

THEY MUST GO TO CHINA.

Eight Chinamen Ordered Back to the Land From Whence They Came.

None of Them Produce Certificates That They Have Been Here Before.

Four Identified by an Optism Inspector in the Employ of the Canadian Government.

The eight Chinamen arrested some time ago near Fort Benton for violating the exclusion act had a hearing yesterday before United States Judge Hiram Knowles at chambers.

At the conclusion of the hearing the court ordered the Chinaman to be sent to the collector of the port at San Francisco for shipment to China.

The hearing commenced at a number of outside the rail surrounded by a number of their countrymen.

George Ross, an optism inspector in the employ of the Canadian government at Lettbridge, N. W. T., who was brought here by Collector of Customs Fullivan, of Fort Benton, identified four of the men.

He said he had seen them at Lettbridge a short time before their arrest. The others he was not sure about.

Ex-Deputy United States Marshal W. F. Parker, who was at Fort Benton, testified that six of the prisoners had admitted to him they came from Canada.

T. D. Penry made a strong effort to defeat the government's case, but the evidence was too strong.

He said that four of the men had been identified, but as to the others he did not think it was clear.

One of the chinamen, an old man who speaks English, testified that he had been in the United States a number of years and was on his way to Brooklyn, N. Y., where he said he had an interest in a laundry.

Mr. Penry said he felt morally certain that several of the men had been in Montana for several years, and that he had great difficulty in informing his clients of the nature of the proceedings against them.

MRS. WOOLDRIDGE ARRESTED.

Stopped on a Journey on Complaint of One of Her Creditors.

Mrs. Catherine Wooldridge was arrested by a deputy sheriff yesterday afternoon as she was about to leave on the west-bound Northern Pacific express.

The arrest was made on an order issued by Judge Hunt, of the district court, the complainant being John W. Thompson, to whom Mrs. Wooldridge is indebted about $1,700, and who avers that she was disposing of her property with the intention of letting her creditors suffer.

It was also claimed that Mrs. Wooldridge was about to leave the state. Judge Hunt issued the order yesterday as soon as the complaint was made and it was placed in the hands of a deputy sheriff, who went in a hurry to the depot.

The train was about to pull out when he boarded it. Mrs. Wooldridge was in one of the cars. She was told that she was wanted at the sheriff's office, and protested vehemently against being stopped on her journey.

Nevertheless, she was placed in a back and in company with the deputy who was to take her to court house.

The amount of her bail had been fixed by Judge Hunt at $1,000, which she was unable to procure. She was placed in the county jail for the night.

She had with her only 100 per cent copy of The Bee Hive. The Bee Hive has only nine baby carriages left, which must be disposed of.

"Go and See It." A host of decorators, carpenters, gas and steam fitters, have been at work on the Fred Lehman building for nearly a month, and have effected a transformation that snatches somewhat of Aladdin's (?) lamp.

Under the new name of Harris Bros., which occupy the entire building with the various departments of their business, and expect to show the finest line of male attire that has ever been seen in Helena.

The room is worthy of a more extended notice than we have been able to give. The alterations have been handled by Mr. D. Andrews, who has also built the counters and shelving. The decorations have been designed by the Handchild brothers, of our city, who have turned out a piece of work that could not be surpassed by any artists in this or any other country.

AMONG THE FAST HORSES.

Some Surprises in Store When They Run Up Against Katie S.

A Lesson Taught by Direct's Recent Wonderful Performance at Independence.

The Report That Marcus Daly Was to Own the Great Nelson Denied on Authority.

Katie S., the black mare belonging to Hugh Kirkendall, has gone to Denver, Col., in charge of Ed Lafferty, and if she does well at that place will proceed to Texas.

While away Lafferty will endeavor to capture some of the rich purses with the daughter of Direct. There is a peculiarity about Katie S., that in all the races she has run so far she has been close to the winner in 2:19 as she has been to the winners in slower classes.

Her way of going is very smooth, but from her work here no estimate of her possible speed has been formed. From now on, however, it would be well for competitors to look out for Katie S., no matter in what class she starts, because 2:20 will not be a stopper.

Director's reputation as a sire is well known. Hugh Kirkendall made a great stroke when he got all the Director blood he could in his stables, as that sire has sprung into greater prominence since the wonderful performance of Direct as a pacer at Independence. It will be remembered that when that fast mile in 2:05 was flashed over the wires as a record breaker the Chicago Inter Ocean immediately figured out that it was nothing of the kind, that Westmont's 2:03 1/2 mile, made in Chicago with a running mate, was entitled to that honor.

On the same principle Maud S. is not the queen of trotters with her record of 2:08 3/4. H. B. Winship trotted a mile in August 1894, at Narragansett, R. I., with a running mate to speed him, in 2:06. Still Maud S., who went against the clock and without a running mate, is regarded as the fastest trotter in the world. So Direct, who had no running mate, holds the record for pacers.

Speaking of Direct, it will be strange if horsemen do not grasp the lesson of his great performance and stop trying to change the gait of natural pacers by a system of weights and harness trappings, as was the case with this black wonder. Old horsemen incline to the opinion that a double-gaited horse is less apt to break into a trot while pacing than he is to change to a pace while trotting.

Erect, a Director colt out of Hoborn, is a full brother to Direct, though two years younger. Erect was not trained this spring, Mr. Kirkendall preferring to keep him in the stud. Still he has shown considerable speed both as a trotter and as a sidewheeler.

His natural gait is pacing. His stride is hardly long enough to make him a wonder as a trotter, without putting him through the same ordeal as his illustrious brother, who at three years was weighed with 24 ounces, and with 18 ounces when he got his trotting mark of 2:18 last season. Direct's speed advances as a pacer has been such that he is now considered to be Hal Pointner's most formidable race competitor. It certainly has made him more valuable than he would have been had he continued as a trotter.

Marcus Daly is not to get the great Nelson after all. G. H. Nelson, his owner, says there is no truth in the story telegraphed from New York to the effect that Marcus Daly had bought Nelson six months ago. Furthermore he says Nelson is not to be sold under any circumstances or for any consideration. Mr. Nelson also declares that the rumors watches must have had something wrong with them at Independence. He declares that ninety-nine out of a hundred time pieces made the time of Nelson's mile 2:10 1/2.

HELENA, July 28, 1891. Mr. M. Lissner.—Dear Sir: For many years I have suffered from a complaint which physicians called Gravel. My back was so bad from kidney and bladder trouble that I was unable to stoop to pick up a pin from the floor. In the last fifteen years I have spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get relief. With no relief. A friend of mine induced me to try your mineral water about the time it was put into the hotel. It has done me so much good that, in fact, I consider myself cured, and I could not resist the impulse of writing and thanking you for the benefit I have received from your great mineral water. You can show that if you see fit. Thanking you again, I am most respectfully, Mrs. M. GOODALE.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 3, 1890. My Dear Mr. Lissner.—I give you great pleasure in stating briefly the great benefit I have received from the use of your mineral water. I have used your water for three years afflicted with kidney trouble, causing me intense pain. I have taken much medicine, with but little relief. I have used porous plasters. They gave me temporary relief. The severe pains in my back yet remained. I commenced the use of the spring water about five weeks ago and immediately got relief. I feel no more pain or aches, urinate with perfect freedom, and have every reason to believe I am cured. With my whole heart I thank you for this water of life. Yours, FRANK MURPHY.
