JAMES REYNOLDS ASKED TO RESIGN

DUGGAN REQUESTS CHIEF OF POLICE TO STEP DOWN—MAYOR SAYS "OUT OF ORDER."

Alderman Larry Duggan introduced a resolution at last night's meeting of the city council calling for the resignation of James Reynolds as chief of police. Mayor Davey declared the motion out of order, saying that before an officer could be deposed the charges against him should be made in writing. Duggan filed with the clerk, thus giving the officer whose right to hold office was questioned, an opportunity to prepare a defense.

The motion by Alderman Duggan was the result of a heated argument at the last meeting of the council, in which Duggan declared that if gambling was not stopped by the police by the next council meeting, he would demand the chief's resignation for incompetency. As a matter of fact, Mr. Duggan says, gambling is now running as wide open as ever and last night he made good his declaration to demand Reynolds' resignation, but without the desired result.

FOREIGN BOARD IS TO DINE THE SIAM PRINCE

His Highness Will Be Entertained in New York by the Presbyterians, to Whom He Has Been Kind.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, Sept. 18.—A dinner will be given at the Metropolitan club in honor of the crown prince of Siam, who is to sail from England on October 3 to visit this country on his way to his home in Bangkok. The prince will be entertained by a member of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions as a representative of the board.

The dinner, although given in behalf of the Presbyterian board, will be in no sense confined to missionary or a religious aspect. Prominent men of the city will be present and will speak on various subjects. Of the 177 Americans now resident in Siam, all but about a dozen are connected with the missions.

Myself and relatives desire to express our gratitude and thanks to our friends and members of the Mill and Smeltermen's union for their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement in the death of my beloved brother, John Albert Julius Larson.

CRUSHED TO DEATH BY CRUEL WHEELS

DAVID H. IRVING KNOCKED DOWN AND DRAGGED BY SWITCH ENGINE ON THE N. P.

David H. Irving, warehouseman of the Continental Oil company, was instantly killed last evening at 7:15 o'clock by a switch engine on the tracks of the Northern Pacific railroad at the west end of the yards.

Irving, who lived at No. 1419 Iowa avenue, had just finished supper and was driving a cow across the tracks to his home. The animal was obstinate and required persistent efforts to make her move on. Irving saw the engine with a string of cars approaching, but evidently thought he had time to cross. As he stepped into the middle of the track the switch engine struck him. He was knocked down and dragged a distance of two yards.

The crew of the train were not aware that a man had been struck until two minutes after the accident. The train was then stopped and the crew went to Irving's assistance, but when they reached him he was dead. The chest was crushed in and the right arm and left leg were broken.

Coroner Johnson was notified and arrived on the scene shortly after the accident. After viewing the body he ordered its removal to the Montana undertaking establishment, where an inquest will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Irving was struck by switch engine No. 934. The crew in charge consisted of J. S. Ross, foreman; Peter Anderson, engineer; Peter Sowa, fireman, and W. Holly and C. Cook, switchmen. They will appear as witnesses at the inquest together with William Foley, James Olsson, John Simpson and Frank T. Ward, who saw the accident.

Irving leaves a wife and a little girl 8 years old. The wife and mother became hysterical when told of the awful fate of her husband, and is threatened with nervous prostration.
