THEY DID NOT BAG MUCH GAME ON THEIR OUTING

Three Butte Hunters Return Wiser for the Experience—Saw Once Noted But Now Deserted Camp

The hunting and fishing trip of Rev. L. C. Blackiston, Fred Stenness and Proctor Barclay was not a great success. Too much weather and the wrong gun at the right time tells the story. A buck deer with a dislike for birdshot and the too fresh tracks of a very large bear was all the excitement that the trio experienced.

The most interesting find of the hunters and fishermen was the deserted mining camp of Quigley. In 1897 this was a noted mining camp. Ex-President Cleveland is said to have lost $20,000 in this enterprise. The only resident of Quigley at present is a man named Daigle and his family. They occupy one of the vacant buildings and furnish accommodations for hunting and fishing parties. The chief business of Daigle is to keep up the representation work from year to year on the mine that was once widely heralded as a wonderfully rich gold property.

EDWARDS' APPEAL TO FRUITGROWERS

SAYS CO-OPERATION OF EVERY ORCHARDIST IN MONTANA IS NECESSARY

MUST BE PICKED JUST RIPE

Careful Packing Needed to Insure Good Appearance of Fruit When It Is Shipped to St. Louis Tables.

Charles H. Edwards, secretary of the State Horticultural society, has issued the following letter which is being sent to all fruitgrowers in the state. The letter is an appeal to them asking their co-operation in placing before the public at the World's Fair a creditable display of the fruit products of the state. Following is the letter in full:

To the Fruitgrowers of Montana—It is the earnest desire of Montana's World's Fair Commission that the horticultural interests of the state be fully represented at the world's fair to be held in St. Louis during 1904, and to this end the co-operation of every orchardist is requested.

As the exposition opens May, 1904, it will be necessary to secure a sufficient amount of choice fruits to be placed in cold storage, to fill the 1,000 square feet of space which has been applied for, during the months of May, June, July, August and September. During July, August and September local shipments of small fruits will be forwarded of all varieties, so that our tables may be well filled during the closing days of the fair.

To secure these fruits this fall for cold storage each fruitgrower is requested to select a box of each of his very choicest apples and pears, and to properly pack them and send to the undersigned at Butte, where they will be repacked for cold storage and held temporarily in cold storage until the entire shipment is ready to go to St. Louis, which will be about the last of October.

None but late fall and winter varieties should be selected. The greatest care must be used in selecting to see that no specimen is blemished or too ripe. Pick the fruit when it is just ripe. Wrap each specimen; pad the sides, ends and bottom of box with paper; when box is filled cover the top with paper, so that when the lid is nailed down the fruit will be held in the box and cannot be bruised. Have all specimens on the stem, as no fruit can compete unless it remains on the stem.

Where growers cannot send a full box of a variety the box may be made up of two or more. The reason that a box of a variety is desired is that fruit must be changed at least 15 times during the season and as five specimens are required to fill a plate it will be readily seen that we shall need a box of a variety. Place the name of the variety, grower's name and address with each variety. Where the name of fruit is unknown, so state and the same will be named at St. Louis.

The exposition of St. Louis offers to Montana orchardists a splendid opportunity to advertise their chief product—apples. No state in the union can produce finer apples than we do. We are now prepared to ship in such quantities as to attract buyers from all points. The ability of our fruits to stand up for the time necessary to exhibit at the fair will create a large demand and assist greatly in solving the question of market and price. A careful record of this exhibit will be kept and the keeping qualities of each fruit under the most trying conditions will be known. This information will be worth the entire effort. Send all fruits to C. H. Edwards, Butte. All freight and express charges will be paid by the commission. Wherever possible send by freight.

C. H. EDWARDS.

NEW CENTRAL LABOR ORGANIZATION DUE

Said Many Silver Bow Unions Are Dissatisfied With the Present Labor Assembly.

It is probable that within a month Butte will have a new central labor organization, which will have powers similar to the Silver Bow Trades and Labor assembly.

There has been some discontent among the delegates to the Silver Bow Trades and Labor assembly, and it is thought that this will culminate in the withdrawal of several of the unions and the establishment of a new central body.

During the past year a number of unions have ceased sending delegates to the Trades and Labor assembly. The majority of these are those that hold charters from international organizations. The carpenters' union is a notable instance.

A short time ago the Butte bartenders' union surrendered its charter from the American Labor Union affiliated with the international assembly.

Three delegates were elected to the Silver Bow Trades and Labor assembly. These delegates were refused seats and those from the old union were admitted.

MEAN TO FORCE WESTON TO FURNISH FIGURES

The judiciary committee of the city council met last night and it decided to institute proceedings to compel County Clerk Weston to furnish the city with the yearly tax roll.

Weston refused to do this unless he received $1,125. As the law requires that the roll be furnished by October 1 the services of Attorney J. Bruce Kremer were engaged and he was instructed to apply to the district court for a peremptory writ of mandate to compel the county clerk to furnish the roll.

DANCE AT GARDENS TONIGHT

Boston & Montana Band Will Furnish Music for Closing Affair.

If there is one thing more than another that dancers desire it is first class music to which to trip the light fantastic toe. This is promised tonight at the ball to be given by the Boston & Montana band at Columbia Gardens.

Among the thousands of persons who have been entertained by the Boston & Montana band this summer there are many who will further enjoy the music tonight. This is the last appearance of the band at the Gardens this season and the members desire to make it the greatest event in dancing circles.

Especially fine dancing music has been prepared for the occasion and the street railway company arranged to run closed cars at short intervals, beginning at 7:30 this evening.

AT MEETING OF THE COUNCIL

The city council will meet tonight. The various committees have been busy preparing their reports. Among other things the following will be discussed:

A heating plant to be installed in the city hall and an emergency hospital to be built at a cost of $15,000.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
 Paris, Sept. 16.—The Marquise de Sevelion has been killed at her chateau Pont de Roche, near Langdon, by her nephew, the Comte de Goyon. The count, with a gun on his shoulder, stepped into the garden to pick flowers. He slipped and the trigger of his gun struck a stone, causing a discharge which fatally wounded the marquise.

 San Francisco, Sept. 16.—In the preliminary hearing yesterday of Mrs. Martha Bowers and Zephia Sutton, jointly charged with the murder of Martin Bowers, Adolph Peterson, the drug clerk, who it is alleged sold the fatal dose to Zephia Sutton, which it is charged Martha Bowers administered to her husband, identified positively Mrs. Sutton. He refused to state whether she wore a hat or was bareheaded, or describe her appearance.

When it came to fixing the date of Mrs. Sutton's purchase and when the attorneys about him argued hotly as to the difference of fixing a date and remembering it, the young man was confused to such an extent that the judge's services were necessary to straighten out the tangle. Finally, he said it was surely during the month of August. From the prescription files it appeared that the poison had been sold either on the 21st or the 28th.

Watch With Telescopes for Gentlemen Who Contemplate Entering Any Building From Roof Route.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
 New York, Sept. 16.—The recent arrest and conviction of "Gentleman George" Brooks, who confessed to scores of burglaries in the aristocratic Fifth avenue residence district in which he carried away property aggregating in value more than $50,000, has led the police to invent a method of watching for men who seek to get rich quickly by the Brooks method, by passing over housetops and entering upper story windows.

Equipped with field glasses, half a dozen detectives will keep watch daily from the tops of houses in the district. They begin at 9 o'clock in the morning and do not relax their vigilance until dusk. The men are instructed to investigate the slightest suspicious movement on any residence. So far the scheme has been a complete success.

Lockport Council After Deliberation Rejects Mrs. Emma Dietrick—She Is Qualified for Pulpit.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
 Lockport, N. Y., Sept. 16.—After deliberating an entire day, the council of Congregational ministers has voted to decline to ordain Mrs. Emma Dietrick into the ministry.

Mrs. Dietrick is 50 years old and founded the Woman's Christian Temperance union in Niagara county. Her son, the Rev. William Dietrick of Cleveland, pleaded in the council for his mother. Mrs. Dietrick also pleaded for herself, saying she had taken a course at Oberlin with her son and had filled his pulpit during his illness.

The moderator, the Rev. Dr. Fitch of Buffalo, said that of 4,000 Congregationalist ministers in the United States, only four were women. A heated discussion ensued, but the vote was adverse.

JEROME SAYS HE IS NOT THE MAN

NEW YORK DISTRICT ATTORNEY IS NOT FOR LOW AS THE FUSION CANDIDATE.

LACKS TRAITS OF A LEADER

Is Personally Unpopular and Suspected of Insincerity—Candidate Must Be Known to Masses.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
 New York, Sept. 16.—District Attorney Jerome, who is at his summer home in Lakeville, Conn., has written to a member of the Citizens' union in this city, a statement of the reasons for his opposition to the candidacy of Mayor Seth Low for reelection.

"I have satisfied myself by careful inquiry," says Mr. Jerome, "that the great mass of people to whom we must look for support in the coming campaign believe that Mr. Low cannot be re-elected and that while they may give a half-hearted support to him for the sake of the cause, they cannot overcome their dislike and disgust for him."

Weakness as a Candidate.

The weakness of Low as a mayoralty candidate Mr. Jerome attributes to "egotism, self-complacency and constitutional limitations." Low's recent letter accepting the endorsement of the fusionist conference, Mr. Jerome says, is "destitute of every indication of leadership." As for the attitude of President Roosevelt toward the municipal campaign, Jerome says:

"If it has not been deliberately fostered, certainly no effort has been made to check the notion that Mr. Low is approved by the president and the president's influence is behind him, and each day this idea is hurting a man loved by many who are opposed to him politically and in a state where, in his own time of trial he will desperately need every friendly influence he can have. I do not mean that the president, as an individual, disapproves of Mr. Low or his candidacy. I have no authority or information to speak on such a subject, but I have excellent reasons to believe that the president, with perfect appreciation of the dignity of his position, has abstained wholly from any expression of approval, even to Low himself."

Personal Unpopularity.

"This notion of Low's letter about an independent democrat is all nonsense," says Mr. Jerome. "We democrats who have worked for many years in fusion movements are not considering this. We will heartily support a republican, even in such a year as this, if we are satisfied that next year he will not be found presiding at republican political meetings and is a man who has elements of leadership and a sincere belief in honesty and non-partisan municipal government."

Jerome reviews the "reasons for our success in 1901," which he sums up as "the accent of sincerity, which was felt to be true" and asks "how can you hope to win a campaign whose first keynote is insincerity?"

In summarizing Jerome says that "Mr. Low should not be nominated because of his personal unpopularity, caused not by his adherence to the principles of reform, but springing from the personal character of the men."

HUGE BLOCK OF MASSIVE COPING FALLS TO GROUND

Passersby Have Narrow Escape—At Another Hour Fatalities Would Have Been Certain.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
 New York, Sept. 16.—A huge block of stone coping fell from the upper part of the 20-story flat-iron building, Twenty-third, Broadway and Fifth avenue, early today. The mass landed on the Fifth avenue side of the building with a crash that could be heard for blocks. A large hole was torn in the pavement and fragments of the stone flew in all directions.

One of the pieces struck John Kuppel, a bartender, as he was passing along the avenue half a block away, and broke his leg.

Another fragment struck a passing team of horses and caused them to run away.

A Broadway car, comfortably filled with passengers, bound down town, was also damaged by the shower of small stones.

Half a dozen windows in the car were shattered and several of the passengers were slightly injured.

No cause for the loosening of the stone could be ascertained. The flat-iron building, a comparatively new sky scraper of peculiar build and great size, stands in one of the busiest quarters of the city, and at any other hour the stone would have caused several fatalities.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY SCORES ENSIGN WORTMAN

Despite Finding of Court, Moody States Opinion That Officer Was Careless and Culpable.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
 Washington, Sept. 16.—Secretary Moody has disapproved the findings in the case of Ensign Ward K. Wortman, U. S. N., who was tried by court-martial and acquitted of the charge of culpable inefficiency in the performance of duty.

The secretary has read the findings and considered them. Wortman, on January 2 last, off San Juan, was in charge of the third gun division on the battleship Massachusetts, including the two eight-inch guns in the starboard after turret, when one of them, during target practice, exploded, injuring nine enlisted men, all of whom afterward died.

The court of inquiry found Wortman guilty of poor judgment in giving an order to open the breech of the gun for the purpose of returning to electrical firing while the gun was loaded and the lanyard was out and hooked to the trigger. The court recommended that no further proceedings be had in the matter. The secretary, however, ordered a court-martial on the basis of the court's findings and Wortman was acquitted by this court. Secretary Moody says:

"After a careful review of all the evidence I am of the opinion that the accused failed to exercise the care which was required of him; that, in giving the order to open the breech of the gun under the circumstances, which the evidence proved, he was negligent; that the death of nine enlisted men resulted from his negligence and that in what he did and failed to do in the premises he was guilty of culpable inefficiency in the performance of duty."

The action of the secretary does not affect the court's findings.

Ensign Wortman's parents reside in Butte.

HAS BEEN APPROVED

NOTICE OF THE CREATION OF THE FORT HALL RESERVATION RECEIVED AT POCATELLO.

Pocatello, Sept. 16.—A telegram from Commissioner of the General Land Office Richards received this morning states that the Fort Hall forest reserve was officially created on September 5 and that its withdrawal had been approved by the president. The reserve thus created embraces 89 15-16 square miles of the northeast slope of the Bannock range, and within its area all the water to supply the town of Pocatello has its source. The ranging of cattle and sheep on this watershed has become such a nuisance that the water for domestic use in Pocatello has been polluted. It was to prevent this that the reserve was created.

Incidental to the creation of the reserve, United States Marshal Rounds was in Pocatello today serving notices of injunctions restraining cattle and sheep men from grazing on the new reserve. This is the outcome of a suit brought by United States Attorney R. V. Cozier on the affidavits of C. L. Hendershot and others. The injunctions are intended to include all cattle and sheep men having their stock in this section. A ranger will probably be appointed in a few days.

Heir Says Legator Was Unduly Influenced in Making the Will.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
 New York, Sept. 16.—Dissatisfied with a bequest of $1,000 out of an estate estimated at $500,000, Benjamin L. Benson of Colchester, Conn., has instituted a contest over the probate of the will of his half brother, George Gardner Grinnell, who died June 3 last, while on a visit to Chicago.

The will was executed three days before the death of Mr. Grinnell. It has just been filed for probate and the principal bequest of $200,000 is to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals of the state of New York.

Benson contests the probate on the allegation that the will was the outcome of fraud and undue influence and that the testator was not of sound mind or capable of making a will.

EMERGENCY NOW IMMINENT

This association, through its local committee, made the agreement last May with the Housesmiths & Bridgemen's union, controlled by Samuel J. Parks, which the latter violated by ordering strikes.

After the meeting, an official of the iron league said:

"All that can be told is that preparations have been made for an emergency which may occur, not only here, but all over the country. You can draw your own conclusions."
