

The Helena Independent.

VOL XXXIV—NO. 242.

HELENA, MONTANA, THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 19, 1893

PRICE FIVE CENTS

GANS & KLEIN

TO-DAY the Battle Monument is to be dedicated at Trenton, N. J.
President Cleveland is among the guests, and the list of distinguished visitors includes Gov. Flower of New York, Governor Pattison of Pennsylvania, Gov. Russell of Massachusetts, Gov. Morris of Connecticut; officers of the Governors' staffs and members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania and Connecticut. The memories of 1776 will be recalled by distinguished orators.

The Autumn Leaves Are Dropping . . .

From the trees, so prices are dropping all over our store. The earth will be richer for the leaves—you will be richer in money saved by transactions with us.

The Question of Boys' Clothing . . .

Necessarily agitates us more than it does you. We are always thinking of it, planning and fashioning, and we say it with pardonable pride, we are Always in the Lead.

Some of these Suits are called Perfect Dreams, and our second floor is full with them. Take elevator to it.

All Gentlemen . . .

Have a pair or two of trousers for rough wear on rainy and muddy days. See our selection. Don't spoil the trousers of your suit.

October Brings . . .

Underwear weather, Overcoat weather, Heavy Suit weather, and whether you want to buy or not, necessity forces you to buy. Necessity don't say where you shall buy. That's a matter of choice. But where you can have so large a choice of such choice things as we show, you cannot help but choose to buy. Elevator to 5 floors.

GANS & KLEIN

TALK IT ON THE QUIET.

A Democratic Caucus on Silver May Be Called During the Week.

At Present Individual Consultation Is Employed to Effect Compromise.

Both Political Parties in the Same Boat, Being Divided on the Subject of Silver.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The democratic steering committee of the senate was in session the greater part of the day, trying to devise a scheme for the settlement of differences existing on the financial question on that side of the chamber, and appearance at the close of the day indicate that progress was made. It is asserted that the committee had progressed far enough to prepare a rough draft of the bill which is to be submitted to the senate as soon as a majority of the senators can be consulted upon its merits. Members of the committee refused to confirm the report, as did those with whom they consulted. The story almost asserted that the bill which is to be submitted would simply provide for the extension of the present law for one year from July 1 next. The one great obstacle which apparently stands in the way of progress is the attitude of the repeal advocates. It is stated that an effort is being made to bring these members to see the importance of a settlement of the question, and the scheme to bring about party measures will be dropped if it is unsuccessful and republican senators asked to join the democrats so as to make a majority of the senate.

A democratic conference for the present has given way to the consultation of senators individually and it will be decided upon late in the week if at all, in a discussion of the situation this afternoon Senator Foraker said: "The democrats, as a party, cannot agree, nor can the republicans as a party. There are thirty-eight senators, republicans, democrats and populists, against repeal, and eight favored with repealers are anxious for compromise. When either of the parties agree upon a measure the silver and compromise bill would get together and frame a bill which would go through, because they would have votes to put it through."

DEPLETING THE RESERVE.
Has to Be Taken to Meet Current Obligations.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The depletion of the gold reserve in the treasury continues, and to-day it stands at $22,968,073, a decrease of $10,616,000 since Oct. 1. The currency balance has increased about $8,000,000 the present month. To-day it is $1,392,000. About $13,000,000, however, is made up of subsidiary silver coin and from $8,000,000 to $5,000,000 the net balance being used daily in connection with replacing currency torn and out of circulation. The working balance of the department is small, and resort is had to the gold to meet current obligations. The receipts of the government up to date are $1,531,000 and the expenditures $17,216,000.

WANTED IN HELENA.

The Notorious Chick Rodgers Arrested Charged With Petit Larceny.
Sheriff Curtis brought Chick Rodgers over from Anaconda yesterday. The chief of the Anaconda police had been notified that Rodgers was wanted here, and arrested him Monday. Rodgers pawned an overcoat belonging to a man named Dunn, and the overcoat was found in a Main street pawnshop. The Standard, referring to the arrest, says:
"Chick" or Charles Rodgers was seen by a reporter at the jail last night and asked the cause of the trouble. He said he didn't know what was the matter—there must be some mistake, as he had never stolen anything in his life. He said his people in Helena were very respectable and he didn't want anything in the paper about his arrest or otherwise. He has a brother running an engine on the Montana Central between Helena and Butte. The only reason he left Helena was because he had been playing polo and drinking to excess for several months and he thought by getting away from his friends that he would not be worried or disgraced by his capers.
"Where's your wife?" asked the reporter. "You are not going to say anything about her, are you? Why I wouldn't for $100 have anything said about her in the papers," was Rodgers' answer. He admitted that his wife of about one month was an inmate of a house of ill-fame, and then told all about who she was before he married her. Rouge has been living off the earnings of his wife since their arrival in Anaconda, which was last Wednesday. Sunday night he attempted to kick her face in because she would not give him some money that he might play the high card. Mrs. Rodgers told a policeman that it was not the first time her husband had assaulted her with his fists and claims he was arrested in Helena about a week ago for beating her. Mrs. Rodgers, the bride, is pretty and about 18 years old. She will put in an application to-day for a divorce from her officiate husband. She says she never was in a bad home in her life until she became the wife of "Chick" Rodgers.

Mr. Clark Selected.
SAN DIEGO, Oct. 18.—Members of the late irrigation congress visited this city yesterday. At a meeting of the executive committee Elwood N. Mead, of Wyoming, John B. Gattell, of Oklahoma, and Dr. McClellan, of North Dakota, were added to the committee. Hon. W. A. Clark, of Butte, Mont., was elected a member of the commission to have charge of national legislation now pending in congress relating to irrigating affairs.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Hoscoe Conkling died this afternoon.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—Gounod, the eminent composer, died this morning about eight o'clock. He was stricken with apoplexy some days ago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Father, son and daughter, named Hiseblook, of Hampton, O., were found asphyxiated in a hotel at the World's fair. The father blew out the gas.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Capt. Adams, command-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, was much relieved by yesterday's surgical operation and is now in a fair way of recovery.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 18.—It is settled beyond question that the vessel sunk just before Fort Colborne is the schooner C. Bennett, once carried Capt. Duff and a crew of at least seven, all certainly lost.

LUCY STONE DEAD.

One of the Most Noted Women of the Generation.
BOSTON, Oct. 18.—Lucy Stone died at her home at 10 o'clock to-night. For weeks she has been gradually sinking from an irremediable disease of the stomach. Lucy Stone was born Aug. 13, 1818, on a farm near West Brookfield, Mass. When Lucy was born, her mother exclaimed, "Oh, dear! I am sorry it is a girl, a woman's life is so hard!" The latter girl as it became indignant at the way she saw women treated by their husbands, and the laws, and made up her childish mind that the laws must be changed. Her early struggles for an education were her chief, and she finally succeeded in entering and going through Oberlin, the only college at that time that admitted women, earning her way by teaching all the time. She graduated in 1847, and gave her first woman's rights lecture the same year. Soon after she was engaged to lecture regularly for the Anti-Slavery society. But she devoted most of her time to lecturing on woman's rights all over the country, and finally succeeded in entering and going through Oberlin, the only college at that time that admitted women, earning her way by teaching all the time.

She graduated in 1847, and gave her first woman's rights lecture the same year. Soon after she was engaged to lecture regularly for the Anti-Slavery society. But she devoted most of her time to lecturing on woman's rights all over the country, and finally succeeded in entering and going through Oberlin, the only college at that time that admitted women, earning her way by teaching all the time.

GRAND LODGE L. O. O. F.
Officers Elected and Reports Made—Next Meeting at Missions.
Special to The Independent.
LIVINGSTON, Oct. 18.—At this morning's session of the grand lodge of the L. O. O. F. of Montana the following officers were elected: Grand master, George T. Chambers, of Livingston; deputy grand master, B. W. Nicol, of Hamilton; grand warden, P. S. Washburn, of Helena; grand secretary, A. J. White, of Butte; grand treasurer, Charles L. Schatzlein, of Butte; grand representatives, George Pascoe, of Butte, and Massena Bullard, of Helena. The annual report was submitted this afternoon and shows the order to be in a prosperous condition throughout the state. The number of lodges in the state is forty-six, with a total membership of 2,631.

The Degree of Rebekah has fifteen lodges and a membership of 1,183.

A spirited contest occurred over the election of a city at which to hold the next annual encampment. Missouri, Butte, Helena, Anaconda and Billings were placed in nomination. Missouri finally secured the prize.

The grand encampment meets to-morrow. The local lodge gave a ball at Hoffman's opera house to-night which was a social success and was largely attended by visiting delegates.

Didn't Stamp Their Bear Property.
Special to The Independent.
MISSOULA, Oct. 18.—Antoine Benz and Herman Kennaman were arrested to-day on a warrant issued by J. D. Walters, commissioner of the United States court for Montana. They were placed under $500 bonds, which were secured. These parties have been running a brewery in this city and are charged with defrauding the government by not affixing proper stamps to their bear kegs.

Sheriff and Jailor Indicted.
Special to The Independent.
KALISPELL, Oct. 18.—The grand jury returned indictments this evening against Sheriff Joseph Gagner and Jailor McGowan, charging embezzlement. Bonds in the sum of $1,500 each were given. Judge DuBois, in charging the grand jury, called attention to certain charges alleged against the sheriff and his jailor and the indictments are the result.

INDIAN ALLOTMENTS.

Important Decision by the Commissioner of the General Land Office.
The Helena land office is in receipt of an important decision by the commissioner of the general land office. The particular cases are those in which Joseph Horn and Anton Matyas protested against the granting of a patent to Isaac Hunsberger and Clara Hunsberger, for land about twelve miles from Great Falls. The Hunsbergers are minor half-breed. Eugene, their mother, under an act of congress giving the Piegans allotments, filed on the land in question for them. A protest was entered on the ground that as these half-breeds had a white father, they were American citizens, and not Indians. They also protested on the ground that the claimants had not made improvements on the land. The local office decided in favor of the Hunsbergers and the commissioner confirms that decision.

Some years ago the then secretary of the interior ruled that half-breed children were not entitled to allotments. As a result many claims that had been taken up for these half-breeds were filed on by white settlers. There were so many cases of the kind that the secretary suspended the operation of the rule. In the decision by the local office in the Great Falls case he does not refer to the ruling of the secretary.

Stockmen in Good Spirits.
Special to The Independent.
ST. PAUL, Oct. 18.—Two prominent stockmen, A. H. Farnam, of Miles City, and C. A. Dole, of Glendive, are in St. Paul with stock for the market, and are pleased with the present price of beef. It is an improvement over the prices they have been receiving for some time in the past and the outlook is good.

Highest Honors on Kimball Plains.
The first official announcement of the highest honors of World's fair diploma was made Oct. 8 to W. W. Kimball, Co. on Kimball plains, Kimball reed organs and Kimball potato pipe organs.

QUESTION OF MAJORITY.

Daniel Asks Mills if He Will Go Into a Democratic Caucus.

And Abide by the Decision of the Majority on the Silver Question.

But the Golding From the Lone Star State Will Not—Says He Will Not Compromise.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—On recovering this morning the senate listened to Morgan, of Alabama, on the motion of Delph, of Oregon, to amend Monday's journal so as to show the presence of Allen at 6:30 p. m. of that day. Allen having failed to answer when his name was called, Morgan devoted most of his remarks to a reply to Mills' speech of yesterday, taking occasion to characterize the latter as an astute politician rather than a fair minded lawyer in twisting the decision of the supreme court to serve his purpose, adding that it took an easy conscience to follow Morgan's course in all its decisions. Morgan contended at great length, touching on his part in the rebellion, of which he said he was not ashamed, and said the clock had struck at the White house and the snakes in the senate put their heads out of the box and responded and informed us of the day.

At the conclusion of Morgan's speech, Voorhees moved to lay on the table the motion of Delph to amend the journal. Agreed to, yeas forty-five, nays three.

Teller, republican, of Colorado, then moved to amend the journal so that it would show his presence on a certain roll call when he did not respond to his name, and he addressed the senate. He quoted from the statement of Carlisle in regard to insisting upon the passage of the repeal bill and said:

"What right has the secretary of the treasury to interfere with us in this matter? I resent it myself as a breach of privilege. When we surrender our convictions, we surrender the advice of the president or on account of public clamor, the degradation of the senate will begin and the usefulness of the senate be at an end." He said when the senate declined to be stampeded by the advice of the president he commanded the respect of the American people.

Speaking of his right to refrain from voting, Teller referred to the fact that Cook's "Carpet" article, which was a rebuke of the senate, had frequently taken advantage of the privileges, and declared that no one would question their knowledge of the constitution and parliamentary law.

Daniel, democrat, of Virginia, wished to say to Mills, of Texas, that he (Daniel) for one was ready instantly to submit the question to a majority of democrats who had been sent to the senate charged with the responsibility. Was the senator from Texas ready to go into convulsions with his democratic brethren and abide by the result? Mills sat in a seat immediately in front of Daniel, and although the latter pushed his hands no response.

"I can ask the question of others, but I cannot answer them," said Daniel, and a wave of applause swept over the galleries. "I say," said Daniel, "if the repealer officers, under his oath, to refuse to entertain a dilatory motion. If the majority had adopted a proceeding of that kind long ago there would have been a vote on this bill."

"Yes," replied Daniel, "if the repealer officers, under his oath, to refuse to entertain a dilatory motion. If the majority had adopted a proceeding of that kind long ago there would have been a vote on this bill."

Rising to a question of privilege, Voorhees was notified as a member of imagination the statement published this morning that there had been a meeting of the finance committee, at which Voorhees was supposed to have said that the repealer bill in which he or the administration would be considered as a factor.

Mills asked Daniel, "I do not blame the minority for blaming the majority for the government to be paralyzed. You cannot pass an appropriation bill or a bill regarding taxation, nor help commerce, because the senate has left its rules and abides by the power, and although the latter changed and it is useless to discuss the wisdom or unwisdom of the repeal of the Sherman law. The whole question which the American people have deepest interest in is the repeal of the Sherman law. I am asking, therefore, if I will agree to abide by and carry into execution whatever the majority may decide, shall we not have a repeal bill in which he or the administration would be considered as a factor."

Mills asked Daniel, "I do not blame the minority for blaming the majority for the government to be paralyzed. You cannot pass an appropriation bill or a bill regarding taxation, nor help commerce, because the senate has left its rules and abides by the power, and although the latter changed and it is useless to discuss the wisdom or unwisdom of the repeal of the Sherman law. The whole question which the American people have deepest interest in is the repeal of the Sherman law. I am asking, therefore, if I will agree to abide by and carry into execution whatever the majority may decide, shall we not have a repeal bill in which he or the administration would be considered as a factor."

CHANGES IN DIVISIONS.

The Missouri and Cascade on the Northern Pacific Abandoned.
Changes in the divisions of the Northern Pacific have been announced, and two divisions, the Missouri and Cascade, have been abolished. Contrary to predictions, no change is made in the Rocky Mountain division. The Missouri division will remain with headquarters at Missoula. The Missouri division is made part of the Yellowstone, under Supt. Darsey, whose jurisdiction extends from Meaden to Billings. A part of the old Yellowstone division, between Billings and Helena, is attached to the Montana division under Supt. Finn. On the west, the Cascade is made part of the Idaho division under Supt. Gilbert, whose jurisdiction will extend from Hope to Ellensburg, and of the Pacific division, under Supt. McCabe, who will have charge of the line from Ellensburg to the coast.

Will Probably Stay in Washington.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—It is understood that President Cleveland will not attend the jubilee banquet to Cardinal Gibbons at Baltimore to-night. The president feels that his duties demand his constant presence here. It is doubtful whether or not he will go to Chicago to close the World's Columbian exposition in response to the invitation from the directors of the fair.

Aiding in Deportation.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—The Chinese Six companies seem anxious to take advantage of the Geary law to get rid of the high-binders before the McCleary amendment goes into effect. To this end they are aiding the police in the capture of Chinese criminals. Four have been deported and other arrests will follow.

BOND LOTTERY SCHEME.

Officers of a Guarantee Investment Company Indicted in Chicago.

Some weeks ago THE INDEPENDENT printed an item to the effect that Chief Postoffice Inspector James A. Small, of Denver, had caused the arrest of the officers of the Denver Investment Bond company on charges of using the mails to defraud and violating the statute prohibiting the sending of lottery matter through the postoffice. It seems there are a number of these investment companies in the country. Word was received from Chicago yesterday that the federal officers in that city have secured the indictments of the officers past and present of the Guarantee Investment company, which they charge in conducting a lottery business. The headquarters are supposed to be in Nevada, Mo., the company having been incorporated two years ago under the laws of Missouri. The former officers were J. K. Talbot, president and general manager; J. M. Van Slyke, vice president; L. C. Glumburg, secretary and treasurer; G. M. McDonald, assistant general manager. The present officers, who have also been indicted as well as those named above, are: George V. McDonald, president and general manager; W. H. Stevenson, vice president and treasurer; Francis M. Swanington, secretary; J. R. Johnson, director; D. P. Blakely, director.

The company sold bonds in $1,000 denominations all over the country on terms of $10 down and $1.25 per month until the bond matured. The bonds are numbered and dated consecutively, but the number of them in which the lottery contest lay. Should the first bond paid, for instance, be No. 121, the next one to mature would be No. 605, the company using the multiple of five to determine the number of the next drawing. Federal authorities assert that nearly 50,000 people have invested in the scheme so far.

DIRECTUM MAKES A NEW MARK.

The Black Whirlwind Goes a Mile in 2:08.4 at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 18.—Monroe Salisbury's four-year-old horse Directum set the standard mark at 2:08.4 in the free-free test at Cumberland park to-day. Hamlin's Nightingale and Hazel Wilkes were the only other starters, and after the black whirlwind had won two heats in slow time distance was waived and he was driven for a record. The first quarter was covered in 32, the half in 1:05.1-5, and the last half was trotted with a run in 1:03.3. This smashes the stallion record for the four-year record and the record for trotting. Directum will probably beat the latter part of the week to beat Nancy Hanks' mark of 2:04.

The 2:15 race was a battle royal between Atlantic King Barney and W. W. E. The Kentucky horse won after a terrific drive in the last eighth from Barney.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 18.—2:23 trotting stake, $2,000, unfinished yesterday—Paris, Courier, Haven Wilkes, 2:17.4; 2:30 trotting, stakes $5,000—Feverit, De Lamar, Patent Right, 2:08.4; 2:30 pace—Horn Wagon, Tom Shurley, 2:18; special trot, 2:30 class—Kokoma, Franko Plate, Reimann, 2:23; free-for-all trot—Directum, Hazel Wilkes, Nightingale, 2:08.4; 2:15 pace—W. W. E., Nancy Hanks, 2:08.4; 2:15 pace—W. W. E., 2:07.4; Stamboul, by Sultan, 2:12.4; to best 2:21, for team record, Aubine and Tumbler, quarter 1:55.4, half 1:04.4, three-quarters 1:44.4 mile 2:17.4.

N. P. ELECTION.

The Ives-Belmont Directors Will Be Chosen Thursday.

New York, Oct. 18.—Brayton Ives gave it out late this afternoon that having received proxies which give his faction an overwhelming majority in the election to-morrow of directors of the Northern Pacific, those in control gracefully acknowledge defeat, and the only ticket voted upon to-morrow will be the following, which was known as the Ives-Belmont ticket: Isaac W. Anderson, August Belmont, Charles T. Barney, Wm. L. Bull, J. Horace Harding, Robert Harris, Marcellus Haxley, Brayton Ives, Johnnie Golden, Horace Parsons, Frank A. Root, Rufus W. Smith, Wilbur F. Sanders, Winthrop Smith.

The Deutsche bank of Berlin, whose clients are large holders of Northern Pacific bonds, is represented on this ticket, and it is understood the road will also have the support of the Rothschilds.

THE NEWS IN HELENA.

General Regret That President Oakes Was on the Losing Side.

There was a great deal of interest taken in Helena yesterday in the result of the meeting of the Northern Pacific stockholders at New York. It was known there was going to be a stiff contest between the interests represented by Villard and those represented by Brayton Ives. Early in the afternoon an Associated Press dispatch was received to the effect that the Ives party had been successful. Later Ex-Gov. Hanson received a telegram from President Oakes, of the Northern Pacific, confirming the news.

Among the list of directors selected by the Ives party was the name of Robert Harris. Mr. Harris was formerly president of the Northern Pacific, and it was under his management that the branch lines were built. He is an able and progressive railroad man, thoroughly acquainted with the northwestern country, and has always taken an active interest in advancing its growth. It is probable he will be at the head of the new management. The people of Montana generally will regret the retirement of President Oakes, because they have always realized that in his state he had a good friend. But so long as he is to retire they will be glad to know that his successor will be a gentleman so well acquainted with the country and so well qualified as Robert Harris.

LOSS $5,500,000.

Destructive Fire in New York City—One Heavily Loser.

New York, Oct. 18.—Several men engaged in the extensive wall paper house of Wm. Campbell & Co., on West Forty-first street, to-night were getting ready samples for the room when fire broke out in the engine room and then like a flash spread through the entire structure. The men in the sample room were rescued with difficulty. The fire spread so fast the police decided to clean out all the occupants of the block. The property losses are placed at $5,500,000, of which Campbell lost fully $2,000,000. Insurance unknown at present.

It Was All a Mistake.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—It is now known that Charles Fair was not arrested Monday night at the instance of his father, and instead of being confined in a mad house he is now speeding the coach Arizona with his wife on a Santa Fe train. It is not known how the story originated, but was a general rumor all over the city. All day yesterday an attorney and officers were scouring the block. The property losses are placed at $2,000,000. Insurance unknown at present.

It Was All a Mistake.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—It is now known that Charles Fair was not arrested Monday night at the instance of his father, and instead of being confined in a mad house he is now speeding the coach Arizona with his wife on a Santa Fe train. It is not known how the story originated, but was a general rumor all over the city. All day yesterday an attorney and officers were scouring the block. The property losses are placed at $2,000,000. Insurance unknown at present.

ECKELS TO THE BANKERS

The Comptroller Makes a Speech to the Congress of Bankers at Chicago.

Holds the Sherman Law Responsible for Most of Our Financial Ills.

Declares That Bankers Are Not More Selfish Than Other People, Particularly Silver Mine Owners.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The bankers' congress, arranged by the World's fair auxiliary, opened at the art institute this morning with an address of welcome by Mayor Harrison, followed by President Rhawn, of the American Bankers' association. Reports of officers and other routine business occurred some time, after which Hon. J. H. Eckels, comptroller of the currency, was introduced and delivered an address. After briefly reviewing the financial depression through which the country is passing and the remarkable skill with which the bankers of the country met unprecedented conditions, Comptroller Eckels said complete, permanent recovery from existing troubles could not be expected until our financial laws are made to accord with those that govern the world's trade, and until our currency takes uniformity of standard and our people are rid of the pernicious doctrine that money which is cheap and plentiful is a blessing and a source of wealth, instead of a curse and cause of financial panic and ultimate poverty.

Continuing the comptroller said: "But it is said in bringing about these changes of financial laws banking interests must hold aloof. It is a striking illustration of the extent to which an economic passion and prejudice have crept into our politics that the present antagonism of the country bankers are compelled to hesitate as to the advisability, from the standpoint of prudence, of actively urging the repeal of the laws which stands unassailed by the doctrine, in an equal degree, of past disasters and a dire menace to future prosperity.

"Surely, the banking interests of the country are vast enough and of sufficient import to warrant a successful, hearty and careful consideration without grossing the passions or prejudices of any fair-minded citizen of the republic. It may be that bankers are selfish, but not as selfish as I repeat, than men in other walks of life. Surely, not more so than the silver interests which to-day weigh most loudly against them, and which, with an inconsistency so marked that he who runs may read, with selfish indifference to public good, are only blocking the wheels of legislation at Washington, but unmindful of the voice of the people and the press are making a fundamental principle of our government—the right of the majority to control—his hissing and a by-word, for their own selfish purposes and find fruition in a legislative enactment that will compel the government to issue special patron of their special product."

The comptroller went on to say that bank stocks are not held by bankers and rich people only, but are widely distributed, and that bankers as a class are not selfishly entangled with financial management to represent a larger number of people, more widely scattered, embracing more classes and conditions of people and possessing of greater aggregate wealth than any other special interest in the country. Therefore they have a right to be heard in behalf of their clients, to be protected from the influence of harmful laws, to be completely closed with a reference to the wisdom of banking laws and cushioning the bankers against the dangers of loaning money for use in purely speculative enterprises.

EPISCOPAL JUBILEE.

That of Cardinal Gibbons Celebrated in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18.—The festivities in honor of the episcopal jubilee of Cardinal Gibbons began to-day. The cathedral and Catholic institutions of the city were elaborately decorated. The faithful children of the church gathered by the thousand early to witness the procession of church dignitaries, which included, besides the cardinal himself, an archbishop, seven bishops, and a host of other prelates, except a few of San Francisco, Kendrick, of St. Louis, and Balpoite, of Mexico. There were, besides a large number of bishops, priests and seminarians.

The procession started from the archbishop's residence to the cathedral, where pontifical high mass was celebrated with most imposing ceremonies. Gibbons and Balliol occupied thrones. The cardinal celebrated mass and the sermon was delivered by a bishop, Corigan, of New York, the ceremony closing with the reading of a letter from the pope, bestowing the apostolic benediction on the cardinal, and with the benediction and the march to the cardinal's palace.

Then followed an interesting feature, Dr. McCarty brought out a phonograph, and those who were near enough could hear the message in the pope's well modulated tones: "From the City of Rome Leo XIII sends to the people of America cordial greetings and best wishes. Most heartily do we congratulate the country, flourishing in civilization and wealth and the glory of growing industries. We take pleasure in the joy and honors fittingly rendered to Cardinal Gibbons. We wish you, through the blessing of heaven, glorious increase of happiness and peace. Pilgrims of the Catholic church, we embrace with you, and especially we bestow upon them apostolic benediction."

This concluded the exercises. In the evening pontifical vesters were celebrated at the cathedral. Archbishop Ireland delivered the sermon.

White Caps Sent Up.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Oct. 18.—The celebrated white cap at Salem closed to-day. Eliza Dalton, who stood by to see his wife whipped, got five years in prison; James Dalton, his brother, who held Mrs. Dalton, and John Heisaple, who whipped, each got five years; Heiding, who was present, but did not interfere, got three years, and Barnett, who was present, but too drunk to take part, got two years.

The Money Is Missing.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—An official of the American Express company says $50,000 was sent from New York to New Orleans. When the safe was opened at St. Louis en route there appeared to be a shortage of $25,000. Mistakes sometimes happen, he said, and nothing could be added but advice have been received from their western manager that the money is actually lost.

The Irish Question Shelved.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—At Glasgow last night Henry Asquith, secretary of state for home affairs, announced, contrary to the impression made by Gladstone's late speech, that the home rule bill would not be taken up at the next session of parliament, but the Newmarket programme would be carried out. This means that the Irish question is shelved for some time.