NOW ITS IN WEST SIDE THEY SHOOT

BAD BOYS HAVE A HABIT OF USING A FLIPPER ON PASSERSBY AND LIFTING ANY OLD THING.

The boys of the West Side are trying to rival those of Dublin Gulch in acts of lawlessness and many thefts and petty assaults have been reported to the police of late.

The youngsters take delight in shooting passersby with the flipper. They use an ordinary buckshot to do the work and this can be thrown a distance of several hundred feet. Several ladies have been struck of late and one was painfully injured on West Broadway.

Another favorite breach of discipline resorted to by the young outlaws is to steal packages and valuables from the premises of the residents of the West Side. The police are now looking for two boys who are charged with having stolen two cut-glass vases from the front porch of a prominent citizen. The parcels were left on the porch by the deliveryman, as no one was at home when he called.

SALMI AND GAULFREY ARE NOT TO COME INTO COURT

Likely That Case Will Be Dropped Between Sons of Sunny Italy Who Fought Election Day.

Among the squabbles of election day was a little friendly or otherwise trouble between Joseph Salmi and A. Gaulfrey, both natives of sunny Italy. Salmi and Gaulfrey reside in Meaderville and after depositing their ballots on election day they adjourned to the sidewalk in front of the polling place where they had declared their choice of the candidates and in a political discussion which followed, words soon led to blows.

Gaulfrey says Salmi struck him and Salmi says Gaulfrey pulled a revolver on him. A warrant for assault in the first degree was sworn out by Salmi against Gaulfrey and the latter forthwith had his erstwhile friend pinched on a similar charge in the third degree.

When the case came up for hearing yesterday afternoon in Judge Libby's court, Salmi failed to put in an appearance. Gaulfrey was on hand all right, but it is likely that both cases will be dropped, owing to a general lack of interest.

HE MAKES THE GOOD DISHES

And So This Cook Thinks He Ought to Have Half the Capital.

Lohndorf and Corkish, proprietors of a restaurant in Park street, do not get along very well. As a result Lohndorf has commenced an action in the district court against Corkish for a dissolution of the partnership and an accounting of the business.

Lohndorf has been the working and Corkish the financial partner in the business; the plaintiff stating in his complaint that he is a first-class cook and that mainly because he understands how to tickle the palates of the epicureans who patronize the establishment, the business has attained some measure of success.

He says it is now worth $4,000 and as he has been the main support of the institution, he asks for half of that amount as his share.

BUTTE'S MILITARY FORCE WILL GIVE BIG DANCE

The Soldiers Will Be Dressed in Their New Uniforms and Good Times Assured.

Renshaw hall will blaze with the glory of new uniforms tonight when the members of Company B, Montana National Guard, will assemble with their wives and sweethearts and do devoirs to the terpsichorean gods as only sons of Mars can.

The hall will be the first given since the guardsmen received their new uniforms and is given in order to secure funds to assist in fitting up the new armory in the basement of Pithian castle on South Main street.

Captain S. S. Jeans is chairman of the committee of arrangements with the following members: Sergeants Robert McGowan and John Gavin, Corporals Fred Martin, D. J. Harrington and S. P. Matthews.

One of the largest crowds of the dance season is expected to join the military in the entertainment.

DAVIS SUIT IS DISMISSED

Nothing Doing in Litigation Against Drennan and Desmond.

The suit instituted by George W. Davis as local guardian of the estate of Calvin P. Davis against Cornelius P. Drennan and Charles Desmond was dismissed in the district court yesterday.

The action, which was begun last January, was for $20,000, which it was alleged was due in the course of partial distribution of the estate.

Calvin P. Davis as one of the heirs of the Davis estate, was entitled to one-third of $91,363, of which it was stated only $10,454 had been paid.

TRIES TO FIND IN OBLIVION HIS END

BUT JOHN EPPING'S ROPE IS NOT OF THE PROPER FIBRE AND HE IS SAVED BY STICKLEY.

Had it not been for the timely appearance of J. D. Stickley in a small, vacant lot back of Chinatown, John Epping would have been successful in an attempt to end his life yesterday morning shortly before the noon hour.

Epping, who is a carpenter by trade, chose hanging as his means of crossing the great divide. He had torn a blanket into strips and tying one end of the ill-provided rope to a scantling that projected from the rear of a little cabin, he climbed up a few feet and making a loop about his neck with the other end, leaped earthwards.

The rope snapped with the weight of Epping, but it had pulled sufficiently tight around his neck to strangle him into unconsciousness and he lay on the ground gasping for breath.

Stickley was passing through China alley at the time Epping was tying the rope about the end of the scantling and he made haste to rescue the imperiled man. When the rescuer reached Epping the latter was black in the face from strangulation and appeared to be dying.

He Saved His Life.

Stickley untied the rope and after several minutes of hard work, succeeded in resuscitating him.

After fully regaining his senses Epping cried like a child at his ill-advised attempt. He said he wanted to die—that he had contracted an incurable disease and hadn't known a well day in two years. He finally consented to leave town for Pocatello, where he has friends and can secure employment.

Stickley was badly excited after the incident and started for police headquarters to summon the city physician. Someone, whom he had told of the affair, assured him a physician was not needed as Epping had walked away and so the matter was not officially reported. Stickley is a painter and lives at No. 720 1/2 West Quartz street.

IN OPPOSITE DIRECTIONS CONSTABLE AND MAN RUN

Butterworth Takes a Shot at Official and Then They Do 100 Yards in Less Than Record Time.

Because Constable Arthur Gillette started to arrest him Robert F. Butterworth sent a bullet chasing after the officer in his back yard at the corner of Arizona and Front streets yesterday afternoon.

The trouble grew out of an order issued from Justice Taylor's court in which a few choice hares were attached. The officer called again after supper and found the lock broken. Butterworth defied the constable and the latter was about to arrest his man when Butterworth drew his revolver and fired point blank. The bullet grazed the constable's breast. An inch nearer would have meant death.

Without waiting for further ceremony the officer turned and ran, while Butterworth ran in the opposite direction and wound up at the sheriff's office. Under Sheriff McGuigan locked the man up. It is likely that a charge of assault in the first degree will be entered against him.

FRANK J. LYNCH DIES IN WARM SPRINGS OF HEART

Conducted Local Business Concern in East Park Street—Funeral Today From St. Patrick's.

Frank J. Lynch, one of Butte's most prominent citizens, died at Warm Springs yesterday of heart failure. The dead man was a brother of James H. Lynch of this city and Edward Lynch of Everett, Wash. He came from Galena, Ill., to Butte about 15 years ago.

He has been engaged in business with his brothers ever since he came to Butte. When he died he was the proprietor of the Park Novelty company, doing business on East Park street.

His funeral will take place from the family residence, 695 West Granite street, at 10:30 tomorrow morning. From the house the funeral procession will proceed to St. Patrick's church, where high mass will be celebrated.

CONSTABLE GLEASON IS GOOD WITH A STICK

He Hits a Jumping Jack Rabbit But Bunny Gets Away in Plenty of Time.

There is no more popular official in Walkerville than Mike Gleason who was recently re-elected as constable on the democratic ticket. Mike always tends strictly to business, but he also manages to find time for diversion and mental relaxation. It is one of the daily customs of the popular constable to take a good long walk every morning before breakfast in order, as he says, to get up a good healthy appetite.

This morning Mike started out as usual accompanied by his faithful Scotch spaniel and armed with a stout cane (the constable never carries a weapon on these pleasure trips). When about two miles back in the hills the dog suddenly scared up a jack rabbit of such magnificent proportions as is seldom seen in the long-eared species. Away scampered his rabbit-ship but Mike took a chance at him and let by his trusty stick. He struck the little animal squarely on the legs and brought him to a standstill but before the dog could reach it, bunny managed to creep into a little hole in the ground and disappeared from sight just as the spaniel arrived on the scene.

"I wasn't expecting to bag any game," said Mike, "but it was a shame to lose such a fine specimen after having made a throw like that."

Gleason's friends are now wondering what he can do with a gun if he can make such an accurate shot with a simple stick of wood. The general impression is that he can hit the bull's-eye every time.

HE IS THE WHOLE FIRE DEPARTMENT

WEIGHT OF RESPONSIBILITY UPON SHOULDER OF THIS MAN WITH THE T. D. IS JUST AWFUL.

Jim Spillen, a worshipper at the shrine of Bacchus, and incidentally an occupant of a cell in the city jail, had the jimjams all the morning and they took a funny turn.

Jim imagined his cell was a tall building on a crowded street in a big city and that he was the entire fire department sent out to fight the flames. A pail of water in his cell furnished all of that material necessary to extinguish the flames and Jim's pouted lips made an excellent hose through which the water reached the spot.

"Yonder's where the fire's hottest," shouted the erstwhile fireman, pointing to the roof of his cell. He suited action to the word by skinning up the bars of his cell with the agility of a monkey; he was brought to a sudden stop when his cranium came in contact with the steel above and the man with the D. T.'s came down quicker than he went up.

He Was Exceedingly Busy.

Nothing daunted by his repulse, he again attacked the fire. So well did he imitate the noise of a fire engine that Sol Levy went running down stairs to find out the cause of the commotion. He found Jim Spillen fighting imaginary flames, while the other prisoners looked on in delight.

With the emission of a bucket of cold water, Jim regained some of his senses and sought his cot in the belief that the fire had been put out and he was the force of fire fighters in repose back in the fire house.

IRELAND SAYS CANADA WILL ONE DAY BE OURS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Nov. 11.—In speaking at the banquet of the Minnesota society in this city, Archbishop Ireland expressed the belief that Canada eventually will be under the domain of the United States. The transition, he said, would come without conquest, without war.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND.

"After telling of the growth of America in comparison with other great nations, the archbishop said:

"Within a few years the commerce of the states on the Pacific coast will equal that of those on the Atlantic. The development of the lands to the east, west, north and south is going on more rapidly and safely than ever before and we are reaping and will continue to reap benefits. From the east the movement will be westward to that section, and from the west, eastward to the same destination.

"I do not want to be belittled, but I say this for myself: As sure as fate, although you and I may not see it, the starry banner will wave mistress over all the territory from the gulf to the bay. There will be no conquest; no war. The hearts across the border are already beating with love for us, and commerce and agriculture are calling for espousals."

HYPNOTISM EMPLOYED TO TRACE OUT A MURDERER

Illiterate Negro While Under a Trance Gives Police Valuable Information Concerning Crime.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Savannah, Ga., Nov. 11.—Hypnotism has been employed in the case of a former convict named Miller, a negro, who confessed to the murder of Gage Bourquin and his colored body servant, to make him reveal the facts. Miller alleged he was hired by a white man to kill Bourquin. His confession was regarded as a fabrication and he was put under hypnotic influence in order to prove or disprove his strange story.

Miller, in his trance, says he did not fire the shots that killed Bourquin, but that he heard them and knew who fired them. He was put into a buggy with two officers and made to go through with what he alleges to have been his connection with the tragedy. Still in a trance he drove into the country and pointed out the exact locality where he asserts the shooting occurred. Miller described minutely four men who, according to his story, murdered Bourquin. Miller is illiterate, not being able to read or write.

WINDOW GLASS MEN CONFER

Take Steps to See Why Their Trade Conditions Are Not Better.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Pittsburg, Nov. 11.—The National Window Glass Jobbers' association this morning closed a 14 days' conference, called to consider the demoralized condition of the window glass market. It was thought when the meeting opened that it would be disrupted by a vote of the association.

After a conference with the jobbers and manufacturers that lasted all last night the whole matter was turned over to the executive committee of the jobbers and another meeting will be held within the next few days to settle the differences.
