[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.]
 Helena, Sept. 20.—This week's society calendar included a number of delightful events, which were well attended and much enjoyed. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Massena Bullard, Mrs. R. R. Purcell and Miss Bullard entertained. Mrs. Will Ford gave two charming luncheons Thursday and Friday, and Miss Cruse gave a luncheon for Mrs. Flowerree Wednesday afternoon. One of the most elaborate events of the week was a paper chase, supper and dance given by Mrs. Cruse, at which a large number of Butte's "400" were present.
 One of the most elaborate paper chases ever given in Helena will take place this evening, Miss Cruse being the hostess. It will be participated in by a large number of the society folk of Helena and Butte. The chase will be followed by a supper and dance at Central park. A large number of Butte's social world came over on the train at noon, having shipped their horses over Friday.

 The home of Massena Bullard, corner of Madison avenue and Hemlock street, presented a festive appearance Thursday afternoon, when scores of handsomely gowned women assembled at an afternoon given by Mrs. Bullard, Mrs. R. R. Purcell and Miss Bullard. It was one of the social events of the summer.
 Miss Cruse was the hostess at a luncheon Wednesday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Will Flowerree, who is visiting in the city. The affair took place at 1:30 o'clock at Miss Cruse's home, corner of Benton avenue and Lawrence street, and was a charming event.
 Two of the pleasant affairs of the week were luncheons given Thursday and Friday afternoons by Mrs. Will Word at her spacious home on the West Side.

On an Equal Footing.
 [From the Washington Times.]
 "Yes," boasted an Englishman in the West, "I have Tudor blood in my veins from my mother's side of the family, and Plantagenet blood from my father's."
 "Is that so?" said a citizen. "My blood is a little mixed too. My grandfather was a Jersey tenderfoot and my grandmother a Digger Indian squaw. We're both halfbreeds, stranger. Shake!"

In Explanation.
 [Los Angeles Herald.]
 Pyzum—I tell you, the Rev. Longwynde is one of nature's own preachers. He is one of the sort that sees "sermons in stones."
 Wyzum—Ah, then, that accounts for the large proportion of rocky sermons he delivers.
