday after visiting with friends in the city for a few days.

Mrs. Theo. Ehret and daughter Bertha are at present visiting with friends and relatives in Indiana. They expect to be absent six weeks.

It Got Away.

[Philadelphia Record.] Mrs. Guzzler (as Guzzler comes in unsteadily at 3 a. m.)—You have no excuse for coming home at this hour and in this condition.

Guzzler—I had one, my dear, and it was a dandy, but I can't think what it was.

A Rural Parisian.

[Judge.] Joshua—And Jake's got back from Paris. They say he's fearfully stuck up over his trip. First man in the hull county that ever crossed the ocean.

Judson—Yes; but doesn't it make you tired the way that blamed gillie went and put 50 cents' worth of hartsorn in his hard cider to make it taste like absinthe?

History Rewritten

[New York Sun.] Columbus was recounting the perils through which he had passed.

"Hurricane!" he cried. "I never saw anything like it. Why, when I was passing around the horn the wind blew my name in the bottle!"

At this his friends remembering that the great man had come home in the steerage, dealt kindly with him.

The Only Moisture

Tess—I'm surprised that those stockings should have proved satisfactory.

Jess—I just used them for bathing stockings, you know.

Tess—Yes, but I thought moisture would make the dye run.

Jess—But then, you know, I don't perspire at all.
