

Disfiguring and Troublesome Skin - Diseases Easily Banished by PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

A Marvelous Cure After the Failures of Ten Doctors.

Skin diseases are very common with old and young, and some forms are exceedingly troublesome, and cause serious disfigurement of the face and complexion. Eczema, salt rheum, scrofula, shingles, ringworm, boils, pimples, itch, and a score of other disagreeable troubles, result from neglect, impure and poisoned blood. If you truly desire to get rid of such evils, do not resort to outward treatment or applications. Common sense and the experience of your friends will at once suggest a blood purifier and system restorer like Paine's Celery Compound. This marvelous cleanser soon multiplies the arteries with a health stream that produces clean, solid flesh, and firm, well-braced nerves. Mrs. L. S. Bailey, West Potsdam, N. Y., writes thus: "I had small blotches break out on my head, and in a short time my whole body was covered. The doctors called it scrofula. I have had as many as 10 doctors treat me, but none seemed to help me. At night time, my whole body would itch so that I would have to walk the floor nearly all night. I have taken all kinds of sarsaparilla, and used soaps and ointments without effect. I read in a paper of Paine's Celery Compound, and I could not rest until I gave it a trial. I am now on my fifth bottle and consider Paine's Celery Compound miraculous in its effects. I am completely cured with the exception of one spot on my arm, which is fast going away. I wish all who suffer to give this wonderful medicine a trial."

DETECTIVE AVERS HE IS MALIGNED

Robinson Says He Was Not Impersonating an Officer When Arrested.

ON CASE AS A PRIVATE DETECTIVE FOR MONTHS

Had His Man Spotted and Took McGillic Along in Order to Land the Quarry— Says He Was Working in Good Faith and Did Nothing to Warrant His Incarceration in the Bastille.

Edward Robinson, the well-known private detective, is indignant over certain articles recently published in Butte papers to the effect that he had been arrested for impersonating an officer and that he was caught redhanded in the act. The only part of the procedure that Robinson admits is the fact that he was arrested. He claims that he was taken into custody without cause and that he is being systematically persecuted by the sheriff's office.

"It is like this," said he, in giving his side of the story. "I have been working on a case since last fall. A man who answers to the name of John C. Sullivan went into the apartments of a woman in the Redlight district and assaulted her with a knife. The woman's friends offered a reward of $100 for the assailant, and I traced him to Jerome, Ariz. Afterwards the man came back to Butte, and a few days ago I approached Sheriff Quinn and told him I would point the man out if he would arrest him. Quinn promised to do so, but kept putting it off. Then the fellow heard I had spotted him and prepared to leave town.

"When I heard this I told Barney McGillic, and Barney and I went to the house where the man stayed, but failed to get him, as he had skipped. I was not going to make the skip at all, but was simply there to point the man out to McGillic. Later I was approached by a policeman and arrested for impersonating an officer, something I never did. I was placed in the county jail, but, as there was no evidence against me, the sheriff had to sign an order for my release. The statement in the Standard that I had been released on a $500 bond is false.

Robinson says that the man, Sullivan, whom he had spotted happened to be a friend of some one in the sheriff's office, and for this reason the man was given protection, while he (Robinson) was thrown into jail.

To substantiate his statement Robinson brought the man who had offered the $100 reward around to the Inter Mountain office, and he declared Robinson had been working on the case in good faith.

Barney McGillic also speaks a good word for Robinson. He says that the young detective has been thrown in jail more than one occasion, but that no charge was ever made to stick against him.

ALLEN TO FACE CHARGE

Arrested for Alleged Beating Up of Ben Poindexter.

John Allen, a colored man who early in the week carved the face of Ben Poindexter, "crudder cullud gem man," was dismissed by Judge Boyle Thursday afternoon, as there was no prosecuting witness present. Yesterday afternoon, however, Poindexter heard of the dismissal and, with the declaration that he didn't know the case had been set for Thursday, proceeded to the office of County Attorney Breen and swore out a warrant against Allen for third degree assault.

Constable Holland of Justice Harrington's court arrested Allen and the trial will come up at a later date.

TODAY'S NEWS FROM THE SMELTER CITY TRYING TO CRUSH NEW UNION

Remodel the Little Church

Ancient Edifice Originally Built Under the Auspices of the Methodist Church South and for Years the Leading Kirk in Anaconda Is to Go the Way of All Churches.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Feb. 21.—The little church in the corner of the first church to be built in the city of Anaconda, is being remodeled and changed in a few days, under the direction of Architect Kerns. It will have none of the distinguishing features of a place of divine worship. It is to be the servants' quarters for the great hotel directly in front of it.

It was originally built by the congregation of the Methodist Church South, and for a year or more was the largest and best place in Anaconda. Later on the congregation, diminished somewhat by death and removal, other churches were built and finally the little church was practically abandoned and the trustees sold it to Mr. Daly.

After that it was used as a meeting place for the Salvation army, and at one time it was used for a lodge room by some of the societies. When the Salvation army succeeded in driving the devil out of Anaconda and making it the model, moral city that it is, they, too, abandoned the church and the field, since which time it has been a habitation for the bats and the owls.

A Typical Southerner. Elder Beebe, a typical southerner, was the pastor and under his direction that the church was built. He had a Sam Jones style of preaching that was not only effective in saving brands from the burning, but was also particularly interesting to people from the North who were unused to the Southern dialect.

He was a powerful man and had but little trouble in keeping order after he became known. It is told of him that on one occasion he has taken an obstreperous brother by the neck and nearly choked both the sin and life out of him at the same time. The good brother left here many years ago and is now in the land of the just, having departed this life in his native state of South Carolina.

The little church has been the trying place for lovers in the good old summer times of years ago, and there are many in the city who will remember the handsome, stylish and well-dressed Salvation army lass who captivated and led from his allegiance to a devoted wife and family one of the prominent citizens of the then embryo city. While preaching this ancient and holy edifice this charming hypocrite made goo-goo eyes at the boys and finally ran away with a married man.

It Degenerated. Following the Salvation army the church was used as a gymnasium and training quarters, under the management of Billy Armstrong, and many of the early pugilists learned their first lesson in lying down at the proper time from this professor of the art of making easy money.

The building was used by the great football team that wore the Anaconda uniform some years ago, and during all of these years of use by the godless, the public and the sinner it has never lost its identity. It has always looked like a church, but with ruthless hands, Architect Kerns has today removed the last vestige of its church-like appearance.

COLLINS RESIGNS FROM THE WATER COMPANY

Anaconda, Feb. 21.—H. Frank Collins, secretary and treasurer of the Electric Light and Water company, has resigned from those positions for the purpose of entering business life associated with his brother, J. V. Collins.

Mr. Collins has held his present position for some years, and year by year his popularity has increased with the people with whom he came in contact, both in a social and a business way. While at all times attending to the company's business in an admirable and business-like way, he has managed to so conduct himself and the affairs over which he had control in such a manner as to gain the respect and confidence of the general public.

For the past four years he has been an alderman from his ward, and he has been frequently mentioned in connection for much higher honors in a political way.

Mr. Collins is also the manager of the Margaret theater, and in that position he has also made many friends besides getting credit for conducting the theater in a most successful manner.

His brother, J. V. Collins, is at present engaged in the wholesale liquor business in this city, and it is to engage in business with him that Alderman Collins has resigned his very responsible position with the companies named.

IMPROVED SYSTEM OF STREET LIGHTS

FEW WILL BE PUT IN TO TEST THEM AND ENTIRE CITY MAY BE FURNISHED WITH THE STYLE.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Feb. 21.—It is announced that Anaconda is soon to have an improved system of street lighting. In a few days some new street lamps will be installed in different parts of the city for the purpose of testing and observing their usefulness. If they are found to be satisfactory it will be but a short time until all of the lights will be changed to the new patent.

Those who claim to know, say that it is the very latest improvement in street lighting and that it can be furnished at a much cheaper rate than the old. The light spreads further and is more intense and powerful than the old, and the claim is also made that the new lamp is much easier to take care of.

Anaconda is probably the best lighted city in the state and, while the cost has been considerable, the citizens are of one mind as to the belief that it pays to have the streets well lit up. It is a preventive of crime and saves the expense of more patrolmen, besides being a better protection.

The new street lamp to be tested under the observation of the light committee of the city council and the citizens generally is the result of years of experiment and has but recently been introduced in the East. Anaconda will be the first city in the state to adopt the new and latest style in lamps.

Actual figures have not yet been made of the cost, but it is estimated that the cost of the new light will save the city not less than $2,500 per year.

WILL LOOK INTO CHARGES AGAINST POWELL TONIGHT

Police Committee of City Council to Examine Into Officer's Case—Will Resign When Exonerated.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Feb. 21.—The police committee of the city council of Anaconda, consisting of Aldermen Aitkenhoff, Fleming and Collins, will meet tonight for the purpose of investigating the charges against Policeman Powers.

The patrolman is charged with inattention to duty, and some days ago he took a lay-off and is now in citizen's clothes. It is understood that he will appear before the committee and make a defense, although he contemplates resigning as soon as he is exonerated.

Powers is the man who had some trouble about holding his job during the first part of the present city administration, and who appealed to the district court to protect what he deemed to be his rights. He was sustained in his contention by the court, and has been on the force ever since. He is a holdover policeman from the administration of Mayor Madden.

The committee will conduct the examination in secret and their report will not be made public until it is formally reported to the city council at the next regular session.

SCHOOL BOARD DOES NOT WISH TEACHERS TO BELONG TO ANY SUCH ORGANIZATION

Many Think That Measures are Adopted of Too Severe—Said Politicians are at Back of It.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Feb. 21.—At a regular meeting of the board of education held last night it was decided to dismiss all of the teachers who joined the teachers' union recently formed, unless they renounce their allegiance to it.

The resolution and the action taken by the board is the talk of the town this morning. Many conservative citizens, while they felt to see the necessity for the teachers' union, are quite of the opinion that the school board has adopted measures to suppress unionism among the teachers that are a little too severe.

On the other hand, the board and those who think with them assert that the teachers already have an organization and that they are paid for attending it, and that in their opinion the county and state teachers' institute are all of the organizations necessary or desirable. They say that it would be different if the teachers had a grievance or if they were not well paid.

The assertion is made that the newly formed organization was "ribbed up" entirely by some alleged politicians, persons who have little or no interest in the schools and who, it is believed, are making preparations to raise all the disturbance possible. Some of these are unquestionably bold, hard and designing men, while others are good-natured but soft-headed enthusiasts over questions they know nothing about.

Board's Resolution. The resolution of the board follows: "Whereas, it has come to the information and knowledge of this board that a teachers' union is about to be perfected,

TO STAMP OUT THE FEVER

Evans Will See That Law of Isolation is Observed.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Feb. 21.—Dr. Evans, the city health officer, says that only one new case of scarlet fever was reported yesterday and, that notwithstanding rumors to the contrary, he has no official knowledge that the quarantine laws and ordinances are being violated.

The doctor is anxious to stamp out the disease and will certainly do his full duty in the matter of seeing to it that the law of isolation is observed.

BERNIEA RETICENT

Refuses to Discuss Hold-up of Which She is Said to Know Much.

Berniea Ford, the woman who is accused in an anonymous letter received by Detective Murphy with knowing all about the robbery of Alexander McDonald, in this city a few weeks ago, is still in the matron's department at the county jail.

If the woman really knows anything regarding the robbery with which "Long" Tom Williams stands accused, she has evidently made up her mind to keep it to herself.

Since her arrest on Thursday, as related in the Inter Mountain, repeated efforts have been made to induce her to talk, but she is obdurate and refuses to discuss the robbery.

Efforts to get Williams to discuss his relations with the woman have also proved futile.

SETTING CASES FOR TRIAL. Morning Session in Court Over Which Clancy Presides.

The greater portion of the forenoon session of Judge Clancy's department of the district court was occupied this morning with the setting of cases for trial. This was followed by the calling of the law and motion calendar. A majority of the cases set for trial are on appeals from the several justice courts and have been hanging fire for some time.

William Shipp is Killed. SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Billings, Feb. 21.—Dr. J. H. Rinehart, the county coroner, received a message from Junction, 40 miles east from here, stating that William Shipp had been shot. It is thought to have been a case of suicide as the dead man had long been suffering from a severe nervous trouble for many years, and had at times intimated that he would end his sufferings. Definite information cannot be had.

AMUSEMENTS

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN. Anaconda, Feb. 21.—Miss Kate Claxton and her excellent company are holding large receptions everywhere. "Two Orphans" is presented this season. During her long and successful career as a star, Miss Claxton has performed in a star, receptions everywhere. "The Two Orphans" a play for the people, and its large business now demonstrates the fact that it still retains its power to fascinate and interest playgoers. Miss Claxton's performance of "Lorraine," the blind girl, is well known, and she is said to sustain her pathetic role with all of her former power and grace. For this season's revival she has had made a new and complete scenic production, so that a perfect and powerful performance may be expected here on Monday, February 23.

TREMBLAYS ASK DAMAGES

John and Lizzie Enter Suit Against the Smelters.

Anaconda, Feb. 21.—John and Lizzie Tremblay have brought suit in the district court to permanently enjoin the Washoe smelters and prevent them from smelting the ores of the different mining companies in Butte. They also demand judgment in the sum of $2,277.75 damages which they claim they have suffered from the effects of the smelter fumes.

Their complaint on file in the office of the district court is a long one and fully sets forth all of their troubles.

TO STRIKE AT AMSTERDAM

Railroad Employees of Holland to Make Trouble.

Amsterdam, Feb. 21.—The railroad employees of Holland have decided to cease work with the object of preventing the adoption of the proposed law prohibiting railroad strikes.

A meeting of the leaders of workmen's unions, having a membership of 90,000, has resolved to support the railroad men, the date of whose strike has not yet been announced.
