

MAY-ARREST TRACK MEN AGAIN ERE NIGHTFALL

City Attorney Has Advised Chief of Police to Make Another Raid on Races.

HOW THE MUNICIPALITY LOVES THE COUNTY MEN

Pretty Compliments Passed Between a Deputy and Police in Charge of Patrol Wagon Full of Prisoners—What Lamb Has to Say on the Situation—Charge of Contempt Is Nonsense—Trouble Has Probably Just Begun.

There is a strong chance that the men now operating out at the race track will be arrested again by the city officials ere the shades of night have fallen.

If Chief of Police Reynolds follows the advice of City Attorney Lamb, he will arrest the pool-sellers today and will keep on arresting them as long as they continue to sell pools on foreign races.

And should Chief Reynolds decide to again take Eddie Sachs and others into custody, the county officers may take a hand, in which case some of the hottest times yet seen in Silver Bow county may be recorded.

The city wants the pool-selling at the race track to discontinue, and the county wants it to go on. There's the rub.

When the city officers made the arrest of the track men several days ago and were returning with the prisoners to town in the patrol wagon, two deputy sheriffs hailed them on South Arizona street and the following conversation took place between one of the deputies and the policeman in charge of the wagon:

Exchange Any Persiflage.
"Where did you get those men?" asked the deputy.

"It's none of your business," replied the city officer; "but if you want to know real bad, we got them at the race track."

"What are you going to do with them?"
"That's some more of your business, but maybe you'll find out if you come up to the city jail and examine the blotter."

"Well," remarked the county officer, "it's a good thing you didn't arrest them while we were at the track, or there would have been trouble. You are in the city limits now, where you are protected by a rotten city government, but let us catch you out of the limits once and we'll show you something."

"We might be out tomorrow," said one of the policemen, "and if you start trouble you will find men who can shoot as crooked as you can."

This shows the affection that exists between the sheriff's office and that of the chief of police.

Lamb Has His Little Say.
City Attorney Lamb says the charges of contempt of court are absurd and that they will be dismissed at the hearing.

"Those people who are operating now at the track are not representing the Montana Jockey club, in whose favor Judge Harney's injunction was issued," said the city attorney. "I have asked the officers of the club, and they tell me they know nothing about the present operations at the track."

"But even if we had arrested the officers of the jockey club, what of it? We arrested Sachs and the others for violating the law against pool-selling and not horse racing. The injunction preventing us from interfering with the Montana Jockey club applied to racing and not to pool-selling."

Could Juggle, If He Liked.
"I have it in my power to allow Sam Martin to open his poolroom in town again, and if I did that the race track people would have to shut up shop, for it would ruin their business. I want to be consistent, and for that reason I will not allow poolrooms in the city limits again after closing them."

"The best citizens of the town are back of me in my efforts to stop pool-selling. Over $24,000 used to go out of Butte every month when the poolrooms were running, and now almost that much is going out on account of the pool-selling at the track."

EPISCOPAL CHURCH MEETS IN CANADA

QUESTION OF MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE OCCUPIES ATTENTION OF THE BISHOPS.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
St. John, N. B., Sept. 12.—Marriage and divorce regulations caused a lively diversion at the session of the general synod of the Anglican church, which is sitting at Montreal. Several delegates from this section proposed new legislation on the subject, but no decided changes were made.

The synod, however, voted to prohibit a man from marrying his deceased wife's sister, or deceased wife's sister's daughter. This action will be binding upon all priests of the Anglican church in Canada in the solemnization of matrimony.

STRIKERS RESORT TO BLOWS AGAIN

NON-UNION MEN IN WILKESBARRE ATTACKED AND BEATEN ON WAY TO WORK.

MITCHELL SAYS END IS NOT IN SIGHT AS YET

Tamaqua Operators Are Preparing to Strike Up Several Plants—Pottsville Strikers Meet and Resolve Not to Surrender Until Told to Do So by President Mitchell or a Convention.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 12.—Non-union men on their way to work at the Prospect mine of the Lehigh Valley Coal company today were attacked by a mob.

Two men were knocked down and several shots fired but no one was injured. Sheriff Jacobs sent a number of officers to the scene and order was restored.

Tamaqua, Pa., Sept. 12.—Officials of the coal companies state that on Monday two more breakers in this section will be converted into washeries. A force of deputies is being secured to guard the operations.

Nearly all the locals of the United Mine Workers in this vicinity have held meetings at which the strikers reaffirm their allegiance to President Mitchell and pledged themselves to stay out until the coal companies grant concessions, no matter how long it may be. The men apparently have little hope that the meeting of Mitchell and Governor Stone in Harrisburg tomorrow will have much effect on the strike situation.

There is No End in Sight.
Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 12.—In response to a message by the News, John Mitchell, president of the Mine Workers' union today replied as follows from Wilkesbarre:

"There is nothing to indicate an early settlement of the anthracite strike."

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 12.—A number of the local branches of the United Mine Workers in this district have adopted resolutions expressing their intention to remain on strike until ordered back to work by National President Mitchell, or by a convention of Mine Workers.

FIERCE FIRE IN THE OIL FIELDS

BEAUMONT PUMPING PLANTS DESTROYED BY CONFLAGRATION WHICH IS RAGING.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Beaumont, Texas, Sept. 12.—The fire in the oil fields is still raging. Higgins' 37,000-barrel tank is burning; Wood's gusher is shooting a column of flame 50 feet high; gas escaping from other wells is burning.

The fire has been confined to the Keith-Ward tract and all the tanks have been burned. The damage thus far is estimated to be $100,000.

The agent at Gladys, the railroad station at the oil field, telephones that the fire seems to have burned itself out to a great extent and is now confined to one well in the Keith-Ward tract and the big Higgins tank No. 2. The oil from the latter has ceased to flow and is now burning inside the tank, which will do damage only to the tank. The extent of the damage cannot be told, the smoke completely obscuring a great portion of the burned district.

Pumping Plants Destroyed.
A large number of derricks and several pumping plants have been destroyed, much oil has been burned and one gusher continues to shoot up a column of flames.

As it appears at this hour the field is no longer in danger save that portion of it in the south of the burning tank, as that might fall to pieces. But unless something of the kind occurs there will hardly be another spread of the flames. The extinguisher of the burning well is a problem yet; but not a hard one, and if there be only one well burning, as is believed, it can be put out in a short time after the workmen are able to get at it.

The Postal Telegraph operator at Beaumont says the fire is increasing in brilliancy as seen from the city.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Sept. 12.—Abram S. Hewitt, former mayor of New York, gave out a statement yesterday in which he says he knew positively J. P. Morgan would not interfere with the strike.

Mr. Hewitt declared that the coal operators would not agree to arbitrate with John Mitchell, but he believed they would consider grievances presented by their employees.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 12.—United States Consul General Gudger of Panama, who is here, last night received a cablegram from his son, who is vice-consul to Panama, which stated that the revolutionists are advancing on the city of Panama.

The message says the outlook appears grave, as only about 3,000 government troops are in Panama, while the insurgents have twice that number.

CLOSING SESSION OF INSTITUTE OF TEACHERS OF SILVER BOW COUNTY

SCHOOL MAM'S HAVE HAVE A PROFITABLE SESSION.

Here is a Group of the Brainy Young Women of Silver Bow County Who Are Prying Into the Mysteries of the Teacher's Art during Vacation Days—They Looked Their Prettiest When the Shutter of Inter Mountain's Camera Snapped.

At noon today the Silver Bow county teachers' institute adjourned.

This afternoon the teachers accepted the hospitality of Manager Wharton of the Butte Street Railway company and are enjoying themselves at Columbia Gardens.

The morning session was taken up by Professor Young, who conducted a high school meeting, which was said to be of great value to the teachers.

Miss Hunstman discussed the subject of language in an able and comprehensive manner and Professor Traphagen delivered a lecture on the "Conservation of Energy."

Miss Snider recited some pieces in a way that elicited great applause, after which Miss Lucile Dare read a resolution of condolence with Miss Baldwin upon the loss of her mother. The resolution follows:

Resolutions of Condolence.
Whereas, in the all-wise providence of God, He has removed to higher walks of usefulness the mother of one of our fellow workers, and whereas, through her death, the family loses her wise counsel, true guidance and maternal love, and

Whereas, the community, wherein she lived so long, mourns the loss of an earnest life, a sincere friend and a helpful neighbor, therefore:

Be it resolved, by the teachers of Silver Bow County institute, that we extend to Miss Baldwin and the other members of the sorrow-stricken family our heartfelt sympathy, our deepest condolence and our true regret that they have been bereft of such wise and good companionship, and deplore that the community has lost a friend valued for the ripened gifts of heart and brain. Be it further

Resolved, That we furnish an engraved copy of these resolutions to the bereaved family with the assurance that words fail to express the sympathy we feel in this, the dark hour of their bereavement.

General Resolutions.
Resolutions of a general character were then unanimously adopted as follows:

We, the teachers of Silver Bow county, Montana, assembled together for the purpose of mutual inspiration in educational advancement, and having enjoyed the benefits that arise from such conventions, desire to give expression to our appreciation of those whose efforts have rendered this institute so successful. Therefore be it

Resolved, First, That we extend our cordial thanks to our most efficient instructors, Profs. Rochelleau, Young, Traphagen, Miss Huntsman, Mrs. Young and Misses Dinmore and Finegan, for their unflagging zeal as manifested in class work of their respective departments, and for the excellent character of their instruction.

Second, That we especially mention the able and entertaining lecture of Prof. Rochelleau, which proved to be a masterly exposition of the history and political development of Africa.

Third, That we thank Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas, the Misses Scott, Rheinhardt, Snyder and Prof. Matlack for the very delightful entertainment they afforded during the various sessions.

Fourth, That we heartily commend the addresses delivered at morning exercises by Hon. W. W. Welch, Dr. Swain, Dr. Traphagen, Mr. J. M. Lewis and Mrs. Jones, who made this feature of the institute a decided and conspicuous success.

Fifth, That we tender our very sincere appreciation to the action of Mr. Wharton, manager of the Butte Railway company, who has so kindly offered us the hospitality of the Gardens for an informal afternoon session, and to the press of the city who have so faithfully reported our progress to the public, as well as to the genial and esteemed secretary of the institute, Miss Nichols, who has rendered such valuable assistance on all occasions.

Sixth, That we thank the school board for the courtesies extended by them, and County Superintendent Mullins for her untiring efforts in making the Eighteenth Annual Institute the most interesting, enthusiastic and successful convention ever held in Silver Bow county.

Seventh, That we express our approval of the plan and methods of conducting the Silver Bow County Institute, in providing for instruction adapted to the needs of the various grades, making the work very effective and of lasting benefit.

The resolutions are signed by T. E. Spiers, as chairman; Lucile Dore, as secretary, and Mary Doughty, Mary S. Innes, Nettie O'Donnell, B. C. Hastings.

MORAL CHARACTER IS NOT IMPEACHED

AND THEREFORE BISHOP HOLDS THAT THIS RECTOR MAY HOLD HIS PLACE FOR LIFE.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Fond du Lac, Wis., Sept. 12.—Bishop Grafton has decided that according to the laws of the Episcopal church, when a minister is called to the rectorship of a parish and the call is without limitation as to time, the limit is for life, unless terminated by mutual consent or the pastoral relationship is dissolved, as provided for in the canons. The discussion was in the case of Rev. Edward Frank, rector at Sheboygan.

The vestry asked for his resignation, but he declined to tender it. A paper signed by 60 parishioners complaining that Mr. Frank refused to resign and setting forth that he had been neglectful of his parish duties, was then prepared and submitted to Bishop Grafton. Another paper signed by 122 parishioners asked to have Mr. Frank retained.

Bishop Grafton held that as they had shown nothing against Mr. Frank's moral character or found fault with his doctrines, he could not be thus removed.

The vestry then by a vote of five to four decided to discontinue the rector's salary. Mr. Frank still declares that he will remain and Bishop Grafton holds that he can recover for his services in a civil action, and cites cases where this has been done.

NIHILIST AGENTS MAKE FOOLS OF IGNORAMUSES

Canadian Peasants Are Giving All Their Money Away and Two Die Trying to Live Upon Grass.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 12.—A report from Yorktown says nihilist agents have been busy among the Doukhobors, and many of the latter are turning their horses and cattle adrift and the men and women are hauling wagons. One Vladimir Vlaymire, who asserts himself as a religious leader, teaches that all things belong to God and there should be no government and that no man should have money.

Acting on his words, several Doukhobors offered all the money to the Dominion immigration commission. Two are said to have died in training themselves to live on grass.

BUTTE OFFICIALS HAVE FILED BOND

MUNICIPALITY WILL NOT BE WITHOUT DEPARTMENT HEADS, THANKS TO TWO CITIZENS.

Among the numerous instruments which were brought into the office of the clerk of the district court today were eight which came in a bunch and which afforded considerable amusement to the court officials.

There are eight bonds, filed by two well-known citizens of Butte, each for $300, as a guarantee that the men who sign them will produce Butte's mayor, chief of police, city attorney, police court judge and four members of Butte's Own Finest, to-wit: George Young, Barney McMillan, T. B. Henderson and James Sullivan, at 10 o'clock in the morning on the 20th of this month, in the district court of the Second Judicial district in and for the county of Silver Bow to answer a charge of contempt of court.

P. J. Brophy and Edwin L. Mayo are the men who saved the city's government from wholesale imprisonment. Feeling confident that they will appear in court on the appointed day and endeavor to answer to the charge, Messrs. Brophy and Mayo have taken a chance on $2,400. It is a big sum of money, but it is risked in a good cause to keep the executive, judicial and legislative departments of the city government out of the county jail.

On each and all of the bonds appears the name of James T. Finlen, subsequently crossed out, and the name of P. J. Brophy substituted.

OFFERS PRIZE FOR ARREST OF KELLY

IF YOU CAN CATCH THE ST. LOUIS BOODLER, YOU WILL GET SUM OF $700.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
St. Louis, Sept. 12.—The grand jury met again today and resumed the investigation into the city lighting scandal. Because of the statute relating to bribery in Missouri, the lighting bill will be outlawed in 45 days. Indictments must be framed within that time to be effective.

It is stated that indictments may not be returned against the men accused of bribery in connection with the deal, Circuit Attorney Folk filing information against them instead.

Sheriff Diekmann, who yesterday stated that he would have Depute Charles F. Kelly under arrest within an hour, today announced that he would give $200 reward to any person furnishing information that would lead to Kelly's whereabouts. Kelly is the member of the combine who, according to the confession of J. K. Murrell, handled the $47,500 corruption fund.

The sheriff's offer of $200 as a reward for the apprehension of Kelly was raised to $700 by Circuit Attorney Folk later in the day.

In addition to Mephram, the members of the council, former President Acmal of the board of public improvements, and the Hermans Brothers, contractors, were before the grand jury today.

The cablegram was not dated. The navy department also received a dispatch from Commander McLean of the Cincinnati announcing his departure from Cape Haytien for Colon.

MAD RUMPUS ARISES IN MEETING OF DEMOCRATS

County Central Committee Driven From Courthouse by Howling Mob.

HEINZE HEELERS RAISE CAIN AND IT IS ALL OFF

Chairman Casey in Vain Attempts to Maintain Order—Repeatedly Insulted by Irresponsibles in the Rear, Whom Heinze Quiets With a Finger When He Will—Committee Finally Adjourns in a Body to the Auditorium.

Democracy's county central committee, which was called to meet at Judge McClernan's court room last evening, was interrupted by an organized band of political disturbers and was unable to transact business. After waiting patiently from 8:30 until about 10:30, and the noise and turmoil increasing, Chairman George Casey announced that the committee would adjourn to the Auditorium which, it was hoped, would be large enough to accommodate all. It was also nearer the city jail and for a time it seemed that many personal encounters would be the certain result of the vicious flings indulged in by the old leaders of the democracy and the raw recruits.

That a riot was avoided was largely due to the coolness and judgment of Chairman Casey, who from the very commencement to the close of the boisterous and disgraceful proceeding, kept his head and while at times sorely tempted to give way to a display of temper, did not do so.

A Case of Casey at the Bat.
It was a case of Casey at the bat, sure enough, and a man of less ability, less nerve and less self-control would have failed. Frequently Chairman Casey appealed to the crowd for order and as frequently was he insulted by some of Heinze's paid disturbers in the rear of the room.

It was all the time apparent that the court room had been packed by Heinze for purposes of his own, as at any time he desired quiet, he would hold up a warning finger and instantly there was silence in the rear.

"I absolutely refuse to proceed with the business of this committee until this hall is cleared," said Chairman Casey. When some one suggested that the committee had a right to go into executive session, Mr. Casey replied, "I do not want an executive session. We have no secrets and we desire that the people shall know just what transpires here. Everything should and will be public, while it is simply impossible to do business while this howling mob remains. It is evident that they do not intend to let the committee proceed in the regular way."

Heinze Appealed to in Vain.
Time and time again Mr. Heinze, who held a proxy and was therefore a member of the committee, was appealed to to stop the rumpus, but he stolidly refused, claiming that he would not ask his friends to retire unless all the others went out, too.

Those who took the most prominent part in the proceeding, while the committee was waiting for quiet in the court room, were: Swede Murphy, P. M. Rohan, Guy Stapleton and F. Aug. Heinze. Pete Gilligan was also conspicuous.

"I move and I second the motion to trim out Casey," said Mr. Rohan.

"Those in favor of the motion will signify it by the usual voting-sign of the order," absent-mindedly chanted the secretary, but had assumed the chairman's functions. The crowd in the rear, having nothing in particular to do at the time, howled and made insulting remarks to Senator Clark, who had come in and was seated next to Swede Murphy, while next in the circle sat Mr. Heinze conferring with Attorney Jones.

Mr. Heinze is no longer the youngest democrat. Swede Murphy, who yesterday was a pronounced populist, appeared with the Heinze forces and voted a proxy. "I believe the graft is better with the democrats this year," said the Swede, when asked about his sudden change of heart.

Wanted Secret Ballot.
Following Mr. Rohan's leadership Mr. Stapleton then came to the front and moved that a secret ballot be taken on the question of proceeding to business. Despite the protests of Chairman Casey, that they were all out of order, the secretary, acting as chairman, put the motion, declared it carried, and proceeded with the roaring farce. J. C. Driscoll and John Britt were appointed tellers and 24 ballots were cast for the motion to proceed.

It was then moved by Mr. Stapleton that inasmuch as the chairman refused to act he be deposed and a new one elected. This motion was carried by the overwhelming vote of the mob in the rear.

Mr. Rohan then moved and seconded that John McLaughlin be chairman. Mr. McLaughlin declined and named James H. Lynch, who was declared elected unanimously.

Mr. Lynch was escorted to the chair. While all this was going on, Mr. Casey conferred with others and, concluding that there was no intention of the crowd to permit the use of the room for the purposes of the committee, announced that the committee would adjourn to the Auditorium.

Thirty-four committeemen therefore left the turbulent courtroom and repairing to the Auditorium transacted the business for which the committee was called together.

In the Adjourned Meeting.
