LINE CONSTRUCTION
TO BE RUSHED

NORTHERN PACIFIC WILL HURRY
WORK BETWEEN MISSOULA
AND GARRISON.

Announcement was made yesterday from the Northern Pacific headquarters that all reconstruction work on the east end of the Rocky Mountain division would be rushed to completion and that a large force of men, in charge of additional mechanical devices, would be concentrated between Missoula and Garrison in order to accomplish this end. Frank Beckwith, who has been in charge of all the reconstruction on the Missoula-Garrison district for the past three years, will have charge of the forces east of Bearmouth, while J. C. Breedlove, who has been connected with the operations on the St. Regis-Paradise cut-off, will direct the work between Paradise and Bearmouth. The Northern Pacific will make strenuous efforts to finish the double track work now under way between Missoula and Garrison early this spring.

With the practical finishing of the main line around the Evaro mountain, it has been deemed advisable to add to the district covered by Mr. Breedlove, who will now extend his movements to Bearmouth. Between Missoula and Bearmouth, a distance of 40 miles, there is still some reconstruction work to be done, but this is well under way and will probably be completed and turned over to the operating department, before that to be done east of Bearmouth is finished. On Mr. Beckwith's territory there are still some large bridges to be erected and it is planned to rush the work on these structures in order to expedite the diversion of traffic over the new grade.

Between Missoula and Garrison there is yet 45 miles of double track to be finished, much of this amount being east of Bearmouth. It was for the purpose of arranging an equitable distribution of territory between Messrs. Beckwith and Breedlove that Chief Engineer W. L. Darling and the local engineering corps held council during the early days of the week.

Mr. Darling has been making a prolonged inspection of the districts on which the work of reconstructing the grade has been going on, and spent all day on Thursday at Park, when considerable changes are contemplated. What these changes consist of has not been made public, but they are supposed to concern the establishment of increased yard trackage and the erection of a regular station for Turah.

It is not expected that all eastbound traffic will be diverted over the new main line between Paradise and DeSmet until all the frost is out of the ground which the officials figure will be in about 60 days. This will give the "dummy" ample time to settle and be as solid as any portion of the old grade. The erection of water tanks is being pushed at Pontus and Sheep Creek and it is figured that these institutions will be ready for operation in about 40 days. The old depot building at St. Regis has been moved to the cutoff junction, one mile east, and it is expected that much of the old town will move over to the new station.

Private car No. 12, occupied by Chief Engineer W. L. Darling, was put on No. 5 last night for Spokane. It is semi-officially stated that the Northern Pacific contemplates considerable line changes on the Pasco division, and it is probable that Mr. Darling will go over that district and inspect the ground with a view to making recommendations for the necessary changes.

PROSPECTOR PERISHES OF COLD AND HUNGER
Buena Vista, Colo., Jan. 29.—W. B. McClure, aged 68, a pioneer prospector and miner of the Mount Princeton district, six miles east of here, was found frozen to death in his cabin near the top of Mount Princeton today. A ranchman living in the neighborhood, who had missed McClure for several days, went to investigate and found his dead body. Every scrap of food in the cabin had been eaten and indications are that McClure had become so weakened by starvation that he was unable to endure the extreme cold of the past week. The snow in the vicinity of Mount Princeton is 10 feet deep, and the ranchman who found McClure had great difficulty in reaching his cabin. Practically every trail leading to McClure's cabin had been obliterated.

TELLS OF FORGERIES TO COVER PECULATIONS
New York, Jan. 29.—Arthur Campbell, former cashier of the Borough Bank of Brooklyn, continued his testimony today in the trial of William Gow, formerly a director of the bank, who is charged with grand larceny. Campbell declared that he had informed Assistant District Attorney Elder that between July, 1906, and October, 1907, when the bank suspended, he had forged about 10 notes, which aggregated $55,000. Campbell stated that he had forged one note for $24,000 to take the place of several notes, and that he had destroyed evidences of his smaller forgeries by throwing them into a sewer.

DOMESTIC INFELICITY
CAUSES SUITS

FOUR ACTIONS FOR LEGAL SEPARATION ARE FILED IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

Four distinct and separate packages of domestic infelicity were unloaded at the court house yesterday, a quartet of divorce suits being filed with the clerk of the district court. In each and every case the action was based on alleged desertion, and two of the wives and two of the husbands involved are plaintiffs.

Vernick Smith asserts that she was married to Paul Smith in 1880 at Buffalo Lake, Canada, and that her husband deserted her some years ago. There are two children, Mary and Annie, aged 11 and 15 years respectively. Virginia Countryman says in her suit for divorce that she was married to William H. Countryman on December 11, 1906, at Billings, that William H. flew the matrimonial coop about a year ago. There are no children.

Frank R. Lane wants to be separated from Nettie Lane because she deserted him. The couple were married at Cullis, Idaho, on August 15, 1902. There are no children. Albert Allen desires separation from Kathryn Allen, to whom he was married at Hamilton in 1890, because she deserted him. There is one child, a 5-year-old girl, Alberta.

SUES FOR DAMAGES.
Special to The Daily Missoulian.
Butte, Jan. 29.—Because two rounds were gone from the ladder in the mainway of the Parrot mine, Percy Frowen fell to the bottom, crushed his ankle so severely that he was compelled to go to the hospital almost continuously for a year. Alleging that his fall was the fault of the Parrot company Frowen, through his guardian, Esther Hicks, demands $20,000 damages from the company in a suit filed this afternoon. The plaintiff is a boy, now 19 years of age, and was formerly a nipper in the Parrot mine.

WAGE WORDY BATTLE IN COURT
ATTORNEYS IN THE PATRICK CALHOUN CASE ENGAGE IN SPIRITED DEBATES.
San Francisco, Jan. 29.—After two days of fruitless effort, the attorneys engaged in the trial of Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railroads, charged with bribery, tonight terminated a stormy session with a record of having examined 50 witnesses without addition to the eight jurors temporarily accepted. Half a dozen times during the day discretion was cast to the winds and there ensued heated debates wherein the issue was lost to sight and each side endeavored to place before a prospective juror a number of questions involving issues to which Judge William P. Lawlor took exception.

ITALIANS DO HONOR TO DECEASED CONSUL
New York, Jan. 29.—A remarkable demonstration in tribute to the memory of Arthur S. Cheney, the American consul, and Mrs. Cheney, who were killed in the earthquake at Messina, was made by Italian societies of this city today. The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Cheney reached New York on the steamer Venezia, escorted by several thousand members of Italian societies, some of them in regalia, and to the slow funeral music by military bands the bodies of the consul and his wife were conveyed up Broadway before a great multitude. A notable feature of the procession was the fact that except for the police escort and the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Cheney it was composed exclusively of Italians.

CLAIM DRY FARMING IS MISLEADING NAME
Cheyenne, Wyo., Jan. 29.—Efforts will be made at the third annual convention of the so-called dry farming congress, which meets here February 23 to 25, to have the name of the organization changed. The claim is that "dry farming" is a misnomer and is misleading. It is contended that the method should be referred to as "scientific farming" or "arid land culture," because it is the scientific way of conserving moisture in the soil through following nature's laws in performing autumn plowing, harrowing, mulching, sowing, etc. The argument is that this method is not dry farming, but a system by which dry farming is avoided.
