[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, Sept. 10.—At last night's meeting of the Lincoln Republican club that body passed resolutions indorsing the holding of caucuses prior to the date of the primaries in the different precincts and the consequent doing away of the "slate" tickets. This resolution also advocates a larger representation in the county convention than has been the case in past years.

Kerlin of the committee appointed to secure suitable quarters for the club, brought in a majority report in the matter, and after much discussion it was decided, if possible, to get the room in the Petritz block for that purpose.

HIGH WINDS FAN THE FOREST FIRES

WOODS IN MOUNTAINS WEST OF CITY MAY BE ENTIRELY DESTROYED BY BLAZE.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, Sept. 10.—The high winds that prevailed here Monday and Tuesday have fanned the forest fires raging in the mountains west of this city into a fierce fire not witnessed before in years.

It is said that hundreds of cords of cut-wood have been burned and acre upon acre of valuable standing timber is being destroyed.

During previous years it has always been possible to extinguish the fire at different points, and thus save considerable timber and ultimately kill the fire altogether; but, so far, no effort has been made to stop the present fire, and unless a rain visits that section soon the loss will reach into thousands of dollars.

TIGERS AND SENATORS PLAY TEN INNING GAME

Harmon is Wild but Holds Down Helena Batsmen to Three Hits—Tacoma Hit Slagle Hard.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Helena, Sept. 10.—Ten innings were required for the Tigers to beat the Senators yesterday, ten innings of brilliant plays and unexpected situations.

Harmon, who was in the box for the visitors, did some wonderful twirling, and the best Helena could do with his superb delivery was three hits. Had Harmon not lost his control in the fourth inning the locals would have stood an excellent chance of being shut out. The visiting twirler, however, was a trifle wild and in the fourth inning after one man had been retired he passed Shaffer to first.

Slagle, who undertook to do the pitching honors for Helena, was hit hard and often and only good fielding kept the visitors from scoring more runs than they did. Andrews was the bright particular star in this respect. Out of four times at the bat he connected safely four times, one of the hits being a double.

The Tigers scored two men in the first inning, Andrews' long hit along the right field foul line scoring both. Another run in the fourth and one in the seventh tied the score. In the tenth Slagle sent a fly to Flannery. Rockenfield hit to short but Shaffer missed the throw at first. Hutchinson was retired and Rockenfield was advanced to second. Andrews singled and Rockenfield scored. The former stole second and later came home on a single by McCarthy. Helena was unable to do anything in her half and the score stood 6 to 4 in favor of the visitors.

The game was replete with sensational plays in the field. Rockenfield made a fine one-handed block and throw to first. Few misplays were made by either side.

The score by innings— Helena 2 0 0 4 0 0 0 0 0 4

Stolen bases—Nagle, Rockenfield, Andrews, Schmeer. Two-base hit—Andrews. Bases on balls—Off Slagle, 2; off Harmon, 8. Passed ball—Sullivan. Double plays—Rockenfield to McCarthy to Hutchinson; Rockenfield to McCarthy; Schmeer to Peoples to Shaffer. Three-base hits—Hutchinson, Zalusky, Slagle. Struck out—By Slagle, 6; by Harmon, 4. Left on bases—Tacoma, 7; Helena, 3. Umpire—McCarthy.

PORTLAND IS SHUT OUT BY THE SEATTLE TEAM

Rotten Fielding and Poor Work at the Stick Accounts for Miserable Showing.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Portland, Sept. 10.—Portland lost the game to Seattle yesterday. In fact the local team has not played a worse game of ball in a long time. The fielders piled error on error until the exhibition became really painful, even to a disinterested spectator.

Kostal was in the box for Portland and the Seattle players found him extremely to their liking. In the fifth inning they bunched their hits and Portland bunched her errors, and before Mr. Kostal had come down again and the fielders had collected their scattered wits, Seattle had five runs to her credit.

There is only one side to the story. Seattle scored the first run in the fourth. Klopff hit to the left field fence for two bases and Hurley's single in the same direction brought him home. The fifth was a sloppy exhibition all around and the only feature was the frequency with which the Seattle runners crossed the rubber.

In the eighth Klopff was good for another double and scored on Dalrymple's single. Drennan, Babbitt and Kelly both connected for safe drives in the eighth and another run was the result of their combined efforts. Eight to nothing, that was the story. Six errors by Portland fielders and only five little hits, that explains it.

The score by innings— Seattle 0 0 0 1 5 0 1 0 8

MAY SETTLE THE STRIKE

North American Says That J. P. Morgan Has Planned a Settlement.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Philadelphia, Sept. 10.—The North American this morning says that J. P. Morgan has assented to a plan proposed by Governor Stone of Pennsylvania for ending the coal strike. The plan, according to the North American, was submitted to Mr. Morgan yesterday by P. A. B. Widener of this city.

The plan in brief is for the miners to return to work without signed agreements; that the operators by concessions adjust the differences existing between the miners and the companies; that if, after waiting a reasonable time, the operators fail to do this, an arbiter be appointed, and that if the men deem the decision of the arbiter as unjust, then the men can again go on strike.

The paper also says that Governor Stone immediately telegraphed President Mitchell for a conference, and that the meeting between the governor and miners' champion will take place probably today.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT UNABLE TO INTERFERE

Could Not Possibly Take Any Action One Way or the Other Unless Both Sides Agree.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Cincinnati, Sept. 10.—A guest of President Roosevelt during a portion of his trip through Ohio was asked last night if the subject of the settlement of the Pennsylvania coal strike was discussed. He replied in the affirmative. The guest of the president says no man deprecates the present condition more than does the president, but he does not see clearly how he could take any part in adjusting the difficulty. It is proposed that he shall act because he is president.

Any interference on his part, except by request of both parties, would be construed into a threat to use the great power of his office to coerce one side or the other. If that were really so the action would be interference and not arbitration. If both sides should make the request that the president should select an arbitration committee he would be glad to do so.

If such a request should be made with the agreement that the miners should be permitted to return to work pending the decision, and both to abide by the findings of the committee, the finding to be effective from the time the men went to work, the president would be glad to select such a committee.

Unless both sides made the request voluntarily he would not feel at liberty to interfere.

LUMBER COMPANY HAVE A NEW PLAN

A TEXAS CONCERN WILL PRACTICE IT ON A MILLION AND A QUARTER ACRES.

FORESTRY ON VERY LARGE SCALE

Kirby Lumber Company Puts Into Use the Working Plan for its Lands Prepared by the Bureau at Washington—Task of Preparing the Plan Will Be in Charge of a Well Known Expert.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Washington, Sept. 10.—Forestry on a huge scale than has ever been attempted before in this country by a private corporation will be practiced in Southeast Texas when the Kirby Lumber company puts into use the working plan for its lands to be prepared by the bureau of forestry.

The lumbering operations of the Kirby company are probably the largest in the world. They extend over a tract of a million and a quarter acres of pine lands, which contain about 80 per cent of all the longleaf pine of Texas—a vast single body of virgin forest reaching out over seven counties, and uninterrupted except for the clearings around the villages and farms which it incloses.

[This great forest is estimated to have contained, uncut—and the estimate is low—six and a quarter billion merchantable feet of lumber, board measure. The cuttings already made amount to only a small percentage of what the great forest originally contained.]

The company operates 17 mills, which now make an annual cut of 250,000,000 feet, board measure, and supports a population of 15,000 people. Since the forest is mature and is helped rather than harmed by the cutting of the larger trees, the annual cut is to be increased to 400,000,000 feet. In addition to the trees used for lumber, which are cut down to as low a diameter as 12 inches, 700,000 ties are being cut out of the forest from trees between 9 and 12 inches in diameter to fill a contract with the Santa Fe railroad.

It is just because its operations are on such a large scale that the Kirby company has decided it must protect itself by adopting some system of forestry. Large as its holdings are, unless they are properly managed and protected they must sooner or later be exhausted.

Even if the obligation to the 15,000 people dependent for a living on the lumbering operations should be ignored, the investment made in mills and equipment is too great to imperil by exhausting the timber supply.

Forestry receives little encouragement when the profits of lumbering are small, the markets poor, and the operations conducted with difficulty, but on the Kirby tract these conditions are reversed. The company is making a high profit on its timber, the demand for lumber is excellent and lumbering operations are made exceedingly easy by the lay of the land and the condition of the forest. The lands are in Jasper, Sabine, Hardin, Newton, St. Augustine, Angelina, and Tyler counties and were bought with an eye to simplifying and cheapening lumber operations. The labor supply is steady, and a railroad runs through the forest from north to south.

Last winter Overton W. Price, assistant chief, and Thomas H. Sherrard, field assistant, of the Bureau of Forestry, made a preliminary examination of the lands at the company's request and returned a report stating the lines along which forestry might be practiced with profit in the Kirby company's forest. The company accepted the report and asked that a complete working plan be made.

The task of preparing this working plan will begin November 15, and will be in charge of Mr. Sherrard, who is an expert on Southern pines. Thirty men, established in three camps, will make the measurements and gather the figures on which the plan will be based.

Several problems must be worked out, whose solution will be of value wherever lumbering is practiced in the longleaf pine belt. The most important of these is the fire problem. The first necessity in planning for further crops on lumbering lands is to protect those lands from fires, which kill the reproduction. Light fires repeatedly burn over the forest floor in the longleaf forest, and while they do no damage to the large trees, all the young growth is killed. The fire problem, briefly stated, is whether it is best to attempt to protect all the forest or to limit the protection to cut-over areas. Since the longleaf pine in five years attains a size large enough to protect itself from any but the severest fires, it is probable that the system of fire protection will apply only to lands cut over within the last five years.

The cutting of trees for railroad ties brings up for settlement a matter of interest not only to the Kirby company, but to every tie company in the country. On the Kirby lands trees between nine and 12 inches in diameter are used for ties, and trees above 12 inches are cut into saw timber. The question has been raised by the Bureau whether it would be better to allow all the trees 12 inches and under to grow into the more valuable saw timber and get the ties out of the tops of the larger trees. A great deal of measuring and calculating will have to be done to settle this point.

JUNTA IS NOW ORGANIZED

Sailors from the Battleship Iowa Disembark on Friars Island.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, Sept. 10.—Dispatches from Manaoas say a revolutionary junta has been organized there with the object, cables a Rio de Janeiro correspondent of attacking the Bolivian troops in the territory of Acre.

Baron de Rio Branco has accepted the post of minister of foreign affairs. The new administration will be organized next November. There has been comment because a detachment of sailors from the United States battleship Iowa has disembarked at Friars' island.

United States Minister Bryan declares that the governor of Bahia authorized all American vessels to disembark on the island.
