

Very Sorry,

but we cannot sell knives after 6 o'clock p. m. It is against the rules of the union. This week we are selling

$1 Knives for 35c

They are good values and sell rapidly. Some of our customers seem offended because we do not sell knives after 6 p. m. It is not our fault. Last week we were fined $10 for selling a 10 cent writing tablet. If we should be fined $10 for selling a knife after hours we would lose the profits on 1,000 knives.

CONFUSION IN THE ORDERS

Two Killed and Another Dying as the Result of a Train Wreck.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. San Bernardino, Cal., Jan. 21.—A head-on collision occurred between two Santa Fe freight trains in Cajon Pass, above this city, last night.

Two men, Conductor Stewart and Fireman Charles W. Beckett, were killed, while one other man will probably die. The wreck is thought to have been due to confusion of train orders.

LYNCH TRIAL NOW UNDER WAY

Gallant Irish Officer Is Arraigned for High Treason.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Denver, Jan. 21.—The trial of Col. Arthur Lynch, member of parliament for Galway, on the charge of treason, by aiding and abetting the king's and the late queen's enemies during the South African war, according to one unique sentence of the arraignment, "being moved and seduced thereto by the instigation of the devil," commenced today before the lord chief justice, Lord Alverstone, and two other justices.

The prisoner pleaded not guilty. This is the first treason trial in England for upwards of 60 years. The last was that of a youth who fired a pistol at the late Queen Victoria as she was riding down Constitution hill. The youth Francis was condemned to death, but the sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life. He was released in 1867.

Unusual interest, therefore, is taken in the present case. The courtroom was crowded, many ladies, including Mrs. Lynch, being among those present.

Colonel Lynch was pale and careworn, but he stood in the dock composedly, listening to the lengthy indictment which occupied nearly an hour in reading.

Drawing, quartering and beheading accompanied the death penalty for treason until 1867, when this was abolished. The death penalty, however, remains.

The attorney general, Sir Robert Finlay, opened the case, reciting the alleged treasonable acts as fully reported at the preliminary hearing.

ORDERS NOT TO TAKE THEM BACK

STRIKE COMMISSION LEARNS INTERESTING FACT CONCERNING A BLACK LIST.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Philadelphia, Jan. 21.—The first witness called by the strike commission today was Gilbert Jones, one of the assistant mine superintendents of the Temple Iron company. He denied positively that a black list existed at the company's collieries.

On cross-examination the witness said he had issued orders to the foremen of collieries over which he has supervision not to employ as miners any of the men who were on strike at the Maltby colliery of the Lehigh Valley company. These men struck before the general suspension was inaugurated.

George L. Houser of Scranton, auditor of the Temple Iron company, presented statements relative to wages. These included a statement of the earnings of the company men for 1902 and the earnings of the contract miners and laborers. The Temple company employs 779 company men whose average earnings in 1902 were $1.59 a day. The company has no company stores.

The Temple Iron company then rested its case and the Lehigh Valley Coal company proceeded to call its witnesses.

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. He Assures Rheumatic Sufferers That One Bottle of

Paine's Celery Compound

Banished His Pains and Agonies.

The startling and happy cures wrought by Paine's Celery Compound for rheumatic sufferers have deeply impressed medical men everywhere, and today the best practitioners are recognizing the great value of the Compound, and prescribe it with confidence.

Paine's Celery Compound stands unequalled as a cure for all the varied forms of rheumatism. At this season its good work is apparent in thousands of American homes. Men and women, lame and crippled, and utterly helpless from the terrible disease are being restored to activity, health and strength. Paine's Celery Compound is the only medicine that rescues and saves the despairing victim who is told that he or she is incurable. Mr. L. A. Fleishman, Gap Mills, West Va., writes about his happy experience with Paine's Celery Compound. He says:

"I had rheumatism in my left arm and shoulder, could not sleep, and had no appetite. I visited my sister who lives in Frankford, and she told me that she had been afflicted just as I was and Paine's Celery Compound had done her more good than anything she had tried, and she advised me to use it. I got one bottle and used it, and the result was I slept well, had a good appetite, and the pains of rheumatism left me, and I have not felt them since; in fact, it has cured me and I feel like a new man."

HARLEY BEATEN UP BY THREE RUFFIANS

TRIES TO HELP OUT WOMAN WHO IS BEING BULLIED AND IS ASSAULTED FOR HIS PAINS.

D. Harley, a well-known young man, was the victim of a vicious assault last night shortly before the midnight hour, on East Park street.

Harley has a room in the Imperial block, had retired and was awakened by loud noises in another part of the house. From what he could distinguish there were several tough characters in another room, drinking and carousing in a boisterous manner.

The landlady called a messenger boy and sent him for a policeman, but one of the toughs caught the boy and frightened him to the extent that he was afraid to call an officer. Another messenger boy was sent for, but he received the same kind of treatment.

By this time the landlady was becoming alarmed and Harley, hastily putting on his clothes, offered to go for an officer. He had proceeded but a few feet on East Park street when the three men, who had followed, assaulted him from behind. Harley turned and fought as best he could with the odds three to one. He clinched with one of the men and the two went to the sidewalk. While struggling on the curbing Harley received a kick in the face which made an ugly bruise.

He might have received serious injuries had not approaching footsteps frightened the thugs away. Harley was unable to identify the men and as yet no arrests have been made.

NEER BANKRUPTCY CASE IS BEFORE THE REFEREE

Walkerville Merchant Subjected to a Fire of Queries Concerning Various Transactions in Business.

Judge Thompson Campbell, referee in bankruptcy, is at present engaged in holding a hearing in the case of the bankrupt estate of Morris Neer, a merchant who went on the rocks a couple of months ago. R. M. Fried is the trustee in bankruptcy in the case, and the hearing is in the interest of the creditors. The hearing opened before Referee Campbell yesterday, and has been in progress two days. Neer's bankrupt, has been on the stand all of the time.

The First National bank and A. F. Bray have been summoned as witnesses in the case to testify to what they may know about Neer's disrupted business affairs. Neer is represented in the case by Attorney Forestell, and the creditors have Attorney Frank.

The examination is for the purpose of discovering all the facts relating to the condition of Neer's estate. He failed for about $2,000, and his disrupted business amounts to about $5,200, which includes outstanding accounts in his favor.

Mr. Neer was under fire from Attorney Frank this morning, the latter questioning him about all of his business transactions within a period of some months prior to his insolvency.

The hearing is expected to last for a few days yet. When the condition of the estate of the bankrupt has been got at accurately the referee will take such steps as to place it in shape for administration by the trustee.

BAND GOT NO MONEY FOR MUSIC

Heinze's Leader Sues for Services Rendered in the Campaign.

An echo of the late Heinze campaign is contained in a complaint in the district court today. The leader of the so-called miners' band that played for the Heinze aggregation is suing for his pay.

The title of the suit is J. H. Voil against the Montana Ore Purchasing company and the sum of $385 and costs is claimed.

Voil sets up in his complaint that from September 19 to December 4, 1902, "the plaintiff, at the request of the defendant, performed 77 days' labor and service for the defendant as a musician in organizing and training a band."

Voil says he was promised $5 per day and has not received a cent.

George J. Busch and J. Bruce Kremer are Voil's attorneys.

The miners' band was used exclusively by Heinze during the campaign. Voil is a local musician, who has lived here several years.

LOOK FOR M'CRACKEN

St. Louis Police Want Man of the Sort Herein Described.

Mathew Kiely, chief of police of St. Louis, offers a reward of $200 for the arrest of George T. McCracken, a young man originally of that city who is reputed to be something of an expert in the forging line. The St. Louis police chief has a "hunch" that the man he wants is lurking about Butte and he has written Chief Reynolds to keep an open eye for the young criminal.

It is said that McCracken is a follower of the race track and has earned the reputation of being a "toad." The Butte policemen are warned to watch the poolrooms as he will be sure to drift there.

Here is a description of him: "Age, 38 years; 5 feet 7 1/2 inches tall, 130 pounds weight, dark complexion, long chin and nose, dark hair tinged with gray, smooth face. When last seen here, wore a dark sack suit of clothes, dark overcoat and black derby hat."

BARNEY M'GILLIC AIDED CAPTURE

READS WITH INTEREST NEWS OF THE EXECUTION OF LABELLE AND FOURNIER AT DAWSON.

Officer Barney McGillic read with a good deal of interest the dispatch from Dawson, which told of the execution of murderers LaBelle and Fournier in that far away mining camp of his men. He had hanged yesterday morning in Dawson, and the crime for which they suffered death was the murder of three Canadian Frenchmen—Leon Bouthillier, Joseph Constantin and A. Beaudoin.

The part which Barney McGillic played was to make possible the capture of LaBelle. This man had stopped in Seattle, Spokane, and other Sound cities after the murder of the three men and had then come to Butte. He was tracked to this city by Detective Welch, an officer in the employ of the Canadian government, but in Butte Welch lost all trace of his man.

He appealed to Barney McGillic for help, and after working on the case for a couple of days McGillic learned that LaBelle had been shipped out of Butte by a local employment agency to a small place in Nevada. He gave these facts to Welch, and that officer, following Barney's advice, went to the Nevada town, and arrested LaBelle after a chase of thousands of miles. That was last August. LaBelle was returned to Dawson in September, shortly after convicted and hanged yesterday with his partner in crime.

McGillic received a neat sum from the Canadian government as a reward for his services.

THINGS MINERS IN CONVENTION WANT

INCREASE OF WAGES AND OTHER MATTERS DISCUSSED AT INDIANAPOLIS MEETING.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21.—When President Mitchell called the United Mine Workers to order today he announced special committees on injunctions and on appropriations.

The resolution committee began the reading of the resolutions, which demanded increases ranging from 18 to 25 per cent for the run of mine basis; for weighing coal on the miners' cart; for smaller differentials, and for advance in the wages of inside and outside common labor.

A resolution from one of the Pennsylvania anthracite districts, asking that all districts asking the legislatures of their respective states to cause a per cent of all coal sales to be set aside as a permanent benefit fund for the benefit of the miners who are crippled, injured or permanently incapacitated in mine casualties, was not concurred in.

SHOOTING UP BUTTE

Link Arrested for Trying to Pepper the Glorious Firmament on High.

James Link evidently thought he could shoot his way into fame last night, for he drew a revolver in front of the Butte hotel and began firing in the air. Officer Yutz heard the noise, and running up he placed Link under arrest.

When searched at police headquarters a peculiar looking weapon was found on him in the shape of a billy. It is not so large as the club used by policemen, but is big enough and long enough to put most anybody to sleep.

Link was arraigned in police court this morning and pleaded not guilty. His case was set for tomorrow afternoon.
