

A POEM FOR THE HOUSEWIFE.

Always have lobster sauce with salmon. And put mint sauce your roasted lamb on. Veal cutlet dip in egg and bread crumbs; Fry till you see a brownish red crust.

Grate Gruyere cheese on macaroni; Make the top crisp, but not too heavy.

In dressing salad mind this law: With two hard yolks use one that's raw.

Roast veal with rich stock gravy serve, And pickled mushrooms, too, observe.

In serving meats. To an inexperienced housekeeper it is a puzzling question to decide what vegetables and meats should be served together.

With roast beef, mashed, baked, or scalloped potatoes, corn, turnips, cabbage, stewed celery, mushrooms, parsnips, carrots, spinach or kale are the vegetables to select from.

With steak, potatoes should be French fried, brown hashed or Saratoga chips. With fillet of beef, potato croquettes are served.

With mutton, serve rice, peas, potatoes, tomatoes, artichokes and stewed turnips. With lamb, new potatoes, peas, stuffed tomatoes, lima or string beans.

With turkey, potatoes, onions, cold salad, peas and beans.

With chicken, the same vegetables are served as with turkey.

With game, serve browned turnips, macaroni with cheese, peas, tomatoes and lettuce.

With veal, potatoes, sorrel, spinach and macaroni with tomato sauce.—Table Talk.

Making One's Self Agreeable. Had I a daughter to marry, said a woman of the world, one accomplishment above all should be taught her—to make herself agreeable without descending to make fun of other people.

Bright people are given to use their wit very freely upon others who have the misfortune to come near them. Women especially regard the world outside their immediate circle as created to afford them amusement of the most amiable kind.

The ill dressed, hurried woman is commonly trying to carry affairs whose hurried critics would shrivel shamelessly. No wonder if the brave spirit steps awkwardly and unbecomingly under the load she can but just bear without breaking.

For the Sick Folks. Sickroom amusements, especially for children, are difficult to find. They soon tire of the most expensive toys, and there are really very few with which a child can play while propped up in bed.

Sickroom amusements, especially for children, are difficult to find. They soon tire of the most expensive toys, and there are really very few with which a child can play while propped up in bed.

Many invalids have days or hours of comparative freedom from pain, and nothing but weakness prevents them from entering into the labors or recreations of the other members of the household.

China silk, both plain and flowered, makes wonderfully pretty curtains to the back, though it is a little too closely woven for straight hanging ones.

Care of the Nails. The best way to manure one's own nails is first to soak the finger tips in warm water for a few minutes, then press back with the blunt end of the file the cuticle which grows over the base of the nail and snip it off with the points of the scissors.

Gentle Manners. A calm and equable appearance, whatever may happen to annoy one, is one of the most certain of the many slight things that go to make up the true lady. One who manifests friendliness at untoward events, or who scolds, however sweet the voice and the face, is not the type of a fine woman.

Lady's Appreciation. A good remedy and there is not anything on the market that equals French Tansy Tablets for the relief and cure of neuralgic or regular masses. These tablets remove all obstructions, no matter what the cause, manufactured by A. Augendre, Paris, France, and for sale only by Parohen-Achard, Helena, Mont., sole agents. Price, $2 per box, sent by mail securely sealed.

Emigrant Immigrants. Sixty per cent of the Hungarians, more than half of the Italians, 25 per cent of the Austrians and Bohemians, 30 per cent of the British, 18 per cent of the Germans, 40 per cent of the Irish and 10 per cent of the Scandinavians who came to the United States between 1880 and 1890 returned to their native lands in the decade, the majority taking money to invest at the old home.—Minneapolis Housekeeper.

THE FOREIGNER.

There is a great deal of good feeling between Russia and France, but it seems to be wholly of French origin.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Whether Russia and France make a formal alliance or not, the significance of the reception of the Russian fleet at Toulon remains the same.—New York Sun.

Guesses as to what will come of the alliance are plenty enough, but they are only guesses, and have little value. The future alone will reveal that.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The splendid reception by the French people of the Russian squadron at Toulon is much more than an expression of cordial good feeling on the part of France toward Russia.—New York Press.

Flirtatious France had better look "a bit out" how she buys an Russian pig in a poke. She may find out after she has irretrievably involved herself that she has been buying all sorts of trouble unawares.—Chicago Mail.

Just now Russia is about the only great power that France can look to for support against Germany or England, and she is doing her best to impress the Russians as much as possible with her good intentions.—Kansas City Times.

Russia's interest in France may emanate from motives of friendship, and it may not. The Russian bear is seldom courteous except for a purpose, and diplomatic France may learn too late that she has been duped.—Grand Rapids Herald.

It is strange that on the dawn of the twentieth century there should be the prospect of terrible wars with unheard of slaughter and the squandering of untold millions. It seems a satire on the tendencies of civilization.—New Orleans Picayune.

The festivities at Toulon did not cause Emperor William to lose any sleep. The Kaiser pulled on his faithful pipe, sipped a little more beer, devoured a portion of hampers, and is now patiently awaiting a chance to make a move on the political chessboard of Europe.—Ohio State Journal.

Four Big Successes. Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed. Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidney. Baskin's Arnica Nerve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill.

The Room and the Home. The divine law of harmony that permeates all nature is the fundamental principle upon which it is safe to build, and wherever it is disregarded confusion is sure to result.

CATON'S NERVE TONIC AND VITALIZER. Quickly cures general and nervous debility, mental exhaustion, Neurasthenia, etc.

Complete, perfectly and permanently restoring the vital energy, increasing nervous power, renewing the ambition of youth and the courage of manhood, restoring to debilitated, nervous, excited, depressed or overworked men and women perfect constitutional power.

Its extraordinary curative power manifests itself almost immediately it is taken. On this point the evidence of those who have taken it is uniform and positive. They say they can feel the effect of every dose of this powerful nerve invigorating tonic, imparting its restorative influence through the medium of the nervous system to every organ and tissue in the body. It makes but little difference whether the constitutional vigor has been undermined by acute disease, overwork, or certain morbid indolence; or whether the broken down condition is called by one name or other, so long as there is nervous exhaustion, general or local weakness, or long as exhaustion and debility are the type of the ailment, this is the remedy.

It cures all the ailments that result from the physical, mental or moral exhaustion, nervousness, prostration of the physical or mental energies, confusion of ideas, lack of concentration, inability of temper, melancholy, cowardice, weakness of the knees and back, palpitation of the heart, dragging pain in the joints, headache, irritation of the kidneys and bladder, milky urine, pernicious and hidden wastes, resulting in a failure of the mental and physical powers, facilitating an impatience to success and inflicting him or her for the duties and responsibilities of life, it is the remedy par excellence.

A single package will be sufficient to inaugurate the work of regeneration and cure in many cases. But stubborn cases often require more. It will be sent postpaid, enclosed from either $1.00 per package, or 5 packages for $5.00. Address all orders to CATON MED. CO., Boston, Mass.
