The Keeley Institute, Great Falls, Montana, is established for the exclusive treatment and cure of the opium and Morphine addiction, the Liquor Habit and Nerve Exhaustion, through the use of Dr. Leslie E. Keeley's Double Chloride of Gold Remedies. The same treatment will be employed as that administered at Dwight, Illinois, where over twelve thousand people have been treated and cured. Under the personal direction of our Dr. W. P. McGlenn, the physician in charge, all patients will receive the most careful treatment. Cures are effected without pain or nervous shock. Course of treatment from three to four weeks. All correspondence strictly confidential.

Furnished rooms at the institute to those desiring them. Skillful and courteous treatment guaranteed to all patients. For terms and further particulars, address

THE KEELEY INSTITUTE, Great Falls, Montana.

Opens at Helena, Saturday, August 13, and closes Saturday, August 20. $25,000 offered in purses and premiums. You are invited to attend, also to exhibit. Competition open to all. Exhibition entries close August 13. There will be a good band of music in attendance, and four or more exciting races each day of the Fair. The premium list is now ready. Send your address to the secretary and you will receive one.
