THE WEATHER

The warm glow of the sunshine yesterday was suggestive of a season more nearly akin to spring than mid-winter. The observations for the day are as follows:

Table with weather data: Maximum 44, Minimum 30, At 6 a. m. Thermometer 35, Barometer 26.80, At 6 p. m. Thermometer 35, Barometer 26.80, Light northeast wind.

MEETS WITH ACCIDENT.

Miss Florence Thompson, who sprained her ankle last Friday night at the roller rink, is able to be out today for the first time since the accident. Miss Thompson, who is an expert skater, was doing some fancy turns on the roller skates when she slipped and fell, the sprained ankle being the result. She is employed in the office of Dr. E. W. Hines, who very much regrets the accident.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION

ADVICE AGAINST THE USE OF HARSH PURGATIVES AND PHYSICS.

A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver. This condition poisons the system with noxious gases and waste matter which naturally accumulates and which must be removed through the bowels before health can be restored.

Salts, ordinary pills and cathartics may be truly likened to dynamite. Through their harsh, irritating action, they cause a passage through the bowels, forcing pain and damage to the delicate intestinal structure which weakens the whole system, and at best only produces temporary relief.

CHARGE OF GAMBLING IS DENIED

WITNESSES CLAIM NO GAME OF CHANCE WAS IN PROGRESS

Louis May and Harry Gold, the former arrested on a charge of gambling and the latter for permitting gambling on the premises owned and operated by him, were arraigned before Judge Dyson yesterday for preliminary hearing. Testimony in the trial occupied all day and at 5 o'clock last night the judge took the cases under advisement. A decision will probably be rendered today.

These trials are the result of arrests made on the morning of January 15, when Sheriff Graham and his deputies raided the "Office Bar" saloon on West Front street.

Yesterday's hearing brought out testimony contradicting the charge of gambling, the men arrested making the claim that the money found on the playing table when the officers entered the place, being in payment of certain debts held by them against Harry Gold.

It is stated that Paul Gaye, one of the men arrested and held as a witness against May and Gold, was re-arrested at the conclusion of the hearing yesterday and charged with perjury. The claim is made by the prosecutors that Gaye, at the time of his arrests, made an affidavit that the men were gambling and that the "Office Bar" was used as a gambling house. Yesterday his testimony on the stand was in direct contradiction to the affidavit. His bonds were fixed at $500.

Charles Hall and Thomas Marlowe are acting for the defense, while County Attorney E. C. Mulroney is prosecuting.

Two men giving the names of John Doe and John Sullivan were brought to the county jail yesterday from Lathrop to serve a sentence of 10 days. The men were sent up by Justice Wessinger on the charge of drunkenness, vagrancy and being public nuisances.

DR. ELROD TELLS BOYS OF THE MOUNTAINS

At the regular meeting of the Boys' Literary society of the high school, which was held in the high school assembly room last night, Dr. M. J. Elrod of the state university delivered an entertaining lecture on "Some Features of Montana Mountains." In his talk Dr. Elrod showed what a valuable possession the state has in its mountains and brought out, in an interesting way, the vast resources of the mountain country, which will be available to settlement with the opening of the Flathead reservation.

MURDEROUS RANCHER WIELDS DEADLY GUN

Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 26.—A message from Sun Dance, Wyo., a town in the northeast corner of the state, says that M. Paxton, a ranchman, has been brought to jail there after attempting to kill his wife and little stepson and then attempting suicide. The boy was shot in the groin and will probably die. Mrs. Paxton was shot in the face, but the wound is not necessarily serious. Paxton shot himself in the head, but the wound is not fatal. Paxton was overpowered by Will Davis, another stepson, otherwise he probably would have succeeded in killing his wife and boy. Paxton is believed to be insane.

The tipping system is threatened. It has been discovered that it lowers the self respect of a barber to accept a tip. Some of the union officers want to abolish the practice on that account. The rank and file, however, would rather take chances on its self respect than have its income lowered. P. A. Holsler, international organizer of the union, favors the abolition of the tip. It adds, greatly, he says, to the number of self-shavers.

NOTES OF MISSOULA LIBRARY. DECEMBER'S CIRCULATION HIGHEST IN THE HISTORY OF THE INSTITUTION. Miss Kelllogg has in preparation a reading from Henry Van Dyke's new poetic drama "The House of Rimmon." The date of the reading, which will be given at the public library, will be announced in a few days. Next Friday will be "New Book Day" for the children, as 30 new juvenile books will then be ready for use. December was an unusual month at the library, for beside having the highest average daily circulation of any December in the history of the institution, the per cent of fiction given out was the lowest it has ever been. There is an encouraging tendency toward a better class of reading. The new books received during the fall have included some discussions of questions of the day in which all thinking people are interested. Such books as "The Elimination of the Tramp," by Kelly; "Sin and Society," by Ross; "Which College for the Boy?" by Cobbin; and "Religion and Medicine," by Worcester & McComb, have found many readers.

Reading List on Ibsen. In view of the interest in the life and works of Henrik Ibsen, which has recently been shown by the readers of Missoula, the following list of references has been prepared. All of the books and articles are to be found at the Missoula public library. Ibsen, Henrik, collected works, two volumes. Biography. Gosse, Edmund—Henrik Ibsen, 1908. Jaeger, Henrik—Henrik Ibsen, a critical biography, 1901. Criticism. Gosse, Edmund—Northern studies. Saintsbury, George—European literature. Warren and others—Studies in European literature. Magazine Articles. Estimate of Ibsen—Atlantic Monthly, volume 98, page 30. Genius of Ibsen—Living Age, volume 219, page 816. Henrik Ibsen—Outlook, volume 71, page 240. Ibsen today—Outlook, volume 89, page 414. Ibsen's women—Independent, volume 63, page 909. Plays of Ibsen—Independent, volume 64, page 821. Two Impersonations of "Peer Gynt"—Putnam's, volume 2, page 193. Work and Influence of Ibsen—Review of Reviews, volume 34, page 27. Works of Ibsen—Living Age, volume 261, page 707.

THREE MORE JURORS FOR CALHOUN TRIAL. San Francisco, Jan. 26.—Eight jurors had been temporarily passed to try Patrick Calhoun upon an indictment charging bribery, when today's session of the trial came to an end. "Three citizens were accepted today from among the 16 who faced the opening of rogating attorneys at the opening of the day and the progress made established a record as far as the case is concerned. With the acceptance of the third juror today the third panel of talesmen was exhausted, and Judge William P. Lawlor late in the afternoon undertook the preliminary examination of the 65 men comprising the fourth panel. Despite the unexpected progress made today actual completion of the jury that will hear the testimony in the trial of the president of the United Railroads is generally believed to be still a matter of weeks rather than days.

BURY MRS. HARDINGER TODAY. FUNERAL SERVICES WILL BE HELD AT BAPTIST CHURCH THIS AFTERNOON. The funeral of Mrs. Anna R. Hardinger of Orchard Homes will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The services will be held at the Baptist church, of which deceased was a member, and will be conducted by Rev. Henry Van Engelen, the pastor. The local lodge of the Odd Fellows will escort the remains from the family residence to the church and also to the cemetery. Mrs. Anna Rebecca Hardinger was born in Cumberland Valley, Bedford county, Pennsylvania, April 6, 1854. In 1880 she accompanied her husband to St. Paul, Minn., where they resided 22 years. Then in 1902 they moved to Missoula and located in the Orchard Homes. During their six years' residence here they made their home and its surroundings one of the most cozy and attractive in the community. Mrs. Hardinger was a quiet, unassuming woman whose every interest centered in her family and her home. She was kind hearted and thoughtful of the need of her neighbors and all about her learned to rely upon her as a friend in need. Thus during her residence in Orchard Homes she had won a very warm place in the hearts of all her neighbors. With her husband, she took a special interest in the religious work connected with the Orchard Homes chapel and as president of the Ladies' Aid society she labored with untiring zeal. Her leadership in this good work will be greatly missed. The news of her sudden taking away came as a great shock to her many friends, for she was suddenly taken ill with pneumonia on last Wednesday night and breathed her last on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Besides her husband she leaves a daughter, Grace, and a son, Zane L. Hardinger, who resides in the state of Washington, to mourn her departure.

WRATHY LEGISLATOR FIGHTS. STRIKES NEWSPAPER MAN WHO WROTE UNPLEASANT ARTICLE ABOUT HIM. Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 26.—The controversy over the proposed abolition of race-track gambling in the state was the occasion for the first personal encounter of the session, when Senator W. H. Savage of San Pedro this morning denounced from the floor of the senate E. A. Dickson, a Los Angeles newspaper man, and later struck him when they met in the postoffice in the rear of the senate chamber. On account of the age of the San Pedro senator, Dickson refrained from striking back and the incident ended. Senator Savage's complaint against Dickson was that he had written an article alleging him (Savage) with the race-track senators against the Walker-Otis bill. The hearing of the public morals committee on the race-track bills will be held Thursday night instead of Wednesday as previously scheduled. Just a mere half ounce skimmed on every pound of groceries a dealer puts out, means many pounds short weight in a day. We don't claim any modesty or wings for ourselves, but one thing we are particular about is to see that every single pound that goes out of our store is a pound, weighed up on our high grade computing scales. It's only selfishness on our part after all; we have discovered that our customers appreciate it, and it pays us in the long run.

We wish you would favor us with a trial order of anything in the grocery line.

If you'll step in here I'll give you a tonic in the way of cut prices that will do you more good than the whole Materia Medica combined. I've got to make more room for my spring goods. I want you to carry my present stock instead of me. And to make the burden light and agreeable, I've reduced the weight of the prices. Anything you buy now will be good for next fall and winter—but in stocking up now you save next season's prices. Not a bad stunt, eh? Yours truly, JOE, 223 Higgins Ave.
