

RAILROADS ANNOUNCE OFFICIAL APPOINTMENTS

SUPERINTENDENT AND TRAIN- MASTERS CHOSEN FOR THIS DIVISION OF MILWAUKEE.

Local officials of the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound today received an order creating two new positions on the line in this state, a trainmaster on the Rocky Mountain division, to be filled by C. C. Dimock, and a trainmaster on the Musselshell division, to be filled by F. M. Melin. The official announcement of the extension of the Rocky Mountain division to include the Montana railroad from Lombard to Lewistown has also been received. The order transferring Superintendent Hugh Spencer of the Montana railroad to Miles City as superintendent of the Musselshell division and the extension of that division by the addition of the trackage between Miles City and Marmath, S. D., to it has also been received. The Transmissouri division of the road now reaches from Moberly to Marmath, S. D. All of these orders become effective Sunday, January 10.

Superintendent E. H. Barrett of the Rocky Mountain division will continue to maintain his office in Butte, for the time being. There is now in course of construction at Three Forks a three-story office building to be used by the superintendent and other division officers, but it will not be completed for some time. The office of the superintendent of the Montana railroad, which Mr. Spencer maintained in Helena, will be moved to Butte at once.

The New Boss.

Mr. Barrett, who, after Sunday, will be in charge of the road between Butte and Lewistown, has been railroaded for more than 20 years, and before that time was in the employ of a bridge and building concern in Des Moines, Iowa. Seven years ago the St. Paul people placed him in charge of construction on the Rochelle & Southern, a St. Paul feeder in Illinois. Construction on that line finished, Mr. Barrett was sent to South Dakota, and placed in charge of construction on the St. Paul between Chamberlain and Rapid City. After he had completed that line he went to Minneapolis as trainmaster for the St. Paul. When work was begun upon the Pacific coast extension of the St. Paul, Barrett was sent out on that job, and was in charge of construction from Marmath, S. D., to Harlowtown, supervised the rebuilding of the Montana railroad from there to Lombard, and was in charge of the construction of the Rocky Mountain division into Butte. He is now superintendent of one of the longest mountain divisions in America.

An Expert.

The extension of his territory to include the Montana railroad, it is understood, was made because of his expertness in railroaded in difficult places, and his ability as a builder of both grades and bridges. There still remains a great deal of work to be done on the Montana railroad and this will be under the direction of Mr. Barrett—Butte Inter Mountain.

MILWAUKEE TO BUILD MORE DAMS

ST. JOE RIVER TO BE USED TO GENERATE MOTIVE POWER FOR ELECTRIC TRAINS.

Seven large dams will be constructed in the St. Joe river during the next two years by the Milwaukee, which, when completed, will be used to generate electric power that will run its trains through the mountain country.

A company capitalized at $500,000 and known as the Idaho Water and Electric Power company has been organized for the purpose. Plans have been drawn and all estimates made for the dams and active work will be started, as soon as weather conditions will permit.

The electric trains will be put on as soon as the dams and power houses are completed, which will be in about two years. The dams will be built in the St. Joe, extending from above Hoyt's flat down river toward the town of St. Joe. Two of the dams will be on the Coeur d'Alene forest reserve. These will be about a mile and a half apart.

The total cost of building these dams is estimated at about $300,000 to $400,000. Each dam is figured to be capable of generating several thousand horsepower.—Wallace Times.

Telephones in divers' helmets have been found unsatisfactory, as the moisture from the wearers' breathing soon short circuits them.

RAILWAY OWNERSHIP IN DOUBT

NORTHWESTERN OFFICIALS REFUSE TO CONFIRM REPORT OF N. P. PURCHASE.

While Northwestern railway officials at Chicago refuse to be quoted on the reported deal whereby the Northwestern has secured a controlling voice in the Northern Pacific railway, it has been learned that the deal has been closed, and arrangements are making to operate the two roads as one system from Chicago to the sound.

Under the proposed arrangement, a train of solid Pullmans will be the crack train and it will be run via Helena. The North Coast limited will run via Butte, as at present, according to present plans. In addition to the through trains, there will be two locals, so that service over the Northern Pacific will be improved.

This is a dull month in passenger business, and it may be 30 or 60 days before the new schedule is made effective, and in the meantime the equipment under the new deal is being made ready.

There will probably be a number of changes in present depot arrangements wherever the Great Northern and Northern Pacific have been using a station jointly, where the last named owns the depot. It is said that notice was given the Great Northern recently that within 90 days it must find other quarters, as the new combination will require the whole of every station now jointly used by the two lines.

RAILROAD BREVITIES

The Rose Stahl theatrical company is billed to pass through Missoula for Helena on No. 4 this morning.

Operator T. Demmitt of Olive was in Missoula and returned with Mrs. Demmitt, who has been in the hospital for the past two weeks.

General Superintendent G. A. Goodell, who has been hibernating in Missoula during the spell of snowbound-ness, left on No. 6 this morning and will proceed at once to Livingston.

R. Hindlemann, who has been on a brief vacation, has returned to Austin, where he "bumped" Operator Thompson who, in turn, will "bump" Wilson of Birdseye. Operator Wilson goes on the extra list.

Tired and travel-stained from a long trip over the white prairies of Dakota and Minnesota and the snow-capped mountains of Montana, Walter Abrecht, stenographer to Chief Dispatcher Snowwater, arrived in Missoula on a delayed No. 3 yesterday afternoon.

Winston brothers' steam shovel was steamed up in the yards yesterday and started for Lothrop during the evening. It is supposed that the outfit reached its destination all right, though no official word was had after the train left DeSmet last night. The shovel will be used at the big gravel pit for riprapping purposes.
