THE PRESIDENT'S POLICY.

Correspondence Relating to the Present Outbreak of Indians in Dakota.

Bloodshed to be Averted if Possible, But Ample Preparations Ordered.

Fine Ridge and Standing Rock Agencies Put in Charge of the War Department.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The following correspondence, made public to-day, explains fully the position of the administration on the Indian question:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31, 1890.—Secretary of War—Sir: I forward for your information a letter addressed to me by the secretary of the interior under date of Oct. 30, accompanied with letters from the commissioner of Indian affairs and of certain Indian agents, all relating to apprehended trouble with Sioux Indians. This delusion as to the coming of an Indian messiah, and the return of dead Indian warriors from the crusade against the whites, seems to have taken strong hold not only upon the Sioux but on some other tribes even as widely separated as the Indian territory. You will at once cause personal investigation to be made by either the division or department commander into the actual condition of things among the Sioux, and direct him to make early report of his observations and any recommendation he may have to submit. In the meantime you will see that all necessary precautions are taken to have the troops in that vicinity prepared to co-operate in the execution of any orders that may be adopted. Very respectfully,

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—Secretary of War—Sir: I transmit herewith communications of the dates of Nov. 7, 10 and 16, from the secretary of the interior, accompanied by copies of letters from the commissioner of Indian affairs and from the agents of the Indian bureau at the Pine Ridge and Cheyenne River agencies, all relating to the disturbed condition of the Indians at these stations, and relating incidents in which the authority and power of the agents and Indian police have been violently defied and set at naught. The situation seems to me to be serious. The authority and discipline of the agents must be maintained, and adequate and early steps taken to prevent any outbreak that may put in peril the lives and homes of settlers of adjacent states. You will therefore assume direction and responsibility for such steps as may be necessary to these ends. You will see that the troops whose services will be in requisition in case of outbreak are in readiness to take and remain in the field that any movement by the Indians, or any other disturbance, and in case of resistance quick and thoroughly efficient. I have directed the secretary of the interior to advise his agents to use their influence to separate well disposed from ill disposed Indians and while using their best endeavors to preserve discipline to avoid outbreak, until the war department has made necessary preparations. (Signed.)

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Commissioner of Indian Affairs—Sir: You will convey to the several agents among the Sioux the following order, which is hereby made during the present Indian troubles. "You are instructed that while you shall continue all business and carry into effect the educational and other purposes of your agency, you will, as to all operations intended to suppress any outbreak by force, co-operate with and obey all orders of the military officer commanding in the reservation in your charge. (Signed.)

JOHN W. NOBLE, Sec. Gen. Schofield sent the following telegram to Miles under yesterday's date: "You are hereby authorized, under existing orders of the president, to assign Capt. Ewers, Fifth infantry; Capt. Lee, Ninth infantry; Capt. Earnest, Eighth infantry, and Capt. Pierce, First infantry, to take charge of the Indians of the several Sioux and Cheyenne agencies, to exercise over them such military supervision and control as in your judgment is necessary, without interfering unnecessarily with the administration of the Indian Bureau, under the regulations and instructions received by them from the interior department."

LIVINGSTON NEWS.

District Court in Session—Return of Sam Jackson—Temperance.

LIVINGSTON, Jan. 6.—[Special.]—District court convened in this city Monday morning. A grand jury was impaneled and the judge instructed them as to their duties. The jury consists of the following citizens: Chas. R. Glidden, foreman; George W. Reece, John Hye, J. C. Viles, I. Orschel, W. J. Vinnage and J. O. Sax. Judge Henry, as is customary with him, explained fully their duties and called their attention to particular cases of infraction of the law.

A very novel and interesting point was passed upon by Judge Henry in the case of Holliday et al. vs. Rankin et al., involving the rights of non-residents in water right cases. King Bros., of Illinois, who own a ranch on the creek in controversy, were made parties defendant to the action, and the complaint asked for an injunction restraining them from diverting the water alleged to belong to plaintiffs. Personal service of summons not being possible plaintiffs obtained an order for service upon King Bros. by publication and summons was published. Upon motion of King Bros. to quash service and set aside the order, Judge Henry ruled that the action was one for a personal judgment; but the state courts have no jurisdiction over non-residents in such proceedings, and that the compiled laws of Montana, title V, chapter 1, section 75, is unconstitutional in so far as it attempts to authorize the exercise of such jurisdiction. The case will probably be appealed. In this case Savage & Day appear for plaintiffs and A. J. Campbell and A. R. Joy for defendants.

The grand jury this afternoon reported an indictment against Urban Mosier for murder simply, without specifying any degree of guilt. Mosier is the man who is alleged to have shot a companion miner at Cokedale, and who gave the officers such a chase before he was captured.

Under Sheriff Sam Jackson returned from a visit to his old home in Missouri Tuesday morning, looking hale and hearty, but dressed in such style that his friends did not recognize him. He wore a checkered suit, silk tie, carried a cane and sped the air of an English duke. When in St. Paul he was supposed to be one of Ignatius Donnelly's Farmers' alliance men by the employees of the Merchants hotel.

The Rev. J. W. Van Ingen, in an able sermon last Sunday night, touched slightly on the temperance question. He depicted the evils of intemperance and decried the use of liquors to excess, but did not believe in prohibition. He did not believe in signing a pledge unless to assist and encourage some weaker brother. The temperance question has been agitated considerably here by Major Camp, a temperance evangelist, who has talked nightly for about two months. He has been supported by some of the religious denominations and the American National Bank. The meeting will be held in the directors' room of the Helena National bank Tuesday, January 13, 1891, at 4 p. m. A. C. JOHNSON, Cashier.
