NASHVILLE, July 2.—W. H. Vanderbilt has added $100,000 to the endowment fund of the Vanderbilt University, in this city, making a total endowment of $700,000. The annual income of this last donation will be applied to the support of a technical school in connection with the school of mining and civil engineering.

New York, July 2.—Shortly before six this evening a violent storm broke over the city, sweeping through the streets with such strength that walking became almost impossible, and white clouds of dust filled the air.

MILWAUKEE, July 2.—A severe storm swept across Ozaukee county at six o'clock this morning, demolishing buildings at Necehah, Fondulac, Belgium, Fredonia, Oakfield, Lamertine, Princeton, Port Washington, Dartford, Ryson, New Cassett, Mayville, Brownsville, Kewaskum, and a dozen other towns. In Belgium and Fredonia at one time over 200 buildings were blown flat. At Oakfield, nine miles south of Fondulac, hardly a chimney is left standing, and King & Erwin's barn and press were totally demolished; the loss in the whole village is estimated at $15,000. The storm was about 2 1/2 miles wide. At Port Washington three men, named Hollander, Soule, and French, were drowned. The schooner Ganges, off Port Washington, lost all her topmasts and several other vessels were seriously damaged. At Necehah a $130,000 bridge over the Wisconsin river was damaged to the extent of $50,000.

PORT JARVIS, N. Y., July 2.—At 4 o'clock today the thermometer registered nearly 100 degrees in the shade, and at half past four a heavy wind and rain storm struck the village from the west, doing much damage to trees, fences, and small buildings. At Hancock the Erie company's freight house was totally demolished, the Catholic church blown flat to the ground and many other houses damaged. The telegraph poles are down.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., July 2.—A terrific storm of wind and rain visited this section this afternoon. Many large trees were uprooted, and houses unroofed and blown down. The Catholic church and other large buildings are very badly damaged and there is wide-spread waste and destruction generally.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 2.—The Conyngham and Baldmore mines are now flooded with water two hundred feet deep. In the former the embankment supporting the main track of the Delaware & Hudson coal road caved in. A house is in imminent danger. When the flow of water is checked, it will take six weeks to pump the water from the mines.

NEW HAVEN, July 2.—Daggett, the owner of the horse Boston, who raced his animal against Catamaran from New York to Stony Creek, a distance of ninety miles, has been arrested, charged with cruelty to animals.

JERSEY CITY, July 2.—John Hallard, ex-President and chief wrecker of the Mechanics and Laborers' Bank, was sentenced to eighteen months in the State's prison. He will be prisoned immediately.

H. W. GARDINER, Hopley's, June 27, 1883.

Estrayed. From our ranch on the Missouri valley five mares and one colt. Two of them are bays with white in face; one bay-roan and one black with yearling colt. Mares all branded "N. S." on left shoulder and a square on left hip. Also six other mares estrayed this spring, with the same brands. A liberal reward will be given for any information leading to their recovery, or for their return.

Address, MARKS & PATTERSON, CANTON M. T.

Estrayed. Two bay fillies three years old—white feet, and white stripes in face. One of them has short ears, branded on left shoulder with a half circle, and line above it. They also have other brands on left hip. The mares probably have colts. Information leading to their recovery, will be liberally rewarded.

R. F. CARTER, White Sulphur Springs.

ESTRAYED OR STOLEN. $50 Reward.

From Seligman, Bailey & Kennett's ranch, near Fort Maginnis, ten head of horses, branded as follows: one bay, one gray, one buckskin, one black, one sorrel with white in face, and some white feet, and some white about the tail, one yellow and white pinto with white mane and tail, he is branded on left shoulder, a d left jaw, and the same brand is on some of the others. Brands were distinct when purchased. In the band from which they were taken were the brands S, J, X combined, something like a T and an N, and it is probable some are of these brands.

LEN LEWIS, Fort Logan, Montana.

$150 Reward.

The above reward will be given for the apprehension of the thief, and return of the following horses, stolen from my place thirty miles south of the Springs, last week. One bay horse 8 years old, shot in front, and about 15 1/2 hands high. One buckskin horse about 15 1/2 hands high, branded J on left shoulder and thigh. One bay mare heavy with foal, a little pigeon foot, 14 1/2 hands high, branded H R combined on left shoulder and thigh.
