EVIDENCE TO SHOW WHY O'BRIEN SHOULD GET OUT

Joseph McCaffery Files Another Affidavit With Governor Toole to Secure Convict's Release. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, Oct. 23.—Another affidavit in favor of convict Thomas O'Brien has been filed with Governor Toole by Joseph McCaffery, who has been trying to secure O'Brien's pardon and release ever since the convict surrendered himself. The new affidavit is sworn to by F. G. Brown, who says that on the night O'Brien is accused of stealing the wagon, Brown was playing cards in a saloon and that O'Brien came in and put down $5 which he told Brown to play on the game and that afterwards he returned and demanded his $5. He appeared to be intoxicated at the time and insisted later upon Brown going home with him. Because O'Brien wanted Brown to go home with him the latter does not believe that O'Brien intended to steal the wagon.

HE PREFERS TO BE A VAGRANT

This Lad Needs to Be Taken in Hand Before It Is Too Late. [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, Oct. 23.—Tommy McMahon, a youngster not more than 10 years old, is in the hands of the police and will probably be sent to the reform school unless he chooses to return to his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Daly of Pine street, with whom he has been making his home. His parents reside in New York, but for some time he has been provided with a good home with his aunt and uncle here. Tommy prefers, however, to run away from home and sleep in wood sheds and boxes and shift for himself and appears to have a craving to become a vagabond. He Will Wait Awhile. Washington, Oct. 23.—Only in a few emergency cases will the president announce the appointments before the convention of congress in December, when a large batch of nominations will be sent to the senate.

the republican party in this county. He is an old Montanan and is and always has been a friend of the laboring classes. From every gulch, camp and town in the county the supporters of Mr. Fitzpatrick will make themselves heard on election day.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The County Fair." Neil Burgess will appear at the Broadway theater tonight in the famous old play "The County Fair." Mr. Burgess is a favorite with the theater-going public and the indications are that the house will be packed for this performance inasmuch as the management announces that it is positively Mr. Burgess's last appearance here in this play. The revival of "The County Fair" is a notable event in the dramatic world and it deserves to duplicate its success of former years. Mr. Burgess is an actor of unquestioned ability and supported by a first class company should prove as popular today as he has in the past.

"A Poor Relation." Every indication points to a large advance sale of seats for what is considered one of the most notable events of the present season, the performance of Sol Smith Russell's delightful play, "A Poor Relation." It is a play full of humorous lines and situations that ingeniously and irresistibly compel alternate laughter and tears. The scene of the breakfast in act first, the pathetic squalor of act second with its silver lining of sad drollery and the doings and sayings of Noah Vale, his little songs to make the children forget that they are hungry, Scollons and the children all make up an exceptionally appealing and effective ensemble. "A Poor Relation" will be at the Broadway Friday and Saturday evenings and a special matinee will be given on Saturday. Seat sale is now on at the office.

"The County Fair." [SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, Oct. 23.—"The County Fair" will be presented at the Margaret theater Friday night with Neil Burgess himself and a big company in support. "The County Fair" is certainly an extremely sprightly and originally interesting play. It is an American comedy purely and is built on the broadest principles of American merriment and just enough of the pathetic and serious is entwined into the fabric to provide lights and shadows to its action. The scenery and stage settings and, in fact, everything used, is thoroughly in accord with the excellence of the production. The race scene presents a number of horses that run at top speed in full view of the audience. The presentation is in every respect a capital one.

REGISTRATION PROGRESS IN THE SMELTER CITY

Committeemen in Every Block of the City Looking After the Republican Voters.

[SPECIAL TO INTER MOUNTAIN.] Anaconda, Oct. 23.—The new system of pushing the registration, begun several days ago by the republican party in this city, already shows great gains and the number of republican voters registered this year will be many times larger than it ever was before. Investigation develops the fact that by far the greater number of those who have thus far registered are men who will vote the republican ticket. There are 120 blocks in the city of Anaconda and in every one there is a republican committeeman who is looking out for the interests of the party in that block. In every case the committeeman is a resident of the block in which he is living, making the work a comparatively easy matter. There are two more days left in which to register and the outlook is that the total registration will be some larger than that of two years ago. The registration offices will reopen on October 27 for the benefit of those who did not get their names on the books during the regular period of registration.

CHILI DOES NOT WANT A TREATY JUST THIS TIME

When She Was After It Before, It Was Because She Feared a Conflict With Argentine Republic.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Santiago, Chili, Oct. 23.—Concerning the secret treaties between Chili, Colombia and Ecuador, El Mercurio quotes the minister of foreign affairs as saying the government attached no importance to the publication. The real meaning of these arguments can only be considered as a result of the dangerous diplomatic position in which Chili was placed in the last months of 1901, and at the beginning of 1902. Chili was then anxious to strengthen her friendship with some of the South American republics, in order to secure their help in the Pan-American conference in Mexico, where Chilean interests were threatened by her enemies. Chili thought that a war with Argentina was possible and the free passage of the Straits of Magellan would have been rendered very difficult. This government insists upon the point that the arguments were only a result of the dangerous position of Chili and that the treaties have nothing to do with the United States' interests, which are in perfect harmony with those of Chili.

REMAINS OF JIM YOUNGER REST IN LEE'S SUMMIT

Crowds of People Pass Coffin of Man Who With His Brother Was One Terror of a Section. [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Lee's Summit, Mo., Oct. 23.—The remains of Jim Younger, the bandit, were interred in the family lot in the little cemetery near town today. A brief, simple service was held at the home of N. S. Fenton, where yesterday crowds of people had passed by the coffin. The house was crowded and many were unable to gain admittance. Mrs. Fenton, a niece of the Younger boys, led a quartet which sang "Rest, Weary Heart." Rev. S. N. Shiffler of the Presbyterian church followed in prayer, speaking a few appropriate words and then, after another song, the casket was removed to the hearse. The pall bearers were old associates of the Youngers, members of Quantrell's band, and among the mourners were several who had fought with Quantrell, Price and Shelby.

MISS STONE SAYS SHE COULD NOT THINK OF IT

Did Not Make Statement to the Effect That She Would Pay Back Ransom Money Uncle Sam Paid. [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Wichita, Kan., Oct. 23.—Miss Ellen Stone lectured here last night. In an interview today she said: "I am sorry that it has been advertised that I intend to repay my ransom money. The United States government will demand indemnity from Turkey for enough to satisfy it for the terrible outrage of capturing an American citizen and holding her in constant fear of death. With my friends I did agree to repay that which had embarrassed the government or those who may since have been visited by sickness or trouble, but it is utterly impossible to think of my repaying the entire amount."

MEMOIRS OF OOM PAUL PUBLISHED

KRUGER GIVES AN ANXIOUS WORLD INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT A STIRRING CAREER.

KILLED HIS FIRST LION WHEN BOY OF FOURTEEN

And Succeeded in Ruining Dutch Republics at an Age That is Not Given in This Dispatch—London Times Assures Us We Shall Have the Copy as Fast as It Comes From Paul's Pen. [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] London, Oct. 23.—The Times this morning publishes three closely-printed columns of a first installment of extracts from "Kruiger's Memoirs," which were dictated to trusted friends during his enforced repose at Orange Lust. The memoirs begin by describing incidents connected with the great trek participated in by his father when the president was 9 years old, some of which he remembers with great vividness. He gives a graphic account of shooting his first lion, at the age of 14, and picturesque incidents of the struggles of the Boers with black aborigines. Then follows well-written descriptions of the part Mr. Kruger took in all the wars with the Matabele, Zulus and others. He Wanted to Stay Out. At the commencement of the civil war of 1861, Mr. Kruger wished to take no part whatever in the disputes, but after he had been once drawn in he did not rest until he had secured the right of popular opinion. The extracts then deal with the history of Transvaal politics up to the closing period of the burgher's presidency and commencement of the open conflict with Great Britain, and the arrival of the Shepstone mission empowered to effect the annexation of the country. Mr. Kruger said he demanded of the burghers that they prohibit the Shepstone mission from entering Pretoria, but that the burghers ignored his demand. The Times promises, on a subsequent occasion, to give extracts dating after British annexation.
