

WOODWARD WILL NOT PRACTICE LAW IN THE TREASURE STATE

County Attorney-Elect of Carbon Disbarred for Forging Signature.

REPEALS TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN.

County Attorney-elect F. C. Woodward of Carbon county will not practice law in Montana.

The supreme court this morning disbarred the official who in his anxiety to make a good showing in his application for a license, forged the name of Fox & Fox, attorneys of Red Lodge, to a letter of recommendation. The opinion of the court, by Chief Justice Brantly, is scathing and disposes of Mr. Woodward in the following words:

"It is hardly conceivable under the circumstances that the applicant should have been guilty of this fraudulent behavior. Among his recommendations were several signed by reputable members of the bar, both of this state and of Nebraska, sufficient in substance to warrant favorable action upon his application.

"His conduct can be explained only upon the theory that he is wholly destitute of those sentiments of honor and integrity which high-minded lawyers should always possess and which should always characterize their conduct toward the clients, their members of the bar, and the courts before which they practice from day to day.

"Without discussing the question whether the unauthorized use of the name of another in writing subjects the applicant to a criminal prosecution, or whether under the circumstances the applicant should have been punished as for contempt, it is sufficient to say that, had the matter been brought to the attention of the court at the time the application was made, the license would have been denied upon the ground of total unfitness of the applicant.

"This being true, and the court being now informed of the fraud, the order granting the license will be revoked. He was guilty, not only of fraud upon the firm of Fox & Fox, but also upon this court, and that, too, upon the very threshold of his professional life upon which he expected to enter."

CHICAGO JURY IS NEARING FIGURES

THINK THEY HAVE MEN WHO CAN TELL WHETHER OR NOT THE CONSPIRACY EXISTS.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—On new developments in the coal investigation the grand jury has widened its scope of inquiry.

On information received late yesterday subpoenas have been sent to the sheriff of Sangamon county for the appearance before it of Charles A. Starns of the Virden Coal company and the West End Coal company of Springfield; Terrence Casey of the Williamsville Coal company, and W. Sweeney of the Alton & Auburn Coal company at Auburn.

The evidence of the men from the Springfield district, it is said, will form the connecting link in the chain of evidence showing agreements between the operators of Illinois and Indiana.

Several witnesses summoned for yesterday were heard today, after which the grand jury turned its attention to the volume of documentary evidence.

Losses Large Sum.

Havre, Jan. 15.—Sergeant Wellnitz of D Troop, Third United States Cavalry, yesterday lost a pocketbook containing $485 cash and a check on a San Francisco bank for $650.

Rob a Dummy.

Missoula, Jan. 15.—Two men were caught trying to rob a dummy here today. They were trying to "hit" a coat which was chained to the dummy. Some clothing which was stolen was found on them.

Old Placer Miner Insane.

Deer Lodge, Jan. 15.—Rasmus Hansen, was examined as to his sanity today and will be taken to Warm Springs. He is an old placer miner and came here in the '60's. He was found rolling in the snow in an alley.

Nickel-Maker Free.

Great Falls, Jan. 15.—E. E. Taler, the young man who was arrested for making nickels which were played against a slot machine has been turned free. There was no criminal intent proven in their manufacture.

Getting Good.

Billings, Jan. 15.—A moral crusade has struck Billings. The police are arresting all lewd women and fining them. It is the intention to force them to live in one section of the city.

To Buy Pictures.

Helena, Jan. 15.—Four hundred children are giving nightly entertainments here for the purpose of raising funds to buy pictures which will be used to adorn the rooms in the high schools. One thousand dollars will be realized.

Smallpox Breaks Out.

Fort Benton, Jan. 15.—A telegram received here says that a case of smallpox has appeared at Box Elder. As soon as the report was received Dr. Crutcher left for the place to investigate and quarantine the patient.

Daylight Robbery.

Missoula, Jan. 15.—During the noon hour today a sneak thief stole a sewing machine from the Orvis company. The robbery took place while the owner was in an adjoining room. No trace of the machine has been had.

Have They Confessed?

Red Lodge, Jan. 15.—One of the men confined in the jail at this point is said to have made a confession that will lead to a conviction in the Bridger bank robbery case. The officers will say nothing about the matter.

The Flyer Files.

Livingston, Jan. 15.—The North Coast Limited yesterday made a record run between this place and Missoula. At times a speed of 70 miles an hour was reached and two hours time was made up between the two stations.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proved catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address:

Sioux City, Iowa, Jan. 15.—Colonel Thompson of Rock Rapids, former commander of the Grand Army of Iowa, died today. He was a well-known banker and pioneer.

GIVE THEM ALL A CHANCE

Says There Is Too Much Hanging

Chief of Police Reynolds is not one of that class of officers who believes in hanging a criminal every time he is accused. Indeed, the chief's views trend in the other direction, and he is inclined to be broad in his dealings with men and women who have been branded in society.

"Do you know that lots of men are forced into crime just because the world regards them as criminals," remarked the chief. "Take a young man who wanders into a large city a stranger and who is unable to find work. If he goes that way long he is spotted by some smart officer, who keeps an eye on his every movement. Next he is arrested for vagrancy, and then if he continues to live in the same locality he is arrested on suspicion and put through a sweating process to make him confess to some highway robbery or forgery, the circumstances of which he is totally ignorant."

It Works on Him.

"What is the result? The young fellow soon begins to imagine he is really a criminal, as everybody else has him sized up that way. He is unable to get employment at all on account of the unsavory reputation thrust upon him and he grows careless. He is soon thrown with weak, vicious fellows, who tempt him to rob or commit some other crime, and he is caught red-handed. After serving a term in prison his career is shaped. He is now a full-fledged criminal, and no matter where he goes he is prevented from leading the right sort of life by reason of the record entered up against him.

"Now, for instance," continued the chief, taking from his pocket a letter written by a man who was hanged last fall for murder in Chicago, "here is the last message written by a young fellow named George Casey. He was hanged for murder in Chicago last November and this letter is supposed to be his dying statement. In it he swears that he is not guilty of the crime. He then goes on to tell the story of his life, how he tried to make an honest living in Chicago, but was prevented by the hounding of the police there."

His Hash Was Cooked.

The letter states further that the condemned man at last committed a petty crime in desperation and then, as he expressed it, "my hash was cooked." He wrote that he was arrested by every police officer he met and that he was charged at times with as many as four crimes, each of which was committed in different parts of the city.

"I do not doubt that the letter tells the truth," said Chief Reynolds, "and there are hundreds of officers who would do more to lessen crime by giving men regarded as criminals a helping hand, instead of persecuting them to the point of desperation."

JAMES MANE MAY NOT HAVE TO SERVE OUT SENTENCE

Toole Recommends Him for Pardon on Petitions From Home County—Two Others to Be Given Liberty.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN.

Helena, Jan. 15.—James Mane, who was convicted in Cascade county of the crime of murder and who was sentenced to 10 years for murder, will shortly be pardoned, if the state board of pardons approves of the action of Governor Toole in pardoning him.

In his letter to the board of pardons, Governor Toole says: "I believe that this is a meritorious case and that this man should be pardoned and for that reason I have pardoned James Mane, subject to your approval. He will not finish his sentence until April 28, 1903. He was convicted of killing William White, a friend of his, and at the time of committing the crime he said that it was an accident. His conduct has been exemplary and I have received a number of pleas for his pardon from Cascade and Fergus counties."

The board has approved the action of Governor Toole in his act in pardoning George Blake, a Deer Lodge convict, and Wayne Smith who has been an inmate of the Miles City reformatory. Smith, who is a mere lad, ran away from his home in Ogden, Utah, and when leaving a train at Lima, approached a horse to get a meal and finding no one at home entered and took a watch and chain from a vest which was hanging on the wall. The application for a pardon was accompanied by letters from the trial judge and the county attorney who prosecuted the boy.

George Blake was convicted in Sweet Grass county on a charge of stealing a horse, and despite the fact that he has already served more than a year, he is still a mere youth. His parents say that they will take care of him and see that he conducts himself properly in future.

SILVER BOW MEDICAL SOCIETY TO HAVE CODE

Statements of the Ethics Proper for a Physician Is to Be Drawn Up—Why It Is Necessary.

The Silver Bow Medical society has decided to formulate an ethical code for the guidance of its members in their professional actions. At a meeting of the society at Murray & Freund's hospital last night, Dr. Campbell, president of the society, appointed Drs. Leavitt, Donnelly and Burnheim as a committee to draft the code.

It seems that the methods employed by the medical candidate at an election at which a physician was chosen to attend to the bodily ills not only displeased the employes but other physicians as well. The use of cards, circulars and other means to succeed in the election by reputable doctors were much deplored.

When the code of morals is drawn the doctors of the association will be expected to live up to it.

GAME WARDEN SCOTT IS SAID TO NEED DEPUTIES

Believed That He Could More Rigorously Enforce the Laws If He Had More Men to Help Him.

Deer Lodge county is the scene of a movement at present to secure an increase in the number of deputy game wardens allowed Game Warden Scott. The people of Anaconda and other places in the county believe that while Mr. Scott has energy and the game laws in the command, he could do more effective work with more men.

Consequently a petition is being circulated in the county which will eventually be presented to the legislature and which asks for the passage of a law increasing the game warden's staff. Many people have already signed the petition, and the movement promises to receive general support.

MONTANA WOMEN DO NOT YET DESPAIR OF BILL

Petition for Equal Suffrage Is Being Circulated and Will Be Presented at Helena.

Equal suffrage promises to be demanded of the present legislature by a great many Montana women. The movement is assuming large proportions in Butte, the petition asking for it already having a very long roll of signers. Mrs. Green Majors is circulating the petition and is meeting with the fullest success in her efforts to get names to it.

Yesterday the paper was presented to the Woman's club of Butte, and every member of that society signed it. Every member of the Atlas club, another ladies' society, has signed it, and it is believed that all the women's clubs of Butte will sign it in full.

RUSSIAN VESSELS THROUGH

Four Torpedo Boats Are Said to Be at Sebastopol.

London, Jan. 15.—The Sebastopol correspondent of the Daily Graphic asserts in a dispatch that four Russian torpedo boat destroyers whose passage of the Dardanelles produced the British protest, are at Sebastopol.

"This seems to dispose of the assertion," says the correspondent, "that these vessels have not passed the Straits."

The Constantinople correspondent of the Times says: "The port will not reply to the British protest in the matter of the passage of the Dardanelles of the Russian torpedo boat destroyer, nor will the British embassy here make further representations. No other embassy has moved or will move in the matter."
