Anaconda Pinkerton Gives Himself Away Down the Road—Helena Meetings Held in Many Places.

Special to The Independent.

Kallspeil, Oct. 30.—Hon. Thos. H. Carter drew a large and enthusiastic crowd at the Main street hall to-night and delivered one of the best and ablest speeches of the campaign. The hall was filled, and many were standing up. Bonfires burned in the street and the music of a brass band filled the air. The ovation to the distinguished citizen of Helena was such that he may be proud of, and indicates that Helena's strength here is of no small proportions. Mr. Carter told of the ruin brought upon every section of the country where Haggin et al. had secured a hold, and warned the people to beware of the danger hovering over Montana, which can be averted by the voters next Tuesday. He talked for over two hours and the audience would have stayed another hour. The meeting to-night was a grand success and will have a telling effect on the result next Tuesday.

Among those present were a large number of ladies, and many prominent citizens occupied seats on the stage. Hon. H. G. Swaney presided and introduced the speaker of the evening. Mr. Carter exploded the wind paper railroad into this county, by giving true facts concerning the future building of railroads by that company; its false and broken promises to our people, as well as the state, were shown in their true colors.

TIPPED HIS HAND.

A Sneaking Pinkerton Found Working East for Anaconda.

Special to The Independent. Miles City, Oct. 30.—About four days ago there appeared in Glendive a man whose actions caused him to be suspected of being a Pinkerton. He made a trip down the Yellowstone valley from Glendive and returned just in time to meet T. O'Leary and Pat Bolan, who held an Anaconda meeting at Glendive Monday evening. Tuesday in the office of the Yellowstone hotel he approached O'Leary and made himself known to him, at the time exhibiting to him some kind of a letter of identification, and he and O'Leary then went to the dining room of the hotel and ate dinner together. While at dinner this man very severely denounced the cattlemen and cowboys for their inclination to vote for Helena, and also suggested various means which he could employ to influence the vote of the railroad men in favor of Anaconda.

During the afternoon he was drinking quite freely and while playing a game of cards with a cowboy he was asked why he did not shave off his beard, which was evidently about three weeks growth. To this he replied that he needed it in his business, as he must do considerable traveling during the campaign and must be in a position to readily disguise himself in working the railroad and cowboy vote.

When the Anaconda party left the hotel for the westbound train he followed them and took the same train. Conductor Anderson, who had been notified of his actions, found him on the platform of one of the cars and asked him for his ticket. He did not at once produce it, but gave the conductor some excuse and after checking up the train conductor Anderson came back to him. Then he claimed he had given the conductor his fare. Mr. Anderson denied this and in support of his own veracity the Pinkerton offered to identify himself and he tried to bluff Conductor Anderson and refused to pay his fare or talk at all. Just east of Fallon station he was ejected from the train.

There is no doubt that he is one of Helena's men, brought here in the interest of Anaconda, to work the railroad vote, but since this break it is safe to say that neither O'Leary or Pat Bolan or any Pinkerton agent can do Anaconda any good in this region.

REASONS OF WOMEN.

Plenty of Them, and They Are Well Paid by Basin Ladies.

Special to The Independent.

Basin, Oct. 30.—At a meeting of the Ladies' Helena-for-the-Capital club this afternoon, the following resolutions were adopted: "We do hereby resolve, That Helena is our first, last and only choice for the capital of Montana, for the following reasons: First, its central location; second, the substantial character of its institutions and buildings; third, its permanent homes, settled residents and population; fourth, its accessibility; fifth, for its present ability to provide ample accommodations for the legislative and state officers; sixth, because Anaconda can not rightfully lay claim to any of these advantages.

"Resolved, That we extend to the ladies of Helena, our entire confidence and support in their efforts to perpetuate Helena for the capital.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Ladies' Helena-for-the-Capital club, of Helena, and also a copy to The Independent for publication."

Mrs. D. A. McDonald is president of the Basin club, and Mrs. W. H. Justison secretary.

LABORING MEN HEAR THE REASONS.

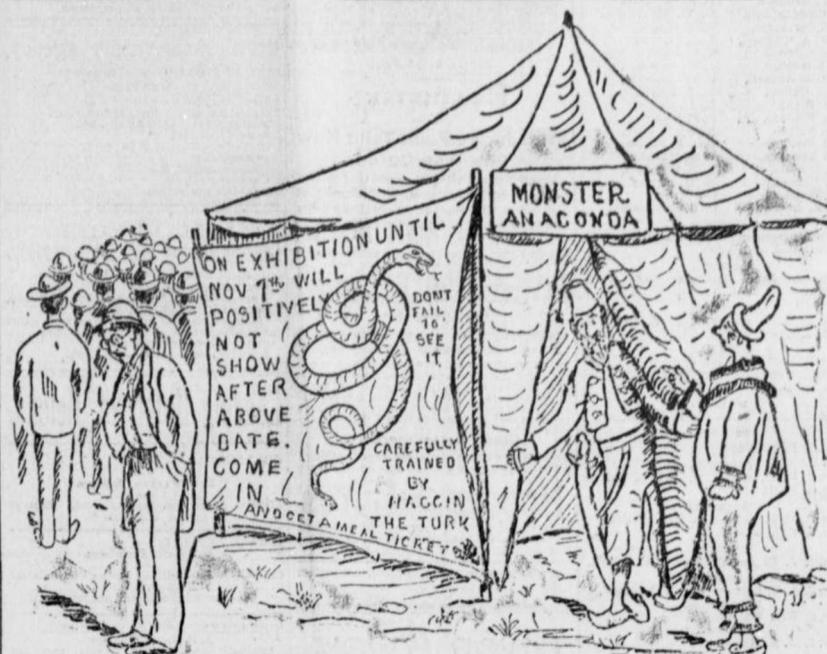

Special to The Independent.

Butte, Oct. 30.—A large and enthusiastic gathering of laboring men and their wives was addressed this evening at East Butte by Judge McConnell and C. B. Nolan on the capital question. The speakers showed why Butte people should vote for Helena. Many converts were made. The East Butte Helena Capital club has enrolled over 200 names. The Centerville Glee club was present at to-night's meeting and sang an original song praising Helena as the capital. The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Helena.

Durston—What's the matter with Daly over there; he's got thin?
Haggin—Oh, he says we're done up.
Durston—Well, I guess he is right.

A TURN FOR THE WORSE.

Last Bulletin Says the Czar's Condition Has Again Become Very Critical.

Symptoms of Congestion of the Left Lung Have Manifested Themselves.

Celebration of the Sixth Anniversary of His Escape From a Nihilist Plot—Family Present.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—It is announced here that the condition of the czar has sensibly changed for the worse. There is a marked increase in his coughing and spitting blood. The following official bulletin was issued at 10 o'clock this morning: "The general condition of the czar has become considerably worse. Last night the spitting of blood which began yesterday with severe coughing increased. Symptoms of congestion of the left lobe of the lung have manifested themselves. His majesty's condition is one of danger."

The sixth anniversary of the czar's escape from death in the railroad disaster near Borki was celebrated yesterday with great solemnity at Livadia and elsewhere throughout Russia. At Yalta services were conducted at the palace by the confessor of the emperor and were attended by the czar's members of the imperial family, the queen of Greece and guests of the imperial family. The banquet usually given on the evening of the anniversary was abandoned.

A bulletin from Livadia at 10 o'clock to-night, says that during the day the spitting of blood by the czar continued. "He was sometimes seized with fits of shivering. His temperature was 100 degrees Fahrenheit and pulse 90. Pains were weak. Respiration is difficult. He can take little nourishment and is becoming very weak. The oedema has considerably increased."

London, Oct. 31.—The Times' St. Petersburg correspondent says: "When to-day's bulletins from Livadia were published, people fell upon their knees and, with tears in their eyes, prayed for the czar's recovery. To-night's bulletin relieved the anxiety resulting from several unfounded rumors that his majesty was already dead. It is stated that inflammation of the lungs has weakened the action of the heart. A private telegram from Yalta says the doctors in attendance on his majesty held an unusually long consultation to-night, hence the issuing of the bulletin was later than usual. The emperor is conscious and able to converse with the doctors and his relatives."

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.—The extremely serious condition of the czar is shown in the following dispatch, received to-day by Prince Cantacuzene, the Russian ambassador: "The condition of the emperor is considerably worse since yesterday. The expectation of blood is increased by a strong cough. In the night there were symptoms of partial inflammation of the left lung. His condition is serious."

Yalta, Oct. 30.—The czar received holy communion yesterday. His condition is much worse to-day. All immediate relatives are here, including the queen of Greece. The court minister, Count Vorontzoff Dackhoff, the procurator of the holy synod, Father Poddonostzoff and Prince Dalgouroski, grand master of ceremonies, are also in attendance.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Japs Win Every Battle—Trying to Capture Port Arthur.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Minister Denby, in a cable to the state department from Peking to-day, says the Chinese forces have been defeated at Chien Lien Cheng and have retreated to the mountains. He reports that the Japanese have taken one of the Chinese forts at Port Arthur.

The scene of the first engagement is just across the river in Manchuria, and it marks the first real aggressive movement by the Japanese on Chinese soil. The Japanese are supposed to have formally entered upon the campaign with Moukden, the Manchurian capital, as their objective point. Unless they are fully prepared to make a winter campaign, something heretofore unknown in eastern warfare, they will be obliged to force the fighting, as only fifteen days remain before the cold weather comes. In the neighborhood of Port Arthur, where the second Japanese success is reported, the winter climate is not so severe, and operations may be maintained until a much later date.

Experts in Washington believe that Port Arthur cannot be reduced by the Japanese without the use of heavy siege artillery, and as far as reported the Japanese are not supplied with this. Inasmuch as the capture of Port Arthur would give the Japanese control of the Gulf of Pechili and cut off the Chinese capital from communication with the sea, it is thought the Japanese will make a determined effort to capture the fortress. The belief that they are prepared to do this, even if it involves a long siege and a winter campaign, is borne out by the fact that the agents of the Japanese government in this country have quietly bought up a vast store of goatskins and practically cornered the market. The skins are commonly used in China and Japan as a necessary part of a soldier's winter raiment.

London, Oct. 30.—A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Che Foo says a fleet of Japanese transports, protected by nineteen warships, has been landing troops on the main land of Kwang Lung, twenty guns, many rifles and quantities of ammunition and provisions.

Hiroshima, Oct. 30.—The Japanese forces, which have been pursuing the Chinese north of the Yalu river, captured a large number of guns, many rifles and quantities of ammunition and provisions.

DARING ROBBERY.

Perpetrated in the Middle of the Afternoon in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—A daring robbery was committed in the heart of the business center of the city this afternoon. The amount of plunder secured is not exactly known, but was given as $6,000 in watches and other jewelry. Soon after 2 o'clock, M. W. Brethauer, senior member of the firm of Brethauer & Co., wholesale jewelers, 71 Washington street, left the office, leaving his son in charge. The office of the firm is in room one, on the first floor of the building. It is located in the southwest corner, and in plain view of the occupants of the office building roundabout. Young Brethauer says he was bending over a show case full of watches in the rear of the room, when two men entered the door. One of them carried a revolver in his hand and the other was armed with a piece of lead pipe. The jeweler was commanded to throw up his hands, which he was slow in doing. The two men then ordered him into the vault, the door of which stood open.

Brethauer demurred, and one of the men, he says, caught him by the throat, threw him into the vault and pushed the door shut. The thieves then proceeded to ransack the show cases and scooped tickers into a gunny sack. The door of the safe stood open and the bandits emptied the cash box, obtaining a considerable sum of money. All this required only a few minutes and the men soon made their escape. The senior Brethauer returned about 3:40 and soon heard a pounding on the vault door, which he was hastily opened and the imprisoned man taken out, nearly exhausted. So far no trace of the thieves has been obtained.

Military Prisons Board.

Washington, Oct. 30.—An order was issued from the war department to-day dissolving the military prison board and appointing a new board. The new board is composed of Brig. Gen. McCook, Lieut. Col. H. C. Corbin, Lieut. Col. G. V. Henry of the Fifth cavalry, and Maj. G. B. Davis, record.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Washington, Oct. 30.—James P. Willett was appointed postmaster of Washington to-day.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—Prince Hohenlohe Laugenburg has been appointed governor of Alsace-Lorraine.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Henry C. Shaver was to-day appointed postmaster at Moscow, Idaho, vice R. H. Barlow.

New York, Oct. 30.—At a meeting of the directors of the Lake Shore railroad to-day D. W. Caldwell was elected president.

Williamsport, Pa., Oct. 30.—A wreck is reported on the branch of the Beech Creek railroad between this city and Phillipsburg. Four persons are said to have been killed.

San Francisco, Oct. 30.—E. G. Walte, secretary of state, died this morning at his home in Alameda, after a brief illness caused by worry over political matters. He was an independent candidate for re-election.

CALLED DOWN, GETS OUT

W. E. Hall Turns the Alice Company's Mines into an Anaconda Annex.

For Which He Is Taken to Task Sharply by the Owners of the Mines.

Whereupon He Hands in His Resignation—The Alice Men May Vote as They Please.

Special to The Independent.

Butte, Oct. 30.—Superintendent W. E. Hall of the Alice Mining company to-day wired his resignation to Walker Bros. of Salt Lake. The trouble arose over Mr. Hall's advocacy of Anaconda while the owners of the mine desired him to remain neutral.

Following is the letter from the owners of the Alice, which made it proper for Mr. Hall to resign. It is dated at the offices of the company in Salt Lake: W. A. Clark & Bro., Butte, Montana—Gentlemen: For some time past there has been considerable talk in and about Butte, so I am reliably informed, relative to the action of Supt. Hall, of the Alice company, regarding his position in the coming capital contest. To show you the attitude of the Alice company on this important question, I quote verbatim, preamble and resolution passed by its board of directors at the last monthly meeting, held Oct. 10, 1894, to-wit:

"Complaints having been received by the board of directors from different sources in Montana as to the action of Supt. Wm. E. Hall, taking an active part in the coming contest for the location of the state capital in that state. Considerable time was taken up by the board in hearing evidence regarding Supt. Hall taking part on the pending capital question between Anaconda and Helena. It was the sense of the meeting that he should be communicated with at once on this subject, and the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved: That the president be and is hereby instructed to communicate with Supt. Hall, to order him to cease at once taking part in the contest going on between Anaconda and Helena for the location of the capital. That it is incompatible for the Alice company to take sides in any manner, as the company's main offices are located without the state of Montana, the officers of the company being non-residents, as well as the great majority of the stockholders, and that the superintendent of the company has no warrant or right, directly or indirectly, to take part in this contest and use his influence with the men employed at the works of the company or otherwise. And that the president is also instructed to communicate the sense of this meeting to such duly appointed persons whose duty it is to know that the Alice company will remain neutral in the contest aforesaid, and that they have so instructed Supt. Hall that he must remain so.

That this matter may be placed before the people of Butte and vicinity in order to show the position taken by the Alice company, I would ask that you have the before mentioned resolution published verbatim in the Butte Miner and Inter-Mountain, as it is due to the people of Butte to know that the Alice company remains neutral on the question. The resolution well defines the action of the board of directors on this matter.

By having the resolution published as requested, you will greatly oblige. Yours truly, JOSEPH R. WALKER, President.

EMPIRE POLITICS.

The Condition of Affairs is Still Very Much Uncertain.

New York, Oct. 30.—The declaration of Wm. R. Grace to-day that the state democratic organization is supporting David B. Hill, and is not responsible for any Wheeler posters, is received with incredulity by many who still insist that the faction is in favor of Hill's defeat and rolling up as large a vote as possible for Wheeler. Wheeler's adherents to-day express much gratification at the news and characterize the Cooper Union meeting last night, and are confident the democratic reform ticket will make a good showing on election day. New York anti-Hill democrats, it is believed, will vote straight for Morton, taking the ground, as one of them remarked to-day, that a vote for Wheeler will be only half a vote against Hill, and that Wheeler votes are intended to aid Morton, anyway.

Hill men are as confident as ever, referring with special satisfaction to the personal fight their candidate is making, and to the enthusiasm with which he is being received by his supporters. Most of them, however, do not seek to conceal their disappointment or anger that his candidacy has not received open and active encouragement from the national administration. The republicans abate none of their claims, and insist that with the general tendency this year and the democratic defection from Hill, the latter will be snored under. There has been but little betting so far in the campaign, but reports of wagers at the stock exchange and elsewhere show odds on Morton not unfrequently at two to one.

Struggle for Recognition.

Omaha, Oct. 30.—Chairman Smythe, of the democratic state committee, to-day issued an address to the party declaring that the element known as the administration wing, which bolted the state convention, is using every effort to elect the republican state ticket. He calls upon all loyal democrats to repudiate the bolters. The bolters declare they are the straight democrats, and that they did not quit the party convention until it fused with the populists.

Sugar Comes Down.

Philadelphia, Oct. 30.—Sugar took another tumble in price to-day and surprised the jobbers, who had concluded it was already down to the bottom notch. It was regarded as a slap back by the refiners at the wholesale grocers, who had recently unloaded large quantities of sugar on the market. Said a well known jobber: "The chances are that sugar will go still lower, notwithstanding the refiners are virtually closed."

California Race.

San Francisco, Oct. 30.—About six furlongs—Huenesa, Ohlyesa, Huntsman, 1:22; about six furlongs for two-year-
