

THE BOSTON THE SQUARE USE OF PLAIN ENGLISH.

When the advertising atmosphere is heavily charged with exaggeration, it is well to remember who the honest advertisers are. We have labored to make our advertisements plain, strong as the facts demand, but not overstated. We tell you about the stock clearly and truthfully. That's the point we wish to emphasize. We allow no misrepresentations—no sailing under false colors. We are simply telling the plain, the unvarnished truth when we state that our clothing is cut, trimmed and put together in the latest, most approved, most artistic and substantial manner, and will compare our clothes with any Tailor-Made Suit for style, fit and finish, and that we are selling them at prices that draw crowds and hold them—prices that don't make you poor—prices that don't make you rich—prices to harmonize with the times. If you are looking for bargains in Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothes you had better look our way.

THE WINNERS ARE NAMED.

Nominations Made by the Democratic Convention of Lewis and Clarke.

It is a Strong Ticket From the Very Beginning to the End of It.

The Proceedings Were Interesting and the Contest Was Carried on Without any Interruption.

The democratic convention for Lewis and Clarke county, which met at the auditorium yesterday, placed in the field a ticket which is looked upon as strong from beginning to end. It is as follows: Representatives in the legislature—A. J. Davidson, James H. Murphy, C. B. Nolan, D. H. Peeler, Nick Hilger, Geo. F. Cop, J. P. McCabe, and W. G. Frautit. Sheriff—Charles D. Curtis. Treasurer—Clarence B. Garrett. Clerk and recorder—Charles S. Muffly. County attorney—R. H. Parcell. Assessor—Jacob Fischer. Auditor—R. F. Wilkinson. Superintendent of schools—Mrs. Maud Davis Baker. Public administrator—W. W. Shipman. Coroner—Dr. D. L. Carmichael. Surveyor—John D. Kestel. Justices of the peace for Helena township—S. K. Davis and Terrence O'Donnell. Constables for Helena township—W. F. Huber and John Quirk. The proceedings of the convention were entirely harmonious, and though there were some contests for the various nominations, they were carried on in such a way as to leave no bitterness behind, and only showed the faith that the democrats have in the result of the election this fall. Most of the nominees were present, and made speeches after they had been successful in securing the places on the ticket which they desired. No nominations were made for county commissioners, on account of the decision of the supreme court.

PRELIMINARY BUSINESS.

Temporary Organization and Appointment of Committees. The convention was called to order shortly after noon by Daniel Hanley, chairman of the county central committee. Hon. Sam Wood was unanimously chosen temporary chairman. In a short speech of thanks he said: "To all democrats who feel that the cause is weak, I say brace up. There was never an opportunity such as this for the election of their entire ticket. I have no interest to serve but the prosperity of the democratic party. Put your heads together unselfishly to nominate men who will pull the largest vote, and we will astonish the enemy." [Applause.] James N. Ralston, of Marysville, was chosen temporary secretary.

When it came to naming the committee on credentials, there were two propositions, one to let the chair appoint seven, the other to let each ward and outside precinct select its own member. There was a large majority in favor of leaving the matter with the chairman. On the appointment of the committee on permanent organization and order of business and the committee on resolutions the convention again divided, and this time the vote was in favor of letting the wards and outside precincts select their own members. The chair named as the committee on credentials E. W. Knight, D. H. Peeler, A. J. Siesie, H. K. Ludioph, Wm. Muth, John S. M. Nell and John Healey. The convention named the following committee on permanent organization and order of business: E. C. Ferrat, Wm. Briggs, James Sullivan, C. S. Dillon, Geo. F. Cope, Daniel Hanley and Wm. Taylor. Helena: P. B. Dillos, Marysville: H. J. Clayton, East Helena: Phil Constance, Unionville: R. H. Floyd-Jones, Kestel: J. H. Murphy, Rimini: R. W. Duncan, Goodwin: James Kellie, Empire: H. J. Hogan, Valley: W. K. Baxter, Carterville: R. E. Wilkinson, Mitchell: T. B. Reilly, Nelson; John Irwin, Baxendale; Hugh McGinty, Butler; John Duffy, Silver; D. F. Hedges, Spokane; David Auehard, Dearborn; Charles B. Taylor, Augusta. The committee on resolutions was named as follows: J. M. Clements, E. Finerty, Martin Maginias, Albert I. Loeb, C. B. Nolan, W. C. Hickey and John Baker, Helena; M. D. Shea, Marysville; W. O. Hutchinson, East Helena; Angus Hockshaw, Unionville; J. B. Snow, Kestel; J. H. Murphy, Rimini; R. W. Duncan, Butler; Tom Gillan, Empire; Donald Bradford, Valley; W. S. Baxter, Carterville; R. F. Wilkinson, Mitchell; T. B. Reilly, Nelson; John Irwin, Baxendale; John Duffy, Silver; D. F. Hedges, Spokane; J. M. Weaver, Augusta. Resolutions were introduced and referred to the committee on platform, pledging the delegates to the state convention to stand up for straight democratic nominations and against fusion, and recognizing the right of labor to organize against organized capital. The convention then took a recess until three o'clock.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

Selection of Legislative Nominations and Candidate for Sheriff. Immediately after the recess the reports of the committee on credentials and permanent organization and order of business were received and adopted. The latter recommended T. J. Walsh for permanent chairman, and J. P. McCabe and John Edgerton for permanent secretaries. It recommended that a committee of one from each ward and precinct be appointed to determine on the apportionment of delegates to the state convention and to select the same. The order of nominations stood: Legislature, sheriff, treasurer, clerk and recorder, county attorney, assessor, auditor, superintendent of schools, public administrator, coroner, justices of the peace and constables; and lastly the naming of a county central committee. Chairman Walsh made a speech, in which he thanked the convention for the honor and further said: "Although this is regarded as an off-year in politics the obedient student will not fail to recognize in it a crisis in the struggle for revenue reform, with all that it signifies in the way of honest and better government, and proper citizenship and citizenship. The issue which shall signify the further life and ultimate fruition or its inglorious and untimely death. No man who loves his country, who believes in the cause for which the party has been battling these many years, can look with unconcern upon the present contest of pens in his efforts to make that cause completely and gloriously triumphant. "We have been telling the American people that the so-called system of protection was debauching our politics, was undermining the public conscience, and was corrupting our public men. As to the truth of these charges, let recent history proclaim. We told them two years ago that the McKinley subsidies were allowed to compensate the heavy contributors to the republican campaign fund. We told them that the local professions of solicitude for freedom of action and civil and religious liberty was never more ardent than at this time. We declare our loyalty to the democratic party, its principles, its history and its organization. We believe that it will survive as long as the American constitution survives and that it will continue to be the dominant political force of this country, and we instruct our delegates to the state convention to put before the people straight-out loyal democrats on a sound democratic reform, for the offices of representative in congress and associate justices of the supreme court. We endorse the present congress for restoring to the states and the people control over their own elections, free from interference by federal marshals or troops paraded at the polls. We commend the democratic congress for reducing the taxes of the people; and while the bill passed may not have reached the summit of democratic hopes we hail it as a great advance upon the McKinley system of legalized robbery, which, after bankrupting the treasury of the United States, paralyzed all the industries of the country which it professed to advance. We hail with satisfaction the revival of industry which has begun with the repeal of that law, though we firmly believe that the only permanent good to be attained by the United States until the complete restoration of silver to its function as a financial metal is made by the reversal of the financial legislation enacted during the thirty years of republican control. We denounce the spurious claim that the advent of a reform administration was the cause of a financial and industrial panic, when it is apparent that it was the direct result of the years of republican financial and economic misrule. We recognize now as for years we have recognized the silver question as the question of paramount interest to Montana, and as a point of fact that it is the beginning of our leaders in this state have been free citizens from conviction, and not from policy, who need no instructions to do their duty and no watching to keep them from going astray. To this end we favor, as ever since we have favored, the free and unlimited coinage of silver as of gold on the same conditions and at the ancient ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the action of any other nation or of our earth. We favor the reduction of excessive salaries and fees to county officers, the conduct of county affairs on a more economical basis and a strict supervision over all public expenditures in order that the road tax be reduced and honesty of administration promoted. We recognize the right of labor to organize and maintain all its best rights against the encroachments of a legalized greed and corporate dictation, and we are in favor of the passage of all just laws that will ameliorate the condition and advance the welfare of the laboring masses. We pledge our delegation in the legislature to the passage of such laws as will place in the hands of the people, without the intervention of private corporation, the necessary water supply for irrigation. We recognize submission to party usage as necessary to party success, as the former endorses the action of the Lewis and Clarke delegation in the last legislature in loyally supporting the nominee of the democratic caucus for United States senator and pledges the caucus party to support the same in the legislature to act in harmony with the democratic caucus of the next legislature.

Delegates to the State Convention. The committee appointed to select delegates to the state convention reported the following list, which was approved: Delegates. At-large: J. M. Clements, Dave Koenen, A. I. Koldrap, O. B. Totten, D. F. Murphy, John Kozant, E. L. Fisher, J. P. Burgard, J. P. Maginias, J. P. Selmit, S. H. McIntire, Sam Alexander, C. S. Dillon, Albert I. COMING ATTRACTIONS.

There will be hours of fun at Ming's opera house next Saturday night when Ezra Kendall will produce for the first time here his lively farce, "A Pair of Kids." It has been one of the most successful of farces during several seasons past and is conceded to be as funny as anything in that line on the stage. It does not claim to be anything but a laughmaker, but as such it has few equals. It serves to introduce a host of songs, parading dances, and specialties that will all up to date or a little later. Jennie Dunn, a popular little comedienne, is prominent in the cast. Elk Lodges Suspended. READING, Pa., Sept. 24.—As a result of a meeting to-day, held by the grand officers of the Elks, Grand Exalted Ruler W. H. Friday, of Brooklyn, N. C., this evening issued a proclamation to all lodges in the United States saying that, by a decision of the courts, the Jameson grand lodge has been recognized as the only legal body, and that in 1892 all lodges were directed to stop holding regular sessions, picnics, etc., on the Sabbath day after Jan. 1, 1896. Certain lodges having refused to obey this order, Mr. Friday to-night suspended the charters of several eastern lodges, and that of Denver, Col. Alleged Montana Cattle Thieves. DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 24.—John D. Nead and J. D. Wilkins, arrived here on Saturday with two carloads of cattle, were arrested at the instance of K. E. Bourdette, the cattle inspector for Montana and North Dakota. It is alleged by the officials that Nead and Wilkins belong to a famous gang of Montana cattle thieves. It is said the shipment was made to Duluth as an experiment, to see if by this course the rigid inspection at the large cities could be avoided. PERSONAL. Gen. C. F. Lloyd came over from Butte yesterday. Miss Mary Thomas, of Marysville, was a visitor in Helena yesterday. Mrs. W. R. McComas, Miss Lilla and Master Pam have returned from a two months visit in Salt Lake. Will Yates, of Nevada Creek, was in town yesterday. He met with the misfortune of driving a pick to his right foot. H. B. Bickford, clerk of the board of state land commissioners, arrived yesterday from the east with his bride. They have taken suite 18 in the Homer hotel and will be at home after Oct. 1.

U. S. COURT AT BUTTE.

District Judge Knowles Renders His Decision in the A. R. U. Contempt Cases.

Several of the Accused Sentenced to Thirty Days and Fined $100 Each.

Import of the Judge's Remarks in Passing Sentence—Yellowstone Democrats in County Convention.

Special to The Independent. BUTTE, Sept. 24.—The trial of the A. R. U. defendants was concluded before Judge Knowles in the United States court Saturday night, and a decision was rendered by Judge Knowles to-day. The judge said, in effect, that it was not unlawful for the employees of a company to quit work, nor was it unlawful for men to combine together to keep up wages, but it was unlawful for them to combine to keep up wages by unlawful means, such as preventing other persons from working, by force or intimidation. "It cannot be," said Judge Knowles "that each member of the A. R. U., with the present evidence before me, can be held responsible for the act of every other member. The charge that I will consider is that the defendants interfered with the operations of the railroad, and that by their acts they sought to make nugatory the order of the court." The court said that the fact that defendants may not have known that the road was in the hands of receivers does not make the action of the men a correct one. "The circumstances were such that some of the men must have known that the road was being so operated. If it should be found that labor organizations have high and lofty purposes for humanity, which they propose to effectuate by unlawful means, then such organizations must be classed as unlawful combinations. Here, then, we would find in our midst strong societies, a government within our government." The judge then sentenced J. H. Calderhead, president of the A. R. U., to thirty days' imprisonment and $100 fine; Fred Walker, chief train dispatcher, and G. A. L. Garvin, operator, Wm. Dye, C. V. Allen, Frank Oide and George Boomer were also adjudged guilty. Each was sentenced to thirty days and fined $100 each. Patrick Meaney, S. B. Jolly, William Smith, Downey, Cavanaugh, Patterson, Parry, Christianson, Wilhoar, Masters and Hight were discharged. YELLOWSTONE DEMOCRATS. Meet in Harmonious Convention and Put Up a Strong Ticket. Special to The Independent. BILLINGS, Sept. 24.—The democratic county convention met this morning at 10 o'clock. Geo. M. Hays was chosen temporary chairman and Austin N. H. tempo secretary. J. D. Matheson was elected permanent chairman, Austin North secretary, and R. E. Gravel assistant secretary. A set of ringing resolutions were adopted. The delegates to the state convention were instructed to support no candidate unless favorable to the free and unlimited coinage of silver. The convention was entirely harmonious and a very strong ticket was nominated. All are confident that the republican majority in this county will be obliterated in November. The following is the ticket nominated: Senator, I. D. O'Donnell; representative, P. Lavalle; sheriff, J. R. Herford; clerk and recorder, T. C. Armitage; treasurer, S. F. Moore; assessor, Leslie Bunnell; attorney, G. A. Lane; superintendent of schools, Mrs. Lucy S. Ralback; coroner, Dr. J. E. Free; surveyor, Henry Ostander; commissioners, Henry G. Williams two years, J. H. Rehnlall four years; justices of the peace for Billings, A. Campbell and James Kelly; constables, Henry Terrell and George Davidson; chairman of the county central committee, George M. Hays. Delegates to the state convention: George M. Hays, F. L. Mann, H. W. Rowley, I. D. O'Donnell, George Hubbard, Thos Collins, S. F. Morse, P. Lavalle; alternates, H. A. Noyes, Austin North, J. D. Matheson, G. A. Lane, M. B. Rademaker, A. Campbell, W. B. Tenzyok, A. J. Gliedorf. Temporary Absence. Special to The Independent. GLENDALE, Sept. 24.—Taylor John, well known in all parts of Dawson county, and largely engaged in wool growing, was taken in charge by Sheriff Giesson yesterday and sent to the Warm Springs asylum for the insane. Mr. John has been acting peculiar for several weeks, the principal cause being a loss of several thousand dollars on a sheep deal. He is not violent, and is quite rational at times, but his relative thoughts he had better be taken where he would be under treatment. Judge Reeves at Glendive. Special to The Independent. GLENDALE, Sept. 24.—The people's party candidates for associate justice of the supreme court, Hon. Geo. W. Reeves, opened the campaign in Dawson county this evening at a crowded house. His spoke of the financial question for several hours and his remarks were frequently applauded. MRS. WILKINSON DEAD. She Survived Her Husband a Little Over Three Weeks. A telegram received in Helena yesterday from San Jose, Cal., announced the death of Mrs. Maria Wilkinson, widow of Judge E. S. Wilkinson. Judge and Mrs. Wilkinson had gone to California on account of the latter's health. A cold he contracted carried him off on Sept. 2. Mrs. Wilkinson therefore survived her husband but three weeks. Two sons survive, A. C. Wilkinson, now in San Jose, and Lisleigh F. Wilkinson, of Helena. Mrs. Wilkinson was a most estimable lady, and had many friends among the old-time residents of Lewis and Clarke who will hear with sorrow of her death. Allison on the Stamp. ATLANTA, Iowa, Sept. 24.—Senator Allison was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience at the opera house this afternoon. The senator held the attention of his audience closely throughout, and was frequently applauded. Several prominent republicans were on the stand.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

A Sure Nominee Has Not Yet Been Talked Of.

FARLINGTON, Sept. 24.—Fine weather greeted the democratic delegates this morning. Politicians have been arriving in small batches ever since Saturday, but a majority are not yet on the ground. There is not a man versed in the ways of the conventions of political parties that ever saw a scene like that which confronts the democratic convention. The predicament is explained at nine o'clock in a very few words by Lieut.-Gov. Sheahan. He said: "There is not a man or politician who knows who the nominee will be when the convention meets to-morrow. It is anybody's or any faction's candidate, and the convention will be a democratic one in every sense of the word."

It is probable there will be a repetition of the convention of 1876, when the galleries nominated Seymour for governor, he afterwards declining to run, and Robinson being selected as candidate. The reception that will be accorded Senator Hill by the convention will undoubtedly take on a remarkable phase. It is probable he will be nominated by acclamation from the galleries. That he will decline, however, is almost certain. Senator Hill arrived this evening late and opened his headquarters at the Grand Union hotel. He said: "I received word that I was to be the temporary chairman of the convention. I know nothing about who is the most probable candidate. Several Tammany delegates were seen to-night in regard to the placing of Tammany's strength, and every man favors Wm. C. Whitney. It is announced by the Tammany people that Mr. Whitney will be home to-morrow and will be in the city on Wednesday. This is itself significant, for Mr. Whitney was not expected to be a visitor at the convention. Farther, those who arranged for the meeting of the convention have decided to wait a whole day before taking up the nomination of candidates, and it is urged that this is in favor of the Whitney boom, because the delay is evidently to let Whitney's decision be known before final action is taken.

MADE A DRAW OF IT.

First of the Triple Fight Events at the Olympic Club. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 24.—The first of the series of fights which will form the pugilistic triad events at the Olympic club took place to-night in the presence of about 6,000 spectators. Prof. John Eckhart, the popular New York referee, officiated as judge of the merits of the men, according to articles of agreement between the fighters. Murphy and Plimmer fought for a purse of $2,500, $2,000 to the winner and $500 to the loser. The men were in splendid condition and weighed in at the stipulated weight—115 pounds. The stakes ring was introduced to-night for the first time and so far as appearances warranted seemed to be an improvement on the old style of enclosure. Plimmer was soundly by Billy McGeathy, Benny Murphy and A. Robbey. Murphy was looked after by James Coghers, Jake Kilrain and Andy Bowen. The work in the first round was very pretty. Plimmer landed several left hand punches on the head and right hand over the head. Though he missed one of the most vicious cutting ever seen in the ring here, Plimmer had the best of the round, and also through the entire twenty-five rounds, but Murphy's gameness and generalship were remarkable and prevented his defeat. The referee declared the match a draw and his decision received general approbation. Tomorrow night Jack Everhart, the local favorite, will give Stanton Abbott a fight for a purse of $1,500. A six-round bout between a Griffin and Mickey Dunn will precede the contest. The arrival will close with the greatest fight that has taken place in the last two years. Bob Fitzsimmons and Dan Creedon are to defend the middleweight championship of the world.

WEDDED AFTER MANY YEARS.

Meantime Millie Had Married a Husband and Daniel Lost Two Wives. NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Thirty-five years ago Daniel C. Osman and Millie A. emts were neighbors in the Orange valley and became lovers. Young Osman was not Millie's only admirer. There were several, but the one who found most favor in the eyes of Millie's parents was a wealthy young man named Powers. Osman and Millie had plighted their troth secretly, but the opposition of the young man's parents to Osman because he was poor was so strong that they parted. Osman went west and settled in Chicago, where he became prosperous. He has been married twice since parting with his first love, Millie married Powers. Her husband died four years ago. Recently Osman, who had become a widower, learned that Mrs. Powers was a widow, and he hastened to renew her acquaintance. The result was a wedding on Tuesday. It took place at the residence of City Collector Simon H. Smith, 300 Eighth street, Jersey City. The bride is 54 and the groom 63, but they looked hale and hearty, and they seem destined to enjoy many years of happiness. Mr. Smith is Mrs. Powers' son-in-law. His son is married to another daughter of Mrs. Powers. Mr. Smith's first wife was Erminie A. Smith, who was a well known member of Sorosis. Mr. and Mrs. Osman went to Chicago and will live there.
