PROGRAM FOR THE COMING INSTITUTE

WHAT THE TEACHERS OF SILVER BOW WILL TALK ABOUT AND WHO WILL ADDRESS THEM.

HEADS OF THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS OF WORK

Distinguished Pedagogue From the East is to Be Present and Give Us the Latest Pointers on the Education of the Young—Superintendent Mullins is Anxious for a Large Attendance.

Miss Mary Mullins, county superintendent of schools, today completed the preparation of the program of the Silver Bow county teachers' institute, which is to convene in this city at the high school next Monday and remain in session for five days.

In view of the recent circular of State Superintendent W. W. Welch discrediting the effectiveness of teachers' institutes the program is extremely interesting. The work of the meeting is divided into six departments with the following instructors: Dr. F. W. Traphagen, Bozeman Agricultural college, science; Miss B. F. Huntsman, Dillon Normal school, primary work with language and literature; Miss Alice Dinsmore, Butte High school, drawing; Professor W. F. Rocheleau, Chicago, history, didactics and reading; Miss Mamie Finnegan, Butte schools, music; Mrs. Verma Tracy Young, diacritical marking and orthography.

Professor R. G. Young will act in the capacity of general instructor, taking the teachers from every grade for their respective work at stated periods during the session.

Abstract of Program.

Each morning there will be a general session in the Auditorium of the High school. On Monday morning Miss Mullins will call the meeting to order at 10:30. After the calling of the roll and the reading of the minutes of the last meeting Professor Young will outline the purpose and work of the institute. He will be followed by Dr. H. H. Swain, president of the Dillon Normal, who will urge upon the teachers the necessity and advantage of normal training. At 1:30 in the afternoon the regular work of the institute will begin.

Professor W. F. Rocheleau, former president of the Illinois Normal school, will be present during the session and will take an active part in the work. Professor Rocheleau is one of the foremost men in educational work in the country and is the author of several excellent works on pedagogy and matters relating to school government. He will deliver a lecture at the evening session Thursday.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Warren Toole of Helena is registered at the Thornton.

Mrs. A. Gray and daughter leave on the Great Northern tonight for St. Paul.

W. Merrill, a capitalist from Chicago, who has been in the West some time, will leave tonight for his home.

Mr. A. Rogers of Minneapolis, who has been in the city some days, leaves on the Great Northern for his home tonight.

Walter Aitken, the well-known newspaper man of Livingston, and secretary of the Montana State Press association, is in the city.

E. J. Lane, the man charged with improper relations with Haze Casey, is not employed by H. L. Frank & Co., there being no such company. The concern that employs Lane is the Frank Commercial company.

BURGLAR'S BETTER HALF'S HARD FATE

MRS. FAY HARMON IS IN JAIL AND NOW MRS. ST. CLAIR IS ALSO LIKELY TO GO THERE.

It appears that the next worst thing to being a burglar is to be a burglar's wife. Not long ago an information was filed charging Fay Harmon, the better-half of Harmon, the burglar, with being an accomplice in the crimes of her husband, and this afternoon Deputy County Attorney Lynch drew up a complaint of receiving stolen property against the wife of William St. Clair, who is now in the county jail, awaiting his trial for burglary.

Hattie Higgins, one of the victims of the midsummer burglaries, is the complainant. She has identified several books, trinkets and bric-a-brac found in Mrs. St. Clair's house, as her property.

HUTCHINSON NAMED UPON THIRD TRIAL

HUNT'S MAN NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS BY IDAHO DEMOCRATS IN CONVENTION MET.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]

Pocatello, Sept. 5.—It was 11:30 o'clock this morning before the State Democratic convention was called to order, and then a further wait was necessary for the committee on resolutions, which had labored all night long with its problems. During the interval, Kootenai county moved that a conference committee of three be appointed to confer with a like committee from the populists on a division of the offices. No request from the populists for such a conference being before the convention, the motion was lost, after it had been ruled out of order by the chair.

Nominations for representative to congress were called for and by roll call, Joseph H. Hutchinson, Thomas L. Glenn, Avery C. Moore and James R. Sovereign were placed in nomination. Moore is the funny young man from Idaho county whose aspirations have excited the risibilities of the delegates, but on the first ballot he showed 96 votes to Hutchinson's 102, 122 being necessary to a choice. The convention nominated Hutchinson for congress on the third ballot.

Moore himself moved to make the nomination unanimous. Prior to this the committee on resolutions had reported and the report was accepted. Later Moore secured the addition of a special resolution pledging the legislature to pass an employer's liability bill.

Nature of Resolutions.

The resolutions reaffirm the Kansas City platform, call for the passage of certain measures that Governor Hunt vetoed, endorse several proposed enactments that the Idaho democratic supreme court has ruled against and endorse the state administration. The nomination of Hutchinson is regarded as a show of strength on Hunt's part, though Hunt does not this morning claim more than 107 votes, with 122 necessary to a choice. Martin's forces are trying to find a strong man to whom they can go, and have W. H. Watt of Blaine and Joe Lippincott of Boise under consideration.

There is still talk by the Hunt men of yet throwing a bomb into Heitfeldt's camp for the throw-down he gave them yesterday in the fight for the temporary organization.

Some of the Hunt men are blaming themselves and say that if they had selected Ravenal MacBeth of Custer for the temporary chairmanship instead of A. A. Fraser, they would have won out.

Message to Roosevelt.

Stewart Bryce, a member of the Idaho county delegation moved that a telegram be sent to President Roosevelt congratulating him on his narrow escape in the trolley accident of Wednesday. The motion was carried and the committee on resolutions instructed to forward the wire. The announcement was given out late last night that the senatorial question will be dropped and consequently the nomination of a candidate for the senate will not come before the convention.

BANKRUPTCY CASES COME UP IN COURT

SUMMARY OF MATTERS BROUGHT TODAY BEFORE U. S. JUDGE—A FAMOUS LITIGATION ON.

Two bankruptcy cases came up before Judge Hiram Knowles today in the United States district court. In that of C. M. Blatch of Helena the liabilities were set at $4,000 and the assets $3,000, part of which were claimed to be exempt. In the case of the Silver City Mercantile company, Parr & Sinclair appeared for J. R. Bordeaux.

The case of Walter W. Wilson vs. Miles Finlen was set for September 4 at 10 a. m. In the case of Charles A. Moore vs. George R. Mickey the defendant was granted 30 days in which to answer. In Maggie Johnson vs. National Union the stipulations were filed and the plaintiff granted 20 days in which to reply. In the case of John MacGinnis vs. the Boston & Montana Consolidated Copper and Mining company Attorney McHaiton appeared for the plaintiff and Attorney Shores for the defendants. Exceptions were taken to the master's reports, and Attorney Shores moved the adoption of the report and asked for the allowance of the master's fee to be taxed against the plaintiff. Same was taken under advisement.

At the afternoon session the case of the United States vs. Samuel T. Hauser, Edward L. Bonner and William A. Clark came up for hearing. The United States district attorney appeared for the government and Judge Toole of Helena represented S. T. Hauser, Clark & Templeman looked after Senator Clark's interests. The case is an old one and is a suit brought by the government to recover the amount lost by the defalcation of a deputy under C. H. Lyman, former collector of internal revenue. The defendants were on the bond of Lyman and are fighting the case on the ground that Lyman did not have the authority to discharge a deputy even when he knew he was not straight. The hearing of the case promises to bring up many interesting points of law bearing on the subject.

RICHARDS NAMED BY MINING MEN

J. H. Richards of Idaho was elected president of the Mining congress this afternoon over John Temple Grayson of Portland, by a vote of 86 to 26. The result of the ballot left little doubt and the report of the committee on election of officers went through. It is as follows:

S. W. Russell, Deadwood, S. D., first vice-president.

E. R. Buckley, Missouri, second vice-president.

T. E. Ewing of California, third vice-president.

Irwin Mahon, Pennsylvania, secretary.

Charles Goodale, Montana, treasurer.

L. Armstrong, J. T. Grayson and W. N. Kendall of Ohio are slated for membership on the executive committee.

and acted alike they would be Chinamen.

The president was asked to put the substitute motion to a test of the delegates and it was done. The motion was lost.

A call of the roll was then demanded and the president accorded the request, the ballot resulting in the defeat of the motion by a vote of 94 to 12.

Preparations were then made to put the motion for the adoption of the resolution to a vote, but before they could be carried out, Mrs. Haskell brought up a point of order and asked for a decision on it without further proceedings. She said her point was that the by-laws of the congress provided that one day's notice was necessary before such a change as that proposed could be made. She called for Mr. President, but while doing it 75 others were calling for the question, Pandemonium like that which usually characterizes the deliberations of a populist convention was at its zenith.

They All Talked at Once.

Half of the delegates were on their feet calling upon the president to put the motion. Mrs. Haskell stood with her right hand waving for another chance to say something, and the president's gavel was beating the table for order. When the din of battle had subsided Dr. Stephen of Montana suggested the appointment of a sergeant-at-arms.

Then Col. Grayson of Oregon moved that Mrs. Haskell be declared out of order and that the congress proceed to business, but Mrs. Haskell continued to call for her point of order demanding that no further business be done until it had been decided. The stenographer's notes of the notice, which E. E. Beebe and several members of the congress said had been given in regard to the proposed change in name, were not on hand for reference and the president announced that he could not give a decision without them. Mr. Beebe again called the attention of the president to the fact that the proper notice had been given, but Mrs. Haskell kept on insisting upon her demand. Then the delegates who desired to vote on the motion again called for the motion and Mrs. Haskell's voice was silenced in the roar.

Were Tired of the Confab.

The delegates insisted upon the president giving a decision in the matter without further delay and the latter did so, declaring that the proper notice of the intended change had been given.

More wrangling followed, but ex-Governor Rickards came to the rescue and soon had it under control. "I appeal from the decision of the president in declaring Mrs. Haskell out of order," said he.

Mr. Rickards then took a seat at one side of the stage, but got up again almost immediately and put the question of appeal to a vote of the delegates, with the result that the president was sustained.

Shortly before 12 o'clock the resolution as prepared by the committee was submitted to the delegates in the midst of an uproar of noise on the part of the opposing forces and adopted by a vote of 103 to 7.
