

Doings of Society.

THIS has been a pretty busy week, taking it altogether, although there has been no large function to entertain the many.

Music lovers were delighted to have the opportunity of hearing Sousa's superb band. Then came the Royal Italian band playing to a big house, then the combined bands of the Royal Italian and the Boston & Montana, which proved irresistible.

Great preparations have been made and many of our leading society women kept very busy getting ready for the opening night of the Catholic fair and the 10 days of hard work which follow. Naturally, this fair will have a tendency to defer some proposed affairs and festivities until after the several ladies, who are giving their time and attention to that church duty, shall have rested. Certainly the coming week will find many of Butte's social favorites in Miners' Union hall as visitors and as workers in the good cause.

A feature of the week's functions was the going away of Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, a popular hostess and a general favorite among a large circle of friends, several of whom gave parties in her honor during the last few days in Butte.

MRS. I. N. SYMONS

Gives Jolly Time to Coming Belles and Beaux of Butte.

Mrs. I. N. Symons of North Washington street gave a large party Sunday evening to a merry coterie of the coming belles and beaux of Butte. They were entertained with magic pictures and the interesting game of tailing a donkey. The one coming nearest to placing the appendage in the right part of that animal's anatomy was Irene Oppenheimer, who received a kindergarten set. As a souvenir of the delightful evening each little guest took home a box of drawing paper and appropriate studies for copying. The results obtained will be watched with interest by the popular hostess.

The house was prettily decorated for the occasion and refreshments served after the termination of the games which were much to the tastes of Hazel Gindrup, Erna Silverman, Irene Oppenheimer, Slater Miller, Nan, Ruth and Edward Alexander, Bertie Fenton, Kenneth and Donald McRae, Frank Rosenthal, Myron Goldberg, Sara Heyman, Abe Engel, Helen Cohen, D'Arcy, John and P. J. Brophy, Earl Genzberger, Grace Genzberger, Edith and Milton Schott, Louis Gunn, Freddie McCrimmon, Gertrude and Francis McDonald, Ignatius Donnelly, Joe Heiman, Arthur Jonas, Henry Levensky, Lawrence Kruger, Ernest and Eddie Sulton, Frederick and Theresa Pincus and Francis Symons.

BID EUCHRE.

Party Given by Mrs. J. H. Hall in West Granite Street Home.

A bid euchre party was given by Mrs. J. H. Hall in her home in West Granite street Friday afternoon. The affair was delightfully informal and everyone had a jolly good time. Sweet peas with potted plants raised by Mrs. Hall made her bright rooms particularly inviting.

Two prizes were given. The first a beautiful picture, "Roman Chariot Race," was awarded to Mrs. J. McIntyre; the consolation, a handsomely bound book, was presented to Mrs. Turberville.

Refreshments were served and the several guests voted the game and the afternoon's amusements an unqualified success. The guests were Mesdames C. G. Pingle, J. H. Maloney, J. H. Harper, K. Turberville, J. R. Wharton, J. McIntyre, A. H. Wethey, C. M. Prentice, R. Vail, W. Alexander, M. M. Miller, B. McDonald, D. W. Tilton and G. E. Blackburn and Miss Lucas of Ogden.

MRS. BARRY HAMILTON,

Who Departed During the Week for California Where She Will Make Her Future Home.

SIXTH NATAL DAY

Of Little Katherine McRae Marked by a Pretty Little Party.

Little Katherine McRae of West Granite street reached her sixth birthday on Monday, when she entertained about 30 of her young friends in a most enjoyable fashion. The little ones had lots of fun playing all sorts of games and romping to their hearts' content.

When supper was announced, the youthful hostess led the procession to the dining room, bearing the cake which held six lighted candles.

At the table were: Hazel and Dorothy Davenport, Jessie and Ethel Stevenson, Rhea Cutler, Annita Kroeger, Rita Henderson, Dora, Isabel, Arna and Gertrude Willoughby, Mary Hogan, Margaret and Margery Harrington, Eva Barron, Verona Trevelyan, Louise Wortman, Mildred and Charlotte Towle, Viola and Helen Bell, Eddie Davenport, Emmet and Ralph Hogan, Frank Harrington, Archie Muir, L. and E. Paunley, Lawrence and Leslie Barnes and Neil Wilson.

MRS. J. G. STERNFELS

Of South Washington Entertains Euchre Club in Happy Fashion.

Mrs. J. G. Sternfels of South Washington street entertained the Euchre club on

ERNESTINE OSWALD,

Who Entertained a Number of Her Young Friends at a Pleasant Party Friday of This Week.

Wednesday evening. There were two tables of players and two prizes for those winning the most games.

The house was prettily decorated with carnations and ferns. Refreshments were served after the game was finished.

First prize, a cut-glass vinegar cruet, was won by Mrs. J. G. Sternfels; the second, a half-dozen decorated rose plates, was secured by Mrs. M. Liebenstein. The players were Mesdames W. Gallick, M. Genzberger, S. Genzberger, A. Pincus, N. Liebenstein, M. Silverman, J. Morris and the hostess.

"DOVE" DINNER

Partaken of With Gusto by Guests of Mrs. F. W. McCrimmon.

Mrs. F. W. McCrimmon had a "dove" dinner Wednesday evening, complimentary to Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, who left Butte the following day for Canada. This charming residence in West Broadway was made, with flowers, a perfect dream of beauty. Pink carnations and ferns decorated the dining-table. Name cards, superbly done in water colors, designated each guest's seat, and the menu, in keeping with the happy surroundings, furnished a feast that every one present most appreciated.

Later, the evening was spent in the Broadway, listening to the martial strains and melodious whistles of music furnished by the Royal Italian band. Those entertained were Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, Mrs. D. Campbell, Mrs. F. Holbrook, Miss C. Hamilton and the hostess.

LITTLE MISS PAXSON

Celebrates Her Sixth Natal Day in Fashion Charming and Original.

Little Miss Lelia E. Paxson celebrated her sixth birthday Thursday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Paxson, 30 East Woolman street.

In the rear of the house was an Indian tepee, checked with trappings of bygone days, the floor was strewn with buffalo robes, bear and mountain lion skins, Indian pillows, highly decorated, were thrown around, while the walls were hung with trophies of war and the chase, making in all a cosy den where all the little guests romped and played in merry glee. Mrs. Paxson was assisted in entertaining the little ones by her mother, Mrs. Polly Johnson, and sister, Mrs. E. E.

MRS. J. F. WEIMESARY.

Converts Beautiful House Into Bower of Flowers for Occasion.

Mrs. J. F. Weimesary of West Granite street gave a progressive euchre party Tuesday afternoon to commemorate her natal day. Invitations were extended to 79 of her friends, who were glad of the opportunity to offer their congratulations.

Her handsome apartments were most appropriately decorated in autumn colorings, with vines and plants, giving rich fall tints. Archways were heavily draped with kinnikinnick and its bright red berries, to which red peppers were added to give a redder glow.

A corner in one of the rooms was made beautiful with Oregon grape vines and potted palms. The dining room, with masses of woodbine, with its red autumnal tints and clusters of sweet peas, made a picture delightful to the eye of an artist. Perfect as was the decoration it was enhanced by an abundance of American Beauty roses, the gifts of her many admirers and well-wishers.

Prizes were awarded for points. For securing the largest number, Mrs. F. T. McBride was accorded a handsome Louwisa vase. The second prize, a Haviland china tray, was won by Mrs. S. W. Newberger; the third, a Haviland cream pitcher and sugar bowl, went to Mrs. C. J. Schatzlein.

After the lucky winners received their prizes and the congratulations of their friends, refreshments were served to Mesdames J. T. Braddock, H. Rockefeller, F. S. Mitchell, J. E. Davis, A. J. Davis, E. Irons, Gus Smith, J. D. Ryan, D. J. Hennessy, J. Alexander, C. L. F. Kellogg, D. Porter, G. Moulthrop, A. Wetzstein, J. E. Dawson, J. G. Dawson, R. S. Paxson, F. B. Kremer, J. B. Roote, R. Metzel of Monida and J. Switzer of Helena.

MRS. SAM JOHNSTONE

Entertains Party of Friends in Honor of Miss Frances Thornton.

Mrs. Sam Johnstone gave an informal but charming luncheon at her home on West Broadway on Tuesday afternoon to a small party of friends in honor of Miss Frances Thornton.

The decorations were half-blown pink roses, emblematical of the society buds who graced the table. The favored few were the Misses Frances Thornton, Edwina Hammond, Alice Lowry, Hattie Young, Mrs. Charles Clark and Mrs. J. W. Forbis.

MRS. W. B. HAMILTON

Is Honored at Luncheon Given by Mrs. Donald Campbell of West Broadway.

Small but most enjoyable was the luncheon given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Donald Campbell of West Broadway, complimentary to Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, who has been the hostess on so many pleasing occasions in Butte and whose departure from this city will cause her to be greatly missed by her many friends.

The table was attractively beautiful with white carnations and green ferns, the place cards being prettily done in water colors. At this farewell function were Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, Mrs. Fred Holbrook, Mrs. F. W. McCrimmon, Miss Clara Hamilton and the hostess.

RATHBONE SISTERS

Calanthe Temple No. 3, Give Reception in the Pythian Castle.

The Rathbone Sisters, Calanthe Temple No. 3, gave a reception on Wednesday evening at Pythian Castle. Ladies receiving were: Mesdames M. P. Caddy, J. R. Ross, G. T. Mennie, Delonas and Miss Sadie Doull.

The evening's entertainment consisted of music by Mrs. George Knox and Mr. Martin readings by Miss Towers, a fan drill by young ladies from the Mission society of the M. E. church, a song by Miss Williams accompanied on piano by Miss Fulton Evans, a violin obligato by Roscoe Evans, magic tricks by Robert Murray, dancing and refreshments.

MRS. TOM LAVELLE

Entertains Fort Harrison Guests at Dinner and the Broadway.

Mrs. Tom Lavelle gave one of her charming dinners on Saturday evening to Captain and Mrs. H. R. Nelson and Lieutenants Sweeney and Taylor from Fort Harrison, and the Misses Nell Lloyd and Helen Pfouts of Butte. These Helena guests came over to attend Mrs. Forbis' "bal masque," and returned Sunday morning.

Mrs. Lavelle's dining-table was made most attractive with a large centerpiece of pink roses and trailing vines. Corsage bouquets and buttonholes of roses were the favors for the feast. After the dinner they went to the theater where, with watching the dancing and listening to the music, the time passed merrily.

MRS. CLAYTON CLARK

Of West Park Street Entertains Charmingly at Whist.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Clark of West Park street entertained at whist Friday evening in honor of their cousin, W. W. Allison, who left the following day for South Woodlee, Canada.

Four prizes were awarded, after the distribution of which refreshments were served and the happy winners congratulated by Dr. and Mrs. J. R. E. Sievers, Mrs. Kiedell, Mr. and Mrs. R. Vail, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vail, Mr. and Mrs. S. Raleigh, the Misses Ethel Wood, Anna and Julia Ward, Ida Robbins, Elizabeth Brown, Ella Orr, M. E. Brady, Arla Parker, Maloney, Alberta Reid, M. McCaffery, Grace Baxter, Bessie Clark, Mr. and Mrs. R. Coyle; Messrs. P. Wood, R. Wood, T. Lamphier, W. Morton, C. Burke, R. H. Campbell, P. L. Pauley, L. D. McRae, B. H. Clark, M. M. Clark, Dr. J. B. Keenan and the host and hostess.

MRS. BRUCE KREMER,

Who Has Gone to Her Old Kentucky Home on a Visit to Relatives Who Live in Louisville.

MRS. BRUCE KREMER

Is Guest of Honor at Luncheon Given by Mrs. J. V. Long.

Mrs. Bruce Kremer was guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. J. V. Long Thursday at her home on North Washington street. A loose arrangement of scarlet carnations, intermingled with smilax, trailed over a circular mirror on the center of the table.

Candles shaded with the same bright color were placed at the corners and the chandelier thickly twined with bright red poppies. Candies and other confections were in the same red hue.

The many courses at this well arranged luncheon were enjoyed by Mesdames Bruce Kremer, S. Johnstone, W. W. Dixon, J. B. Leggat, J. D. Ryan and the hostess.

MISS MAUDIE TACHELL

Surprised by Friends in the Home in South Butte Tuesday Evening.

So many friends of Miss Maudie Tachell surprised her Tuesday evening by calling at her home in South Butte. There was fun and lots of it from the moment they entered the house until they went home.

Games, refreshments and a good time generally were had and greatly enjoyed by Nellie Humphrey, Hattie Bowman, Hazel Sherrard, Johanna Neese, Alice Goss, Verina Dupre, Ethel and Edith Rockliff, Rose McCue, Stella and Agatha Ruddies, R. Billings, Agnes McManis, Maud Tachell, Willie and John Hamilton, H. and D. Harrington, H. Holmes, L. Smell, W. Hungate, G. Ruddies, G. McCue, R. Burton, J. McMahon, C. Anderson and Bert Tachell.

MRS. D. J. HENNESSY

Gives Another of Her Charming Luncheons for Which She is Famous.

Mrs. D. J. Hennessy gave another of her charming luncheons this afternoon at her home on North Excelsior avenue. The dining table was uniquely decorated with white carnations and pink roses, festoons of asparagus vines hung from chandeliers and lights were shaded to match the flowers. On the polished mahogany were placed rich lace doilies and place cards with outline sketches by a well known artist.

As might have been expected there was not a dull moment from the time the guests arrived until they paid their adieux. The favored to were: Mesdames John Forbis, W. L. Renick, J. Templeman, J. D. Ryan, E. Carroll, J. B. Leggat, S. Johnstone, Eleanor and Louise Horgan and the hostess.

CALIFORNIA BELLE

Visiting Mrs. Charles Clark Has Party to Hear Combined Bands.

Miss Hammond of California, who is visiting Mrs. Charles Clark, invited a party of friends to the Broadway Wednesday evening where they had the delightful sensation of listening to the combined forces of the Royal Italian band and that of our own Boston and Montana.

After the concert the guests went to the home of Mrs. Charles Clark, where a supper was served to the Misses Thornton, Sanders, Hammond, Mrs. Charles Clark, George Busch, Jed Freund and Thomas Markley.
