Thirty-Two Pound Chestnut-Fed Turkey Sent Roosevelt by the Official Man

RHODE ISLAND FARMER HAS ALWAYS GIVEN 'EM

And Teddy Will Eat of the Same Brand That Grant and Garfield Sat Down To—The President Receives the British Labor Commission and Tells Them His Views of Some Questions Which Are Now Agitating Both Countries.

Washington, Nov. 26.—When the president and Mrs. Roosevelt sit down to their Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow they will be surrounded by practically all the members of their immediate family. All the children will be present except Kermit, who is in school at Groton, Mass. In addition to the house guests of President and Mrs. Roosevelt, who will dine with the family, it is not unlikely that three or four other intimate friends will be at the dinner. The feature of the president's Thanksgiving dinner menu will be a 32-pound chestnut-fed turkey, which reached the White house last night. It was sent by Horace Vose of Westerly, R. I., who for a quarter of a century has supplied a fine specimen of the noble bird for the Thanksgiving dinner for the president of the United States.

BRITISH LABOR COMMISSION RECEIVED BY PRESIDENT

President Roosevelt today received the members of the British labor commission who are making a tour of the United States as the guest of Alfred Morley, the British philanthropist. After greeting the members of the party, the president said: "I am delighted to have the pleasure of meeting you gentlemen and Mr. Marks, I have had communication with Mr. Marks on more than one occasion leading up to the coal strike. Naturally, like any man who has anything to do with public affairs, I not only take, but am bound to take the very deepest interest in all the manifold social problems which include as one section what we group together as the labor problem. As industrial progress goes on there is a tendency to work of federation or combination both among employers and among employes, in corporations and in unions; and, of course, gentlemen, among the reasons why I take a very great interest in these combinations is the very fact that by their power they have such great possibilities for good—which necessarily implies that they have also great possibilities for evil. Whether you wish them or not, it is idle, in my opinion, to protest against the inevitable tendency of the times against corporation and union. It is worse than folly to take exceptions to either corporation or union as such. The line should be drawn on conduct. "I greet you with all heartiness and am delighted to see you."

Big Rewards Offered. Telluride, Colo., Nov. 26.—Rewards aggregating $18,000 have been offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderers of Arthur L. Collins, general manager of the Smuggler-Union Mining company, and of W. G. Barney and Wesley E. Smith, miners, who mysteriously disappeared and are believed to have been killed previous to the assassination of Collins.

HAVANA STRIKE IS ABOUT OVER TODAY

ALL MALCONTENTS EXCEPT THE CIGARMAKERS GO TO WORK—GOMEZ MAY BE SECRETARY.

Havana, Nov. 26.—There was a general resumption of work today, except in the case of the cigarmakers, who still have a few minor points under discussion. Gualberto Gomez, colored, is mentioned as the successor of Diego Tamayo, the secretary of the government, who recently resigned. Gualberto Gomez, with Gen. Maximo Gomez, took a prominent part in the settlement of the strike. His speech to the strikers, made last night, is said to have prevented further rioting.

"ANHEUSER KID" HAS ENOUGH

McCarthy Decided That He Had Got the Short End of It and Has Hired a Lawyer To Defend Him In Rosebud County.

Billings, Nov. 26.—William McCarthy, better known as the "Anheuser Kid," has become tired of hiding from the officers of the law and has announced that it is his intention to return to the scene of his crimes against the electorate of the state and give himself up. It is rumored here that Mr. McCarthy is in a different frame of mind than he was a few weeks ago. He knows more about men, gold bricks and things of that sort. Notwithstanding that his assumed name would indicate youth he is no spring chicken and knows when he has had enough. He has frequently accomplished the doublecross act, and now he knows how it feels himself. He is sick, sore and disgusted, and shows it by his manner, although he steadfastly refuses to talk for publication, other than to say that he proposes to face the music and put the blame for his unlawful mission to Rosebud county where it belongs.

VENEZUELA MAY BE IN BAD VERY SOON

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE REPUBLICS AND GREAT BRITAIN STRAINED

London, Nov. 26.—Diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Venezuela have not been severed up to this point, though the foreign office is surprised if it was compensated at any moment. Venezuela shows no signs of gray, but the demands, and the quietude of the seizure of the Venezuelan customs has been discussed between Berlin and London, as one of the various possible methods of obtaining satisfaction.

WESTERN UNION FILE APPLICATION FOR AN INJUNCTION

Want Pennsylvania Railway System Restrained From Effort to Remove Wires.

SAY IT IS A CONSPIRACY TO BENEFIT THE POSTAL

Plenty of Room by the Tracks for Both Telegraph Companies, the Western Union Says—Pennsylvania Merely Wishes to Force Them Out and Give the Postal the Use of All the Improvements They Have Made.

Pittsburg, Nov. 26.—The application of the Western Union Telegraph company for an injunction to restrain the Pennsylvania railroad from compelling the plaintiff company to remove its poles and wires from the right of way of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, by reason of the alleged expiration of the contract between the companies, came up for argument before Judge Buffington today. An additional bill, accompanied by a petition, was filed today. The bill recites that the lines of the plaintiff company comprise over 192,000 miles of poles and cables, and over 900,000 miles of wire; that it has over 23,000 offices and transmits about 65,000,000 messages annually, exclusively of railroad business, office business of the company and of parties having private wires. The plaintiff company denies the right of the defendant to compel the removal of the poles and wires of the plaintiff, and alleges that the purpose of the attempt to oust the Western Union Telegraph company from the lines of the Pennsylvania railroad system is to give the postal company all the privileges now enjoyed by the plaintiff company. It is claimed that there is ample room for the lines of both telegraph companies on the right of way of the defendant company, and that the object of the defendant company is to destroy the business of the plaintiff company for the benefit of the Postal Telegraph and Cable company which, it is alleged, is contrary to the laws of the United States and Pennsylvania.

WILL SIFT WOMAN'S DEATH TO THE BOTTOM

Consul General Gowdy Is in Receipt of Information and Has Been Offered Aid Which May Lead to the Arrest of the Guilty Party--Remains of the Unfortunate Woman Consigned to the Grave in Paris, Where the Russian Dare Not Attend for Fear of a Demonstration.

Paris, Nov. 26.—Consul-General Gowdy has received a letter from M. Elsassier of London offering to furnish information to the family of Mrs. Ellen Gore, which will assist, Elsassier says, in clearing up the facts in connection with her death by shooting on Wednesday last. Mr. Gowdy has written to Elsassier asking him to forward details. The funeral of Mrs. Gore took place at the American church at 2 o'clock this afternoon and was attended by a large crowd, mainly Americans. The front of the church was packed by an assemblage of people attracted by curiosity, including many students. The body was in a plain oak casket covered by a black pall, having on it the initial "G." It was taken to the church in an open hearse. None of the relatives of the deceased were present and there were no mourners. Five beautiful floral offerings, one of them being from Mr. Gowdy, were placed around the casket. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Thurber. There was no music and the pastor avoided direct mention of the tragedy, the only reference to it being that the deceased was alone in a strange land. The casket was borne to Bagnoux cemetery, where it was buried after a simple service at the grave side. Rydzenski, in whose apartments Mrs. Gore died, was not present at the funeral owing to the advice of his lawyer, who feared a demonstration.

street, and had him draw up her will. All her large estate, including 20 houses in the City of Mexico, which she acquired when doing all he can to force a thorough and impartial investigation. Because of the widespread publicity that has been given she divorced her husband, Thomas Sinclair Gore, was bequeathed to her aunt, Mrs. P. T. Dickinson of Alameda, who was made sole legatee despite the fact that the testator had three brothers living. One of these brothers lives in Ravenna, Ohio. S. Malen Prevost was made executor of the will. As the Paris dispatch contains no mention of another will it is taken for granted that the document drawn up by Prevost will govern the distribution of the property.

INTERNATIONAL IMPORTANCE IS ATTACHED TO THIS CASE

The case has already assumed international importance. Re Rydzenski is related to a prominent Russian family, and Russian officials, who exercise a wonderful influence in France, are interesting themselves in his behalf. They will do all in their power to save him, even should his guilt become plain. On the other hand, Consul General Gowdy, the official representative of the United States in Paris, is Paris and had expressed his intentions to take up much of her time. She had written that her studies would permit her to give him very little of her time, but she had little hope that her message would do any good, as he seemed to think that a woman's wishes were of no account. "One might as well talk to an avalanche," she wrote. He wanted to take apartments in the same building with her, and she declared that if he did so she would move.

FIRED WHEN MRS. GORE REFUSED TO MARRY HIM

Because of Mrs. Gore's fear of the Russian Mrs. Dickinson thinks that he got her to his apartments under some pretext, insisted that she should marry him and when she refused fired the bullet that killed her. Of course this is the theory of one who is far away from the scene of the tragedy, but the aunt is positive that if the case is fully investigated it will prove to be a murder. When Mrs. Dickinson heard of the death of her niece she remembered that Mrs. Gore had often expressed to her a wish that she might be cremated. Accordingly she prepared a telegram asking that the remains be cremated, but when word came that the American consul-general had instructed the undertakers to give the body kindly burial Mrs. Dickinson withdrew her request.

TOWN OF HER GIRLHOOD DOWNCAST AT HER DEATH

Alameda, Nov. 26.—The tragic death of Mrs. Helen Gore in Paris last Thursday, whether through suicide or a bullet fired by De Rydzenski, the Russian who was known to be madly infatuated with the young woman, has cast a pall over the Emerald City, for it was here that Miss Stoddill, who afterward became Mrs. Gore, attended school in her childhood, and often charmed her friends with her exceptional musical talents. Many sympathizing friends called today on the dead woman's aunt, Mrs. Dickinson of 1523 Willow street, who had long acted as a mother to her orphan niece. She received a cablegram this afternoon from Consul-General Gowdy, United States representative in France, saying that he had personally attended to the burial of Mrs. Gore. Mrs. Dickinson had cabled to have the remains placed in a vault pending their removal to this country, but apparently her message reached the consul-general too late. But even yet Mrs. Dickinson intends to have the remains of her niece brought here for interment as soon as practicable in Mountain View cemetery. "Mrs. Gore's life was one of brilliance, yet mingled with sorrow and disappointment," she said.

QUEEN AL EXANDRIA

Of England, Who, It Is Alleged, Was to Have Been the Victim of a Plot.

London, Nov. 26.—Considerable excitement was caused here on November 15 by the arrest of two Brooklyn women, who were regarded by the authorities as suspicious characters. It is thought that they had in view the taking of the life of Queen Alexandra. A royal celebration was being held at Sandringham house at the time, and it was here that the two women were apprehended. The peculiar actions of the suspects has since been attributed to insanity.

CHINESE SILVER FLOODS EUROPE

Remarkable Decline in Metal Causes Comment in London. Oriental Empire Has Paid the Indemnity Funds All in Silver.

London, Nov. 26.—The continued decline in the price of silver causes some considerable comment in financial circles. According to the best informed houses it is regarded as being directly due to China's flooding the market with silver, in payment of the indemnity to the powers. Prior to the recent disturbances, China was a large buyer of silver in London, but now the balance of trade is reversed and instead of China taking silver in return for tea, silk and other articles imported into the United Kingdom, she has to ship silver in payment of manufactured articles. This alone, without the large indemnity disbursements, is considered sufficient to account for the depreciation in the value of the metal. It is pointed out that even if China paid the indemnity in gold, the result would be the same, as she would have to send the same quantity of silver to Europe in order to buy gold. Rumors were rife recently that this was the cause of the decline, but these find no credence among the larger Anglo-American firms.

KRUPP'S REMAINS LAID TO REST

Emperor William and Dignitaries and Notables of the German Empire Follow Cortege to the Grave in Essen Town.

Essen, Prussia, Nov. 26.—The remains of Herr Krupp were buried today. The obsequies were impressive. Emperor William followed the hearse on foot from the old home of the grandfather of the deceased to the cemetery. Practically the entire population of Essen attended the funeral. By Emperor William's side was the deceased's cousin, Arthur Krupp, and General von Bissing. Then came Baron von Rheinbaben, the finance minister; Herr Moeller, minister of commerce; Admiral von Tirpitz, secretary of admiralty; General Buddie, minister of public works; General Von Blessen, General Von Lowenfeld, General Von Huelshoff-Haesler, Dr. Von Lucanus, chief of the civil cabinet; Admiral von Senden-Bibran and a very large company of other distinguished persons, including the burgomaster of adjacent cities and great manufacturers from all parts of Germany. About 24,000 of the Krupp workmen were drawn up on either side of the route. Prince Henry was represented by Commander von Schmidt Swinder.

Heir to German Throne, Who Is Engaged to Princess Alice of Albany, King Edward's Niece.

Berlin, Germany, Nov. 26.—The engagement of Crown Prince Frederick, heir to the throne of the German empire, to the Princess Alice of Albany, King Edward's niece, is now one of the chief topics of conversation. This royal marriage is one of the most important of history, inasmuch as Germany today holds the balance of power in her hands and the nuptials would tend to unite this country and England in a stronger alliance.
