

LAST BLAST.

From Pennoyer's Horn Before He Goes Out of Office. Portland, Ore., Dec. 26.—Gov. Pennoyer remembered President Cleveland Christmas day by sending him the following letter: "Christmas has again visited our stricken land with its proscribed industries and its idle throngs, willing but unable to work and unwillingly forced to beg or suffer. Your panacea—a change in the Sherman law and tariff—has been administered, but there is no change in the sad condition of our unfortunate country. After two years of ruinous delay and mismanagement, you have, thank Heaven, at last discovered the real trouble, although you have not proposed the proper remedy. As you now concede, the country needs more money, but it does not want the worthless stuff you proffer. It needs gold and silver money with which to pay debts and it does not want bank notes with which it cannot pay debts. Sixty years ago the democratic party had a president who defied the banks in the interest of the people. Has it now a president who defies the people in the interest of the banks? All the traditions of the party which elected you are for gold and silver money and against bank currency. Do you aspire to furnish an example of treason to the cause entrusted to your care which will be without any parallel, except one, in all the annals of American history? "Your party in both houses favors the restoration of silver as a standard money; the people, actually suffering from the existing prostration of business, favor it; and will you not stand with them in overturning the monetary policy of a British moneyed oligarchy, which is fast degenerating our fair country to the condition of a subjugated province and our hitherto free people to the condition of financial serfdom? "Always remembering the unemployed multitudes all over our broad land, I pray that God may give you light and strength to do right."

THE AMERICAN JEWS.

Third Annual Meeting of Their Historical Society. Washington, Dec. 26.—The third annual meeting of the American-Jewish Historical Society began here to-day. Hon. Oscar C. Straus, president, delivered the address of welcome. The society, he said, had enjoyed general and healthy growth and year by year papers read at annual meetings revealed new data, and the channels of investigation ran deeper into the history of the early settlement of the continent. The president spoke particularly of the immigration of Jews to America. They came as fugitives from Spain, in spite of the stringent law which existed until 1517 against such immigration, and which was only removed then by the payment of $1,000,000 by Jews in the American colony. The society has a membership of 185 active, three honorary and seven corresponding members. A number of papers were read to-day, including the following: "Jews in Surinam," by Prof. Richard Gottheil, of Columbia college, New York; "First Jewish Settlers in Albany," written by Judge S. W. Rasendale, of New York; "The Earliest Rabbis and Jewish Authors in America," by Dr. M. Kaysner, of Buda Pest, Austria, read by the secretary; "The American-Jewish Soldiers," by Hon. Simon Wolf, of Washington, Oscar Straus, of New York, was elected president for the ensuing year. A cup of Park's Tea at night moves the bowels in the morning without pain or discomfort. Chicago Western Society.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—The first regular meeting of the Chicago Western society was held at the Grand Pacific hotel to-day. About forty persons from west of the Mississippi were present, including several well known business women. Mrs. J. M. Jones, formerly of Boise City, Idaho, outlined the objects of the society, which are both social and business. Any person who has lived seven years in a western state is eligible to membership, whether a resident of Chicago or not, but only residents of this city can vote or hold office. The society proposes to furnish club rooms as headquarters for western people who visit Chicago. An election of officers was held and the following elected: Mrs. Alice Houghton, formerly of Spokane, Wash., president; J. M. Jones, vice president; P. M. Haney, formerly of San Francisco, secretary; J. M. Whitney, Oregon, C. M. Mackenzie, Montana, and R. M. Goodwell, Colorado, were also elected directors. It is proposed to make the club headquarters for every kind of information regarding the Transmississippi country.

BLOODY TRAGEDIES.

Christmas Day Furnishes Some Unusually Fatal Encounters. Moorhead, Ky., Dec. 26.—One of the bloodiest tragedies in the history of Rowan county occurred a mile from Moorhead last night. Jake Whitaker, a laborer, went home about 6 o'clock and found Henry Tyree and William Cole at his house. Cole and Tyree threatened to kill him if he did not leave. Whitaker at last started to leave the house when Cole made at him with a drawn knife. Tyree seized an ax and knocked Cole senseless and chopped Tyree several times with the ax, killing him. St. Joseph, Mo., Dec. 26.—Tuesday afternoon William Mentzel went into Blum Bros' saloon and borrowed a revolver, saying he wanted to "get a man." He was given a forty-four caliber. A few moments later he met a young man named Frank Tracy, and without a word drew the pistol and shot the latter through the bowels. Tracy died in five minutes. Mentzel was locked up. He claims that he did not intend to shoot Tracy, and says that it was an accident. Union, S. C., Dec. 26.—Kent Gregory and Jack Crawford, while on a drunk, got into an altercation with the chief of police and were both fatally shot.

Mysteriously Shot. Lexington, Ky., Dec. 26.—Dudley C. Logan, a member of the hardware firm of Logan & Higgins, a prominent ex-confederate, was mysteriously shot in the yard in the rear of his residence between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning. His family heard the shots and found him with a fatal wound in the back of his head. A pistol was found by his side with four chambers empty, but the wound seems impossible to be self-inflicted.
