

MONTANA UNIVERSITY.

The Worthy Institution in the Valley Near Town.

Situated about four miles from Helena, in what is known as University Place, is an institution that Helena should be proud of...

The Montana University is at present under the charge of Prof. J. C. Templeton and Mrs. Cummings. The school is open to both sexes, and has at present about thirty regular boarding students besides many day students.

The building itself is a large five-story structure, heated by hot water. At present student lamps take the place of the long wanted gas. The dining room and kitchen are on the first floor, the chapel, recitation rooms and music rooms, on the second; girls' hall, third; boys' halls, fourth and fifth. The rooms are very pleasant and comfortable.

The time of the student is allotted out, by the school managers, as follows: Rise seven o'clock; breakfast, 7:30; from breakfast until nine, cleaning and arranging rooms; brief service in the chapel, nine; study, 9:15 to 11:10; dinner, 12:30; school work, two to four; supper, 6:30; study hours, seven to nine; conversation in halls, 9 to 9:30; taps, 10.

The students are very regular at meals, except, occasionally, a few are late at breakfast. The food is plain, but well cooked, and there is plenty of it.

Monday is the regular weekly holiday, instead of Saturday. The many advantages of this can readily be seen. A foot ball team has been organized here, and the game affords much exercise and pleasure, but still tennis is the game.

Sunday, Nov. 18, an Epworth League society was organized here. The members desire that no pupil shall leave the University until he is a thorough Christian.

Last Saturday evening, the Pullman Literary society was re-organized, with Mr. Bray, president; Miss Mollie Kellogg, secretary; Mr. Couch, treasurer; Mr. Hodley, sergeant at arms.

Many of the Helena people remember the pleasant evenings spent at the socials of this society. After the adjournment of the meeting all participated in a very enjoyable social.

Next Thursday evening Rev. Mr. Cooper will deliver a lecture at the University on "Oratory." Prof. Nunvar will furnish the music. A pleasant evening is guaranteed to all who come. Special street cars will run out to accommodate Helena people.

New students are arriving at the rate of two a week. The enrollment will probably reach the fifty limit before the Christmas holidays.

Four Big Successes. Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claims for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale.

Nov. 29, at 10:30 a. m. The following is the programme: Anthem, choir; invocation, Rev. M. A. Dehuff; reading proclamation, Rev. T. V. Moore; hymn 1,100, read by Rev. J. H. Shelton; prayer, Rev. C. B. Allen; Scripture, read by Rev. Thos. Cooper; hymn 1,098, read by Rev. P. W. Pool; collection for Associated Charities; sermon, Rev. J. M. Streator; hymn 1,099, read by Rev. J. M. Streator; benediction, Rev. J. M. Streator.

THE HANKS CASE.

Trial Begun on Another of the Indictments Against Him.

The trial of Will Hanks on another of the indictments against him in connection with the management of the Merchants' National bank, of Great Falls, began in the United States court yesterday, Judge Knowles presiding.

The selection of a jury began soon after court opened. Al Fisher, E. B. Newhall, J. J. Phelps, Henry Sieben and W. J. King were excused, having formed opinions about the case. Jacob Hirschberg was excused by the defense.

This leaves that side two more challenges. When the regular panel had been exhausted there were but eleven men in the jury box. A special venire for eight jurors was drawn, and the case adjourned until Friday morning.

The indictment under which the present prosecution is being conducted charges that Hanks, while president of the Merchants', wilfully misapplied and converted to the benefit of himself and other persons $25,227.33 of the money, funds and credits of the bank, by means of checks and notes, without the authority, knowledge or consent of the directors, knowing he had no funds to his credit and that he was insolvent, and that the bank had no security for the money.

There are twenty-two counts to the indictment, in each of which some specific amount is alleged to have been taken.

The discomfort of dust in a railway journey makes it to be dreaded, but if you travel via the Great Northern you save this annoyance. Its roadbed is rock ballast, and it has no sand deserts along its line. It is free from dust.

There are no sand deserts along the line of the Great Northern. It is capable of a continuous settlement from the great lakes to Puget sound.

MOSTLY FAKING.

All this Stuff About Threatened Uprisings by Utes.

Denver, Col., Nov. 28.—Dispatches from Durango and vicinity indicate that the Ute Indians have again become discontented and are threatening to make a raid into Utah and that settlers in that neighborhood are considerably alarmed.

Those who are acquainted with the Southern Utes do not believe they have any intention of committing depredations and think the reports of trouble exaggerated. At Durango there is located a company of national guard, which had done good service in acting as a check on Indians, but it is stated that they cannot be used on this occasion unless the president of the United States should first call upon them.

All state troops are under orders of the president, and their services could be used if required. Adjutant-General Tarnsey has as yet received no official notice of the alleged raid.

"If there is any truth in the rumor," said he this morning, "I believe it is merely this: The Indians know that by agreement with the United States government they are entitled to move upon the territory of Utah, and see no reason why they should not go. Consequently, if the report is true, it means merely that they have resolved to wait no longer and have simply gone. As far as the report that they have gone by permission of Agent Day, I think it is entirely false."

"The Best Plaster." Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's pain balm and bind it over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore, such an application on the chest, and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia.

There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by all druggists.

Killed a Lawyer. Chicago, Nov. 28.—Edward P. Hilliard, an attorney in the Rookery building, was shot and almost instantly killed this afternoon by Henry C. Hastings, a milk dealer.

The trouble leading up to the crime is of long standing. Hastings claiming that by sharp practices Hilliard had, during the past five years taken from him about $5,000 worth of property.

A Favorite in Kentucky. Mr. W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past twelve years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold."

There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by all druggists.
