IN HONOR OF VISITORS.

Mrs. Charles Schatzlein Entertains at Whist in West Granite Street Home.

Mrs. Charles Schatzlein of West Granite street entertained a party at whist in honor of Mrs. Barclay of Helena, Mrs. Charles Lyman, Mrs. E. H. Merrill and Mrs. R. H. Phillips of California and Mrs. Gay of Connecticut. Six tables had their quartets of players eagerly competing for prizes. The first was a gem—a character study of an Indian head—painted by Mr. Schatzlein. Mrs. F. W. McCrimmon was the fortunate winner of this artistic piece of work. The second—an embossed leather card case—was captured by Mrs. R. Kunkel, and the guest prize—a beautiful Doulton plate—was presented to Mrs. Reed.

The decorations of the rooms were particularly pleasant, sweet peas, brown-eyed Betties and daisies, in their contrasting colors lending their fresh beauty to all available spots in parlor and dining-room.

After the distribution of prizes, refreshments were served and greatly enjoyed by Mesdames Barclay, Charles Lyman, E. H. Merrill, R. H. Phillips, George F. Lyman, F. T. McBride, Reed, John Davis, Donald Campbell, Gay, John Gillie, Mary Emerson, R. H. Paxson, Brownfield, R. Kunkel, W. B. Hamilton, F. Holtbrook, F. W. McCrimmon, J. R. Wharton, J. W. Gunn, J. H. Vivian, Ben Calkins, H. Rockefeller, J. Braddock, T. Moore, Weinesary, W. A. Smith, Miss Hamilton and the Misses Strasburger.

MEETING OF KISMETS.

Handsome Prizes Won in Contest at Residence of Mrs. R. L. Bradley.

Mrs. R. L. Bradley of No. 732 West Broadway, entertained the Kismets last Monday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated and luncheon served. All the prizes were the work of the hostess and the playing spirited. Mrs. J. M. Hinkle and Mrs. David Dixon cut for the first prize, a handsome linen centerpiece, embroidered in American Beauty roses, Mrs. Dixon being the winner. She also won the lone-hand prize, a pretty hand-painted china plate. The second prize, a hand-painted china olive dish, went to Mrs. E. W. Shively, while the consolation prize, a Japanese cup and saucer, solaced Mrs. John M. Barber.

The members present were: Mesdames David Reinhardt, Pat Mullins, E. W. Shively, Squiers, David Dixon, T. A. Grigg, Hugh C. Laughlin, and Miss Dorothy Suprenant, and guests M. S. Somerville, John M. Barber, J. M. Hinkle and J. K. Carter.

OF HER FRIENDS HERE.

Mary MacLane Speaks Kindly in a Letter to Mrs. Samuel Johnstone.

Mrs. Sam Johnstone received a letter this week from Mary MacLane, in which the young authoress speaks kindly of Butte and her friends at home. She writes in an appreciative manner of the kindness her friends have shown, and expresses much affection for her Montana home. Speaking of her life in the East, she says:

"I am in New York for another fortnight. I am writing a series of articles for the Sunday World. I do this because I do myself so much more justice than if I left myself to the mercy of mere interviews. Perhaps you will read my articles."

COMPLIMENTARY TEA

To Los Angeles Visitors Given by Mrs. John Forbis a Pretty Affair.

Mrs. John Forbis of Quartz and Excelsior was the charming hostess at one of the prettiest dinners of the season, given on Wednesday evening, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Connell of Los Angeles. A large mound of pink and white asters, intermingled with candytuft and the always lovely gipsy phila, was the center of attraction on the dining table.

The lights of many wax candles and chandelier were softened with pink shades, showing off to the best advantage, rich cut-glass and handsome silver. Monogram place-cards marked the seats of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lavelle, Mrs. McKay of Salt Lake, Miss Edwina Hammond of California, F. W. Bacorn, Charles Goodale and the host and hostess.

MUSIC AND DANCING

Occupy Time of Guests of Mrs. Fred J. Rowlands at Columbia Gardens.

Mrs. Fred J. Rowlands took a merry party out to Columbia Gardens on Wednesday evening to enjoy the concert given by the Boston & Montana band in compliment to the delegates of the International Mining congress. After the concert they repaired to the pavilion, where dancing engaged their time until the car took them back to the home of the hostess on West Broadway for supper.

Mrs. Rowlands has the happy faculty of making her guests thoroughly enjoy themselves, and this event was no exception to the rule. This was the unanimous opinion of Mr. and Mrs. Merry of Hor, the Misses Blackiston, Trellis Carter, Agnes Holland, Mollie Walker, Mary Tuttle of Philadelphia, and Messrs. George Curtis, Thomas Markley, Glenn Harrington, Ben Losby, Ben Cornelius, Dr. Pigott and Hooten Blackiston of Washington, D. C.

IN HONOR OF MISS BLAINE.

Mrs. Dr. A. W. Corner Gives Tea for Number of Butte Society Leaders.

Mrs. Dr. A. W. Corner of South Dakota street, gave a tea Thursday for Miss Blaine of Helena. The table was prettily decorated with pink sweet peas and shaded lights. Bunches of the same flowers were tastefully arranged in the parlor, where the guests were received, giving a very pleasing and beautiful effect.

Those who enjoyed the tea and the many good things served were Mrs. M. L. Cunningham, Mrs. W. L. Renick, Miss Anderson, Mrs. Attwater, Mrs. H. O. Wilson, Mrs. W. Lewis, Mrs. Charles Leonard, Mrs. N. B. Leonard, Miss Leonard, Mrs. Sievers, Mrs. Riddell, Mrs. Junius Saunders, Mrs. C. F. Lloyd, and the Misses Julia and Cora Sanders.

GIVES KAFFEE KLATCH.

Mrs. I. N. Symons Entertains in German Style and Handsome Manner.

Mrs. I. N. Symons of North Washington street had a "kaffee klatch" last Wednesday afternoon and evening. It was attended by a large number of interested friends. Sweet peas literally filled the house, and their delicate perfume and pretty colorings were a source of pleasure that all appreciated.

Refreshments were served, topics of general interest discussed and congratulations offered on the success of the entertainment.

THEY PLAYED CLOSELY.

Five Cut for First and Nine for Second Prizes at This Euchre.

Mrs. Dan Brown of West Quartz street had a large euchre party yesterday afternoon. In every nook and corner, sweet peas, asters, red roses and palms, beautifully arranged, showed their sweet faces. Each tally card had its red rose for the fair wearer. The most punched card was that of Mrs. Frank Glasser, who won a cut-glass berry bowl. The second prize, a china cake plate, was captured by Mrs. E. H. Irish. The lone-hand prize, a cut-glass berry bowl, went to Mrs. C. M. Prentice. Five players cut for the first prize and nine for the second.

The players were: Mesdames W. D. Bartlett, S. H. Greenwood, B. C. Leyson, C. J. Ferrel, L. Hobart, Anderson, J. L. Carroll, D. J. Charles, H. Charles, C. M. Prentice, Chevigny, E. G. Smith, G. H. Berry, M. Ingall, F. A. Gilbert, J. J. Ferrel, J. Plummer, S. Treloar, F. Glasser, E. H. Irish, W. H. Lindsay, W. Shore, A. Stanberg, H. Kennedy, Shodair, Patterson, E. W. Harney, T. J. O'Brien, W. Whose Delightful Luncheon at the Thornton Thursday Afternoon Was Among the Most Enjoyable of This Week's Society Events.

DINNER AT THE THORNTON.

Charming Affair Given by Mrs. Tom Lavelle One of the Events of Season.

Without doubt one of the most enjoyable luncheons ever given in Butte was that of Mrs. Tom Lavelle at the Thornton hotel, Thursday afternoon. The color decoration was of crimson and gold and the favors emblematical.

The charming luncheon was given in honor of Mrs. M. J. Connell and Miss Frances Thornton, two prominent society women, whom Butte delights to entertain. The table decorations were decidedly unique. A large crimson balloon, over which golden glow gracefully drooped, covered an immense electric globe. Below this was suspended a parachute filled with crimson carnations. Ropes of smilax and gipsy phila hung from the balloon to the table, over which they trailed in reckless profusion. To the plates of each of the 21 guests was a golden cord, falling from the balloon and having, at the end, a mother's gilded candlestick, with golden candle, the hanc e filled with crimson carnations. Candelabra, with many crimson-shaded candles, gave a subdued light, adding to the charms of the fair ones at the table. The place cards were storks' heads, beautifully done in water colors.

The invited guests were: Mesdames M. J. Connell, Charles W. Clark, J. K. Clark, I. C. Jenks, A. T. Morgan, J. J. McHatton, John Templeman, H. W. Turner, J. J. Hennessy, John Ryan, J. K. Heslet, J. M. A WEEK OF PLEASURE.

Columbia Gardens Never Did Such a Business in Its History.

It seems that more people have enjoyed the pleasures of Columbia Gardens this week than at any time since its establishment.

Crowds went out on Labor day and picnicked to their hearts' content. They go out every day and take advantage of the Garden's fresh air, sweet scented flowers and beautiful surroundings.

With the mining congress in session this week, many parties in society circles were made up to show visitors Butte's pleasure grounds and to give the opportunity of attending the Boston & Montana concert and examine the rich mineral exhibit contributed by the mines of Montana and the Northwest.

Then the circus on Thursday attracted a crowd of pleasure seekers from all parts of town, all bent on having fun.

TO THE HIGH MERRY TIME.

Mrs. Charles Clark Takes a Tallyho Party to the Circus.

Driving out in grand style, with ribbons flying, went a gay party in a tallyho to the circus last Thursday evening. Mrs. Charles Clark was the hostess and the pleasurable pastime was in honor of Miss Hammond of California. Every one has fun at a circus, where rollicking good humor always prevails; certainly this crowd overlooked nothing and missed nothing that could in any way enhance their pleasure or give amusement. "To the Thornton" was the order given the driver of the four-in-hand after the circus. Arriving at that famous hostelry, the party sat down to a sumptuous supper.

On the tallyho were Mrs. Charles W. Clark, Mrs. M. J. Connell, the Misses Shores, Hammond, Scallon, Thbrnton and Annie and Allie Lowry; Messrs. Busch, Frank, Harrington, Markley, J. Freund, R. Freund, B. LeBeau and Sellers Largey.

GUNN SILVER WEDDING.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Gunn Entertain Many Friends at Their Pretty Home.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Gunn celebrated their silver wedding on Friday evening at their home on West Granite street. Invitations to this interesting event were in letters of silver, issued not only to friends of late years, but to many who attended the wedding 25 years before.

Mrs. Gunn's pretty home was made doubly attractive with lovely flowers and softly shaded lights. The reception hall was decorated with rich, golden glow, yellow shades covered the lights of the chandelier, while pink was the favored color in parlor and dining room, gracefully effective in pink asters and carnations, with feathery asparagus vines and ferns.

The hostess, beautifully gowned in silver gray, was assisted by Mrs. J. S. Hammond, Mrs. Buzzo, Mrs. John Forbis and Mrs. John Ritter. The popularity of the happy couple was shown by the many valuable presents displayed in the parlor. A couplet of verses, attached to one of these, was written for the occasion by Dr. L. E. Holmes of Bozeman. Souvenirs of the anniversary for the ladies were silver spoons, with "1877 and 1902" engraved thereon, gentlemen receiving silver corkscrews and heart key rings.

Congratulations were warmly expressed and the delights of the dining-room properly appreciated.

Those invited were Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Buzzo, Mr. and Mrs. John Forbis, Mr. and Mrs. Ritter, Dr.
