

STATE SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Fifteen.)

been in Butte to attend the funeral of a friend, was in Deer Lodge last Sunday en route home.

Senator and Mrs. W. M. Biggs of Helena, and Miss Ewing of Butte were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gullette on Thanksgiving day.

Attorney W. B. Rhoades returned Monday from a two-weeks' visit to his former home, Marshall, Mo., and where he enjoyed his Thanksgiving dinner.

Richard LaCourse, one of the leading citizens of Danielsville, transacted business in Deer Lodge Tuesday.

John H. Trisberger of "the Springs" came down Monday evening on a visit to relatives and friends and yesterday attended the funeral of D. J. Welch.

Hans Petersen, from over at the Ontario mine, out from Elliston, was in Deer Lodge last Friday. He says there is a foot or more of snow in his section. Mayor and Mrs. Frank Conley visited Butte last Wednesday. Mr. Conley going up to attend the special ceremonial session of the Shriners that evening.

Colonel Tom McTague went to Helena last Saturday on business connected with the annual settlement of Conley & McTague as prison contractors with the state authorities.

C. H. Albee, United States commissioner, of Wisconsin, in the Big Hole basin, came over in time to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Albee, last week for Thanksgiving day.

FORT BENTON

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN.

Fort Benton, Dec. 6.—Treasurer-elect John C. Sullivan departed Tuesday for Butte on a business jaunt.

A son was born Monday evening to Mrs. P. W. Bendtsen, one of the county patients at St. Clare hospital.

The Ladies' guild is making preparations for a New Year's ball to be given on the evening of Wednesday, December 31.

Miss Townsend arrived from Missoula Wednesday morning to visit with the family of her brother, James Townsend, of this city.

The Evers brothers, Henry and William, returned yesterday from Iowa, where they were married last week. They were accompanied by their brides, and will soon start for their home at Everson, in Ferguson county.

Jack Lyons, who has been confined for the past three weeks with smallpox yesterday, was able to be out again, having completely recovered from his illness.

MISSOULA

Missoula, Dec. 6.—I. L. Greenough departed Tuesday for Spokane on a business trip.

Mrs. W. R. Mills is confined to her apartment at the Florence by illness.

Ed Tudeart, the Woodman ranchman, was in Missoula Tuesday.

Fayette Harrington, the Butte banker, was in Missoula Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy left Wednesday for the Pacific coast, where they will spend the winter.

Register Daniel Arms of the Missoula land office is in Helena as a witness before the federal court.

Tucker Sanders, a salesman of the Missoula Mercantile company store, is ill with pneumonia at the Missoula hotel.

Mrs. J. B. Collins of Helena, who was formerly a resident of Missoula, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Darbee and other friends.

W. B. Barlow of Camo was one of the visitors from the Bitter Root this week to attend the annual meeting of the Montana Fruit Growers' union.

Ralph Scheffer, a son of County Commissioner Peter Schaffer of Huson, has come to Missoula to attend, for the winter, the Garden City Commercial college.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Stewart returned during the week from their honeymoon visit in Spokane. They are at the residence of Mr. Stewart's parents on East Pine street.

Earl Mansfield has arrived in the city from Portland, Ore., to take a position in the office of the Northern Pacific Express company. Mr. Mansfield is a nephew of Agent Thomas Stephenson.

A. B. Perry, station agent for the Northern Pacific at Clark's Fork, Idaho, has been granted a leave of absence which he will spend at Kingston, Ont., where he will be married. His position is being filled by Relief Agent E. E. Wallace.

F. E. Tucker departed last night for Anaconda for a short visit with friends. Mr. Tucker has resigned his position with the D. J. Donohue company store and upon returning will take a position with the Missoula Mercantile company.

The funeral of Mrs. Herman Hueter was held from the late home in North Missoula at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The services were at the German Evangelical church, Rev. Gustave Mertz officiating.

The funeral of the late Mrs. George Phelps was held Tuesday from the family home west of the city, interment being at the Missoula cemetery. Rev. J. F. Salsman of the Baptist church delivered a touching sermon over the remains and many friends were present to pay a last act of respect for an honored companion.

The Rev. Joseph B. McCarthy of Helena arrived in the city Tuesday and at the South Missoula Congregational church commenced a series of revival meetings that continued during the week. He was greeted by a large audience last evening. Rev. McCarthy is one of the state's noted divines.

John Eplin of Jocko was Wednesday at the Hotel Rankin.

Mrs. J. L. McBride is seriously ill at her East Front street home.

The infant child of Major and Mrs. A. L. Duncan is quite seriously ill.

W. B. Russell of Thompson is a business visitor in the city this week.

A. H. McManus of Nine Mile was a visitor in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. I. V. Cummings, a prominent Stevensville lady, visited Missoula friends Wednesday.

Postmaster James E. Stevens of Hamilton was a visitor in the city Wednesday from Hamilton.

G. Gauthier of the Trenchtown valley and D. Hamen of Missoula have gone to California for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harrison of Hamilton were among the visitors from the Bitter Root valley this week.

Mrs. N. E. Church of Helena is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Frank in South Missoula and Mrs. Church is returning from a visit at Spokane.

worth is the proprietor of the Banquet restaurant, and one of Missoula's prominent and enterprising young business men. The bride was formerly of Missoula and is now prominent in social affairs of Spokane.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wilkinson have moved to their new home in South Missoula. The Spruce street residence vacated by them has been purchased by Mr. Rathburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Drinkenbergh and E. L. Doran of Hamilton spent Wednesday in the city, being en route for Southern California, where they will spend the winter.

James A. Walsh and Thomas B. Walsh, former residents of Missoula, but who are now located at Republic, passed through the city Wednesday on their way to Minneapolis. Thomas has recently returned from Nome.

President Craig of the university, Superintendent J. G. McKay and Judge John M. Evans returned Wednesday morning from Helena, where they attended a meeting of the state board of education.

BOZEMAN

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Bozeman, Dec. 6.—M. A. Tanner of Red Bluff was a Bozeman visitor last week.

Miss May Macey returned from a visit to Helena last Sunday evening.

Frank Fruits left last week for his old home at Clarinda, Iowa, expecting to be gone some time.

Miss Lucy Kinney, who is teaching school at Chestnut, spent Thanksgiving day with her parents here.

Mrs. Reese Wells returned Sunday last from a visit to friends and relatives at Independence, Mo.

Fred Wilson spent Thanksgiving day with his parents here, arriving from Helena Wednesday last.

Miss Olla Ferguson and Miss Mildred Stewart are visiting friends in Little Sulphur Springs this week.

Guy Van Allen has gone to Seattle to accept a position with his uncle, A. K. Yerkes, on the Seattle Mail and Express.

Hon. Caldwell Edwards left last week for Washington to attend to his duties as congressman during the short session.

Fred E. Hoss, business manager of the Chronicle, who has been absent for several weeks visiting friends and relatives in Philadelphia, St. Louis and Kansas City, returned last Friday after a very pleasant trip.

Samuel Dean, a well known coal operator of Sand Coulee, Cascade county, was a visitor in the valley last week. He recently sold out his coal mines at Sand Coulee, and was looking over property here with a view to investment.

Judge W. L. Holloway leaves this week for Kirksville, Mo., to visit relatives and friends before moving to Helena to take up his residence there and assume the duties of the high office to which he has been elected.

J. H. Durston, editor of the Anaconda Standard, was a visitor in Bozeman Monday. He stopped over a day here on his return from the East, where he was suddenly called by the death of his wife's mother, stopping while here with his daughter, Mrs. John Maxey.

George Van Fleet has accepted a position with the Bozeman Milling company. Mr. and Mrs. M. Stearns of Wallace street are rejoicing over the arrival last week at their home of a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilson of this city were made happy last week by the arrival at their home on Story street West and third avenue of a daughter.

Yesterday the Daughters of the Confederacy met in regular session at 413 South Bozeman street.

The Misses Will and Luta Brooks entertained a number of their Bozeman friends last Friday evening at their home about four miles from this city. The evening was pleasantly passed with cards and other games, and the hostesses proved themselves to be adepts in the art of entertaining. A dainty supper was served. Those present were: Misses Carry Van Zandt, Zana and Mabel Couroe, Vena Cowan, Helen Hancock, Beatrice Freeman, Mary Sales, Anna, Ella and Alice Arnold, and Messrs. Steffen, Brandenburg, Haley, Daggett, Freeman, Benep, Dr. Purdum and Heligert.

A very pretty and happy wedding took place Thanksgiving morning at the Catholic church when J. P. Nash and Miss Mary Pattee were united in the bonds of holy matrimony by the priest of the parish, Rev. Father Gallagher. The groom is one of the Nash brothers, prosperous ranchers of West Gallatin, and the bride is a daughter of D. D. Pattee and a niece of J. D. Pattee, formerly a prominent resident of Bozeman. The bride was attired in a beautiful dress of crepe de chine. She was attended by Miss Bessie Nash as bridesmaid, attired in a corset colored gown of very pretty make and material. The groom, conventionally attired, was attended by John Pattee, brother of the bride. After the ceremony all repaired to the home of the bride, where a bounteous wedding repast had been prepared for the party and their guests. After receiving the congratulations of the assembled guests the groom and bride left in the afternoon for a wedding trip which will extend to the Pacific coast, taking in Spokane, Walla Walla, Tacoma, Seattle and California.

BOULDER

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Boulder, Dec. 6.—Mrs. Poore visited several days in Helena with her daughter. Senator Cardwell was here part of last week on his way to Helena.

Mrs. K. A. Hammer and daughter were in Butte for a few days.

Miss Clara Sharkey of Dillon is visiting with Miss Ryan in the valley.

Mrs. Barbeau returned Sunday from a few days' visit with friends in Butte.

Mrs. Rose Maguire made a brief visit in Helena with her sister, Anna Smith.

Norval Stuart and family were in Butte for Thanksgiving day and remained until this week.

The Cold Springs school will close Saturday and the teacher, Mr. Maitrejean, will go to Helena.

Marjorie Bines, who is teaching in Woodville, visited the latter part of last week with her aunt, Mrs. Schart.

Miss Mabel Holloway of the Whitehall schools visited here recently at the home of her uncle, A. J. Holloway.

Mrs. Tefit and four children spent Thanksgiving day and the latter part of the week at the home of her sister in Butte.

ton where he was employed on the big Daly ranch, but the force is reduced at this time of the year.

The Basin Progress reports that Mr. H. S. Houghton has been seriously ill. James Wall, who was sick several weeks, is now nearly well.

Mr. P. D. Mills ate Thanksgiving dinner with friends here and then started on his annual pilgrimage to Southern California, expecting to remain during the winter.

R. M. Cralle is in Helena working on the plans for that railway up Basin Creek. Arthur Douglas and family from Clancy were at the G. A. Douglas home the latter part of last week.

Mr. John Fisher, one of the owners of the Bullion mine, who has been on a visit to relatives at Jordan, Minn., has returned to Basin.

On November 25 in Helena Carrie Hoopes of Boulder was married to Joseph Crowell who is connected with the theatrical profession in Butte where they will make their home.

James Williamson and E. K. McCall were here from Whitehall the first of the week. Their errand is not open for publication at this time.

The Equality club held a pleasant meeting last Friday evening, being entertained by Mrs. Bagley and Mrs. Sherlock. There was a general discussion of affairs relating to the extension of the elective franchise to women, and about 20 are now enrolled as club members.

DILLON

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Dillon, Dec. 6.—Herb Flway was in town last Saturday from his home near Redrock.

Hurley Leach moved his family into town for the winter last week from the ranch on the upper Blacktail.

F. V. Butler, a well-known resident of Argentina, was a visitor to the county seat Sunday.

P. M. Sweeney of Dell was a visitor to the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. W. C. Orr left for Butte Sunday evening and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conroy for several days.

Milton Hayes was a visitor from the upper Grasshopper last Saturday.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a sale of useful and fancy articles, together with a chicken pie supper, December 18 in Metlen's new building.

W. G. Blair, road supervisor for the Horse Prairie district, is in town.

The Brown family was well represented in Dillon Monday, T. F. Brown, J. E. Brown, C. R. Brown and W. C. Brown, all of Jackson, registering at the Metlen.

Felix Falk of Anaconda and Hawley Selway of this city went out to Redrock last Saturday.

George Quinn made a visit to the Archie Hyndman ranch in the Ruby valley Tuesday afternoon.

J. W. Lusher and Mrs. Lusher, who spent the greater part of the week in Anaconda, returned home Sunday morning.

Sheriff-elect Gist and County Surveyor Metlen returned last Saturday evening from the Big Hole basin, where they had spent a week.

J. M. Conway returned to his home in Billings Sunday evening and expects to return to this section today.

Lou Thomas returned from Butte Tuesday evening.

Neil Sharkey was a visitor to Dillon Tuesday from his home in Glendale.

Milton Garr is a visitor to the county seat from his home near Dell this week.

Robert W. Christian returned Monday from his visit to Salt Lake City.

St. Rose guild was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. G. W. French at her home on Washington street.

Colonel Alf Decker was in town from Redrock Tuesday.

Commissioner D. D. McKnight came in from his home near Dell Monday morning.

Steve Cook, one of the best known flockmasters of southern Montana, was in town a couple of days last week from his home near Lima.

Lee Louis of Anaconda has been in this section for the past four days.

Mrs. B. E. White was the hostess of the X. Y. N.'s Monday afternoon.

The Women's auxiliary met at the rectory Thursday afternoon.

Stock Inspector Fred Landeau is in town from Lima today.

The Shakespeare club will hold its last meeting before the holidays this afternoon, when the last act of "Richard I" will be read and discussed.

Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Kingsbury have issued unique invitations to a number of friends for the celebration of their fifth anniversary December 8.

BILLINGS

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Billings, Dec. 6.—A. Wormser and wife of Wormser City, Mont., were guests of the Grand hotel Tuesday.

M. J. Johnston, the well-known race-horse man from Chestnut, was in the city Tuesday.

C. C. Huyck, a stockman from Carbon county, was in the city Tuesday from Red Lodge.

Mrs. A. C. Hoese returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with friends in the western part of the state.

Lee Simonsen and Miss Lulu Snydram of Absarokee were in the city Tuesday, being on their way home from a visit to Missoula.

Rev. George D. King, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal church, with headquarters at Bozeman, spent a few days in the city this week.

J. W. Gardner, a former resident of Laurel, in this county, but now located at Boulder, where he is fast accumulating this world's goods, is in the city this week.

Odd Fellows and their families spent an enjoyable evening Monday night at their lodge room. A program consisting of recitations, vocal and instrumental selections, was rendered, after which luncheon was served.

Major S. G. Reynolds, agent of the Crows, returned Tuesday morning from a business trip to Bull Mountain and drove over to the Pryor creek sub-agency, where he will distribute the annual allotment of cattle money to the Indians of that locality.

The second quarterly conference of the M. E. church was held Monday night in the church, presided over by Rev. George D. King of Bozeman, presiding elder of this district.

The Ladies' society of the Congregational church held a bazaar and supper in the church parlors Monday and Wednesday. Tuesday afternoon was held the sale of fancy articles, needle and handwork of all kinds and light refreshments were served. Wednesday evening was served a chicken pie dinner.

J. L. Harrington, local agent of the Burlington, joined the party of gentlemen who started to Chicago over that road Tuesday morning, and accompanied them as far as Omaha. Mrs. Harrington and the children went to Superior, Neb., on the same train, and will spend a week with her parents there and will then go to the western coast to remain all winter.

The largest crowd at Professor Sloan's was at the masquerade Wednesday night that has ever assembled in Gruwell hall. Professor St. Jean's full orchestra furnished the music.

A license to wed was granted this week to Frank Modry and Esther L. Gordon, both of Billings.

A. C. Logan, W. Hansard and H. B. Segur left Tuesday morning over the Burlington for Chicago and West Baden.

Mrs. H. S. Boal and children are here from Sheridan, Wyo., visiting with Miss Edith Colvin at the Cottage Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Childs returned Monday from a visit to the East extending as far as Pennsylvania. Mr. Childs' former home, which he had not visited in 35 years.

Orders your pictures and frames for Xmas early at Calkins'.

Down the Church Aisle

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints hold regular services in Good Templars' hall, West Broadway, Sunday, December 7, as follows: Sunday school at 2 p. m.; testimony meeting, 3 p. m.; preaching service, 7:30 p. m.

South Butte Presbyterian Church—First street and Utah avenue. Preaching services conducted by Rev. Mr. Shaffer at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12:15 m.; Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. The Aid society will conduct its annual fair Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings of this week.

First Baptist Church—Corner of Broadway and Montana streets; J. E. Noffsinger, pastor; residence, No. 641 West Granite street. Worship at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject, "The Christian's Girdle"; evening subject, "The Confession of Christ"; Sunday school at 12:30 p. m.; Lee Hayes, superintendent.

Young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m.; Mrs. F. A. Anderson, leader. Junior, Tuesday afternoon at 4:30; Mrs. H. G. Duerfeldt, superintendent. Mid-week worship Wednesday evening at 7:30, followed by teachers' meeting. The hand of church fellowship will be given to new members and the Lord's supper observed at the close of morning worship. Special music.

Shortridge Memorial Christian Church—Corner Mercury and Washington streets; pastor, A. L. Chapman; residence, No. 432 West Mercury street. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject, "Work of Christian Woman's Board of Missions"; evening subject, "Jonah." Sunday school at 12:30 p. m. Junior Y. P. S. C. E. at 1:30 p. m. Senior Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Theodore Adams, corner Dakota and Iron streets, on Thursday, December 11, at 2 p. m.

German Evangelical Lutheran Church—67 West Silver street. M. Hudloff, pastor; residence, 69 West Silver street. Services on Sunday at 11 a. m. only. Sunday school at 1:45 p. m. The ladies' society meets Wednesday afternoon.

Grace Methodist Episcopal Church—Corner of Arizona and Second streets. James W. Tait, pastor; residence, 935 Arizona street. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.; Logan McDonald, superintendent. League devotional meeting at 6:30 p. m.; Miss Stella Bucher, leader. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening, followed by choir rehearsal.

Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church—Rev. John Hosking, pastor; residence, 971 North Main street; phone, 844B. Class meeting at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning theme, "War in Heaven"; evening, "The General Judgment." Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. Epworth league at 6:30 p. m. Prayer meeting Tuesday evening. Wednesday evening, choir rehearsal. Thursday afternoon Ladies' Aid society will meet in the parlors of the church at 2:30 o'clock. Friday evening, class meeting.

Walkerville Methodist Episcopal Church—Rev. C. D. Crouch, pastor. Preaching at 11 a. m. by the pastor, and at 7:30 p. m. by John B. Penhall. Epworth league devotional service at 6:30 p. m.; leader, Henry Rundle. Class meeting at 10:15 a. m. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.; Henry Rundle, superintendent. Prayer meeting Friday evening, to be followed by the monthly meeting of the official board.

Meaderville Methodist Episcopal Church—Rev. C. D. Crouch, pastor; residence in Walkerville; phone, 045B. Sunday school at 2:30 p. m.; Joseph Skewes, superintendent. Revival meeting at 7:30 each evening until further notice. The first 30 minutes of each evening will be devoted to a song and praise service.

Welsh services in Carpenters' Union hall, West Granite street, Sunday as follows: Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Communion at the evening service. Sunday school at 12 m. Choir rehearsal on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Song and prayer service Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Christmas practice in the hall Saturday at 3 p. m. R. E. Williams, pastor; residence, 726 South Montana street.

First Church of Christ (Scientist)—850 West Broadway, corner Excelsior avenue. Mrs. Nellie Elmborg, first reader. Subject for Sunday, December 7, "God, the Preserver of Man." Services at 10:45 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday school at 12:15 p. m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. Reading rooms open from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., except Sundays.

Second Church of Christ (Scientist)—West Galena street, corner Dakota street. Mrs. C. Grimes, first reader; residence, 740 Maryland avenue. Morning service at 11 o'clock; subject, "God, the Preserver of Man." Sunday school at 12 m. Evening service at 8 o'clock; subject, same as at morning service. Testimonial meeting Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. All are welcome.

Meeting at Theosophical headquarters, 411 Goldberg block, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

Norwegian and Danish Methodist Episcopal Church—Corner Cooper and Alaska streets. N. S. Hansen, pastor. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Evening service at 8 o'clock. Sunday school at 12 m.

Preaching at Shaffer's chapel, African Methodist Episcopal church, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor, Sunday

The Connell Store

Feature of all our Clothing, is the fact, that it is "made to fit." All our clothing is made expressly for us, by the two leading wholesale tailors of this country--Stein-Bloch Co. and Hart, Schaffner & Marx. We neither buy nor sell "job lots" of clothing, so you can't get the wrong thing in our store, even if you tried.

A MARKED

Open Saturday Nights Until 10

Every man in Butte knows that the name of "Connell" on a suit of clothes or an overcoat gives them additional value. This cut represents

A Heavy Wool Overcoat for $11.75

Well made and lined. Such an overcoat as would sell usually for $18.00 to $20.00. We are selling men's suits of an excellent quality at

Same Price $11.75

Doings in Boys' Department

Nickel watches for the boys Friday and Saturday. To make matters very interesting we offer some extraordinary values. Parents contemplating purchases for their boys should first inspect our incomparable selections. There are opportunities in point of low prices and satisfactory selections in our store that do not exist elsewhere.

Our stock just now is the largest we have ever had, and includes almost every style from the best and most reliable manufacturers in this country.

Boys' Norfolk Suits	2.75, 3.50, 4.50, 6.00, 7.50
Boys' Sailors Suits	3.50, 3.95, 5.50, 6.50, 7.50, 8.50
Boys' Vestee Suits	2.50, 3.00, 4.50, 5.00, 5.50, 6.00
Boys' Two Piece	2.50, 3.00, 4.50, 5.00, 5.50, 6.00
Boys' Three Piece	3.95, 4.75, 5.50, 6.50, 7.50, 8.50
Boys' Reefers	2.50, 3.50, 4.50, 6.50, 7.00,
Boys' Overcoats	4.50, 5.50, 6.50, 7.50, 8.50, 9.50

Boys' Fedora Hats

We have just received a new selection of Boys' Fedora hats and Boys' winter shoes. In fact what you need for the man or boy in winter outfits, can be had in our store in the best qualities and at prices that will satisfy you.

M. J. CONNELL COMPANY

SEATTLE

Our Seattle office has to offer as an inducement to the investing public, an entering wedge as it were, some splendid lots adjoining

Washington Park

This property is good, found to give returns, and sells from $250.00 to $350.00 a lot. Inside lots 40x100; corner lots 50x100. Terms: One third in six months and one third in twelve months. Interest on deferred payments seven percent. Title guaranteed.

THE THOMPSON CO.

224 PIKE STREET, SEATTLE 15 WEST BROADWAY, BUTTE

school at 2:30 p. m.; Mrs. S. Austin, superintendent; Mrs. S. Keenes, secretary.

Pretty books in Ooze calf bindings at Calkins'.

J. D. M'GREGOR

VETERINARY SURGEON.

Honorary graduate of the Ontario Veterinary college, Toronto, Canada. Treats all diseases of domesticated animals according to scientific principles. Office at Marlow's stables, 104 South Main street. Telephone 493. All cases promptly attended to.

Dr. German

THE DENTIST, Has Resumed Practice. 114 1-2 NORTH MAIN.

Kemmerer Coal Sold by CITIZENS' COAL CO. No. 4 East Broadway.