LIFE OF MIKADO WAS IN DANGER

CONSPIRATORS HAD THREATENED TO BLOW UP SPECIAL TRAIN IN WHICH EMPEROR WAS.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Victoria, B. C., Dec. 3.—The Kaga Maru, which arrived today, brought news of an attempt upon the life of the Japanese emperor when the imperial train was en route to the scene of the maneuvers of Kinshin. A number of conspirators had gone to Otaka, a station west of Horoshima, and arranged to blow up the emperor's train, but the police authorities learned of the plot and the would-be dynamiters fled. The imperial train did not proceed until after an engine had been sent over the line to test the safety of the track. The plotters were not captured.

The new Japanese cruiser Mytaka was launched at Yokohama on November 15. The Mytaka is 3,420 tons, with a speed of 20 knots.

The 68th birthday of the empress dowager was celebrated with great eclat at Peking. As every tenth birthday of the empress has seen an unhappy event, her 70th birthday will probably be celebrated next year, a year in advance, in order to prevent overt happenings.

WILL TRY MAJOR GLENN AGAIN

Secretary Root Orders General Davis to Look Once More Into Charges of Cruelty Filed Against the Officer—Was Well Known in Montana.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Manila, Dec. 3.—Advices have been received from Washington directing that Major Glenn of the Fifth infantry shall be put on trial a second time for alleged cruelty committed during the Samar campaign.

Major Glenn is charged with having ordered the execution of several native guides for misleading the American column sent against the enemy's stronghold. Major Glenn himself reported the incident, which has been the subject of extensive inquiry for several months past.

Major-General Chaffee ordered two investigations made. General Chaffee forwarded their reports to Secretary Root before he relinquished his command, and without making any recommendation.

Secretary Root now orders General Davis to formulate charges against Major Glenn and convene a court-martial. Major Glenn is now commanding a post at Bayabang, Luzon, and he was yesterday ordered to hold himself in readiness to appear here for trial. It is said the trial will reopen the entire question of the Samar campaign and consume some time. It is expected Major Glenn will inform the court that he desires Major-General

Chaffee and Brigadier-General Jacob Smith to be called as witnesses, but it is possible that their depositions will be taken instead. Major Glenn was tried by court-martial at Manila last May for administering the "water cure" to natives during the Samar campaign and was found guilty and sentenced to one month's suspension of duty and a fine of $500. President Roosevelt approved the finding of the court. Major Glenn returned to duty in September.

Captain Glenn was stationed in Montana for about eight years while a lieutenant in the army prior to the Spanish-American war. Most of the eight years were spent at Missoula, where the captain has many friends. He is well known also in Butte and Helena. At the various army posts in the state where he was stationed he was known as a particularly studious and energetic officer. He has a wide knowledge of law, having studied it during his leisure time, and in consequence he acted as judge advocate of many courts martial. His knowledge of this subject has resulted in several offers to transfer him into the judge-advocate-general's department, but he has steadily refused to go, preferring to serve in the line.

ELIOT LEVY'S CASE BEFORE M'CLERNAN

DAMAGING EVIDENCE SUBMITTED BY A BOY WHO SAYS HE WAS WITH THE ALLEGED BURGLAR.

Since 11 o'clock this morning the case against Eliot Levy, charged with burglary, has occupied the time in Judge McClernan's court.

Levy is a young man, scarcely 18 years of age. It is alleged in the information against him that he entered Britton's hardware store, at No. 328 South Main street, on the night of September 3 last and stole razors, knives and other articles to the value of $1,000.

There were several witnesses examined this morning, both for the defense and prosecution. Andrew Carlson was the most damaging witness put on the stand. Carlson is another boy, about the age of Levy, and he swore that he entered the hardware store with the defendant. He said Levy opened the transom and climbed over first and then he followed. He then went into detail and told of the robbery; how they had filled some sacks with the goods and carried them away, and of the time and place they disposed of them. He said they had sold most of the stuff to Quong Ching, a Chinaman, for the sum of $20.

Other witnesses examined this morning were Chief of Police James Reynolds, Barney McGillic, J. R. Holden, a boy, and Frank T. Britton, the proprietor of the burglarized store. The substance of their testimony was incriminating, and the chances are Levy will be found guilty.

Assistant County Attorney Dan Yancy is prosecuting the case and Attorney Thresher represents the defense.

"Eliot Levy was always a wayward boy," said Under Sheriff McGuigan this afternoon. "I knew his father and mother well. His father died two years ago and his mother conducted a restaurant. She is a good woman, and I think it would have been best for her boy if she had consented to have him sent to the reform school many months ago. She refused to do this, and now he has a strong chance of ending in the penitentiary."

Young Levy seems indifferent as to his fate, but his old mother is an anxious spectator in the courtroom.

SHERIFF IS RIGHT ON THE HEELS OF DESPERADOES

was a new man at the business of robbery. The three carried no sack or other outward evidence of their recent theft. The money they took—which amounted to $2,333—no doubt was secreted about their clothes.

When they found that no fresh horses were to be obtained they ate some bread and meat the cook gave them and rode away, though their gait, owing to the tired condition of the horses, was not rapid.

These horses, it now appears, were stolen Monday night from a ranch near Joliet.

When the news reached Absorkee Sheriff Potter started at once on fresh horses in pursuit, reaching the ranch an hour after the robbers had left. He gave his men a needed rest and started off this morning as early as it was possible to ride.

The robbers have gone in the direction of the head of the Stillwater creek, south of Absorkee. Thirty miles from Absorkee the country becomes very broken and rough, the beginning of a mountainous region. This region this afternoon is the scene of the chase. It is far from settlements and telegraph wires and no further news from the hunt is expected today.

Apparently the robbers intend to get from the head of the Stillwater into the Teton country east of the National Park and work their way down into the Jackson Hole region. Once there they are comparatively safe from pursuit, because, though the Hole proper contains a number of farms, the region back of the rim rock is rough, wild and unsettled. It is an ideal hiding place for desperadoes. The men could remain there all winter or else continue their journey southward and strike the Union Pacific far down below.

People who have been along the probable course of the robbers report that there is little snow in the region and that the robbers could travel as readily now as at any other time. Sheriff Potter, it should be borne in mind, has the same advantage.

The chances are, of course, in favor of the robbers getting away, because a few hours' start in an uninhabited region means much. At the same time, they have the best men in eastern Montana after them. Sheriff Potter knows the country wonderfully well. He has chased thieves and murderers with success all along the Montana-Wyoming border and knows the trails and hiding places as well as any man living.

Eight hundred dollars reward has been offered for the capture of the men, $500 by the Bridger bank and $100 by each of the Red Lodge banks.

TELEPHONE CASE COMES TONIGHT

INTEREST MANIFESTED AS TO THE PROBABLE ACTION—AS TO THE WOMEN'S CLUBS.

There is considerable speculation as to what Mayor Davey is going to do with the telephone ordinance, which is expected to be returned to the city council tonight.

The ordinance was passed through the council by a vote of 12 to 4, and has been the subject of considerable discussion since.

It was given out by one close to the mayor this afternoon that he expected to veto the bill on the ground that a 30-year ordinance at this time was not the proper thing, owing to the fact that the old franchise of the company still had seven years to run and this action is the one looked for by those about the city hall.

As for the mayor himself, he is sawing wood with a deathlike stillness, which doesn't indicate whether he has signed, will sign or will forget it.

Another matter of importance expected before the council this evening is the new Postal Telegraph ordinance. It was found late this afternoon that the ordinance had not been drafted and there was a rush of interested ones to gather the city attorney into camp and get the bill into shape.

It is a funny recommendation which the judiciary committee uses to unload the protest from the Butte Federation of Women's Clubs onto the burdened shoulders of the mayor.

The committee reports that it has considered the communication from the federation in regard to matters pertaining to public decency and welfare and "recommends that said matters be referred to the mayor of the city of Butte, with a request that the mayor reply to the said Butte Federation of Women's Clubs regarding the contents of the communication."

JAMES R. ROGERS TRIES TO SUICIDE

MAN THOUGHT TO BE BOISE LAWYER CASTS HIMSELF INTO THE RIVER AT CHICAGO.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Chicago, Dec. 3.—James R. Rogers of Boise City, Idaho, a lawyer and representative of mining interests, tried to commit suicide by throwing himself into the Chicago river at the foot of Michigan avenue yesterday. A deckhand from a lake steamer fished him out with a grappling hook. Rogers resisted the rescue vigorously.

At the Harrison street police station the man was identified by letters on his person as J. J. Rogers of Boise. Rogers refused to answer questions. The police say he has been drinking heavily. He was registered at the Auditorium Annex.

MADAM LA BONTA AS SEEN IN TRAIN

INTER MOUNTAIN CORRESPONDENT GETS ON THE PULLMAN SHE IS IN AT DILLON.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Dillon, Dec. 3.—Madam La Bonta, accompanied by Sheriff Furey, passed through here at 2 o'clock this afternoon on the northbound Short Line train.

The sheriff said at the depot that he had had no trouble whatever with Madam La Bonta on the trip from San Francisco and that she had been a model prisoner. The woman herself shows the effects of her recent mental strain. She is much thinner than when she lived in Butte and new lines have come into her face.

A great crowd was at the depot to see her. The more curious speedily found her in the Pullman, seated with the sheriff. They eyed her curiously through the car windows, some of the more audacious ones entering the car and staring squarely into her face. She stood the ordeal well, but declined to talk to any one.

BRODERSON TAKES THE EXAMINATION

DESPITE CHARGES, ATTORNEY IS ALLOWED TO TAKE QUIZZES BY ORDER OF THE COURT

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Helena, Dec. 3.—Despite protests of three Butte attorneys, A. C. Broderson of that city was permitted to take the examination for admission to the bar today before the supreme court. It was decided by the court that he be allowed to take the examination with the other five candidates and that the hearing of protests be held afterward.

Broderson denies the allegations of crookedness. He presented a telegram from the clerk of the superior court at San Francisco, which said that he had never been accused there. The lawyer is accused of obtaining a note wrongfully and of attempted criminal assault by three other Butte attorneys.

MRS. BASIL WHITE, MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

Vice-President Home Forum Club.

918 Herman Building, MILWAUKEE, Wis., Feb. 27, 1902. I had ill health for seven years; nothing helped me and I had about given up hope. I dreaded every month as it came around, as I knew it meant suffering for me. I grew thin, my complexion was bad, my temper was worse and everything irritated me. A friend advised me to try Wine of Cardui and as she urged the matter so strongly I followed her advice. I found it pleasant to take and not like most other remedies that are disgusting nostrums. In a short time I began to improve in health and my digestion was better. It made me regular and reduced the pain and finally it disappeared entirely. I gained ten pounds in two months and now I feel in excellent health, and much relieved to be restored to perfect health once more.

Mrs Basil White

THERE is hardly a man or woman in this land who has not a mother, wife, sister or daughter who is now suffering as Mrs. White suffered. These silent sufferers are martyrs to their modesty. Even their nearest relatives know only half of the story of woe they might tell. What a great service you could render your loved ones by securing them a bottle of Wine of Cardui, the medicine which made such a happy change in Mrs. White's life. Can you put the cost of a life of suffering with hundreds of dollars in doctors' bills, against the small price of the few bottles of Wine of Cardui which cured Mrs. White so quickly? The fact that Mrs. White suffered for seven long years shows that when proper treatment is not secured the trouble grows worse. And this letter shows that Wine of Cardui is a positive and permanent cure. Mrs. White's case was chronic. Nothing helped her until she began taking this wonderful Cardui treatment.

Wine of Cardui benefits the young girl just entering womanhood by properly starting the menstrual function and keeping it regular through life. It relieves barrenness in the wife and stops all bearing down pains, ulcerations, inflammations and drains. It makes childbirth easy for the mother and safely carries her, at middle age, through that dangerous period known as the change of life. When Wine of Cardui can be secured so easily in every town in this land health is within the grasp of almost every woman. The Wine of Cardui treatment can be taken privately at home by any lady without the advice of a doctor or without a doctor's local examination, yet so thorough and complete is this treatment that thousands of cases which doctors would submit to the operating table have been cured by this simple medicine in the home. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
