PROCEEDINGS OF THE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of the Democratic Central Committee, Tuesday Aug. 15th the following apportionment of delegates of the County Convention was made:

Table with 2 columns: PRECINCTS and DELEGATES. Lists precincts like Diamond, Jimtown, Civetown, etc. and their corresponding number of delegates.

This apportionment is made on the basis of one representative to the Convention for each precinct heretofore established and one for every new precinct that has been applied for...

PROCEEDINGS OF THE REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of the Republican Central Committee of Meagher county, Montana, held at White Sulphur Springs on the 22d day of Aug. 1882, it was ordered that a Republican convention be held at the Good Templars' hall...

Table with 2 columns: PRECINCTS and DELEGATES. Lists precincts like Diamond, Jimtown, Civetown, etc. and their corresponding number of delegates.

It is hoped and expected that the Republican voters of each precinct will assemble on Saturday Sept. 2, 1882, at the usual place of voting in established precincts...

H. H. BARNES, Chairman County Central Committee.

Read estray column for advertisements, new this week.

The fall round-up on the Musselshell commenced Monday last.

Dunham & Maloney received another shipment of goods this week.

B. W. Badger has the lumber for his new residence now on the ground.

J. O. Hussey returned from Benton this week. He started for Geysersland yesterday.

There was a large congregation of stock owners and cow boys in town during the past week.

Frank Lowry had the ball cut from his hip and is improving rapidly. It struck the thigh bone and glanced around on the outside and was taken out near the point of the hip.

Town lots with 35 feet front are selling for $100 each, at Centreville.

Centreville is no doubt the coming metropolis of the Missouri valley.

Meagher county will in all probability instruct in favor of returning Maginnis.

Major Comegys, Paymaster, returned from Fort Maginnis, Monday last.

Miles City and Billings are made up largely of people of the Black Hills.

J. M. Tubbs pulled in from Benton Tuesday, loaded with merchandise.

The grain fields and gardens of this valley cannot be excelled in Montana.

Real estate on the Missouri valley has doubled in value within the past 18 months.

A large two story hotel is being erected at Hunter's Springs, on the Yellowstone.

The Mayn residence is now ready for the plasterer. It makes a nice appearance.

Mrs. David Hoover, of Centreville, is having a few weeks' rest at the health resort.

The timbers for the support of the roof on the new court house are being set in position.

James Manklin, of Beaverhead, is coming to Meagher county in search of a new horse ranch.

Dunham & Maloney keep choice, fresh fruits whenever they are to be had in the Helena market.

Archie McIntosh came in from Fort Benton this week, looking as hale and hearty as ever.

Democratic primaries are to be held Saturday. Every precinct should elect delegates and alternates.

Nice cucumbers graced our table a week since. They were grown in the HUSBANDMAN experimental garden.

Mrs. R. A. Collins will spend a few months with Mrs. George Lyons, of the Musselshell, during the round-up.

A gentleman from the Yellowstone says that there are a great number of tourists visiting the National Park this season.

Meagher county is entitled to nine representatives in the Territorial Republican convention, to be held at Butte, Sept. 13th.

The River Press intimates that one of the gallants from the health resort, white visiting at Benton, fell in love with the Josephine.

The Springs merchants are convinced that our freights to and from Benton next season will pass over the new road via Nelhart.

The road men reached the Belt Park yesterday, and soon wagon communication will be established between the county seat and Nelhart.

The people of Meagher county are beginning to regard the River Press and a certain Sun River correspondent as fit subjects for the insane asylum.

Woodson & Bridger sent a force of men to their Sixteen Mile creek ranch this week to make hay. They will probably winter part of their sheep there.

The Castle Mountains, owing to their wonderful castles, caverns, stupendous cliffs and deep defiles, are soon to become the favorite resort of sight-seers.

Major Maginnis has many warm Republican, as well as Democratic friends in Meagher county, and, in fact, we might say throughout eastern Montana.

L. M. Rosenkrans, money order clerk of the Helena post office, in company with his wife, is enjoying a few weeks hunting, fishing and berrying at the Springs.

Why wander off to the National Park in search of natural wonders when there is within a dozen miles of the Springs a region yet unexplored that abounds with the wildest scenery Montana affords?

The people of the Missouri valley are now beginning to take some interest in the town site business. They are wanting to build a town on the Northern Pacific somewhere between Centreville and Tou-tia's ferry.

Some of the citizens of Meagher county who squirm and grumble at a 16 mill tax ought to reside in Deadwood, Dakota, awhile, where the tax is 50 mills. They would then probably learn to appreciate a good thing.

E. C. Hill comes to the front with a dairy cow that supplies his table with cream, besides producing 14 pounds of butter per week. She is the boss cow of Montana so far as heard from. If any of our friends can beat her record let them speak up.

Attention is called to A. P. Curtin's advertisement in another column. Mr. Curtin has secured the large room on the corner of Main, Jackson and Broadway and connected same with his former salesroom by an archway between, where he now has on display one of the most complete lines of furniture, carpets, wall paper and home furnishing goods of every description, ever shown in the Territory. Parties in need of anything in his line will find it to their interest to examine his stock and compare prices.

George Cline commenced harvesting his wheat this week.

Beets from the HUSBANDMAN experimental garden, this week, measured five inches in diameter.

The streets between Coulson and Billings are graded for street cars. Water works are also being constructed.

Phil Miller, whose farm is located within a mile and a half of the springs harvested his wheat crop last week. His field yielded well and the grain is first-class.

L. D. Burr has a magnificent wheat field that is just ripening. From a bunch received at this office he would pronounce it Red Toas. The heads were well filled and the grain good size.

Reports from the huckleberry fields are rather unfavorable. There is said to be none at Thompson gulch, nor at Cement gulch, and in the immense fields on Flat Iron mountain, near the Springs, they are reported quite scattering.

Messrs. Wilson & Fowler will have a lot of their choice horses—which they are offering for sale very reasonably—at the Big Red Barn, Saturday the 26th inst. Horse men and farmers who wish to purchase should not fail to be on hand to take a look at and price the same.

Thomas Johnson took the first load of freight over the new road to Nelhart this week. He found the road completed beyond the range. The grade up the mountains, he pronounces, first-class. He says that with a good span of horses he can pull 2,000 pounds over it with ease.

Irene Spencer, who was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Foster, last week, had the misfortune to get shot by the accidental discharge of a revolver. She was not in range of the pistol, but the ball struck the floor or wall and glanced, striking her in the thigh. The wound, however, is not serious. It was indeed a very fortunate escape.

The recent order changing the time of holding court in this district was yesterday rescinded, and the date will remain as before. The cause of this was that the Board of Commissioners of Meagher county at their recent session did not empanel a jury, supposing that it would not be required until after their next session.—Independent.

Another large list-statement of goods just received by R. S. Price, among which are to be found the following: Alden apples, dried apricots, dried whortleberries, dried blackberries, market baskets, clothes baskets, dried corn, figs, Cox's gelatine, hallibut, glass jars, lemon sugar, spices, English walnuts, Texas pecans, oat meal, keg pickles, fresh layer raisins, soaps of all kinds, split pens, powder and shot, gunwads and primers, brown sugar, extra C sugar, seamless sacks, new crop teas, pure orchard vinegar, wagon sheets, tents and nose bags. In fact, his stock is now complete.

Two or three carpenters, men who are master mechanics, wanted at once. Good workmen only need apply. S. B. SCOTT.

SCHOOL ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given that the regular annual school election will be held at the school house, at White Sulphur Springs, Saturday August 26th.

By order of the Board of Trustees, R. N. SUTHERLIN, Clerk.

B. R. Sherman offers eight mules with new harness and wagons for sale, cheap.

The purchaser of the Howel band of sheep having failed to come up with the cash, they are again on the market. There are about 2,200 ewes, 550 lambs, about 900 yearlings, all in fine condition and clear of scab. Notwithstanding the loss of wool by scab last winter, the flock averaged 5 1/2 pounds of wool per head. For particulars address or call on Solon McCoy, White Sulphur Springs, M. T.

NOTICE.

This is to notify all persons who use water from the Confederate gulch, that I have a duly recorded right to 300 inches of the original Confederate gulch water. That said water has been used to my detriment by parties having no legal right to the same. I therefore give notice that in the event of being farther deprived of my legal share of said water I shall proceed by law against the party or parties who trespass upon my legal rights to the use of the said water. JOHN LINK.

We have now on hand and will continue to have during the remainder of the season, lumber of all kinds for sale. Our first-class lumber is unsurpassed. Will sell at prices that will justify all who want lumber to come to our mill first.
