

PIONEERS GATHER TO HONOR CAPLICE

SERVICES OVER REMAINS OF ONE OF FOUNDERS OF STATE AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

MANY SEND FLORAL TRIBUTES

Esteem in Which Deceased Was Held by Commonwealth and Community Shown by Mourners.

tana Pioneers, held in Great Falls recently, Mr. Caplice was elected president. The last time he appeared in public was to attend the funeral of his old friend General Leggat one week ago.

At the Funeral. The scene at the residence, No. 10 South Idaho street, was an impressive as well as pathetic one, when those who had been the associates and devoted friends of the deceased gathered to pay tribute to the memory of their departed comrade, and to gaze for the last time upon his cold and pallid face.

From early morn until the casket was closed a long line of sorrowing friends passed before the bier. Men grown gray and bent with age paused to kneel by the casket and offer a silent prayer for the repose of the soul of the departed. Many with tear-dimmed eyes gazed long and wistfully at the features of one whose loss they so keenly felt.

Floral Tributes.

The floral tributes were the most beautiful that designing skill could produce, and filled the room with a soft fragrance. At the head of the casket on a table stood a broken column of white carnations and pink roses, the gift of the Pioneers. At the foot of the casket, resting on the lid, lay a large cross of white chrysanthemums, while beneath was a bank of carnations and chrysanthemums. Resting on each side of the coffin were large wreaths of carnations, American Beauty roses, carnations and violets.

The floral gifts numbered over 25 handsome designs, besides twice as many individual bouquets and smaller tributes. Those viewing the remains numbered most of Butte's business and professional men, besides many friends who could lay claim to the affection of the deceased.

At St. Patrick's.

The funeral was held from St. Patrick's church at 10 a. m., where a solemn requiem mass was said.

After the services at the church the funeral cortege proceeded to the Catholic cemetery, where Mr. Caplice was laid beside the remains of his wife.

The active pall bearers were: D. J. Hennessy, P. J. Brophy, Rod Leggat, John J. McHatten, Thomas Lavelle and Jeff Lavelle.

The honorary pall bearers were: W. W. Dixon, John T. Murphy of Helena, Andrew O'Connell of Helena, Capt. John Brannagan, Judge Hiram Knowles, Dr. O. B. Whitford, Major Martin Maginnis of Helena and Edward Cardwell of Jefferson.

The list of those sending floral tributes follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carroll, Dr. Napton, Mr. and Mrs. James Forbis, William Scallon, Miss Dawson, Mrs. O. B. Whitford, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Calkins, Mrs. William Martin Tuohy, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kelley, Lee Mantle, Mr. and Mrs. William Skyrme, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carty, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Driscoll, Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Leavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shores, P. J. Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Dixon, Society of Montana Pioneers, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Timlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. McC. White and Mrs. J. G. Dawson.

In the solemn requiem high mass at St. Patrick's church, Rev. Father DeSiere was celebrant, with Rev. Father J. J. Callahan of Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Batens of Walkerville and Rev. Father McGlynn of St. Patrick's assisting. Rev. Father Harrington of Centerville was master of ceremonies. Right Rev. Bishop Brondel was present in the chair, with Rev. Father English of St. Mary's church and Rev. Father Coopman of Anaconda attending. There were 18 altar boys in attendance at the mass, each carrying during part of the ceremony an unlighted candle, which toward the end of the service was lighted to indicate the new life into which the departed had entered on passing from earth.

As the casket entered the church the organ pealed forth "Funeral March to a Hero." Then followed the regular "Gregorian." The offertory, "De Profundis," was sung by Mrs. Donnelly, assisted by a quartet composed of Messrs. Hobbs, Thomas, Coup and Sully. Then followed "Libra me Dominie."

At the close of the service, and while the priests were kneeling in prayer the quartet sang, "Lead Kindly Light." As the bier passed from the church Mrs. Rooney rendered the recessional, the "Funeral March From Schubert."

That Rainy Spell. The lady of the house talked for 15 minutes to the gentle milkman. "And your milk is full of water," she falsetted.

The milkman shrugged his shoulders. "It's the wet weather, mum," he explained helplessly, "the water just soaks into the poor beasts."—New York Sun.

BUTTE PROFESSOR HIGHLY HONORED

HART WILL SPEAK BEFORE FALL CONFERENCE OF AFFILIATED SCHOOLS IN CHICAGO.

THIS YEAR'S FALL CLASS

List of Candidates in Butte High School and How the Course is Much Harder Than It Was.

Prof. H. M. Hart of the Butte High school has been invited to deliver an address before the fall conference of the Affiliated and Co-operative Schools of Chicago university. This conference will begin its session November 18 in Chicago. The subject assigned Prof. Hart is "Credits in English Related in Entrance to the University." The conference will be composed of the principals of all high schools affiliated with the Chicago university and embraces schools in all sections of the country.

Butte School Ranks Well.

Butte is fortunate in regard to the list of universities with which the high school is affiliated. The Stanford decided a year ago to accept the diploma of the Butte school and this year other universities have added it to their list, among these the Chicago university.

One of the branches which all universities have complained of in the past with reference to the high schools throughout the whole country has been English.

Claims were made that these schools did not hold this study up to the standard. In the Butte school this objection has been almost entirely eliminated, as the attention being given it at this time commands the result.

This Term's Candidates.

The degree of efficiency which is demanded this term in the Butte High school makes it difficult for the graduation candidates to pass with the required number of credits. There is a number who are now candidates to these honors and the teachers are assisting all that is possible to aid these ambitious girls and boys.

Following is the list of candidates: Misses Nellie M. Fair, Margaret M. Gregorie, Violet Gill, Zeyune B. Halford, Emma W. Keppner, Irene LaSage, Esther L. McLeod, Mary M. Murphy, Della F. Nuckolls, Elizabeth M. Osenbrug, Effie A. Richey, Fannie M. Williams, Lulu E. Atkins, Elizabeth S. Burritt, Clara L. Chase, Mary A. Davies, Mabel E. Davis, Margaret A. Driscoll, Ethel Eisenberg, Katherine S. Fair, Esther O. Hall, Estella Hatherell, Joseph C. Johns, Ethel King, Mary E. F. Mahoney, Cora M. Montgomery, Catherine B. V. Nutterville, Olive M. Nutterville, Lulu M. Prentice, Lillian A. Sheehy, Lillian B. C. Truro, Blanche B. Reilly and Messrs. Lewis L. Clark, Winfield H. Gunn, Earl P. C. Lomas, Fred N. Moore, Albert N. Nadeau, Ray Betterson, Clarence Ferguson, Jos. C. Johnston, Robert Johnston, T. Mell Lowry, James W. Maltone, Angus R. McLeod, Herbert C. Mills, Chris B. O'Brien, Ira B. Peters, Dilyn L. Thomas, Thomas Whalen, Harry Williams.

CRITTENTON CIRCLE

MRS. BARRETT WILL NOT BE ABLE TO COME TO BUTTE AS EARLY AS EXPECTED.

At the meeting of the Florence Crittenton Circle this afternoon it was reported that illness would prevent Mrs. Barrett, the national president of the circle, from coming to Butte this month. But a letter from the national organizer, Mrs. Wolfe, states that Mrs. Barrett will come later accompanied by Mrs. Wolfe.

and deliver a public lecture on the work and results of the home established in this country. Mrs. Bucher, as president of the local circle, reports the circle as having sent three unfortunate girls to Helena within the last month; also that more than $100 had been collected in the city and the same turned over to the support of the home.

DYNAMITE SUSPECT HELD IN DEER LODGE COURT

Charge of Petit Larceny Has Been Preferred Against Hammond—George Johnson Is Put on Trial.

Deer Lodge, Oct. 19.—George Hammond, the dynamite suspect, who was arrested by the Northern Pacific detectives last week and then released, has been turned over to the Powell county authorities on the charge of petit larceny. He is accused of robbing a camp near Blossburg of a ham and some other articles. He is here in jail and is said to admit he took the articles.

The charge of attempted jail breaking against George Johnson, who was implicated in the get-away of Miller and Murphy from the county jail recently, was dismissed today. He will be held, however, on the charge of being implicated with Murphy in a robbery case.

Two parties of surveyors who have been doing government work during the summer have returned to Deer Lodge. One under C. H. Allen has been surveying in Missoula county on H. B. Davis' contract and the other, under Lee Williams, has been surveying near Lincoln. Mrs. E. F. Dodds, wife of Dr. Dodds, is quite ill at the hospital of typhoid fever.

VOTES POURING IN FOR BIG CONTEST

CANDIDATES FOR INTER MOUNTAIN TRIP TO WORLD'S FAIR COME IN HORDES.

must comply with the conditions of nomination before her name can be entered in her county as a contestant.

Today the Inter Mountain received a letter signed only "Subscriber," nominating a certain young lady for the race. This nomination cannot go on the books until the conditions are complied with. A nomination must be made on a blank furnished at any of the Inter Mountain offices and must be indorsed by three persons known to this newspaper. These conditions are not hard, but, as will be seen, they are necessary.

Should Avoid Mistakes.

One of the oddities of the contest developed today when the nomination of Miss Hattie Higgins of Flathead county was received. It so happens that another Miss Hattie Higgins is already nominated from Ravalli county. These are two separate young ladies. Voters, to avoid confusion, should remember this similarity of names, and see that no mistake is made in the county.

The way the new nominations are rolling in is something wonderful to behold.

Today three new entries from Broadwater county were received. They were Miss Rena Schaaf, Miss Lizzie Barker and Miss Mamie McRae, all of Townsend.

Other new entries today follow:

Yellowstone county—Misses Dora Rade-maker, Blanche Nicky, Minnie V. Nord, Marie L. Sleeper, Nellie C. Bullard, Mabel Ross and Sophia Benninghoff, all of Billings.

Beaverhead county—Misses Emily C. Taylor and Lottie McIntosh, both of Dillon.

Jefferson county—Miss Marjorie Bines of Boulder and Miss Jessie Goodrich of Whitehall.

Park county—Miss Etta Hruza of Livingston.

Granite county—Misses Caroline Perant and Myrtle Clark, both of Phillipsburg.

Flathead county—Misses Maude Sawyer, Bessie Tate, Grace O'Hara, Ethel P. Rogers and Mattie Higgins, all of Kalispell.

Fergus county—Misses Fannie Cook, Orpha Noble, E. Correlle Philips and Grace McHugh, all of Lewistown.

Silver Bow county—Misses Belle Edwards, Nellie Duffy and Hanna Courtney, all of Butte.

Powell county—Miss Florence Kettle of Deer Lodge.

Error in First Ballot.

There was an unfortunate error in the printing of the first ballot Saturday night. The current date instead of the expiring date was given on the ballot. In other words, the ballot said that it could be voted only on October 17, when it should have said that it could be voted before or on Saturday, October 24.

The limit of the ballots, you should remember, is one week. To be counted they must be voted within one week. Despite the error in printing Saturday's ballot will be received up to and including Saturday, October 24.

You would be surprised could you see the size of the vote already. The voting coupons began to come in Saturday night very soon after the paper was off the press, and they are still coming in a perfect flood. Each day's count will be announced on the succeeding day. Thus the first day's count, which will include all ballots cast up to tonight, will be announced in tomorrow's paper, Tuesday's count in Wednesday's paper and so on.

Just a hint to the contestants. Remember, all collections on back subscriptions, as well as on new subscriptions, are good for the special coupons. Get a list from the nearest Inter Mountain office of the outstanding Inter Mountain accounts in your territory and gather in some of these special coupons. They will come in handy.

MERE CHILD SENT OUT INTO WORLD

EVA FOLEY TELLS AUTHORITIES HER MOTHER HAS PUT HER OUT INTO THE STREET.

IS SENT TO HELENA HOME

Thirteen-Year-Old Girl Is Daughter of Man Who Hung Himself Three Years Ago in Butte.

Eva Foley, a 13-year-old girl, yesterday and today applied to the county authorities for shelter, having been driven from home, according to her story, by her mother, Mrs. Nora Foley, who lives at 709 Summit street in Dublin Gulch.

"My mother put me out Saturday night and told me to begone. She said I could go wherever I pleased, but that I could not stay at home," the child said this morning at the courthouse to an interviewer, and her tears flowed fast and she sobbed with her trouble as she talked.

She is a small girl, hardly looking her

13 years. "She put my little sister out with me, too, but she let her come back," the little girl said, while she continued to weep and to wipe her eyes with her handkerchief, which were red from the tears she had shed.

"Where did you spend last night?" she was asked.

"With the lady downstairs," and it was learned that her mother rented one floor of the family residence to a woman tenant, who had taken the child in for the night.

The little girl said that her mother was a widow and that there are three girls in the family, the other two being younger than Eva.

SLOAN DAMAGE SUIT

PLAINTIFF EXHIBITS HIS INJURIES IN THE TRIAL IN THE FEDERAL COURT.

A jury has been secured in the federal court to try the case of Sloan against the Northern Pacific Railway company. The action is for damages in the sum of $25,000 for injuries sustained by Sloan about a year ago.

Sloan was the first witness this morning, and stated the nature of his injuries. He said he was walking on the Northern Pacific tracks on the hill north of the city and was run down by a train. He also stated that the road was used as a highway for pedestrians, and that hundreds of men traveled daily.

He exhibited his injuries to the jury, and stated that one of his eyes would be permanently injured and that an operation would be necessary before he could close that member. His other eye was becoming affected and was likely to suffer permanent injury.

All on Willie.

"Why, that's a regular little printing press, isn't it?" remarked the visitor.

"Yes," replied Mrs. Phamley, "Willie's Uncle John gave it to him on his birthday."

"What a nice one. It's self-inking, isn't it?"

"I don't know, but Willie is."—Philadelphia Press.

"Who is that distinguished looking woman?" asked the first floorwalker of the future.
