MONTANA STATE HEADQUARTERS.

For Visitors to the World's Fair—331 Michigan Avenue.

This club has the endorsement and approval of Gov. J. E. Rickards, the board of World's Fair managers for Montana and many other leading and reputable citizens.

The citizens of the state of Montana are aware of the fact that its progress and development for the past fifteen years has been second to no state in the union. Owing to the fact that we have never had a commissioner of immigration, and that no concerted action has been made to advertise the advantages and resources of this country to the capitalists of the east or the citizens of the old world, but comparatively few outside of our own territorial limitations are adequately impressed with our importance.

It is now thought advisable to make a united effort to call the attention of capital to the advantages to be derived from investments in Montana properties.

Many of the states of the union have erected, within the confines of Jackson park, Chicago, a state building as headquarters for their citizens. Most of these buildings are small in size, and under favorable circumstances would attract but little attention, and when placed in the immediate neighborhood of those magnificent architectural piles which mark up the buildings of the World's Columbian exposition, and which are the wonder and admiration of all who have seen them, they will pass unnoticed.

It is probably understood by all that each of these state buildings is within the grounds of the World's Columbian exposition, and that admission to them is to be obtained only after payment of the regular entrance fee.

It is the design of the Montana State Headquarters club to provide a convenient location where may be made a suitable display of the minerals and other resources of our state, and from which may be distributed advertising matter calculated to awaken interest in our various business enterprises, which advertising matter, by a rule of the local board of the World's Columbian exposition, cannot be distributed within the grounds, and to provide the members of this club with many needed conveniences for themselves and their friends.

The projectors have secured the magnificent residence, 331 Michigan avenue, past the windows of which all processions, military and civic, must march, and which is convenient and easily accessible from the World's Columbian exposition, and from the business center. Certificate holders will be entitled to all these privileges and advantages of the same, a few only of which we enumerate.

There will be provided a large reception room, upon the ground floor, where the citizens of Montana are expected to register, giving their home and Chicago addresses.

All mail and telegrams may be addressed to certificate holders in care of the club. Stationery and conveniences for the answering of the same will be provided free of charge. The leading newspapers of this state, as well as eastern newspapers, will be constantly on file in the club, and from them will be in attendance, and a telegraph office, telephone and American District Messenger service will be established within the building.

Hotel and lodging house accommodations will be procured for members at the best rates obtainable.

A ladies' parlor and retiring room, in charge of competent female attendants, will be free to the patrons of the club, and will also the privileges of the club. In short, it is designed to furnish all the conveniences and surroundings of a first-class hotel, with the exception of meals.

Members will be arranged for the lake at reasonable rates, and seats at the theater secured, in advance, with no trouble to members.

If from sickness or other causes the certificate holder is unable to visit Chicago, upon the surrender of the certificate a new one will be issued, without extra expense, to any one whom the original holder may designate.

Montana has already attracted the attention of the civilized world by its unique and artistic advertisement, its "Silver Statue Justice," and it is expected that her citizens will heartily co-operate in making the Montana State headquarters club the admiration and envy of the dwellers of all the other states. With your co-operation this can be accomplished.

Certificates of membership can be had by remitting $10 to James Bruce, Jr., & Co., Merchants hotel, Helena, Mont.

For further particulars address James Barnes, Jr., & Co., Great Falls, Mont., or Helena, Mont.

IF YOU REPOSED CONFIDENCE

In a trusted friend whose judgment was conceded to be good in matters of finance and investment, and he should advise you of a legitimate and judicious way to make money, wouldn't you naturally avail yourself of the chance? You would not only accept the suggestion, but you would feel very grateful. Suppose you regard us in the light of such a friend, filled with good intentions to serve you and in every way qualified to do so. Let us make known to the reading masses your capabilities to serve the purchasing public, making a feature of your especial claim of whatever nature, and the best of results will follow. ADVERTISE ALL THE TIME—make no ridiculous distinction between dull times and good times—but never insert an advertisement of any nature, kind or description that has not been carefully prepared, and that says only what you want to say, and says only what you CAN and WILL do to the letter.
