CAUGHT ON THE RUN ABOUT TOWN

PEOPLE YOU KNOW AND SOME OF THE THINGS THEY SAY AND DO.

What with the allurements of January sales at the stores and the delightfully warm weather, Saturday was the busiest day THOUSANDS of this year in Missoula. The travel on the country roads is not yet smooth enough to permit the crowds to come to town in large numbers, but there were enough townspeople who turned out yesterday to give the occasion all the vim and ginger that was due; it was a day of crowded streets, crowded stores and crowded sidewalks. The sun got down to business early in the day and it was only the very earliest of the pedestrians on the sidewalks who had to struggle with their equilibrium on the glassy sidewalks; long before noon the ice had disappeared and it was comfortable walking. But those early hours were hard on the folks who tried to walk unless they got into the middle of the road and stayed there; the sidewalk was no place for a man who had not prehensile toes and adhesive heels. As soon as the sun got fairly squared away, there was a crowd on every walk and the stores began to fill up; the shoppers remained out in force all day and the evening business was uncommonly good; the week's advertising had done its work and there was a veritable stampede for the bargain counters, which included practically all of the counters in town. It was good to be out and see the throngs and it was better to be in a store and watch them come in.

There was a crowd of cutters and sleighs out on the streets all the afternoon and Chief of Police Smith had a hard time for a while with some of the sportive drivers who thought the crowded avenue was the proper place for speeding. Bue he called them down, one by one, and when he had spoken to them, they all understood what he meant. The chief's command of language is good and he knows how to use it effectively when occasion demands. In one instance he had to speak a second time to one of the offending drivers and that driver had to turn up the flaps of his cap, his ears burned so. There were one or two instances of narrow escapes from serious accident as a result of the recklessness of these crazy Johns. Then there was the peril of icicles. This was a serious menace in some parts of town; huge stalactites of ice, weighing tons in some cases, had formed on the sides of some of the larger buildings and the warm sun loosened their hold on cornice and gutter, till they came crashing to the street. Great care had to be exercised to see that these falling masses did not strike somebody, but the day passed without a bad accident of this sort. In some cases, sections of the sidewalk had to be fenced off during the afternoon, but there was no serious damage done by the falling ice anywhere, thanks to the precautions that were taken.

The appeal for increased membership in the chamber of commerce is bearing fruit and the week has seen many new names added to the roll. The organization is this season demonstrating its possibilities for good and its worth being appreciated. On this account, it is receiving more support than ever before and the membership should show even larger gains than it has during the past week. President Harrington is seeking to interest new people in the organization and is meeting with good success. The best way to boost for the city is to join the chamber of commerce and this fact is becoming appreciated.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon, in the office of Frank Woody, the Missoula Rod and Gun club will meet for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. The past season of the club has been successful and the coming year affords good opportunity for the club to do further work along its special lines. The new state game warden is certain of good support from the Missoula crowd, and he is well known here and is recognized as a thorough sportsman. It is possible that the club will take action in regard to helping in the movement to stock the streams of this part of the state this year.

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the B. R. T. are planning for a dance next Friday night which will eclipse all previous events in an annual ball line. The occasion will be the formal opening of the new Elite hall. The party is to be given next Friday night and by that time the new hall will be entirely finished and according to the agreement which the ladies made weeks ago with the proprietors of the hall, this event will be the formal dedication of the enlarged and improved resort. The ladies are planning elaborate decorations and are looking forward to a successful affair. In this expectation they are justified, as they are recognized as delightful hostesses and successful managers. That they will receive the splendid support which they desire, is certain.

Among the visitors in town yesterday was J. E. Rearden, who, with his family, has come down from Clavesholm, Alberta, to make his home in this part of the state. Mr. Rearden is a brother of H. S. Rearden, who is remembered here. J. E. Rearden acquired a fine piece of property in the Bitter Root and went up there last night to live; he has sold his Alberta property. "I may decide to come to Missoula to stay," said Mr. Rearden yesterday, "as Mrs. Rearden likes the city very much and would rather live in town. But I am very fond of the valley, which I saw once."

FRENCH CANADIANS TO ORGANIZE

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST LODGE IS TO BE INSTALLED IN MISSOULA TODAY.

This morning delegates of the St. John the Baptist society from all over the state will assemble in Missoula to inaugurate a class of local French-Canadians into the order and establish a lodge of the society here. The members of the order, which is as yet established only in Butte, Anaconda and Frenchtown, have begun a strenuous campaign for a larger membership and the first results of this effort will be the organizing of the lodge in Missoula. The members of the installation committee are expected on No. 15 this morning, and the Missoula people are planning a royal reception for them on their arrival. As soon as the visitors arrive they will proceed at once to the Odd Fellows' hall, where the initiation will take place. After the meeting the rest of the day will be spent in sight-seeing, and for the following five or six days the committee will be entertained in the city.

The members of the committee are: Dr. F. L. St. Jean, J. A. Lemire, Alfred Ganger, Arthur Fortier, Florent Thibedeau and L. P. Lavelle of Anaconda; William Marion, Louis Barrette and J. E. Loris of Frenchtown; Frank Boucher, William Page, Ross Lemire, P. Vadnais, J. F. Pell and Dr. LeGault of Butte. These men will be accompanied by such of the other members as are interested in the expansion of the order. After the local lodge has been granted its charter the committee, which is at present only temporary, will be taken toward organizing lodges in Great Falls, Deer Lodge, Helena and other places in the state.

Gaspard Deschamps, George Cyr, J. A. Violette, T. La Casse, F. Morin, Joseph Deschamps and several other of the prominent French-Canadians of the city have been hard at work to secure a large class for initiation today and Missoula seems destined to have one of the most prosperous lodges in the state.

THE SNOW ORDINANCE

There has been considerable talk during the past week as to just who is responsible for the cleaning and keeping clear of sidewalks as well as to just where the snow when shoveled off may be thrown. To put an end to all doubt on the question that part of the sidewalk ordinance which pertains to the keeping clean of the walks is reviewed below. Unless the thaw removes the cause of argument before today, the ordinance will be of interest.

It shall be the duty of the owner or tenant of any premises within the limits of the city of Missoula to keep the sidewalk in front of and adjoining premises clean and safe for pedestrians, and with all possible dispatch to remove snow, ice, slush and other impediments to safe and convenient foot travel, and to prevent continuance and accumulation of the same upon such sidewalks, and in no case in the business districts of the city shall the snow, ice, slush, mud or other such material removed from such sidewalks be dumped, placed or deposited in the adjoining streets or avenues within two feet of the curb line.

"Sidewalks must in all cases be freed from the night's accumulation of snow, ice, slush, mud or other like impediment before 8 o'clock of the following morning. When from the freezing of water, snow, ice or slush thereon, or by reason of such smoothness resulting from the wear of foot travel or from any cause whatsoever, sidewalks are rendered dangerous, unsafe or difficult to free passage of pedestrians, it shall be the duty of the aforesaid owners or tenants of premises in front of or adjoining such sidewalks to forthwith remedy said condition by sprinkling sand or ashes on said sidewalk or by other safe or efficient means, and in case of permanent smoothness or polish as aforesaid the owner shall remove the same in accordance with the directions of the street commissioner."

CONWELL IS VETERAN OF PLATFORM

ONE LECTURE ALONE, "ACRES OF DIAMONDS," HAS BEEN SPOKEN 2,600 TIMES.

Rev. Albert S. Smith, in his book on the work of Russell H. Conwell, who is to speak on "Acres of Diamonds" at the Union theater Tuesday evening, has the following praise for the celebrated lecturer:

"Russell H. Conwell, the lecturer, is the most sought after of any man on the lecture platform today. Of his 30 lectures, one 'Acres of Diamonds,' has been delivered 2,600 times in 29 years. His lecture engagements average 200 nights a year, and from his lecture fees he has contributed toward the education of poor students more than $50,000.

"Russell H. Conwell, the preacher, presides over the largest Protestant congregation in America. The net increase of his church during the 17 years of his pastorate has been 2,800 members.

"Russell H. Conwell, the author, has written 19 books, a number of which have had a sale exceeding 200,000 copies each. Some of his books, written 10 years ago, are coming again into circulation with all the call of new books.

"Russell H. Conwell, the philanthropist, is founder and president of a university of 4,000 students, which, in addition to a large day department, adapts itself to the needs of the working people, who are too busy and too poor to attend Harvard, Yale or Princeton, but who receive at Temple university, during their evenings, and in times of cessation from customary toil, inspiration and instruction by which thousands have been enabled to earn a better living, and hundreds to climb to positions of power and influence in the learned professions. He also has a large list of students supported by him in eastern colleges.

He is founder and promoter of the Samaritan hospital, healing 1,200 people a month. In this hospital the poor can have the advantage of the best medical skill, and receive the attention of trained nurses, without money and without price, at a Christian hospital, where the sick are healed for Jesus' sake.

"He is founder of an orphanage which cares for the little ones of the fireman or policeman who lays down his life to save his neighbor's life or property.

"Russell H. Conwell, the man, was born in a mountain cottage. He is a self-made man, with a great heart. He has accomplished marvelous results through prodigious toil, inspired by the noblest motives, has learned much by experience and is a man of like passion with ourselves.

"Conwell's is a life full of thrilling incidents.

"A lonely runaway boy picked up on the streets of Boston by a kind-hearted Sunday-school worker.

"Subsisting on oatmeal and milk at Wilbraham academy while struggling for an education.

"Left all night on a battlefield for dead.

"Returning to his burning home when the wounds received in the army broke out afresh as he fought the cruel flames that were destroying his library, furniture and wedding presents.

"Lying in a hospital in Paris, hearing the physicians say, 'You have only a few days to live.'

"Visiting 'Neurer My God, to Thee,' on a water-soaked vessel during a dreadful storm, when the captain said, 'We cannot survive an hour.'

"Undertaking large Christian enterprises with no money, but sustained by a heroic faith.

"Turning at last from long-cherished ambition to lay his life on the altar of sacrifice and advice.

"Praying all night in the temple when in extreme need of money to carry on building enterprises, when notes were on the verge of protest, and having his prayers answered in ways beyond human understanding.

"Waiting by the patient's side before heaven's open door until he hears the echo of rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God."

TILLMAN DETERMINED TO HAVE AN INQUIRY

Washington, Jan. 16.—Based upon a report which reached Senator Tillman today that the senate does not intend to accede to his request for an investigation of the charges made against him by President Roosevelt in connection with the Oregon land case, the senator announced today that, if necessary to obtain an inquiry, he would himself introduce a resolution providing for it. Thus far he has proceeded on the theory that the charges would be considered by the special committee appointed to investigate the secret service and the message of the president reflecting upon members of congress. It is said that members of the special committee will take the position that they are not charged with the responsibility of inquiring into the conduct of a senator.

CLOSES GAMBLING HOUSES.

Special to The Daily Missoulian.
Wallace, Jan. 16.—After having closed their doors the day before Sheriff-elect Moffatt took office, local gambling houses opened again tonight, but the games had been in progress only a few hours when Sheriff Moffatt interviewed all the proprietors and gave them just five minutes each to stop all games and clear the gambling paraphernalia from public places, or from where players would have access to them. Even money paying machines were put under the ban and the sheriff himself turned a number of them to the wall. "This means that there will be no gambling in Wallace while I hold office," stated Sheriff Moffatt. "I will arrest and prosecute to the fullest extent of the law all who violate my order."

TRUST LAW ANALYZED.

Washington, Jan. 16.—An elaborate analysis of the Sherman anti-trust law by Mr. Jenkins (Wis.) was the feature of today's session of the house of representatives. The pension appropriation bill technically was under consideration, but the time was given over to general debate. Other speakers were Mr. Nye (Minn.), who entertained the house with an address on law and law-making; Mr. Douglas (Ohio), who advocated autonomy for the Porto Ricans, and Mr. Burton (Del.), who made a plea for postal savings banks.

FILES DAMAGE SUIT.

Butte, Jan. 16.—Suit for damages aggregating $10,325, was filed in the United States court here today against the Winston Bros. firm of railroad contractors, who at present are driving the long tunnel on the Milwaukee road through the range on the Montana-Idaho line, by Daniel McBride, administrator of the estate of John McBride. The latter lost his life while at work in the tunnel, as the result, it is alleged, of defective fuse used by the firm in exploding dynamite charges.

ISSUES AN APPEAL FOR FUNDS

FEDERATION ASKS ORGANIZED LABOR FOR MONEY TO FIGHT CONTEMPT CASE.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Determined to press to final issue the appeals in the pending injunction proceedings against the American Federation of Labor, an appeal was today issued by the executive council of that organization to organized labor, its friends and sympathizers, for funds for that purpose. After declaring that "a most unusual and important epoch has occurred, in which extra funds are essential to carry on the fight," the appeal sets forth the recent decision of Judge Wright, and says an appeal has been taken in that case as well as in the original injunction growing out of boycotting the Buck Stove & Range company. It is declared that, should an adverse decision be reached in either or both of the appeals, it will be essential to make further appeals to the supreme court of the United States. It is added that "President Gompers and his colleagues are on trial for your rights co-equally with their own."

MR. TAFT WILL USE MODERN VEHICLE WHILE HE IS IN THE WHITE HOUSE.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The new president of the United States is to pin his faith on the automobile. This became known today, when the house committee on appropriations included in the urgency deficiency appropriation bill a bill of $30,000 for the maintenance of automobiles for the White House.

It was explained that Judge Taft has intimated that he would use automobiles during his occupancy of the White House, and in order that he might have the machines at the beginning of the administration, the item was included in this bill.

The entire amount carried in the bill is $1,025,000.

Of this amount $400,000 is for the suppression of the foot and mouth disease among cattle.

W. WAUGH LAUDER COMING.

This great pianist who has delighted Missoula audiences with his magnificent playing on two previous visits, will be heard in recitals to be given in the Christian church on Saturday and Monday evenings, January 23 and 25. There is probably no musician in America who can play more of the world's best music and play it well than can Dr. Lauder. On Sunday evening Dr. Lauder will give an address in the church on "The Songs of the Sanctuary of All Ages, Creeds and Tongues."

BILL WILL BE PASSED.

Los Angeles, Jan. 16.—Speaker Philip A. Stanton of the state assembly, said today:

"I do not think there is the slightest question that an anti-race-track gambling bill will be passed by the house by a large majority. As to what the senate will do that is another question and one which I am not in a position to speak with any degree of knowledge."
