BRAVE STAND FOR COMMON PEOPLE

WASHINGTON REPUBLICANS UNITE IN APPROVING POLICY OF REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION. STATE IS PLEDGED TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT Convention Now in Session for the Purpose of Nominating Three Congressmen and a Judge for the Supreme Court—Congressional Nominations Are Said to Be Prearranged.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 10.—The republican state convention, by a unanimous vote, has sent a message to President Roosevelt approving his "brave stand for the common people" and pledging support in 1904. In calling the convention to order, Chairman Shively took occasion to caustically criticize the party of the state for causing the defeat of Frink for governor two years ago, in the face of 13,000 republican plurality. According to a prearranged combination, F. W. Cushman of Tacoma and W. L. Jones of North Yakima will be renominated for congress, and W. E. Humphrey of Seattle will be named as the third congressional candidate. Brownell of Everett effected a strong combination of Western Washington voters except Spokane county, but lost his chances at that moment because King county declined to combine with him. H. E. Hadley will be nominated for judge of the supreme court. The big fight for or against the endorsement of Governor McBride's request for an appointive railroad commission will come later this afternoon. Several counties are now in caucus on this proposition. King county, with 90 votes, voted about 60 against and 30 for, and as a result King county will vote as a unit against a commission. Spokane county, although instructed for a commission, will vote almost to a man against one.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S ARMY MOVEMENTS

GERMANY'S MILITARY STRENGTH IS VIEWED BY MANY GREAT GENERALS OF WAR.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Frankfort-on-the-Oder, Germany, Sept. 10.—Emperor William's guests were a yawny and rather a haggard lot this morning. Prince Albrecht, as the emperor's representative, entertained all of them at dinner last evening and it was towards 12 when the party broke up. At 3 a. m., or a quarter past, they had themselves called, the emperor having directed that the battle begin at 7 o'clock. The field of the maneuvers is situated quite a distance by rail from Frankfort-on-the-Oder and the princes and generals had to assemble at the railroad station at 4:30 a. m. to catch the special train. Even then the emperor was a-field before them. Six thousand infantry and 200 pieces of artillery were in action. The reports near and distant of the many thousands of rifles was broken at intervals by the tearing, rip-saw effect of the firing of the machine guns.

Emperor William, Major General Corbin, Major General Young, Brigadier General Wood, Lord Roberts, General French and the other visitors and numerous staffs, in all 100 horsemen, looked on from a hilltop midway between a portion of the hostile line. On a rim of the horizon to the west were 11 batteries of artillery under whose imaginary shells the infantry of the red army advanced. The scenic effect of the whole, especially of the seemingly limitless number of troops satisfied the observers. The red army pushed through the blue's center for three hours' brisk work, and the aeronauts sent up a great yellow balloon which was visible for 10 miles around, as a signal that the umpires had ordered a suspension of the engagement. During a wait of three-quarters of an hour for the return of the special train, Lord Roberts and Generals Young and Wood talked most of the time together. Emperor William will camp with the cavalry tonight, occupying a pavilion especially constructed for him. The imperial baggage consisted of 200 trucks.

THINKS MULLEN IS A BOLD BURGLAR

POLICE ARREST SUSPICIOUS LOOKING CHARACTER—JAMES HOYLAND LANDED.

John Mullen, a rather tough looking character, was arrested by Special Officer Barney McGillicie at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Mullen is believed to be a burglar with an unsavory record. He was arrested at the special instance of Mrs. Maria Colella, who charges him with having entered her room at the corner of Park and Arizona streets and carrying away a telescope grip containing clothes valued at $80. Mullen will be held for burglary. Policeman Henderson this afternoon arrested James Hoyland on the charge of petit larceny. Lawrence Wheeland, who lives at 304 South Ohio street, accuses Hoyland of stealing several pet pigeons. Both Hoyland and Wheeland are boys. Hoyland will be tried tomorrow morning in police court.

BOERS IN CONFERENCE WITH BRITISH SECRETARY

Boer generals disclaimed any desire to alter the terms of surrender in any way. On the subject of amnesty for the rebels General Botha expressed his disappointment that after the promise given by Lord Kitchener, the rebels had not been granted amnesty at the time of King Edward's coronation, in reply to which Mr. Chamberlain promised that the imperial government would not hinder any generous intentions of the government's officers in Natal and Cape Colony in regard to rebels. As to the return of Burgheers to South Africa, the colonial secretary declared it was the government's intention to retain the right to prevent the return of disloyal Burgheers who had not honestly accepted the terms of peace, instancing former State Secretary Reitz of the Transvaal, as a case in point, and say that Mr. Reitz was using language on the continent inconsistent with the declaration he had signed at Vereeniging.

General Botha said that he hoped the "sins of one man would not be visited on others," adding: "If one man says foolish things, let him suffer therefor alone."

On the subject of martial law, Mr. Chamberlain said it would not be continued much longer. General Botha concluded with an appeal for the widows and orphans and said he considered that the appropriation of $15,000,000 was inadequate.

Replying to this Mr. Chamberlain compared Great Britain's treatment of the Boers with the treatment of the South by the North after the civil war in America. "I appeal to that," said Mr. Chamberlain, "because that stands out as a case in which more than ever before or, indeed, ever since, the victor, the conqueror showed a magnanimous and generous feeling to the conquered. There was good reason for this because they were brothers of the same race, the same religion, the same everything. It was a civil war; but even in that case the north was that is to say, the victorious side, made no provision whatever, either by way of grant, pension or allowance to the people who had been wounded, to the side that had been conquered. They gave them their lives and their liberty, and after a period of 10 years gave them votes, but did not give them any money compensation."

Want General's Help. "But we have gone a step beyond that, because we have contributed in addition to our own enormous expenses a very large sum to relieve those who are really destitute in our colonies. We have done more than I think was expected and we have done more, I think, than we could afford to do, and I think it would be undesirable for the generals to press us any further in this matter, either now or in writing."

Proceeding, Mr. Chamberlain reciprocated the desire expressed by General Botha that they should all live in peace in the future in South Africa. Mr. Chamberlain concluded with saying that the government would be glad of the co-operation of men like the generals, who had loyally accepted the new situation. As they wanted South Africa to be a happy abiding place for all, he felt sure that if the burgheers met the British half way they would find them quite as good friends in the future as they had been loyal enemies in the past.
