D. Peck left for Bozeman last week for a visit with friends. She was accompanied by Miss Jessie Williams, who will visit the Yellowstone park as a guest of her friend, Miss Grace Wylie.

DILLON

Dillon, Aug. 15.—Last Saturday afternoon was made memorable by an occasion that will not speedily be forgotten by those participating in it. On that afternoon occurred a reunion of the "old high school girls," as they now term themselves, at the cozy T. E. Smith cottage. This happy idea of the hostess, Jessie Selway Smith—for husbands' initials were dropped, if not forgotten, on that afternoon—brought together a jolly party of young ladies and young matrons, who became school girls again as they called up the memories of the past and reviewed their vanished school days. In the party were the Misses Ola Cornell, Ethel Bond, Jean Bishop, Anna Huber, Maud Selway, Mabel Willard and the Mesdames Bertha Farley McConkey, Grace Johnson Knapp, Sophia Burfield Banks, Dovey Carter Grannis and Minnie Conger Innes. Late in the afternoon the hostess served ice cream, cake and lemonade, over which the party lingered long, being loath to separate and snap the bright chain of memories they had woven. Mrs. G. T. Paul and Mrs. J. E. Monroe were the hostesses of a company of ladies, who were hospitably received on Tuesday afternoon at the pretty vine-embowered Paul cottage. Five card tables were arranged, about which the guests gathered and played the game of sixty-three, which seems to be a favorite game with the fair sex. The honors of the afternoon were carried off by Mrs. George French, who thereby became the possessor of a handsome Edgerton plate. After the serving of tempting refreshments, consisting of brown bread sandwiches, fruit salad, salted almonds and iced punch, the company broke up. The ladies to whom was extended the privilege of this pleasant afternoon comprised the Mesdames Ernest Selway, John Bishop, C. M. Stolle, John Waldorf, George French, William Roe, B. V. Marshall of Terre Haute, Ind.; W. B. Carter, George Dart, E. J. Passmore, Philip Lovell, H. T. Poindecker, W. V. Kingsbury, Celeste Kingsbury, E. J. Conger, C. J. Fenner, Dan Ward, F. C. Kress and the Misses Mary Ward and Lena Lovell. Mrs. George French gave a "spinster tea" Wednesday afternoon in honor of two popular young ladies, the Misses Grace Grater and Jean Bishop. An amusing feature of the afternoon's entertainment was the reading of papers that the hostess had requested her guests to prepare on the subject, "Why I Am a Spinster." A card party was given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Roe. This function was given by the hostess in honor of her guest, Mrs. B. V. Marshall of Terre Haute, Ind. The company included the members of the High Five club and a number of other guests. Another function of Wednesday was a Kensington given by Mesdames A. L. Anderson and George B. Conway at the home of the latter. This event is in honor of two ladies spending the summer here, the Mesdames Mary Anderson and Olmstead.

BOULDER

Boulder, Aug. 15.—Misses Annie and Sallie Maguire were visiting in town a few days. Dr. and Mrs. Ward have returned from their Eastern trip. The family of I. D. Shope moved to the ranch Tuesday to stay two or three weeks. Mrs. Murry of Helena is here this week and is visiting at the home of her uncle, Mr. Swarbrick. Miss Pearl, the daughter of Senator Kennedy, has been here from Butte for the past week as the guest of Miss Hazel Berkin. Mrs. Thomas Tyack and her son and daughter, formerly of Elkhorn but now of Butte, are visiting at the George Benjamin home. Miss Cora Strauss of Bismarck, N. D., who has been stopping a few weeks at Alhambra Springs, was here Sunday and started Monday for a tour of the Yellowstone park, after which she will return home. A company will leave here and the valley today for a drive to Townsend, where they will be present at the formal dedication of the Catholic church. In the party will be Rev. Father Thompson of Boulder, Rev. Father Kellely of Salt Lake, Mrs. Rose Maguire, the Misses Thompson, Ryan, Dunn, Annie and Sallie Maguire, Messrs. P. H. Wickham, Edy Smith and Connie Smith. They go on the invitation of Rev. Father O'Farrell of the Townsend parish, who was formerly stationed here and who has many friends who congratulate him on the new church in his charge. Mrs. Barrett of Helena is visiting here this week as the guest of Mrs. T. Hayes. Mrs. Hilderbrand is spending a few days here. A daughter was born to Mrs. B. E. Barteau last Saturday morning. The Misses Kit and Nell Fair returned to Butte Thursday after a vacation visit of two weeks here. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammond of Helena are visiting here this week with Mr. and Mrs. George Benjamin. Mrs. E. L. Merrill and daughter, Miss Katie, are visiting at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Merrill. Mrs. Pike of Paola, Kan., and her niece, Mrs. W. H. Concanon, started Tuesday for a tour of the Yellowstone park. Miss Belle Parkison of the Helena public library is spending her summer vacation here with her sister, Mrs. Stranahan. Mr. and Mrs. Sherlock returned the first of the week from an absence of several days in Butte. Mrs. Bagley and the children were in Basin during the time. John Hammond, after spending several months here at the home of his sister, Mrs. Benjamin, has started south and will probably spend the winter in Arizona. Mr. John Berkin and family, Mr. William Berkin, Will Whetstone, Mary and Shelby Sweet started for Smith river where they will spend a few weeks at the Berkin ranch. Mrs. D. G. Warner arrived here last Friday to spend the remainder of the summer. She left Los Angeles several weeks ago and has been stopping with her daughter in Missoula. Mrs. Neill McCauley of Hamilton is visiting with relatives in the valley. Mrs. May Johnson returned last evening from Great Falls where she attended the funeral of her nephew, Eugene Conroy. The Ladies of the Ready Workers' society of the Presbyterian church, will give a "porch musicale" next Tuesday evening at the residence of W. W. Wickes. A very enjoyable party was that of last Friday evening for the M. T. club with Mr. Lees Taylor as host, and given by the courtesy of Mrs. Leighton at her home. Progressive whist was played and in the count of scores Mrs. Burdick was awarded a beautiful vase, and Rev. J. B. Thompson a pocketbook; Mrs. Christianson was consoled with a bottle of soothing syrup, and Mr. D. Halford with a goose egg. After the games a "Dutch" lunch was thoroughly enjoyed, the menu consisting of rye bread sandwiches, sardines, Swiss cheese, cottage cheese, olives, crackers and various liquid refreshments. Those invited were: Messrs. and Mesdames Cowan, Berendes, Stranahan, Pfaff, Knowles, McNeill, Scharf, Ward, Halford, Leighton, Tindall, Berkin, Hammer, Burdick, Graves; Mrs. Hilderbrand and Mrs. Christianson; Miss Parkinson and Miss Thompson; Messrs. Thompson, Riedel and Cornish. There was a jolly party of young people at Mrs. Merrill's last Friday evening, given for her guests, Misses Fair and Miss Merrill. An evening of fun was rounded out with the choice refreshments for which the Merrill home is well known. A company was pleasantly entertained at the Cowan home Monday evening by Fred and George Cowan. It was a progressive conversation party, with topics assigned. In the vote taken afterwards the gentlemen voted a tie between Eva Concanon and Maude Filcher as the best conversationalist, and in deciding by lot the former won; Al Riedel secured the most votes from the ladies. Those present were: Misses Mary Taylor, Edna Taylor, Nell Fair, Kit Fair, Eva Concanon, Jamie Concanon, Maude Filcher, Marjorie Bines, Edna Johnson, Emma Lightward, Ethel Murphy, Nellie Berkin and Hazel Berkin; Messrs. Flaherty, Riedel, Robertson, Robertson, Tuttle, Fox, Ripley and Whetstone.
