SOCIETY

The past week was made unusually dull by the inclement weather, many social affairs and club meetings being postponed until fairer days. The meeting of the Woman's club, to have been held on Saturday, was postponed, although meetings by the domestic science and the Shakespeare departments were held at the homes of Mrs. George Briggs and Mrs. Theresa Bandmann on Monday. The domestic science department made its meeting a social session, which proved unusually enjoyable. The Shakespeare department discussed the fourth act of "Henry IV" and a number of current topics.

Numerous pleasant affairs are being planned for the coming week, always with the provisional "if" the weather makes it possible.

Surprise Parties.

The ladies of North Third street held two very enjoyable surprise parties during the past week. The first one occurred on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Orval Adams, where a number of her neighbors and friends met to surprise her and play whist. Twenty hands were played, and when the scores were counted Mrs. Byall's card numbered the most points and she was presented with a beautiful hand-painted china plate, while the consolation prize fell to the lot of Mrs. Grant. The ladies brought refreshments, and after these were served all returned to their homes much pleased with the success of their party. The following persons were present: Mesdames Adams, Boggs, Byall, Cosard, Danielson, Grant, Lewis, Maloney, Minnick, Mercer, McElhinney, Swanson, Truesdale, Misses Lewis and Wightman and Messrs. Swanson and McNulty.

The second party was held on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Byall. Mrs. Byall had planned a birthday party on Saturday evening, but the neighbors surprised her by taking possession of her home on Friday evening instead, bringing refreshments and games for the evening's enjoyment. Mrs. Adams scored the most points in playing whist and received first prize, while Mrs. Mercer was consoled with the booby. Those present on this occasion were: Mesdames Adams, Boggs, Byall, Grant, Minnick, Mercer, McElhinney, Robertson, Swanson, Misses Foley and Wightman and Mr. McNulty. After refreshments were served the remainder of the evening was devoted to music.

Enjoyable Dancing Party.

Thursday evening Ned Winstanley was host at a dancing party, a german, which proved to be one of the pleasantest events of the week. The grand march was led by Miss Stewart and Charles Swinborne in a most able manner, and was followed by one pretty figure after another, the handkerchief, needle triangle and ribbon figures being some of the most attractive. Dainty and unique favors in the form of balls, brooms and numerous other novelties were given. Delicious fruit punch was served throughout the evening, and a good floor and splendid music added to the success of the pleasant event. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Winstanley, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Spottwood and Mrs. E. L. Bonner distributed the favors. The invitation list included Misses Fay Foster, Robinson, Cordz, Effie Cordz, Margaret McCampbell, Eva Coffee, Nan Vivian, Carrie Wharton, Fay Wright, Lucy Whitaker, Nora Nicholls, Stewart, Phyllis Gagnon, Isma Idell and Messrs. Joe Farrell, Richards, Stone, Montgomery, Swinborne, Bishop, Horan, Ryan, Little, Clarence Forbis, Hugh Forbis, Greenwood, Stoddard, Dr. and Mrs. Spottwood and Mrs. E. L. Bonner.

Greenhood-Wallenstein.

The marriage of Miss Leah Wallenstein to Henry Greenhood of Missoula occurred Wednesday night at the home of the bride's parents in Great Falls in the presence of a number of relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom. The wedding was an extremely simple one, the ceremony being performed by Rabbi Abelson of Helena. The bride was attended by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Wallenstein. The Wallenstein home was very beautifully decorated for the occasion, and after the wedding the guests were entertained at a course dinner. The bride and groom Thursday for New York, where they will spend a month before returning to Missoula. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Wallenstein, and she has lived in Great Falls since childhood. She is a very beautiful and accomplished woman, and has been one of the favorites in Great Falls society.

Delightful "At Home."

One of the events of the week was the "At Home" given by Mrs. W. P. Mills at her home in South Missoula, on Monday evening, complimentary to the young ladies who are strangers in the city. The house was beautifully decorated throughout, the dining room being especially pretty. The table held a large centerpiece of mistletoe and Christmas bells, candles shaded with red and ribbons in the same brilliant hue were used in artistic profusion. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening, and each guest was presented with a bell-shaped calendar as a souvenir of the evening. Mrs. Mills was assisted by Mesdames Davis, J. P. Rowe, E. A. Winstanley, Tyler B. Thompson, Meda hands had been played several vocal and piano solos were enjoyed. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Lucy, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kohm, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Darbee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Curran, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Peppard, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Price, Mrs. L. B. Forbis and William Keating.

Handsomely Appointed Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Tylar B. Thompson were hosts at a dinner given at their pleasant home on East Front street on Tuesday evening. The handsomely appointed table was beautifully decorated with poinsettias and ferns, and held covers for 14. A delicious and tempting menu was served in a number of courses. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wilcox, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Mills, Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Rowe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Coffee, Mrs. Meda Mills, Judge Sloane and Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

Married People's Whist Club.

The Married People's Whist club was entertained Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rose at their home in South Missoula. Whist was enjoyed until late in the evening, when dainty refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brooks, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Elrod, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. W. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ingalls, Mrs. Agnes Lombard, Miss Josephine Hatheway and Thomas J. Hatheway, Sr.

At the Bonner Home.

Friday evening Mrs. E. L. Bonner gave a dancing party at her home on Gerald avenue, complimentary to the Theta Phi sorority. The beautiful dancing hall was artistically decorated with gold and green, the sorority colors, and a splendid floor, excellent music and exquisite gowns made the bewitching scene an enjoyable memory for days to come. A dainty supper was served late in the evening.

Surprise Party.

Mrs. Alex Peterson was surprised on Tuesday afternoon at her pretty home in South Missoula by the Sans Souci club, of which she is a member. Cards and music were enjoyable features of the afternoon, and at 5 o'clock luncheon was served. The members of the club present were Mesdames R. W. Craven, J. U. Williams, Asa Willard, T. A. Price, J. Stejer, Frank Thomas, S. R. Inch, Nat Little and R. R. Wilbur.

As-You-Like-It Club.

The As-You-Like-It club held an enjoyable meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Briggs on East Pine street. The afternoon was devoted to the discussion of current topics. Owing to the inclement weather the attendance was small, but the meeting proved unusually interesting and enjoyable.

Five O'Clock Tea.

Monday afternoon Mrs. H. T. Wilkinson entertained a few of her friends at her pleasant home on Gerald avenue. Needlework occupied the greater part of the afternoon, and at 5 o'clock tea was served. Those present to enjoy Mrs. Wilkinson's hospitality were Mesdames P. J. Gosden of Bonner, John Bonner, M. G. Rathbun and Ralph Adams.

Back From Helena.

Mrs. C. A. Derry has returned from Helena, where she accompanied Mr. Derry to be present at the opening of the legislature. Mrs. Derry attended the inaugural ball and witnessed the inauguration ceremonies at the capitol. Mr. Derry did not come home for Sunday on account of the storm.
