

WINKS AT THE DECEIT.

Harrison Loudly Announces That Cabinet Officers Must Keep Off the Stump.

And When He Leaves the Room They Arrange to Go Campaigning.

And His Declaration Is Known to Be Without Sincerity—Bogging Blaine to Make a Speech.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Mr. Harrison would like to eat his cake and have it, or in other words he would like for the impression to go abroad that he has insisted on the cabinet holding aloof from this campaign, and at the same time he would like for some of the well-known manipulators whom he has hoodwinked with portfolios to actively engage in the work of assisting Dave Martin et al. to buy the election.

CONGREGATIONAL MISSIONS.

Differences of Opinion in the General Board.

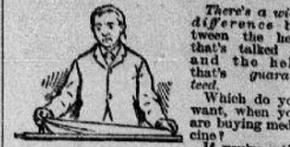

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions, the general congregational missionary body, reassembled this morning. This board is self-constituted, self-perpetuating. At present it is composed of three elements—liberal and conservative. There have been points of difference, one of those differences having to do with the body itself, came up this morning. The liberals believe the churches which furnish all the funds should have representation.

Convention of Episcopal Bishops. BALTIMORE, Oct. 5.—The triennial general convention of bishops of the American Episcopal church assembled here today. Impressive communion services were held, celebrated by Bishop Whipple, of Minnesota. The sermon was delivered by Bishop Wilmer. The gathering at the chancel rail for communion was a remarkable one of prominent figures.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Bar silver, 83 1/2. Copper—steady lake, $11.16 1/2. Lead—Duluth domestic, $4.00 1/2. There was less excitement and variations were confined to narrower limits strong to buoyant early. General Electric rose nearly two points on the decision yesterday favorable to the electric companies.

FRAYING TO BLAINE.

Republicans Going Down on their Knees to Him—In Despair. WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—As the game advances the president grows more and more nervous on account of Blaine's silence. For a long time he pinned his faith to the hope that Hill's antagonistic attitude would offset the planned knight's silence regarding the Minnesota ticket. Carter assured Harrison at one time that Mr. Hill would not enter the canvass. He was talking through his hat or his whiskers, to be sure, for he had no way of knowing what Mr. Hill would do. Whatever else may be said of Mr. Hill, he has at no time been under the suspicion that he would make a dicker with the republican national ticket. It will be remembered that early in August it was telegraphed all over the country that Mr. Blaine would take the stump. The lie was made of whole cloth, and was ill-advised as well. Those who circulated it thought that Blaine was committed to comply, after being advertised to take the stump. He foolishly thought that he would be would write numerous letters which would serve as campaign documents and literature, but somehow or other his pen was halted, and what he has written would make even a respectable profane to a four-page article. It is now generally understood that one last heroic effort is to be made on behalf of the republican party to draw Blaine into the campaign, and Whitehall held it to be the delegated agency. Mr. Harrison himself, of course, cannot draw Blaine to aid him, but it is thought that the tail of the ticket may be able to draw the ex-secretary into the fight to the extent of one speech at least. It is unnecessary to say that if Mr. Hill will agree to make the speech he will be accorded his own time and place for the purpose.

No Fusion in South Dakota. YANKTON, S. D., Oct. 5.—The democratic state central committee have forwarded to the secretary of state, as required by law, certificates of nominations made by the democratic state convention. This settles the question of fusion in South Dakota. The state is believed to be surely republican.

Opportunity.

Master of human destiny am I,
Fame, love and fortune on my footsteps wait.
Cities and fields I walk, I penetrate
Deserts and seas remote, and passing by
Hovel and mart and palace, soon or late
I knock unbidden once at every gate.
If sleeping, wake; if feasting, rise before
I turn away. It is the hour of state
And they who follow me, as they would state
Mortals desire, and conquer every foe
Save death; but those who doubt or hesitate
Condemnation follows, poverty and woe
Seek me in vain and uselessly implore
Answer not, and I return no more.
