

DEFECTS OF CULTURE.

Rev. Mr. Webb Discusses Culture From Which Religious Ideas Are Excluded.

Increasing Interest in the Temperance Revival Conducted by Col. Woodford.

His Earnest Eloquence Induces Many People to Sign the Total Abstinence Pledge.

Rev. Mr. Webb, of the Episcopal church, preached an interesting sermon yesterday morning from the text, "And Gallio cared for none of these things"—Acts xviii, 17.

Gallio is the type of a class. We know more of him than this brief reference in the acts of the apostle shows. He was a man of culture; but it was of the kind from which recognition of religious ideas is excluded.

It is not in the first place essentially selfish? Into the formation of all characters nowadays the influence of religion to some extent enters. How can one wholly escape from being touched by the great thoughts of religion of immortality, of the work and love of Christ, of human accountability.

SUNDAY CLOSING.

Action of the Trades and Labor Assembly on the Subject.

At yesterday's meeting of the Federation of Trades and Labor Assembly, of Helena, the following resolutions were adopted, and the city newspapers were requested to publish them:

Resolved, That we ask of the business men of Helena earnest consideration of and favorable action in the Sunday-closing movement.

Resolved, That we ask of the business men of Helena earnest consideration of and favorable action in the Sunday-closing movement.

A FIGHT THAT "FLUKED."

Stone Was Willing But Tally Owens Wanted One Hundred Dollars in Sight.

The Printers Are Now Ready to Play Ball With Amateur Nines.

More Enthusiasm Needed for Base Ball in Helena—The Athletic Club Grounds.

A few local sporting men gathered at the Half Way House yesterday in anticipation of a glove fight to a finish between Tally Owens and George Stone.

The affair, however, proved to be a fluke. The chilly atmosphere and several rival attractions prevented an attendance of more than a dozen men.

There is no chance of the much-talked-of fight between Owens and Gleason. The latter is now in Great Falls, and is about to start on a sparring tour through Sand Coulee and several small towns in the north.

The Base Ball Meeting.

The meeting called for yesterday at the Iroquois club rooms was poorly attended and nothing was done to arrange for a local team during the coming season.

The Athletic Club.

The bids for grading the Athletic grounds have been opened, but the contract has not yet been awarded.
