

[Continued from 2d page.] after such treatment is completed, he shall collect the same, together with the costs and expenses of collection, by advertising and selling such sheep, or so many thereof as may be necessary, in the manner provided by law for the sale of personal property upon execution. Provided, that no person, company or corporation shall be required to dip a band of sheep from the first day of November until the first day of June of each year.

Sec. 5. The per diem of the Sheep Inspector shall be as follows: For inspecting, granting certificates and traveling permits, three dollars, together with ten cents per mile necessarily traveled in making such inspection.

Sec. 6. Any person, company or corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be liable in civil action for all damages sustained by any other person, company or corporation in consequence of such violation.

Sec. 7. On any action or proceedings, civil or criminal, arising under this chapter, all persons having an interest in sheep, concerning which such action or proceeding is had, shall be deemed the owners of such sheep, and owners shall be liable, severally and jointly, for violation of this chapter. Any herder, shepherd or other persons in charge of sheep, who shall willfully refuse to give an in-pector information as to the condition of sheep in his charge, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars. In criminal actions against corporations under this chapter, no arrests shall be necessary, but a summons, containing notice of the time and place of trial, together with a copy of the complaint filed before the justice of the peace or clerk of the court in which the action is commenced, shall be served in the manner and for the same time as in civil actions.

Sec. 8.—Courts of justice of the peace shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the judicial courts, of all misdemeanors defined in this chapter, and of all criminal proceedings for such misdemeanor. The provisions of this chapter, requiring the inspectors of sheep to prosecute for violations of its provisions, shall not be so construed as to prevent such prosecutions from being commenced and prosecuted by other persons, as other criminal actions are commenced and prosecuted.

Sec. 9. All fines and penalties arising from the provisions of this chapter shall one-half go to the general school fund of the county in which the action is brought, and the other half go to the county fund.

Sec. 10. On and after the passage of this act, Article VII of the Fifth Division of the General Law, act of February 11th, 1876, excepting section 18, shall be and is hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. The provisions of this bill shall take effect on and after its passage. Provided, that no person or corporation shall be required to dip a band of sheep as required by section 4, prior to August 1st, 1883.
