MADISON COUNTY REPUBLICANS MEET

EVERYTHING WORKED IN HARMONY AND THE USUAL TEMPORARY OFFICERS ELECTED.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Virginia City, Sept. 23.—The republican county convention is in session here today and is well attended by the prominent republicans of Madison county. The proceedings are most harmonious, although of course, not without friendly contests for place.
Low L. Calloway, chairman of the county central committee, called the convention to order and Thomas Duncan of Virginia City was elected temporary chairman, A. K. Wellner temporary secretary and Henry Steffens assistant secretary.
Committees were named as follows: Credentials—W. R. McFadden, T. H. Teal, E. B. Marsh, William McLean and C. W. Rank.
Platform—A. J. Bennett, C. P. Newell, E. H. Wood, A. W. Switzer and Frank Foster.
Organization and Order of Business—Sam McCleary, L. L. Calloway, Al E. Glyd, Joe Boyer and A. G. MacDonald.
At 1:30 o'clock the convention reassembled.
Jacob Alright was nominated state senator by acclamation. Frank B. Linderman of Sheridan, John H. Meyers and Thomas H. Teal were nominated for members of the next legislature. A. V. Clem of Sheridan was nominated for county clerk and recorder.
The convention is the largest in the history of Madison county, over 100 delegates being present.

THIS ORDER IS A GOOD ONE TO JOIN

BENEFITS DERIVED FROM MEMBERSHIP IN THE FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD.

This organization is the most modern development of the day along fraternal lines. It combines accident indemnity with that of life insurance, and instead of the cost increasing as one grows older the payments cease entirely at a certain age. A member cannot be suspended when sick or disabled. Women and men become members of the same lodge on the same terms and cost.
If a member becomes totally and permanently disabled from either sickness or accident, or upon reaching the age of 70, the payments cease and the certificate is paid in 10 annual installments. Monthly rates with all benefits.

GRANTED TEN DAYS' STAY

Thompson Campbell Wants Two Actions Consolidated. Thompson Campbell, who is suing Mary Ellen Kelley for attorney's fees and whose case was continued yesterday until September 29, appeared this morning and moved that the two actions which he has brought against Mrs. Kelley be consolidated. Judge Knowles granted the request for the purpose of trial and the defendant requested that exceptions be allowed for the same reason. Ten days were granted for the defense to prepare the bill of exceptions.
Fifteen days additional time were allowed in the case of Graves vs. N. P. Railroad company in order to file complete records.

WOMAN AND CHILD HELD FOR RANSOM

for information that will lead to the discovery of the kidnapers and the whereabouts of his wife and child.
Work of Highbinders.
Late this afternoon it developed that Chin Quon had reliable information that the white woman who was seen at the house last night was an agent of a San Francisco society which has for its purpose the rescue of fallen Chinese women. As his wife was never connected with anything of an immoral nature, the husband believes that this is a conspiracy on the part of others to get the woman away.
As she took with her several valuable papers, notes and accounts, Chin is making an effort to have her detained. He learned that the party drove to Silver Bow Junction and took the Short Line for the South. Attorney Yancey will make an effort to have the woman arrested and the papers secured.

Overwhelmingly for Clark

When the Silver Bow contest came up the vote was overwhelmingly for seating the Clark men.
John S. M. Neill and W. B. George made some speeches and voted for the Heinze delegation.
It was anti-Heinze to such an extent that the men with Heinze money in their pockets refrained from raising a row.
The vote stood 21 to 4. C. W. Clark, representing Silver Bow, refraining from voting. W. B. George, John Conrow, John S. M. Neill and G. H. Linberger voting with the Heinze delegation.
It was then moved and seconded that W. A. Clark be made temporary chairman and Harvey Bliss temporary secretary.
This motion was carried amid much applause.
It was decided to call the convention to order at 5 o'clock.
The committee then adjourned.

"Aunt Annie" Goes East.

Mrs. Daniel Agoa, known to her many friends as "Aunt Annie," was given a big farewell banquet last night at the home of Thomas Kilgallon, before departing for the East. Mrs. Agoa will visit her old home in New Jersey. She will be accompanied on her Eastern trip by her son, J. J. Agoa, John Mitchell and Misses Mary and Veronica Kilgallon. The two young ladies will go as far as Chicago with the party and from there will proceed to Montreal, Canada, where they are to enter school.

The C. O. D. Laundry will close at noon tomorrow on account of the death and funeral of Mrs. H. A. Taylor.

SPANISH VETERANS MAY AMALGAMATE

ALL OF THE DIFFERENT ORGANIZATIONS WILL PROBABLY BE JOINED TOGETHER.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Detroit, Sept. 23.—The Spanish war veterans voted today in favor of the amalgamation with the Spanish-American war veterans.
Capt. Wilson I. Davenny of Chicago, a representative of the United Service men of Spanish war, was tendered the opportunity of a fraternal speech, in the course of which he referred to the possibility of amalgamating the different associations of Spanish war veterans.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE TURNS DOWN HEINZE

and announced that the standing order of business would be taken up, and asked Secretary Bliss to call the roll. When the name of J. J. Knowlton was reached the chairman said he had a resignation from Knowlton, and C. W. Clark was appointed in his stead.
All were present but Rogers of Cascade and Pratt of Flathead. The latter came in later and stood up and was counted.
Roll Call.
Roll was then called for presentation of credentials and contests. A snag was struck when Deer Lodge was reached.
Chairman Cooper said to Thomas Devine, who made a kick on the apportionment to his county, that he had looked up the figures and the apportionment was right.
J. S. M. Neill moved that a name be dropped from Deer Lodge's list of 20 delegates and only 19 be allowed.
Then Colonel O'Leary of Anaconda had a few words to say, stating that Race Track precinct, in Deer Lodge county, had been erroneously credited to Powell county, and took issue with the chair on his ruling. The squabble over the one vote lasted until W. B. George of Yellowstone county moved that Deer Lodge be allowed its list of 20 delegates. Motion seconded by Lockhart and carried.

Granite County Contest.

Then Granite county announced a contest, but it was passed and the roll went on until Silver Bow was reached, when C. W. Clark announced that a contest was on in that bailiwick.
No other contests were reported, and Granite county's contest was taken up first.
It was moved and carried that 15 minutes be allowed contestants to present their cases.
Attorney G. A. Maywood of Granite county took up the gauntlet for the contestants. It was 12 o'clock when he began talking. He ripped the independent democrats up the back and said his delegation was composed of men who stood by the fusion ticket two years ago.
A wordy war followed, committeemen interjecting questions, and Paul A. Fuss replying to Maywood's speech for the contestants. Maywood said his delegation represented the "Heinze party," and the committee decided to refer the contest to the executive session.

In Behalf of Heinze.

J. J. McIlhatton spoke 15 minutes in behalf of Heinze's delegation. Committeeman O'Neil of Dawson interrupted to plead for "peace," and won applause. Judge McIlhatton said he and his friends were for peace, and was hooted. C. W. Clark took a few verbal wing-shots at Heinze, and was cheered. It began to get interesting.
It was 1:30 o'clock and the hungry delegates wanted to either eat their dinner or fight.
Committeeman Metlin of Beaverhead moved to go into executive session and O'Neil moved to adjourn. P. A. O'Farrell, not a member of the committee, seconded the motion, and the vote was about divided.
Chairman Cooper asked that outsiders retire so that the vote might be taken again. The crowd went out and the roll was then called on the motion to adjourn, and it was lost.
Heinze's committeemen voted to adjourn and were in the minority, making the first tentative test of strength so far shown.
The roll was called on the Granite county contest, and resulted in seating the regular delegation, headed by Paul A. Fuss, the vote standing 24 for and 1 against. Paul A. Fuss asked to be excused from voting.

If You Have A Kodak

Eastman Kodak Agency
You will be interested in the kodak developing machine. This little machine develops and fixes a roll of film in 10 minutes and does it better in daylight than it can be done in the dark room. It removes the disagreeable features of photography—the stuffy dark-room, the smoky lamp, stained fingers, dirt and confusion. Orders should be placed at once for future delivery. We invite an inspection of the sample machine at our store.
