GREENHOOD MARRIES GREAT FALLS GIRL

Special to The Daily Missoulian. Great Falls, Jan. 7.—The marriage of Miss Leah Wallenstein to Henry Greenwood of Missoula occurred last night at the home of the bride's parents in this city in the presence of a number of relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom.

The wedding was an extremely simple one, the ceremony being performed by Rabbi Abelson of Helena. The bride was attended by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Wallenstein. The Wallenstein home was very handsomely decorated for the occasion, and after the wedding the guests were entertained at a course dinner. The bride and groom left this morning for New York, where they will spend a month before going to Missoula to make their home.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Wallenstein, and she has lived in Great Falls since childhood. She is a very beautiful and highly accomplished young woman and has been one of the favorites in Great Falls society.

STOP DRINKING.

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then—break it.

But now it is gradually dawning on the world that pledges do not stop drunkenness. When a man takes a pledge voluntarily he expects to keep it. Every man expects to keep his word and every broken pledge costs the drunkard many a headache. But he cannot help it. His fight is long, he can, then succumb to the craving. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is diseased and he must have treatment that will cure his condition.

Orrine is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the drink habit or the money will be refunded. No other treatment for the liquor habit is sold under such a guarantee. Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1 a powder, perfectly tasteless and colorless, which can be given secretly in any food or drink. Orrine No. 2 is in pill form, for those who wish to be cured of the habit, and it should be taken by everyone who swears off. No matter which form of Orrine is used, the guarantee is the same. The price of Orrine is $1 per box, mailed in plain sealed wrapper upon receipt of price. Write for free booklet on "How to Cure Drunkenness" (mailed in plain sealed envelope) by the Orrine Co., Washington, D. C. Orrine is sold by the Missoula Drug Co.

A LAND CASE.

The local land office yesterday heard the case of the United States against Ana L. Duncan. The suit involves title to a piece of unsurveyed land in section 20, township 18 north of range 25 west, which the contestee claims on squatter's right for a homestead. The forestry officials are contesting the suit on the ground that the land is on a national forest.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following: Joseph Soucie, aged 38 years, and Anna Puckett, aged 27, both of Missoula. Baxter Malcolm Thompson, aged 36, and Marfan Frances Tapfield, aged 28, both of Missoula.

NEW STREET CAR LINE

Will pass right in front of these lots. Twenty full lots, with water right for irrigation, on South Third street west; fine soil, city water and electric lights adjoining; only $3,000 for all; easy payments. Remember, these lots have 40 feet frontage on Third street and are one mile nearer the city than East Missoula. A bargain.

INSTALLS DEPUTIES AT TAFT

SHERIFF GRAHAM PLACES NESBIT IN CHARGE WITH ORDERS TO ENFORCE LAWS.

Sheriff Graham, who has been in Taft for the past two days, where he installed Walter Nesbit as deputy sheriff, returned yesterday and reports a condition of peace and quiet reigning at the big railroad camp.

While in Taft the new county officer issued a proclamation to all these counties in the administration of the town that no violations of the law would be tolerated and that the deputy sheriff had instructions to arrest every offender. He made it clear that saloons must be operated according to the strictest interpretation of the laws and code of the county and that wineries must be closed and kept closed.

During his stay in Taft Mr. Graham saw to it that every back door and side door to the saloons were permanently sealed and gave strict orders that all business must be transacted through the front entrance.

A complaint was lodged with the sheriff yesterday by several saloon operators who made the assertion that Taft was being made the scapgoat of Missoula county and that other places were being run "wide open." The complaints were based on information supplied by persons who claimed to have been in Missoula last Saturday and returned to Taft with the reports that there was no restraint in this place. The sheriff hastened to impress it upon the complainants that his administration began on Monday at noon and that the same laws governed Missoula as were being enforced in Taft.

THE FUTURE CITY.

Last night my spirit wandered into the coming years,

And I viewed a garden city 'long the stream Of the beautiful Missoula, that ever onward flows

Through the meadows and the canyons as she gleams. Oh! the thoroughfares and driveways and plazas and parks,

And the mansions and cottages 'long the hills Were overgrown with flowers, and they gave the fragrance out,

As I rode the trolley cars out in the hills. Last night my spirit wandered into the coming years;

Oh, what a change, me thought, had taken place; Nature's scenes had banished and gave place to those of art.

And no longer did they yield the hunter's chase, Miles and miles around me, as far as eye could scan,

I could hear the workman's hammer, shops and mills; And the trolley cars were running in directions—round about

Our city that is nestled in the hills. Last night my spirit wandered into the coming years,

And it seemed that night had come with stars aglow; The moon was softly casting a lustre of mellow down

As the trolley cars were going to and fro. The evening lights were burning in store and shop and home,

And my Daisy was all dressed in tucks and frills, Awaiting for my coming, so that I could take her out

On the trolley cars—a riding—in the hills. Last night my spirit wandered into the coming years,

And I thought the Sabbath dawned so bright and fair; And the bands were sweetly playing in the parks and plazas 'round,

With the melodies a-floating in the air. The church bells were a-chiming many beautiful hymns of old,

And the rich and well-to-do and the man that fills Could hear the sacred music calling them to come to church,

And they rode the trolley cars from the hills. —JULES CEAULLE.

HOWARD TOOLE RECOVERING.

A telegram was received last night by J. R. Toole from Lawrenceville, the Princeton preparatory school, regarding the condition of his son Howard, who is a student there and was reported seriously ill a few days ago. A few days ago a telegram was sent to Mr. Toole saying that his son was seriously ill with scarlet fever and that diphtheria was imminent. Mrs. Toole left at once for the east and there had been no further word until yesterday when a telegram came saying that the boy was sick only with the scarlet fever and that the danger was comparatively slight. This news will be welcomed here as the boy has many friends in the city.

ELECTIONS RESULT CONFIRMED

CITY COUNCIL CANVASSES VOTE CAST LAST TUESDAY—BUSINESS TRANSACTED.

Last evening the city council took the steps that made the popular expression of last Tuesday's special election a matter of record and legalized the granting of a street car franchise and the extension of the lighting franchise to the W. A. Clark interests. When the council canvassed the returns last evening it was found that the official figures accorded almost exactly with those printed in The Missoulian of Wednesday morning. The official totals, as announced last night, were: For the street railway franchise, 586; against, 29; for the franchise extension, 539; against, 57. These figures decrease the number of votes cast against both propositions.

Ordinances Are Read.

After canvassing the vote the council listened to the reading of the two franchise ordinances, which, under instruction by the property owners in Missoula, the officials are bound to pass. Both were referred to the ordinance committee and it is probable that both will become laws at the next session of the aldermen.

A Remarkable Measure.

A most remarkable measure was presented to the city fathers last evening. It bore the unassuming title of "An Ordinance Providing for the Regulation of the Construction of Sidewalks" or some such phrase, but in reality it was a Bill of Rights, a Magna Charta in disguise. The ordinance provided for the building of sidewalks that should resemble Caesar's wife in so far as suspicion might be concerned and defined the rights of the man building the walk in exhaustive detail. Not only did this jewel of an ordinance provide for every conceivable question that might come up in the construction of a sidewalk but it also took a kindly interest in the fate of those who would use it after it had been dedicated to public use. A section made it a punishable offense to throw "banana or other fruit peelings" on any walk within the city limits and another provided that nobody should be allowed to tramp across any walk before the concrete had hardened. This last clause is expected to have far-reaching effects, as the ordinance expressly stipulates that nothing but cement walks may be laid. About the only thing connected with the building of a sidewalk that is not regulated by the new ordinance is the color of the hair of the man who superintends the job. The ordinance was referred to committee.

For New Bridge.

As a result of action taken last evening by the council there may be built across the Rattlesnake at Cedar street a bridge that will defy the little mountain stream, no matter how "rampant" it may become. The city engineer was instructed to prepare an estimate of the cost of a "good" bridge. The council also decided that the temporary bridge at Vine street for which a petition has been before the council for several months, should not be built. It is understood that the proposed street car line will enter the city over the Cedar street bridge and Mayor Keith and City Engineer Mayo were instructed to confer with Mr. Clark's representative in regard to its construction.

PENITENTIARY SENTENCE FOR BURGLAR HARTLEY

Howard ("Kid") Hartley, a young man who was recently arrested on a charge of burglary, was arraigned in the district court yesterday morning and pleaded guilty to the charge. At his own request, the prisoner was immediately sentenced.

Hartley broke into the Missoula Drug company's store last Sunday morning and stole three cases of malt extract, which he disposed of among his friends. He made the assertion yesterday that he placed some of the goods in the keeping of Ben Johnson, a colored resident of West Front street.

Hartley was given a term of 18 months to serve in Deer Lodge and will be taken to that place today.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

Special to The Daily Missoulian. Helena, Jan. 7.—The anti-saloon league of Montana is in session in Helena today. The first session was held this morning at the Presbyterian church and conferences were held at intervals during the day in the church rooms. The purpose of the meetings is to discuss legislation which the league will endeavor to have enacted into laws during the present legislative session.

Rev. Edward Laird Mills is president of the league, and Rev. W. T. Groom superintendent in Montana. The attendance at the meetings was not as large as anticipated.

STRIKE NEAR MULLAN.

Special to The Daily Missoulian. Wallace, Idaho, Jan. 7.—A strike, which is considered one of the best made in the Mullan district in many days, is reported by Frank Hutching of the Transcontinental mine. The strike was made yesterday morning on the first shot. At the panning test the ore uncovered showed 7 per cent lead and a trace of gold. Work is going on at the present time and the managements expects to put several additional miners to work this week. Mr. Hutching leaves for Butte tomorrow morning to meet the largest stockholders in the company. He will return in about a week.

FOUNDER OF CITY DIES.

San Diego, Jan. 7.—Alfonso E. Horton, founder of the present San Diego, and its oldest inhabitant, died today, aged 95 years, as a result of infirmities incident to old age.

THIS PRESCRIPTION FILLED OFTEN

LOCAL DRUGGISTS WERE KEPT BUSY ALL LAST WEEK.

That the readers of this paper appreciate advice when given in good faith is plainly demonstrated by the fact that one well-known local pharmacy supplied the ingredients for the "vegetable prescription" many times within the past two weeks. The announcement of this simple, harmless mixture has certainly accomplished much in reducing the great many cases of kidney complaint and rheumatism here, relieving pain and misery, especially among the older population, who are always suffering more or less with bladder and urinary troubles, backache and particularly rheumatism. Another well-known druggist asks us to continue the announcement of the prescription. It is doing so much real good here, he continues, that it would be a crime not to do so. It can not be repeated too often, and further states many cases of remarkable cures wrought.

The following is the prescription, of simple ingredients, making a harmless, inexpensive compound, which any person can prepare by shaking well in a bottle: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Any first-class drug store will sell this small amount of each ingredient, and the dose for adults is one teaspoonful to be taken after each meal and again at bedtime. There is enough here to last for one week, if taken according to directions. Good results will be apparent from the first few doses.

VETERAN MINING MAN CASHES IN HIS CHIPS

Special to The Daily Missoulian. Wallace, Idaho, Jan. 7.—One of the most picturesque characters in western mining history passed away at the Wallace hospital last night, when "Old Hugh" Barnett, veteran of California, Alaska, Nevada and Coeur d'Alene mining rushes, breathed his last.

"Old Hugh," who was nearly 80 years old when he died, located some of the richest claims in the Coeur d'Alenes and later sold them for a song. He made a fortune in Nevada in the early days and went broke through rash investments. It is estimated that property worth $100,000 has passed through the old prospector's hands.

Barnett was the hero of a thrilling attempt to rob a gambling house in Wallace several years ago. He was asleep in the gambling hall when two men covered the players and gamekeepers and raked into a sack over $8,000 taken from the tills of the poker, roulette and faro tables. Barnett was overlooked by the robbers. He awakened just as one of them started out of the door with the money, snatching the coin in one hand, he tore off the robber's mask with the other. The man who had the crowd covered turned and fled and the robber with whom Barnett grappled felled the old man to the floor with a blow from the butt of his revolver. Barnett's bravery led to the identification of the holdup men and later to their arrest. Both are now serving 20-year terms at the Idaho state penitentiary.

MINER GETS REWARD FOR YEARS OF WORK Wallace, Idaho, Jan. 7.—After 18 years of patient toil, J. Ward, a miner of Ward's peak, has at last been rewarded for his steady and honest labor. Saturday last Mr. Ward discovered on his property a vein which his friends believe will make him a millionaire. The ore uncovered is considered the richest ever found in the Ward's peak district. It assayed $300 to the ton and comes from a 11-foot ledge. Eighteen years ago Mr. Ward became convinced that there was a mine on the property he had located and he proceeded to work. Day after day he toiled without results and no encouragement from the stockholders. Day after day he drove that little tunnel alone. But Ward knew there was something on the claim and the patience at last won for him a fortune. A one-third interest in the property is owned by Ira Petty of Butte.

AMERICAN LOCOMOTIVE COMPANY WILL EXPAND

New York, Jan. 7.—Upward of $10,000,000 will be expended by the American Locomotive company in the construction of its new plant at Gary, Ind., plans for which are now in preparation, according to statements made here today by officials of the corporation. The plant, the officials say, will be one of the largest locomotive factories in the United States, with a probable output of 1,000 locomotives a year. It will also be the first locomotive plant to be erected west of Pittsburgh.
