STRENGTH IS SHOWN IN MARKET

SOURCE OF IMPROVEMENT IS TRACEABLE TO OPERATIONS TO COVER SHORT CONTRACTS.

New York, Feb. 8.—The source of the strength in the stock market today was traceable apparently to operations to cover short contracts put out last week. The movement was distinguished by a subsidence of the special advances in individual stocks. On the other hand, the general list came in for more active buying demand today. The prospect of action by the California legislature on the question of Japanese children in the public schools in opposition to the advice of the national executive was reported more likely than at the close of last week. The considerable strength of stocks on Saturday on account of this factor evidently was for the account of the professional bears and their demand to cover today did not meet any large liquidation from the same cause.

The market was lethargic for the most part and the price movement was affected during a few brief periods of activity. The neglect of the market is its most conspicuous feature at present. The fact of the absence from Wall street of some of the most conspicuous figures in the financial world plays a part in this. It is suspected also that some effect of the repression is due to the pending operations of Governor Hughes' commission which has now arrived at a consideration of the stock exchange after having traversed the field of the commercial exchanges.

Railroad traffic officials bear out the testimony of other authorities as to halting tendency of merchandise, the movement, according to their evidence, having fallen off considerably from the December level. The week's traffic statistics showed a notable decline in the grain movement. The formulation of the demands to be made by the anthracite miners in the convention of the United Mine Workers outlined the nature of the negotiations that must be gone through to arrive at an agreement for the coming April. The coalers shared in the general firmness of the market.

Total sale of bonds, par value, $5,942,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Grain and Provisions.
Chicago, Feb. 8.—A new high record mark for the season was established here today, when wheat for May delivery sold at $1.13 1/2 per bushel, surpassing by 3/4 cent the previous high point recorded on December 4. Realizing by leading holders caused a loss of nearly all the gain, however, the net advance at the close being only 1/4 cent compared with the final quotations of the previous session.
Trade in oats was dull, but the market was quite firm at times, owing to holding by some of the prominent holders of wheat. At the close prices were 1/4 to 1/2 cent higher, with May at 52 1/2 and July at 45 1/2.
Profit taking by local longs caused moderate weakness in provisions. The market closed steady with prices unchanged to 2 1/2 cent lower.

Metal Market.

SUNDAY EULOGISES CLARKSON BASEBALL MAGNATE SELLS STOCK

NOTED EVANGELIST TELLS OF CHARACTER OF THE GREAT BASEBALL PLAYER.

"So old John Clarkson is dead? Well, well, another old pal gone. But John is better off so, as his former condition was worse than death."

So spoke Evangelist "Billy" Sunday yesterday afternoon when his attention was called to the dispatch from Waltham, Mass., in Friday morning's Spokesman Review, telling of the death of the once great pitcher in a sanitarium. Clarkson was several years ago taken to the sanitarium, hopelessly insane.

"John was a mighty good fellow and a credit to baseball. He was one of your clean-cut, neat, smoothly trimmed chaps, a gentleman from training and instinct. A typical athlete, he never lost his own self-respect nor permitted anybody else to lose respect for him. He took such excellent care of himself that he was perhaps a really great pitcher longer than any other star twirler the game has ever known, and I do not exempt Cy Young and Kid Nichols from consideration, although they were identified with the game for a longer period. Young and Nichols were never the surpassingly great pitchers that Clarkson was."

"There has been only one other man like Clarkson, and that is Mathewson, and it is fair to compare these two as the greatest of their class, and much of the same sort of fellows, personally.

"While John was not a fellow to make many friends, still he was always a pleasant companion, and I found great pleasure in being with him. I think that Clarkson, more than any other one man, was my ideal when I broke into the game, for it made a profound impression on me that this fellow could associate with rough men on the field, day after day, and still be clean and manly.

"I was with him the night I was converted, and I shall never forget the kindly manner in which he spoke to me the next day, assuring me that if he could do anything to help me he would, and urging me to stick to it."—Spokesman-Review.

ABILITY OF GERMAN WRESTLER RIDICULED

New York, Feb. 8.—Tom O'Rourke, financial agent and matchmaker for Joe Rogers, the "American Apollo," who also claims to be a wrestler when he isn't posing for a photographer, is going to all kinds of extremes in an effort to make a dicker with Ernest Siegfried, the "German Oak." In an open letter he wants to know what Mr. Oak ever did to gain fame or notoriety, roasts the grapplers who were sacrificed at the garden last week, that Siegfried might make a showing on his first public appearance here and actually offers to give the "Oak" all the money if he can defeat Rogers. He says in part: "For goodness sake, what is Siegfried's champion? He has tried in almost every tournament that has been given in Paris and has never finished in third money even. He may look pretty to his German friends; he does look well in tights, but let him prove his ability as a wrestler. Rogers will wrestle Siegfried at his favorite style and will agree to make it all to the winner, showing that he is not looking for any loser's end, and he will bet him whatever amount he wants to risk at the prevailing odds on the night of the contest."

ECZEMA CURABLE? PROVEN!

Attorney at Moline, Ill., Convinced by Oil of Wintergreen Compound. There is nothing that will convince a lawyer except evidence. Now, here is some rather startling evidence of a simple home cure for eczema which convinced one lawyer. F. C. Entenken, attorney at Moline, Ill. He tells how oil of wintergreen compound, mixed with thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription, cured him in 30 days after 32 years of suffering.

"For 32 years," writes Attorney Entenken, "I was troubled with eczema, scabs all over my face, body and head. I could run a hair brush over my body and the floor would be covered with scales enough to fill a basket. I tried everything—salves, internal medicine, X-ray—all without result. "Just a month ago I was induced to try D. D. D. Prescription. The itch was relieved instantly; so I continued. It is just a month now and I am completely cured. I have not a particle of it, and the scales have dropped off."

BARNEY DREYFUSS RELEASES BASEBALL PLAYER. DELPHIA CLUB.

Philadelphia, Feb. 8.—Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, who has been interested in the Philadelphia club ever since Messrs. Rogers and Resch disposed of the club, no longer owns a share of stock in the Phillies. Mr. Dreyfuss has sold all of his stock to William Murray, manager of the club, and the latter became one of the largest shareholders in the Philadelphia club. By reason of his large interest in the club, Mr. Murray will be elected to the board of directors.

By selling his stock in the club Mr. Dreyfuss has silenced the talk directed against him of being interested in "syndicate ball." He now owns stock in only the Pittsburgh club.

Mr. Murray was not the only person who sought to purchase the stock of Mr. Dreyfuss. Two other Philadelphians, one of whom is a prominent politician, were extremely desirous of investing in the club's stock, and would have paid more for the stock than Mr. Dreyfuss received.

LUCAS WANTS FEEDER FOR BASEBALL LEAGUE

HART AND BARRY SIGN ARTICLES FOR FIGHT

New Orleans, La., Feb. 8.—Marvin Hart, the Kentucky heavyweight, who was champion of the world until his loss to Tommy Burns, has been matched for a fight at the West Side Athletic club in McDonoughville, on the night of February 22, with Jim Barry of Montana.

The Hart-Barry fight was scheduled for February 15 at Hot Springs. When the local club heard of the action of the governor of Arkansas in stopping all bouts, pending or contemplated, it was decided to hold the bout here.

WANTS TO WRESTLE.

Special to The Daily Missoulian. Wallace, Feb. 8.—Tom Hodgins, now a resident of Gem and for two years the crack 145-pound wrestler of the Spokane Athletic club, announces that he has turned professional and is ready to meet all comers. He is in correspondence with parties at Colfax, Wash., who seem anxious to arrange a bout to take place in the near future.

MURDERER DISCOVERED THROUGH DOG'S BITE

Morelia, Mexico, Feb. 8.—Jesus Lopez's sin found him out because a mad dog bit him. Lopez killed a man in January, 1903, and fled. He returned a short time ago and lived quietly unrecognized. Then a mad dog bit him. He was sent to Mexico City for the Pasteur treatment and there he was recognized as the much-wanted murderer, arrested and sent back to Morelia for trial. Lopez committed murder for 37 cents. A man named Jesus Juarez owed that amount and failed to pay. They quarreled. Lopez slipped up on Juarez while the latter was bathing in a creek, overpowered him and hanged him to a tree. The noose came out and when Lopez returned three days later his victim was still alive. Then Lopez finished the job by shooting Juarez 40 times.

BETTER PROTECTION IS URGED

COMMISSION RECOMMENDS IMPROVEMENT IN LAWS REGULATING MARINE TRAFFIC.

Washington, Feb. 8.—President Roosevelt today sent to the senate the report of a commission appointed by him to make an examination of the laws enacted for the better security of life at sea with a view to their better adaptation to the present needs. The report recommends a systematic rearrangement and codification of existing laws, together with such changes as experience and present-day conditions seem to require.

The commission is composed of Rear Admiral Marx of the navy, Charles A. Earl, solicitor of the department of commerce and labor; George Uhler, supervising inspector general of the steamboat inspection system, and Commander W. S. Smith of the navy. It is proposed by the commission to reorganize the marine inspection service so as to include all types of vessels and to rearrange salaries in order to get a better class of men. All steam and motor vessels carrying passengers for hire, steam and motor vessels of more than 35 feet between perpendiculars, are included among the vessels that require inspection by this service. All sailing vessels of 300 gross tons are to be inspected and such sailing vessels of 50 gross tons or over which carry passengers for hire are to be included.

FOREIGNERS ALARMED.

Pekin, Feb. 8.—Foreign residents at Harbin are alarmed at the activity shown there by Russia during the past fortnight in installing a municipal administration, hitherto held in abeyance, and an overhauling Chinese authority collecting heavy taxes and exercising severe police measures. It is further reported that the Russian authorities are ignoring the treaty rights of other nations and that the viceroy already at Mukden is considerably excited over the situation.

OPPOSES COLLECTION OF ASSESSED FINE

San Francisco, Feb. 8.—Contesting the attitude of the defense that a fine imposed against a man should not be enforced against his estate if he should die before collection were made, government attorneys appeared before the United States circuit court of appeals today to argue the appeal filed by the government against David M. Dunne, administrator of the estate of John H. Mitchell, formerly United States senator from Oregon, who was convicted of land frauds and sentenced to pay a fine. The circuit court of Oregon held that the object of the fine had been removed by the death of Mitchell and the government appealed the case.

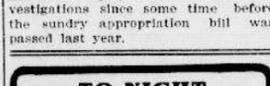

BONAPARTE APPEARS BEFORE COMMITTEE

Washington, Feb. 8.—Attorney General Bonaparte was before the subcommittee of the committee on appropriations nearly all day giving information regarding items his department wants included in the sundry civil appropriation bill. Most of the time was devoted to consideration of the department's secret service work.

The attorney general declared that not a single agent of the department had been employed on land fraud investigations since some time before the sundry appropriation bill was passed last year.
