

THE BOSTON

SPECIAL SALE

Men's Suits

We'll back them against the world. Will be sold this week only for the sum of ..$9.00..

OUR

50c Unlaundered Shirts

Fit the needs of a vast number of people. They are reinforced bosom and back. You can buy them on our recommendation, and if they don't come up to our claims bring them back.

SPRING OVERCOATS

That are dandies and we have them at prices that no well dressed man can afford to pass by without giving us a call and inspecting our stock.

The Boston Clothing Co

23-25 SOUTH MAIN.

MORGAN'S PLACE.

209 NORTH ROONEY STREET.

2 CANS CALIFORNIA PEACHES 25c

10 CANS TOMATOES $1.00

10 CANS CORN $1.00

10 CANS BEANS $1.00

2 POUND BRICK CREAMERY BUTTER 50c

BULK BAKING POWDER, PER POUND 25c

2 BOTTLES CATSUP 25c

2 BOTTLES PICKLES OR CHOW 25c

3 POUNDS MIXED CANDY 25c

15 STICKS FRESH CANDY 5c

4 POUNDS RAISINS 25c

3 POUNDS FRENCH PEANUTS 25c

6 BARS BEE HIVE SOAP 25c

ALL HONOR TO BISMARCK

The Iron Chancellor's Birthday is Celebrated All Over the Empire.

Congratulations and Loving Gifts From All Classes of German People.

The Women's Movement in the Empire Making Great Progress—The Costly Imperial Vacation.

(Copyright, 1894, by the Associated Press.)

BERLIN, March 31.—The eighty-first birthday of Prince Bismarck occurs to-morrow, and will be celebrated with great enthusiasm and more generally than ever before. The ex-chancellor's reconciliation with Emperor William has given impetus to the celebration, which will last until Monday. Every post brings letters and gifts to Friedrichsruhe from all parts of the empire, and from wherever German is spoken. Gifts arriving are more handsome and numerous than ever. A feature of the festivities will be the part German ladies will take in them. As a commencement twelve ladies yesterday presented Prince Bismarck with an illuminated address, upon which was the reading: "To the founder of German unity." The address was signed by 100,000 women, residents of Baden and Palatinat. It was enclosed in an artistic basket and was accompanied by a gift of 600 bottles of wine of the rarest and oldest vintage. Prince Bismarck, in return, thanked the ladies, and declared that the lively interest taken by women in politics is a step forward in the path of progress.

Deputy Rooner Thursday last headed a deputation from Dessau, which presented the prince an address, stating that the new life boat, at the island of Noorderne, in the North sea, would bear Prince Bismarck's name. The ex-chancellor, in reply, delivered a lengthy speech, reminiscent of his visits to various seaside resorts, and covertly defending the criticism upon the part of his newspaper organs of government measures, which criticism, he said, was so far from being compatible with monarchial sentiment as to be a stimulus to and promote the honorable feeling. The prince then invited the deputation to luncheon and chatted freely on various topics with his guests.

At Philharmonic hall to-night members of the reichstag made speeches in which Bismarck was most sympathetically alluded to, all referring to the great stimulus which he had given to the nation. Emperor William has not forgotten the ex-chancellor's birthday, and is sending his adjutant from Berlin to convey his congratulations to the prince, and as a further mark of reconciliation, two fairs on the height of Queenin, near Metz, will be under the emperor's patronage. The fairs will be a commercial treaty was carried by the personal influence of the emperor, which, they claim, makes itself felt on every important question. They denounce this imperialistic tendency as a danger to the monarchy and to the empire.

The shortness of the stay of Emperor Francis Joseph at Abazia, together with the absence of the world's fair, compels, precedes the idea that the meeting of the two emperors at the seaside was other than a mere coincidence. The visit of the emperor to the world's fair, it is estimated, will amount to between $50,000 and $60,000 marks.

The women's movement in Germany is making great progress. The congress called by the World's fair, at Chicago, met here Thursday last. It is the intention of the ladies to form a union of all charitable and humane societies in Germany, and to have a congress in the city, which may be conducted upon a broader plan.

At Erfurt, while at Leipzig before an army doctor, a conspiracy was discovered. The writ was issued to-day, the conspirator, atoned all over his body. The conspirator is now awaiting trial on the charge of treason.

More and more mixed. An injunction issued for nearly every inhabitant of Denver.

Chicago, March 31.—The advisory committee of the Western Passenger association migrant clearing house has about reached an agreement on the divisions requested by the Union Pacific, and will probably allow that line a larger per cent than has been given to heretofore, under association agreement, but not as large as it demanded. The percentage added to its proportion will be shared by other lines, with the exception of the Atchison, whose division remains as before.

Utah Home Industry Fair. FAYT LAKE, March 31.—The home industry fair was formally opened here this evening and will remain open for two weeks. Various products of the territory are artistically arranged and make a creditable display. Speeches were made by Gov. West and other prominent citizens.

THE POPULIST RALLY.

Speeches by R. E. Smith, John H. Huseby and Others.

The appearance of Robert B. Smith, a former democrat, on the stage as a speaker, was the principal feature of the populist rally at the Auditorium last night.

It is Declared the Time Has Come to Throw Off Eastern Domination.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The president's veto of the Bland bill has resulted in a proposition for a national convention for the west and south, to form a new political party based on the demand for free coinage of silver. The proposition comes from certain radical democratic congressmen, who believe the time has arrived when the party's salvation in the west and south depends that it should repudiate once and forever eastern domination on financial politics. Western and southern democrats who are at the head of this movement declare that the veto of the Bland bill shows that the administration has set its face toward a single gold standard.

Representative McLaughlin, democrat of South Carolina, has taken a bold initiative and has prepared a proposition, in which he has signed by the democratic congressmen. Mr. McLaughlin says he has talked with many southern and western members of congress, and he has yet to find a single democrat who has not agreed with him. The time has come when eastern financial ideas must be repudiated. He says it was thought this movement must take the form of a convention of governors of states interested, but they were so widely separated geographically it was feared a united action could not be obtained. It was therefore decided to call a national convention. He said that in the fight he believed was to follow, the dividing line would be the Allegheny mountains and Potomac river, the south and west against the east.

Members of all parties would be invited. The issue would solely be a monetary one. Representative Tracy, democrat of New York, anti-silver leader of the house, said of the proposed convention: "It is a ultra-silver proposition, which cannot prove effective. It will simply strengthen the administration. It would be a queer spectacle to see the south reject the alliance of New York. The interests of the south depend upon their ability to co-operate with the democratic leadership of the house. Even if such movement proved effective, it could only result in dividing the democratic vote in the north and giving the northern states the right to elect a president who would jeopardize its own interests by carrying such a movement very far."

Representative Hand, who has been elected to the senate, said that he was inclined to regard it as chimerical, but said the democrats of the south and west would never be again gold. They would not pose as silver men and true silver men on guard hereafter.

Careful inquiry among other democratic congressmen indicates that very few are prepared to support the movement. Even if they say the movement will result in nothing important.

MUTUAL EXPLANATIONS.

Crisp and Payne Are Again on Speaking Terms.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—In recognition of the personal speaker Crisp made yesterday, in declining the senatorship, there was a burst of applause this morning when he ascended the rostrum to read the house record. Immediately after reading the journal, Mr. Payne, of New York, rose to a question of personal privilege, and made an explanation of the incident which occurred last Thursday afternoon when the speaker had stated, in reply to seeming defiance of the chair by Mr. Payne, when the latter was ordered to take his seat, that he would recognize a motion to bring the continuation member to the bar of the house. Mr. Payne stated that on that occasion the speaker had not been ready, was in response to something said by Mr. Orthwein, not to the chair. Mr. Payne's statement led to a discussion of the speaker's statement, which was cleared up by the incident.

The struggle over the O'Neill-Joy election case was not resumed yesterday when the bill was reported by the committee.

UNUSUAL ATTRACTIONS.

What Raleigh & Clarke Will Offer to the Ladies To-morrow.

Persons who may have any doubts regarding the matter are requested to call upon Raleigh & Clarke. Examine their great stock of spring goods and get their prices before making up orders, and be convinced of their ability to do all their advertising.

Money to Loan. NEW YORK, March 31.—The bank statements show: Deposits, increase, $4,522,000; loans, decrease, $1,750,000; specie, increase, $1,832,000; legal tenders, increase, $3,810,000; deposits, increase, $3,273,000. The banks now hold $88,600,000 in excess of legal requirements.

SILVER MEN MAY RALLY.

Proposition to Call a Convention to Form a National Silver Party.

It is Declared the Time Has Come to Throw Off Eastern Domination.

Bland Thinks the Scheme Chimerical, the Hope of Silver Being in the Democratic Party.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—The president's veto of the Bland bill has resulted in a proposition for a national convention for the west and south, to form a new political party based on the demand for free coinage of silver. The proposition comes from certain radical democratic congressmen, who believe the time has arrived when the party's salvation in the west and south depends that it should repudiate once and forever eastern domination on financial politics. Western and southern democrats who are at the head of this movement declare that the veto of the Bland bill shows that the administration has set its face toward a single gold standard.

Representative McLaughlin, democrat of South Carolina, has taken a bold initiative and has prepared a proposition, in which he has signed by the democratic congressmen. Mr. McLaughlin says he has talked with many southern and western members of congress, and he has yet to find a single democrat who has not agreed with him. The time has come when eastern financial ideas must be repudiated. He says it was thought this movement must take the form of a convention of governors of states interested, but they were so widely separated geographically it was feared a united action could not be obtained. It was therefore decided to call a national convention. He said that in the fight he believed was to follow, the dividing line would be the Allegheny mountains and Potomac river, the south and west against the east.

Members of all parties would be invited. The issue would solely be a monetary one. Representative Tracy, democrat of New York, anti-silver leader of the house, said of the proposed convention: "It is a ultra-silver proposition, which cannot prove effective. It will simply strengthen the administration. It would be a queer spectacle to see the south reject the alliance of New York. The interests of the south depend upon their ability to co-operate with the democratic leadership of the house. Even if such movement proved effective, it could only result in dividing the democratic vote in the north and giving the northern states the right to elect a president who would jeopardize its own interests by carrying such a movement very far."

Representative Hand, who has been elected to the senate, said that he was inclined to regard it as chimerical, but said the democrats of the south and west would never be again gold. They would not pose as silver men and true silver men on guard hereafter.

Careful inquiry among other democratic congressmen indicates that very few are prepared to support the movement. Even if they say the movement will result in nothing important.

MUTUAL EXPLANATIONS.

Crisp and Payne Are Again on Speaking Terms.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—In recognition of the personal speaker Crisp made yesterday, in declining the senatorship, there was a burst of applause this morning when he ascended the rostrum to read the house record. Immediately after reading the journal, Mr. Payne, of New York, rose to a question of personal privilege, and made an explanation of the incident which occurred last Thursday afternoon when the speaker had stated, in reply to seeming defiance of the chair by Mr. Payne, when the latter was ordered to take his seat, that he would recognize a motion to bring the continuation member to the bar of the house. Mr. Payne stated that on that occasion the speaker had not been ready, was in response to something said by Mr. Orthwein, not to the chair. Mr. Payne's statement led to a discussion of the speaker's statement, which was cleared up by the incident.

The struggle over the O'Neill-Joy election case was not resumed yesterday when the bill was reported by the committee.

SCOURING THE WOODS.

State Constables Will Be Killed on Night—Hippocampus Destroyed.

DALLINGTON, N. C., March 31.—2 p. m.—The situation here remains about the same. No further outbreaks having occurred since last night's outbreak. A posse continues to scour the woods for escaped convicts, who were responsible for the killing of Darlington's citizens last evening. The center of operations for the citizen soldiery seems to be Timmonsville, a small town about thirty miles from here, as the spies have been destroyed there in the swamp. The posse are guarding every railroad, and it is believed these spies are all in the country, except two who are on their guard in the town of Darlington. The posse say they will kill any convict on their sight. Telegrams were sent to Charleston asking for blood hounds to aid in the search, but they have not been received. The governor has had a train out forty-eight hours trying to get men to assist him and protect constables.

Money to Loan. NEW YORK, March 31.—The bank statements show: Deposits, increase, $4,522,000; loans, decrease, $1,750,000; specie, increase, $1,832,000; legal tenders, increase, $3,810,000; deposits, increase, $3,273,000. The banks now hold $88,600,000 in excess of legal requirements.

WAR IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Whisky Spies, Under the State Dispensary Law, Provoked Citizens to Battle.

Several People Killed, and the Spies Are Being Hunted to the Death.

Military Companies, in Sympathy With the Vigilantes, Refuse to Obey the Governor's Orders.

COLUMBIA, S. C., March 31.—South Carolina is in a state of rebellion. Fortunately to-day passed without any further bloodshed, but the situation is considered by some as serious. Gov. Tillman is much worried and has telegraphed orders to nearly every military company in the state to proceed here at once, the intention being to mass all the troops possible together to go to Darlington. Already several companies have arrived, but if the action of these companies is a safeguard the governor is depending on a forlorn hope.

The company from Newbury has already disbanded and troops from the governor's own county say they will refuse to go to Darlington. To-day the Gordon light infantry declined to go and sent Gov. Tillman a dispatch saying: "We are in sympathy with the citizens of Darlington in their purpose of defense of their homes." The Sumpter infantry have refused to obey orders. The Fourth brigade of Charleston, the largest and best equipped force in the state, has been ordered to the front and will not go. Several companies, however, have been more faithful to the governor, and are now on their way to Darlington. A company from Orangeburg, a company from Clarendon county, and perhaps several other companies will reach the front in the next few days.

This evening when the Newbury rifles, Capt. McCaughy, arrived they were met by a large crowd at the depot, whose purpose was to dissuade them from going to Darlington. The company got off the cars near the state prison and marched thence, being followed by citizens. A pistol was fired by a citizen, and the company ordered to halt, declaring they would shoot. Capt. McCaughy came out and such a multitude of citizens, however, did not intend to go to Darlington. Shortly afterward the company withdrew from the prison and went to a hotel. Three constables, who had come out to Darlington, arrived here to-night on a special train, and are now safely housed in the penitentiary. They tell most thrilling and graphic stories of the tragedy at Darlington.

Troubles grew out of hatred of the populace against whisky spies under the state dispensary law. Several citizens of Darlington were seated around the depot and a number of spies collected in a group a short distance off. T. E. Norman expostulated at the language being used and leveled his gun at the crowd, ordering them to halt, declaring they would shoot. Capt. McCaughy came out and such a multitude of citizens, however, did not intend to go to Darlington. Shortly afterward the company withdrew from the prison and went to a hotel. Three constables, who had come out to Darlington, arrived here to-night on a special train, and are now safely housed in the penitentiary. They tell most thrilling and graphic stories of the tragedy at Darlington.

TWO WAREHOUSES.

Supplies for the Indian Service From New York and Chicago.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—Warehouses for supplies for the Indian service will hereafter be located at both New York and Chicago. This in accordance with the action taken by Secretary Smith, who desired not to abolish the New York warehouse, but to maintain two, with locations in the west and east. Competition resulting in this way will undoubtedly result in a material reduction in the amount of disbursements to the department for supplies. A protest against the proposed closing of the warehouses was recently filed at the department by the New York chamber of commerce, and a large number of reports relating to the matter have since been filed. The decision is made in a letter sent by Secretary Smith to the commissioner of Indian affairs to-day. Contracts will be awarded early in 94.

THE GOVERNOR'S SIDE.

Told by Newspaper Friends—The Proclamation. COLUMBIA, S. C., March 31.—The following is an account of the situation as summed up by the newspaper friends of Gov. Tillman: The governor has declared martial law over the entire state of Darlington and Florence counties in a state of insurrection. The report that he has declared martial law over the entire state. He has also ordered the railroad authorities not to transport any bodies of men unless authorized by him. The railroads have thus far refused compliance. The governor has also ordered the companies not to transport any news of a warlike tendency. This order has likewise been refused compliance. Florence and Darlington are now under martial law. The ten Greenville county companies are under orders awaiting instructions from the governor. It is understood 500 citizens of Columbia have signed a paper agreeing to go to Darlington to assist the citizens who are under martial law. The governor has ordered the arrival of the Newbury rifles, to force them to return or prevent the trains from proceeding. The city and state dispensary law is being enforced by order of the governor, and their contents are now being hauled to the penitentiary for safe keeping. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock. Manager Gray has referred the case to the New York authorities, who will probably instruct him to receive and send all messages. The governor's proclamation, declaring martial law over the entire state, is as follows: "Whereas, certain persons have assembled in the counties of Darlington and Florence, and are now in rebellion against the authority of the government of this state, and it has become impracticable to enforce by ordinary means of judicial proceedings the laws of the state within said counties, now therefore, I, B. E. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina, do proclaim such persons so assembled to be in open rebellion against the laws of the state, and I do hereby command such assemblages of insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within twenty-four hours. Judge Watts, of the state supreme court, has granted an injunction against the Western Union Telegraph company, restraining it from conveying messages for transmission on the Darlington line unless sent by state authorities. The injunction was served at seven o'clock